terest in the disposition of such part of the income may be applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in section 47–1505 (a) (10); relating to the so-called "charitable contribution" deduction); then such part of the income of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(g) Definition of "in discretion of grantor."—As used in this section, the term "in the discretion of the grantor" means "in the discretion of the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of the part of the income in question."

(h) Income from intangible personal property held by trust.—Income from intangible personal property held by any trust company or by any national bank situated in the District (with or without an individual trustee, resident or nonresident) in trust to pay the income for the time being to, or to accumulate or apply such income for the benefit of any nonresident of the District, shall not be taxable hereunder if—

(1) such beneficial owner or cestui que trust was at the time of the creation of the trust a nonresident of the District; and

(2) the testator, settlor, or grantor was also at the time of the creation of the trust a nonresident of the District.

(i) Credits against net income.—There shall be allowed to an estate the same personal exemption as is allowed to a single person under section 47–1509 (a), and a trust shall be allowed a credit of $100 against net income. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1097, ch. 367, title II, § 24; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 44, ch. 33, § 1 (i).)

AMENDMENT

1942—Subsec. (i) added by act Feb. 2, 1942.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Feb. 2, 1942 applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1525. Partnerships.

(a) Partners only taxable.—Individuals carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for income tax only in their individual capacity, and no income tax shall be assessable hereunder upon the net income of any partnership. All such income shall be assessable to the individual partners; it shall be reported by such partners as individuals upon their respective individual income returns; and it shall be taxed to them as individuals along with their other income at the rate and in the manner herein provided for the taxation of income received by individuals. There shall be included in computing the net income of each partner his distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the partnership for the taxable year; or if his net income for such taxable year is computed upon the basis of a period different from that upon the basis of which the net income of the partnership is computed, then his distributive share of the net income of the partnership for any accounting period of the partnership ending within the taxable year upon the basis of which the partner's net income is computed.

(b) Partnership return.—Every partnership shall make a return for each taxable year stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions allowed by this subchapter, and shall include in the return the names and the addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed, and the amount of the distributive share of each individual. The return shall be sworn to by any one of the partners. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1099, ch. 367, title II, § 25.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1526. Time of payment of tax—Extension—Advance payments—Fractional part of cent—Collector.

(a) Time of payment.—One-half of the total amount of the tax imposed by this subchapter shall be paid on the 15th day of April following the close of the calendar year and the remaining one-half of the tax shall be paid on the 15th day of October following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then one-half of the total amount of the tax imposed by this subchapter shall be paid on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year and the remaining one-half of said tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the tenth month following the close of the fiscal year, except a fiscal year which expired in the calendar year 1939 prior to the approval of this subchapter, in which event the tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the third month following the approval of this subchapter.

(b) Extension of time for payments.—At the request of the taxpayer the assessor may extend the time for payment by the taxpayer of the amount determined as the tax for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof: Provided, however, That where the time for filing a return is extended for a period exceeding six months under the provisions of section 47–1519, the assessor may extend the time for payment of the tax, or the first installment thereof, to the same date to which he has extended the time for filing the return. In such case the amount in respect to which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(c) Voluntary advance payment.—A tax imposed by this chapter, or any installment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(d) Fractional part of cent.—In the payment of any tax under this subchapter a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

(e) Payment to collector and receipts.—The tax provided under this subchapter shall be collected by the collector and the revenues derived therefrom shall be turned over to the treasury of the United States for the credit to the District in the same manner as other revenues are turned over to the United States treasury for the credit to the District. The collector shall, upon written request, give to the person making payment of any income tax a full written or printed receipt therefor. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1099, ch. 367, title II, § 26; Mar. 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 39, ch. 37, § 2; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 44, ch. 33, § 1 (j).)

AMENDMENTS

1942—Subsec. (b) amended by act Feb. 2, 1942, which inserted the proviso.

1940—Subsec. (a) amended generally by act Mar. 2, 1940. Prior to such amendment, subsection read as follows: "The total amount of tax imposed by this title shall be paid on the 15th day of March following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year, except a fiscal year which expired in the calendar year 1939 prior to the approval of this Act, in which event the tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the third month following the approval of this Act."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Feb. 2, 1942, applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1527. Tax a personal debt.

Every tax imposed by this subchapter, and all increases, interest, and penalties thereof, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a personal debt, from the person or persons liable to pay the same to the District, and shall be entitled to the same priority as other District taxes, and the taxes levied hereunder and the interest and penalties thereon shall be collected by the collector of taxes in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1100, ch. 367, title II, § 27.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1528. Information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Commissioners relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed by this subchapter. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1100, ch. 367, title II, § 28.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150–29, eff. July 9, 1953.

§ 47–1529. Assessor to administer.

(a) Duties of assessor.—The assessor is hereby required to administer the provisions of this subchapter. The assessor shall prescribe forms identical with those utilized by the Federal Government, except to the extent required by differences between this subchapter and its application and Federal Act and its application. He shall apply as far as practicable the administrative and judicial interpretations of the Federal income tax law so that computations of income for purposes of this subchapter shall be, as nearly as practicable, identical with the calculations required for Federal income tax purposes. As soon as practicable after the return is filed the assessor shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax.

(b) Statements and special returns.—Every taxpayer liable to any tax imposed by this subchapter shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Commissioners from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the assessor judges it necessary he may require any taxpayer, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as he deems sufficient to show whether or not such taxpayer is liable to tax under this subchapter and the extent of such liability.

(c) Examination of books and witnesses.—The assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed hereunder, or for the purpose of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayer, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the assessor shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then, and in that event, the assessor may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to such summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court for the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia.

(d) Return by assessor.—If any person fails to make and file a return at the time prescribed by law or by regulations made under authority of law, or makes, wilfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the assessor shall make the return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. Any return so made and subscribed by the assessor shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1100, ch. 367, title II, § 29; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b), as amended May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127, redesignated the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia as the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

Act July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1, changed the name of the municipal court for the District of Columbia to the "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions". Provisions identical with those of such act July 8, 1963, § 1, were contained in act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1. Prior thereto, "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction

The provision of this section that the assessor shall apply as far as practicable the administrative and judicial interpretations of the federal income tax law so that computations of income for purposes of this subchapter should be as nearly as practicable identical with the calculations required for federal income tax purposes would apply only to those parts of the federal law which were like parts of this subchapter. Eastman Kodak Co. v. District of Columbia (1943, 131 F. 2d 347, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 339).

Exhausting administrative remedy

Under statute imposing a District franchise tax upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and regulations authorizing the assessor to relieve a taxpayer if the apportionment formula results in an inequitable tax, where taxpayer failed to show that it had exhausted the administrative remedy, taxpayer was not entitled to ask the court to hold that District assessments were invalid and erroneous because of improper apportionment formula. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Interpretations under federal law

The local statute requires that the District assessor apply as far as possible the administrative and judicial interpretations of the federal income tax law, so that computations of income shall be, as nearly as possible, identical with the calculations required for federal income tax purposes. The District Board of Tax Appeals should first ascertain what the federal disposition of the basic question in this case was and then determine what effect should be given that determination in the specific matter of local taxes. Seaboard Realty v. District of Columbia (1950, 184 F. 2d 269, 87 U.S. App. D. C., 258).

The provision in this section that the assessor shall apply as far as practicable the administrative and judicial interpretations of the federal income tax law so that computations of income for purposes of this subchapter should be as nearly as practicable identical with the calculations required for federal income tax purposes did not apply to computation of income tax of corporation where no identical calculations would result and where Congress had omitted from this subchapter provisions which it had placed in the federal income tax law. Eastman Kodak Co. v. District of Columbia (1943, 131 F. 2d 347, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 339).

Regulations

Regulation of the District commissioners relying on sales as the determinative factor in apportioning franchise tax on corporation of part of net income of the taxpayer's business which was carried on partly within and partly without the District was not invalid as inherently arbitrary and unreasonable, or if not inherently unreasonable as invalid as applied to the taxpayer on the ground that it unreasonably apportioned to the District income which properly had no relation to the privilege of doing business in the District, where there was no showing that the formula used resulted in attributing to the taxpayer's privilege of doing business in the District a greater value than it actually had. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

§ 47–1530. Definition of "deficiency."

Definition of "deficiency."—As used in this subchapter in respect of a tax imposed by this subchapter "deficiency" means—

(1) the amount by which the tax imposed by this subchapter exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) if no amount is shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return, or if no return is made by the taxpayer, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax.

(July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1101, ch. 367, title II, § 30.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1531. Determination and assessment of deficiency—Protest—Appeal.

If a deficiency in tax is determined by the assessor, the taxpayer shall be notified thereof and given a period of not less than thirty days, after such notice is sent by registered mail, in which to file a protest and show cause or reason why the deficiency should not be paid. Opportunity for hearing shall be granted by the assessor, and a final decision thereon shall be made as quickly as practicable. Any deficiency in tax then determined to be due shall be assessed and paid, together with any addition to the tax applicable thereto, within ten days after notice and demand by the collector. The taxpayer may appeal from such assessment to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404, 47–2407 to 47–2412. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1101, ch. 367, title II, § 31.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–1532. Jeopardy assessment—Bond to stay collection.

(a) Authority for making.—If the assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this subchapter will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful.

(b) Bond to stay collection.—The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount, the collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for this section such amount would be due. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1102, ch. 367, title II, § 32.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1533. Period of limitation upon assessment and collection—Waiver—Collection after assessment.

(a) General rule.—Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section—

(1) The amount of income taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be assessed within two years after the return is filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(2) In the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, or by his estate during the period of administration, or by a corporation, the tax shall be assessed, and any proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such tax shall be begun, within twelve months after written request therefor (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, or by the corporation, but not after the expiration of two years after the return is filed. This subparagraph shall not apply in the case of a corporation unless—

(A) such written request notifies the assessor that the corporation contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(B) the dissolution is in good faith begun before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(C) the dissolution is completed.

(3) If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 25 per centum of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time within five years after the return was filed.

(4) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3), a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(b) False return.—In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(c) Waiver.—Where before the expiration of the time prescribed in paragraph (a) for the assessment of the tax, both the assessor and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

(d) Collection after assessment.—Where the assessment of any income tax imposed by this subchapter has been made within the period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, but only if begun (A) within three years after the assessment of the tax or (B) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the assessor and the taxpayer before the expiration of such three-year period. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1102, ch. 367, title II, § 33.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1534. Refunds.

Except as otherwise provided in section 47–1531, where there has been an overpayment of any tax imposed by this subchapter, the amount of such overpayment shall be refunded to the taxpayer. No such refund shall be allowed after two years from the time the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The amount of the refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the two years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or, if no claim was filed, then during the two years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund. Every claim for refund must be in writing, under oath; must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, and must be filed with the assessor. If the assessor disallows any part of a claim for refund, he shall send to the taxpayer by registered mail a notice of the part of the claim so disallowed. Within ninety days after the mailing of such notice, the taxpayer may file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404, 47–2407 to 47–2412.

The remedy provided to the taxpayer under this section shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law; but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of such tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal in accordance with this section. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1103, ch. 367, title II, § 34.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–1535. Closing agreements.

The assessor is authorized to enter into an agreement with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any income tax for any period ending prior to the date of the agreement. If such agreement is approved by the Commissioners within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive and except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified; and in any suit or proceeding relating to the tax liability of the taxpayer such agreement shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1103, ch. 367, title II, § 35.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1536. Compromises—Concealment of assets—Penalties.

(a) Authority to make.—Whenever in the opinion of the commissioners there shall arise with respect of any tax imposed under this subchapter any doubt as to the liability of the taxpayer or the collectibility of the tax for any reason whatsoever the commissioners may compromise such tax.

(b) Concealment of assets.—Any person who, in connection with any compromise under this section or offer of such compromise or in connection with any closing agreement under this subchapter or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully (1) conceals from any officer or employee of the District of Columbia any property belonging to the estate of the taxpayer or other person liable with respect of the tax, or (2) receives, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record or makes under oath any false statement relating to the estate or the financial condition of the taxpayer or to the person liable in respect of the tax, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

(c) Of penalties.—The commissioners shall have the power for cause shown to compromise any penalty arising under this subchapter. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1103, ch. 367, title II, § 36.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1537. Failure to file return.

In case of any failure to make and file a return required by this subchapter, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the commissioners in pursuance of law, 25 per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 37.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1538. Interest on deficiencies.

(a) Assessment and payment.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in instalments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first instalment) to the date the deficiency is assessed.

(b) If extension granted for payment of deficiency.—If the time for payment of any part of a deficiency is extended, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month for the period of the extension. If a part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in full, together with all penalties and interest due thereon, prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month shall be added and collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 38; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 44, ch. 33, § 1 (k); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 2 (d).)

AMENDMENTS

1952—Act July 10, 1952, decreased the interest rates from one per centum to one-half of one per centum.

1942—Subsec. (b) added by act Feb. 2, 1942.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 10, 1952, effective July 1, 1952, see section 8 of act July 10, 1952, set out as a note under § 47–1619.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Feb. 2, 1942, applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1539. Additions to the tax in case of deficiency—Penalty for fraud.

(a) Negligence.—If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

(b) Fraud.—If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, collected, and paid. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 39.)

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1540. Additions to the tax in case of nonpayment.

(a) Tax shown on return.—

(1) General rule.—Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this subchapter, or any instalment thereof, or any part of such amount or instalment, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) If extension granted.—Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any instalment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under section 47–1541 is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Deficiency.—Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under section 47–1538, or under section 47–1539, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in section 47–1537 is not paid in full within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(c) Fiduciaries.—For any period an estate is held by a fiduciary appointed by order of any court of competent jurisdiction or by will, there shall be collected interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month in lieu of the interest provided in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this section. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1104, ch. 367, title II, § 40; July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 2 (d).)

AMENDMENT

1952—Act July 10, 1952, decreased the interest rates from one per centum to one-half of one per centum.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 10, 1952, effective July 10, 1952, see section 8 of act July 10, 1952, set out as a note under § 47–1619.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1541. Time extended for payment of tax shown on return.

If the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any instalment thereof, is extended under the authority of section 47–1526 (b), there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the expiration of the period of the extension. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1105, ch. 367, title II, § 41; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 44, ch. 33, § 1 (l); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 2 (d).)

AMENDMENTS

1952—Act July 10, 1952, decreased the interest rate from one per centum to one-half of one per centum.

1942—Act Feb. 2, 1942, substituted "section 47–1526(b)" for "section 47–1526(c)".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 10, 1952, effective July 1, 1952, see section 8 of act July 10, 1952, set out as a note under § 47–1619.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Feb. 2, 1942, applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1542. Penalties—"Person" defined.

(a) Negligence.—Any person required under this subchapter to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply information, who fails to pay such tax, to make such return, to keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, or who makes a false or fraudulent return, shall, upon conviction thereof (in addition to other penalties provided by law), be fined not more than $300 for each and every such failure or violation, and each and every day that such failure continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this subsection shall be brought in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions on information by the corporation counsel or one of his assistants in the name of the District.

(b) Wilful violation.—Any person required under this subchapter to pay or collect any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of this subchapter, who wilfully refuses to pay or collect such tax, to make such returns, to keep such records, or to supply such information, or who wilfully attempts in any manner to defeat or evade the tax imposed by this subchapter shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

(c) Definition of "person."—The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs. (July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1105, ch. 367, title II, § 42; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 44, ch. 33, § 1 (m); Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1942—Subsec. (a) amended by act Feb. 2, 1942, included the making of a false or fraudulent return, and substituted "to pay any tax" for "to pay or collect any tax."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Feb. 2, 1942, applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Attempts

The crime of willfully attempting to defeat and evade income taxes due to the District of Columbia was complete when attempt was complete. United States v. Rick (D.C. Mun. App. 1946, 48 A. 2d 614).

Information, charging that defendants knowingly and unlawfully attempted to defeat and evade a large part of income taxes due and owing by them to the District of Columbia by false and fraudulent income tax returns and by concealing and attempting to conceal from the taxing authorities the true gross income and net taxable income received by defendants, charged an offense under subsection (b) of this section providing that anyone who willfully refuses to pay income taxes shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not more than $10,000, and not under subsection (a) of this section providing that one who negligently fails to pay income tax shall be fined not more than $300. Id.

False or fradulent returns

"Fraudulent" in subsection (a) of this section includes an intent and involves a subject-matter of which some one is to be deprived and there is no real difference between a "fraudulent return" and a "willful attempt to evade a tax." Rick v. United States (1947, 161 F. 2d 897, 82 U.S. App. D.C. 101).

A "false return" in subsection (a) of this section may be merely incorrect due to negligence or some other cause lacking intent, or not involving a tax, and is not necessarily willful or an intent to evade a tax. Id.

Penalty

Subsection (b) of this section imposing a penalty of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both for willfully attempting to defeat or evade income tax, clearly states both the offense and the maximum penalty, and the maximum is all that any one need know concerning the penalty for violation of a law. Rick v. United States (1947, 161 F. 2d 897, 82 U.S. App. D.C. 101).

Prosecution

One who willfully attempts to evade District of Columbia income tax by filing false and fraudulent return is subject to prosecution by the United States Attorney and not by the Corporation Counsel. Rick v. United States (1947, 161 F. 2d 897, 82 U.S. App. D.C. 101).

§ 47–1543. Definitions.

For the purpose of this subchapter and unless otherwise required by the context—

(1) The word "person" means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation.

(2) The word "taxpayer" means any person subject to a tax imposed by this subchapter.

(3) The word "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint adventure, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this subchapter, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the word "partner" includes a member in such a syndicate, group, pool, joint adventure, or organization.

(4) The word "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

(5) The word "domestic" when applied to a corporation other than an association, means created under the law of United States applicable to the District of Columbia; and when applied to an association or partnership means having the principal office or place of business within the District of Columbia.

(6) The word "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

(7) The word "fiduciary" means a guardian, trutstee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(8) The word "individual" means all natural persons, whether married or unmarried; and also all trusts, estates, and fiduciaries acting for other persons; it does not include corporations or partnerships acting for or in their own behalf.

(9) The words "taxable year" means the calendar year or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this subchapter. The term "taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this subchapter, the period for which such return is made.

(10) The words "fiscal year" mean an accounting period of twelve months and ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(11) The words "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this subchapter.

(12) The words "trade or business" include the engaging in or carrying on of any trade, business, profession, vocation or calling, or commercial activity in the District of Columbia; and include the performance of the functions of a public office.

(13) The word "stock" includes a share in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(14) The word "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(15) The words "United States" when used in a geographical sense include only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(16) The word "dividend" means any distribution made by a corporation out of its earnings or profits to its stockholders or members whether such distribution be made in cash, or any other property, other than stock of the same class in the corporation. It includes such portion of the assets of a corporation distributed at the time of of dissolution as are in effect a distribution of earnings.

(17) The word "include," when used in a definition contained in this subchapter, shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

(18) The word "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

(19) The word "District" means the District of Columbia.

(20) The word "assessor" means the assessor of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(21) The word "collector" means the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia.

(July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1106, ch. 367, title II, § 43; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 45, ch. 33, § 1 (n).)

AMENDMENT

1942—Act Feb. 2, 1942, included authorized representatives within par. (20).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Feb. 2, 1942, applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1544. Information returns.

Every person subject to the jurisdiction of the District in whatever capacity, acting, including receivers or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, partnerships, and employers making payment of dividends, interest, rent, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other income to foreign corporations, shall render such returns thereof to the assessor as may be prescribed by rules and regulations of the Commissioners. (July 26, 1939, ch. 367, title II, § 44, as added Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 45, ch. 33, § 1 (o).)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1545. Withholding of tax at source.

Whenever the Commissioners shall deem it necessary, in order to satisfy the District's claim for income tax payable by any foreign corporation, they may, by rules and regulations, require any person subject to the jurisdiction of the District to withhold and pay to the collector of taxes an amount not in excess of 5 per centum of all income payable by such person to a foreign corporation. After such foreign corporation shall have filed all returns required under this subchapter, and the same shall have been audited, the collector of taxes shall refund any overpayment to the taxpayer. (July 26, 1939, ch. 367, title II, § 45, as added Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 45, ch. 33, § 1 (p).)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

§ 47–1546. Licenses — Corporations liable—Duration—Posting — Revocation — Renewal — Penalties — "Business" defined.

(a) Every corporation (except those expressly exempt from the tax imposed by this subchapter) engaging in or carrying on any business, or receiving income from District of Columbia sources, shall obtain a license so to do on or before the 1st day of January of each year: Provided, That such license for the calendar year 1942 may be obtained within sixty days after February 2, 1942. Applications for licenses shall be upon forms prescribed and furnished by the Commissioners, and each application shall be accompanied by a fee of $10.

(b) All licenses issued under this section shall be in effect for the duration of the calendar year in which issued, unless revoked as herein provided, and shall expire at midnight of the 31st day of December of each year. No license may be transferred to any other corporation.

(c) All licenses granted under this section to corporations having an office or place of business in the District must be conspicuously posted in the office or on the premises of the licensee, and said license shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the police or other officers duly authorized to make such inspection.

(d) Every corporation not having an office or place of business in the District but which receives income from District sources or engages in or carries on any business in the District by or through an employee or agent shall procure the license provided by this subchapter. Every employee or agent of any such corporation shall carry either the license or a certificate from the assessor that the license has been obtained, which license or certificate shall be exhibited to the police or other officers duly authorized to inspect the same. Such certificate shall be in such form as the assessor shall determine, and shall be furnished, without charge, by the assessor, upon request. No employee or agent of a corporation not having an office or place of business within the District shall engage in or carry on any business in the District for or on behalf of such corporation unless such corporation shall have first obtained a license, as provided by this section.

(e) The Commissioners may, after hearing, revoke any license issued hereunder for failure of the licensee to file a return or corrected return within the time required by this subchapter, or to pay any installment of tax when due thereunder.

(f) Licenses shall be renewed for the ensuing calendar year upon application as provided in subsection (a) of this section. No license shall be renewed if the taxpayer has failed or refused to pay any tax or installment thereof, or penalties thereon, imposed by this subchapter: Provided, however, That the Commissioners, in their discretion, for cause shown, may, on such terms or conditions as they may determine or prescribe, waive the provisions of this subsection.

(g) Any corporation receiving income from District sources or engaging in or carrying on any business in the District without first having obtained a license so to do, and any person engaging in or carrying on any business for or receiving income from District sources on behalf of a corporation not having a license so to do, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure, refusal, or violation, and each and every day that such failure, refusal, or violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this subsection shall be brought in the Municipal Court for the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel or any of his assistants in the name of the District: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to mere collection by an agent of income of a corporation not having the license required hereby.

(h) The term "business", as used in this section, shall include the carrying on or exercising for gain or economic benefit, either direct or indirect, any trade, business, or commercial activity in the District: Provided, however, That such term shall not include the procurement of orders for the sale of personal property by means of telephonic communication, written correspondence, or solicitation by salesmen in the District where such orders require acceptance without the District before becoming binding on the purchaser and seller and title to such property passes from the seller to the purchaser without the District; nor the mere submission of bids or the mere acceptance of contracts for the sale of personal property to the United States. (July 26, 1939, ch. 367, title II, § 46, as added Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 45, ch. 33, § 1 (q), and amended Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; June 22, 1942, 56 Stat. 376, ch. 433, §§ 2, 3.)

AMENDMENT

1942—Subsec. (g) amended by act June 22, 1942, § 2, which added the proviso.

Subsec. (h) amended by act June 22, 1942, § 3, which added the proviso.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1942 AMENDMENT

Section 4(b) of act June 22, 1942, provided that: "The amendments made by sections 2 and 3 of this Act [to this section] shall be effective as of January 1, 1942."

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, except that the provisions of this section requiring licenses for corporations shall be effective January 1, 1942, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1, changed the name of the municipal court for the District of Columbia to the "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions". Provisions identical with those of such Act July 8, 1963, § 1, were contained in Act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1. Prior thereto, "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

§ 47–1547. Compensation for services rendered for a period of five years or more.

In the case of compensation (a) received for personal services rendered by an individual in his individual capacity, or as a member of a partnership, and covering a period of five calendar years or more from the beginning to the completion of such services, (b) paid (or not less than 95 per centum of which is paid) only on completion of such services, and (c) required to be included in gross income of such individual for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, the tax attributable to such compensation shall not be greater than the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such compensation had it been received in equal portions in each of the years included in such period. (July 26, 1939, ch. 367, title II, § 47, as added Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 46, ch. 33, § 1 (r).)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section applicable to the taxable year 1941, and succeeding taxable years, see section 2 of act Feb. 2, 1942, set out as a note under § 47–1502.

REPEAL

Section repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after January 1, 1947, see note preceding § 47–1501.

SUBCHAPTER II.—INCOME AND FRANCHISE TAXES FOR TAXABLE YEARS AFTER JANUARY 1, 1947

TITLE I.—REPEAL OF PRIOR INCOME TAX LAW AND APPLICABILITY OF SUBCHAPTER; GENERAL DEFINITIONS

§ 47–1551. Repeal of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547 and retention of certain provisions thereof.

Sections 47–1501 to 47–1547 are hereby repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after the 1st day of January 1947 for all purposes, except the following purposes in connection with taxes due or accrued under said sections:

(a) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with any provisions of such sections and the regulations prescribed thereunder;

(b) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such sections;

(c) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses;

(d) For the assessment and collection of the taxes imposed by such sections and the filing of liens therefor; and

(e) For the allowance of refunds of overpayments of any taxes assessed under the provisions of such sections. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 331, ch. 258, Art. I, title I, § 1.)

SHORT TITLE

The opening paragraph of act July 16, 1947, provided that: "This Act [adding this subchapter and sections 43–1511a, 43–1520a and 47–1901b, amending sections 40–201, 40–203 and 40–204, repealing subchapter I of this chapter and section 47–1901a, and enacting provisions set out as notes under sections 40–201 and 47–501], divided into articles, may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1947', and that article I of this Act [this subchapter] may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947.'"

SEPARABILITY OF PROVISIONS

Article VII of act July 16, 1947, provided that: "If any provision of this Act [adding this subchapter and sections 43–1511a, 43–1520a and 47–1901b, amending sections 40–201, 40–203 and 40–204, repealing subchapter I of this chapter and section 47–1901a, and enacting provisions set out as notes under sections 40–201 and 47–501] or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to the other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

§ 47–1551a. Applicability of subchapter.

The provisions of this subchapter shall apply to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on the 1st day of January 1947 and to succeeding taxable years. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 331, ch. 258, Art. I, title I, § 2.)

§ 47–1551b. Returns under sections 47–1501 to 47–1547 and returns for first taxable year to which this subchapter is applicable.

If the taxable year of any person ends on the last day of any month other than December prior to the 1st day of January 1947, such person shall file his return for such taxable year under the provisions of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547, and pay the taxes imposed by said sections on his income for such taxable year at the times specified therefor in said sections. Such taxpayer shall also file his return of income, received or accrued, according to his method of accounting, during the period between the last day of such taxable year and the 1st day of January 1947 under the provisions of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547, and pay the taxes imposed by said sections on his income for such period at the times specified therefor in said sections. Such portion of such person's income as is received or accrued, according to his method of accounting, during taxable years or parts thereof to which this subchapter is applicable shall be reported and taxed under the provisions of this subchapter: Provided, however, That any person whose taxable year ends subsequent to the 1st day of January 1947 may irrevocably elect to file his return of his income for such entire taxable year and pay the taxes imposed thereon under the provisions of this subchapter. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 331, ch. 258, Art. I, title I, § 3.)

§ 47–1551c. General definitions.

For the purposes of this subchapter and wherever appearing herein, unless otherwise required by the context—

(a) The word "District" means the District of Columbia.

(b) The word "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

(c) The word "Assessor" means the Assessor of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(d) The word "Collector" means the Collector of Taxes of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(e) The word "person" means an individual (other than a fiduciary), a fiduciary, a partnership (other than an unincorporated business), an association, an unincorporated business, and a corporation.

(f) The word "individual" means all natural persons (other than fiduciaries), whether married or unmarried.

(g) The word "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, committee, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any other person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(h) The words "trade or business" include the engaging in or carrying on of any trade, business, profession, vocation or calling or commercial activity in the District of Columbia; and include the performance of the functions of a public office: Provided, however, That the words "trade or business" shall not include, for the purposes of this subchapter—

(1) Sales of tangible personal property whereby title to such property passes within or without the District, by a corporation or unincorporated business which does not physically have or maintain an office, warehouse, or other place of business in the District, and which has no officer, agent, or representative having an office or other place of business in the District, during the taxable year; or

(2) Sales of tangible personal property by a corporation or unincorporated business which—

(A) has or maintains an office, warehouse, or other place of business in the District, or

(B) has an officer, agent, or representative having an office or other place of business in the District, during the taxable year for the sole purpose of dealing with the United States for commercial or noncommercial purposes or of dealing with the District or persons for noncommercial purposes; but each such corporation and unincorporated business which does business in the District with the United States shall be subject to the licensing provisions in title XIV of this subchapter.

For purposes of this proviso, the words "agent" or "representative" shall not include any independent broker engaged independently in regularly soliciting orders in the District for sellers and who holds himself out as such.

(i) The word "taxpayer" means any person required by this subchapter to pay a tax, file a return or report, or apply for a license.

(j) The words "fiscal year" mean an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(k) The words "taxable year" mean the calendar year or the fiscal year, upon the basis of which the net income of the taxpayer is computed under this subchapter; if no fiscal year has been established by the taxpayer, they mean the calendar year. The phrase "taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a calendar or fiscal year under the provisions of this subchapter or under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, the period for which such return is made: Provided, however, That no taxpayer may change from a calendar year to a fiscal year or from a fiscal year to a calendar year within any taxable year without the written permission of the Assessor.

(l) The words "capital assets" mean any property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, held by the taxpayer for more than two years (whether or not connected with his trade or business), but do not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the end of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(m) The word "dividend" means any distribution made by a corporation (domestic or foreign) to its stockholders or members, out of its earnings, profits, or surplus (other than paid-in surplus), whenever earned by the corporation and whether made in cash or any other property (other than stock of the same class in the corporation if the recipient of such stock dividend has neither received nor exercised an option to receive such dividend in cash or in property other than stock instead of stock) and whether distributed prior to, during, upon, or after liquidation or dissolution of the corporation: Provided, however, That in the case of any dividend which is distributed other than in cash or stock in the same class in the corporation and not exempted from tax under this subchapter, the basis of tax to the recipient thereof shall be the market value of such property at the time of such distribution: And provided, however, That the word "dividend" shall not include any dividend paid by a mutual life insurance company to its shareholders.

(n) The word "stock" includes a share in any association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(o) The word "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(p) The words "include", "includes", or "including", when used in a definition contained in this subchapter, shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the word or words defined.

(q) The word "deficiency" as used in this subchapter with respect to any tax imposed by this subchapter means—

(1) the amount or amounts by which the tax imposed by this subchapter as determined by the Assessor exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return; or

(2) the amount assessed as a tax by the Assessor if no return is filed by the taxpayer.

(r) The word "corporation" includes any trust, association, joint-stock company, or partnership which is classed or should be classed as a corporation for purposes of Federal income taxation.

(s) The word "resident" means every individual domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year, and every other individual who maintains a place of abode within the District for more than seven months of the taxable year, whether domiciled in the District or not. The word "resident" shall not include any elective officer of the Government of the United States or any employee on the staff of an elected officer in the legislative branch of the Government of the United States if such employee is a bona fide resident of the State of residence of such elected officer, or any officer of the executive branch of such Government whose appointment to the office held by him was by the President of the United States and subject to confirmation by the Senate of the United States and whose tenure of office is at the pleasure of the President of the United States, unless such officers are domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year.

(t) The word "nonresident" means every individual other than a resident.

(u) The term "dependent" means any of the following persons over half of whose support, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, was received from the taxpayer, and whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500.

(1) A son or daughter of the taxpayer, or a descendant of either.

(2) A stepson or stepdaughter of the taxpayer.

(3) A brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister of the taxpayer.

(4) The father or mother of the taxpayer, or an ancestor of either.

(5) A stepfather or stepmother of the taxpayer.

(6) A son or daughter of a brother or sister of the taxpayer.

(7) A brother or sister of the father or mother of the taxpayer.

(8) A son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the taxpayer.

(9) Repealed. Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 68, ch. 154, § 2(b).

The terms "brother" and "sister" include a brother or sister of the half-blood. For the purposes of determining whether any of the foregoing relationships exist, a legally adopted child of a person shall be considered a child of such person by blood. The term "dependent" does not include any individual who is a citizen or subject of a foreign country unless such individual is a resident of the United States or of a country contiguous to the United States.

(v) The term "head of a family" means an individual who maintains in one household one or more dependents as defined in paragraph (u) of this section. The personal exemption for dependents shall be allowed to the head of a family for dependents in excess of one dependent.

(w) The term "wages" means wages as defined in section 3401 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(x) The term "payroll period" means payroll period as defined in section 3401 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(y) The term "employer" means employer as defined in section 3401 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(z) The term "employee" shall apply only to individuals having a place of abode or residing or domiciled within the District at a time a tax is required to be withheld by an employer, and to every other individual who maintained a place of abode within the District for more than seven months of the taxable year, whether domiciled in the District or not. The term "employee" shall include an officer of a corporation, but shall not include any elective officer of the Government of the United States or any officer or employee in the legislative branch of the Government of the United States whose compensation is paid by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, or any officer of the executive branch of such Government whose appointment to the office held by him was by the President of the United States and subject to confirmation by the Senate of the United States and whose tenure of office is at the pleasure of the President of the United States, unless such officer of the executive branch is domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year.

(aa) Notwithstanding subsection (m) of this section, any distribution in liquidation of a regulated public utility (as defined in section 7701(a)(33)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) which, for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, is treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock in such utility, shall, if for purposes of this article the stock is a capital asset, be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 332, Art I, title I, § 4; May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 206, ch. 246, § 1; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 129, ch. 146, title IV, §§ 401, 402; March 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 68, ch. 154, § 2; Sept. 19, 1966, 80 Stat. 809, Pub. L. 89–585, § 1; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 858, Pub. L. 89–610, title VII, § 703.)

The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, referred to in subsec. (aa), is classified to 26 U.S.C., and § 7701(a)(33)(A)(iii) thereof, referred to therein, is classified to 26 U.S.C. § 7701(a)(33)(A)(iii).

AMENDMENTS

1966—Subsection (aa) added by act Sept. 30, 1966.

Subsection (h)(2) amended by act Sept. 19, 1966, to clarify, in the case of a corporation or unincorporated business making sales of personal property and maintaining a place of business or officer, agent or representative in the District, the activities which such corporation or unincorporated business may carry on in the District without such activities constituting a "trade or business" as those words are defined in subsec. (h). Prior to such amendment, said subsec. (h) read as follows:

"(2) Sales of tangible personal property by a corporation or unincorporated business which does not maintain an office or other place of business in the District and which has no office, agent, or representative in the District except for the sole purpose of doing business with the United States, but such corporations and unincorporated businesses shall be subject to the licensing provisions in title XIV of this subchapter."

1956—Subsec. (u) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 2(a), (b), which inserted words ", and whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500" following "was received from the taxpayer", and repealed par. (9) which included the spouse of the taxpayer, if living with the taxpayer on the last day of the taxable year, within the definition of "dependent."

Subsecs. (v)—(z) added by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 2(c).

1949—Subsec. (s) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 401, which excluded elected and appointive officers and employees on the staff of elected officers in the legislative branch from the definition of "resident" unless they are domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year, and eliminated provisions which required the filing of a declaration of domicile.

Subsec. (u) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 402, which added par. (9).

1948—Subsec. (h) amended by act May 3, 1948, which added the proviso.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF AMENDMENT BY ACT SEPT. 19, 1966

Section 2 of act Sept. 19, 1966, 80 Stat. 809, Pub. L. 89–585, provided: "The amendment [to subsec. (h)(2) of this section] made by the first section of this Act shall apply with respect to taxable years ending on or after the date of the enactment of this Act [Sept. 19, 1966.]".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, provided that: "Unless otherwise provided, the provisions of this title [amending this section and sections 47–1557b, 47–1564a, 47–1567a, 47–1567b, 47–1567d, 47–1586f, 47–1586g, 47–1586j, 47–1589, 47–1589a, 47–1589c, 47–1589d, 47–1591, 47–1591a, 47–1591b and 47–1591f] shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1955."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Section 421 of act May 27, 1949, provided that: "The provisions of sections 401, 402, 408, 411, 412, 413, and 414 of this title [amending this section and sections 47–1557b(a)(13), 47–1564a, 47–1567a and 47–1567b, and repealing section 47–1567c] shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after the 31st day of December 1949, and the provisions of all other sections [adding sections 47–1557a(b)(14), (c), and 47–1577d(d), (e), and amending sections 47–1557b(a)(1), (4), (8), (9), (15), 47–1561c, 47–1574c, 47–1577d, 47–1586i, 47–1586j and 47–1591] shall be applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1948 AMENDMENT

Section 5 of act May 3, 1948, provided that: "The amendments made by this Act [adding section 47–1557a(b)(13), amending this section and section 47-1580, and repealing section 47–1591c] shall apply to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on the 1st day of January 1948, and to succeeding taxable years."

SHORT TITLE

Section 1 of act Mar. 31, 1956, provided that: "This Act [adding section 47–1595a, amending this section and sections 25-124, 25–138, 47–1557b, 47–1564a, 47–1567a, 47–1567b, 47–1567d, 47–1586f, 47–1586g, 47–1586j, 47–1589, 47–1589a, 47–1589c, 47–1589d, 47–1591, 47–1591a, 47–1591b, 47–1591f, 47–2501b, 47–2601, 47–2605 and 47–2701, and enacting provisions set out as notes under this section and sections 25–124 and 47–2601] may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1956.'"

SEPARABILITY OF PROVISIONS

Section 602 of act Mar. 31, 1956, provided that: "If any provision of this Act [see Short Title note under this section] or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

RETROACTIVE EFFECT OF SUBSECTION (AA)

Section 703 of act Sept. 30, 1966, in amending this section by adding subsec. (aa), provided that such amendment should be effective with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1961.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003–1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

OFFICERS OR AGENCIES OF DISTRICT

Section 603 of act Mar. 31, 1956, provided that: "Wherever any officer or agency of the District, other than the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, is mentioned in this Act [see Short Title note under this section], such officer or agency shall be deemed to be the officer or agency so mentioned, or the officer, officers, agency or agencies succeeding to the functions of the officer or agency so mentioned, pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952 [set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration]."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Burden of proof

Income and franchise taxpayer bears burden of establishing his claim for refund so that ordinarily inadequacies in record will result in judgment in favor of District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. ACF Industries, Inc. (1965, 350 F. 2d 795, 122 U.S. App. D.C. 12).

Business or commercial activity

Petitioner who purchased second-trust notes at discount, investigated credit of makers and inspected security to ascertain that value justified loan, made his own collections, maintained records of payments and followed up delinquent debtors by telephone or letter, was not engaged in investment of funds in securities but was engaged in "business or commercial activity" within statute imposing tax upon income of unincorporated businesses for privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business. Stone v. District of Columbia (1952, 198 F. 2d 601, 91 U. S. App. D. C. 140).

Capital assets

For District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, good will can qualify as a capital asset if held for the required length of time. District of Columbia v. ACF Industries, Inc. (1965, 350 F. 2d 795, 122 U.S. App. D.C 12).

In determining in sale of business whether good will existed for required capital asset holding period to qualify for capital gain treatment for District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, it should be assumed, in absence of some significant event which would fix acquisition of good will at some time after commencement of business, that it came into being at time business established itself as a going concern. Id.

Under rule that in determining whether gain from sale of business is entitled to capital gains treatment in computing District of Columbia income and franchise tax the sale of entire business is treated as sale of an aggregate of individual assets, total purchase price must be apportioned among the assets of the business, each asset being assigned an amount related to reasonable market value at time of sale. Id.

In absence of countervailing policies, federal rule under which sale of entire business is treated as a sale of an aggregate of individual assets to be separately matched against definition of capital assets was applied to determine whether gain from sale of business was entitled to capital gains treatment in computing District of Columbia income and franchise tax. Id.

Congressional intent in relation to capital gains

Congress intended to give different treatment to taxpayers in District of Columbia than to those who might be liable to capital gains taxes under federal scheme. District of Columbia v. H. Goldman and Y. D. Goldman (1963, 328 F. 2d 520, 117 U.S. App. D.C. 219).

Dividends

Where corporation liquidates entirely, distribution from its earnings constitutes dividend for District of Columbia income tax purposes. B. W. Doyle v. District of Columbia (1966, 363 F. 2d 694, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 207).

Purported sale of corporate stock by taxpayer, who was majority stockholder of corporation, who had controlled operation of corporation, and who, in negotiating sale, dominated course of dealings prescribed by him, at rates apparently fixed by him, to end that he receive his share of corporation's capital and its previously undistributed earnings, constituted dividend, for income tax purposes, and not sale of capital assets so as to exclude gain from gross income. Id.

Where taxpayer paid $1,000,000 in cash for all stock of corporation which had $1,000,000 in miscellaneous assets and immediately liquidated the corporation and transferred all assets to himself under District of Columbia income tax statute defining dividends as any corporate distribution out of earnings, profits or surplus the $300,000 he received from accumulated earned surplus of corporation was taxable as a dividend, but as to the remaining $700,000 of assets taxpayer sustained a $300,000 non-capital loss which was fully deductible. C. A. Snow, et ano. v. District of Columbia (1965, 361 F. 2d 523, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 69).

District of Columbia income tax statute declaring that a distribution made by corporation out of corporate earnings is a dividend carries as a corollary its negative complement that such a distribution is not a payment in exchange for or in extinguishment of stock upon which it is declared, and it means that the stock remains in being. Id.

If a distribution made in liquidation of corporation were not of earnings and does not exceed cost to stockholder, thus representing to him merely return of his investment, it is not income. Id.

Distributions by a corporation from its earnings or from an increased value of its assets are gains to stockholder separated from the body of his investment by the act of distribution, while a distribution by corporation which is a return to stockholder of that which he had put into venture is not a gain but a return of what the stockholder already had and is not income. Id.

Where corporation sold all of its tangible assets, in return for which it received cash or its equivalent, and proceeds of the sale were reflected on corporation's books as earned surplus, when such funds were distributed in the course of corporation's liquidation the estate which managed the corporation received a taxable dividend. Estate of Migical John Uline v. District of Columbia (1966, 360 F. 2d 820, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 5).

Principle that unrealized appreciation in value of assets of corporation will not become a dividend when corporation, on dissolution, distributes those assets to its stockholders has no application to situation where corporation receives full value upon sale of its assets. Id.

Evidence that negotiation for sale of corporate assets was carried on by corporate officer, that corporation was not only nominal grantor but also legal owner until after transfer of property, and that proceeds from sale were distributed as corporation by its letter directed, supported Tax Court's determination that corporation realized gain on sale and proceeds were taxable to shareholders as dividends. N. Bord and A. R. Bord v. District of Columbia (1965, 344 F. 2d 560, 120 U.S. App. D.C. 175).

Under District of Columbia tax statute which in defining "dividends" reached distribution out of corporation's earnings, profits or surplus whenever earned by corporation, undistributed earnings in 1957 and 1958, utilized on corporate books to reduce accumulated deficit, retained character as earnings and became source of possible dividends in later year. District of Columbia v. H. Goldman and Y. D. Goldman (1963, 328 F. 2d 520, 117 U.S. App. D.C. 219).

Under statute defining "dividend" as any distribution made by corporation to stockholders out of earnings, profits or surplus whenever earned by corporation, unrealized appreciation in value of improved realty which was held by corporation for income and not for sale did not become a "dividend" when corporation distributed assets to stockholders upon dissolution. District of Columbia v. B. W. Oppenheimer (1962, 301 F. 2d 563, 112 U.S. App. D.C. 329).

Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation were properly includable in the stockholders' gross income as a dividend under this section providing that dividends include any distribution made by a corporation out of its earnings, profits or surplus whenever earned by the corporation and whether made in cash and whether distributed prior to, during, upon, or after liquidation or dissolution of the corporation. Berliner and Frank v. District of Columbia (1958, 258 F. 2d 651, 103 U.S. App. D.C. 351, certiorari denied 78 S. Ct. 1384, 357 U.S. 937, 2 L. Ed. 2d 1551).

The Fifth Amendment to the Constitution does not prohibit income taxation of dividends on amounts distributed in corporate liquidation to the extent that they represent corporate earnings on theory that such a tax taxes a stockholder on earnings of another entity, or on theory that it arbitrarily and capriciously provides a different treatment from that afforded stockholders who sell their stock to third persons. Id.

Engaging in business

Automobile manufacturer which under dealer selling agreements exercised large degree of control over daily business operations of dealers in District of Columbia and which through financial aid given exercised supervisory control over substantial part of business of dealers, was engaged in trade or business in District within District's code imposing franchise tax. District of Columbia v. General Motors Corp. (1964, 336 F. 885, 118 U.S. App. D.C. 381; reversed on other grounds 85 S. Ct. 1156).

Where oil company had offices and a warehouse in nearby Virginia, and company's salesmen sold motor fuel to dealers in District of Columbia, and company trucked the product to local stations in the District, and company stored tires, batteries, and other accessories at its plant in Maryland, neither the company nor its salesmen had office, warehouse or place of business in District and consequently under the statute the company was not subject to local corporate franchise tax on privilege of carrying on business and receiving income from sources within the District, notwithstanding that dealer with place of business in District was a wholesaler of such merchandise and that company used a telephone answering service in the District. District of Columbia v. Cities Service Oil Company (1958, 258 F. 2d 426, 103 U.S. App. D.C. 332).

Oil company would not be subjected to District of Columbia corporate franchise tax on theory that company by asserting, in application for motor fuel importer's license, its name and a district address in the blank space calling for name and address of its "resident general agent", was estopped to deny that it had a representative in the District. Id.

Where corporate officer in charge of District of Columbia office maintained by Ohio corporation reported to home office on pending legislation and Treasury Department regulations and received inquiries about sales of corporation's products in district, and salesmen from other offices of corporation solicited sales in district, and corporation shipped substantial quantities of goods to customers in district, corporation was engaged in commercial activity and was in business in district and had an office and officer in district and hence was subject to District of Columbia business privilege tax. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

Penalty where question has not been previously resolved

Where question raised by taxpayers' failure to report their proceeds on sale of corporate asset was substantial one under District of Columbia Code and no prior decision had completely resolved it, taxpayers should not have been penalized for originally taking position different from that ultimately adopted by Tax Court. N. Bord and A. R. Bord v. District of Columbia (1965, 344 F. 2d 560, 120 U.S. App. D.C. 175).

TITLE II.—EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

§ 47–1554. Exempt organizations.

The following organizations shall be exempt from taxation under this subchapter:

(a) Labor organizations.

(b) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations, (1) operating under the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself operating under the lodge system, and (2) providing for the payment of life, sick, or accident benefits to the members of such society, order, or association, or their dependents.

(c) Cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of their members and which are not operated for profit; and any corporation chartered solely for burial purposes as a cemetery corporation and not permitted by its charter to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder.

(d) Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, to a substantial extent within the District, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder, and no part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

(e) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, real-estate boards, or boards of trade, not organized or operated for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder.

(f) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or local associations of employees, the membership of which is limited to the employees of a designated person or persons in a particular municipality, and the net earnings of which are devoted principally to charitable, educational, or recreational purposes within the District.

(g) Banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, companies which guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, and companies which furnish abstracts of title or which insure titles to real estate, all of which pay taxes on their gross earnings, premiums, or gross receipts under existing laws of the District.

(h) Corporations organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to property, collecting income therefrom, and turning over the entire amount thereof, less expenses, to an organization which itself is exempt from the tax imposed by this subchapter.

(i) Corporations organized under Acts of Congress, if such corporations are instrumentalities of the United States and if, under such Acts, as amended and supplemented, such corporations are exempt from Federal income taxes.

(j) Voluntary employees' beneficiary associations providing for the payment of life, sick, or accident benefits to the members of such association or their dependents, if (1) no part of their net earnings inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder, and (2) 85 per centum or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of making such payments and meeting expenses.

(k) Voluntary employees' beneficiary associations providing for the payment of life, sick, or accident benefits to the members of such association or their dependents or their designated beneficiaries, if (1) admission to membership in such association is limited to individuals who are officers or employees of the United States Government or the Government of the District of Columbia, and (2) no part of the net earnings of such association inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 334, ch. 258, Art. I, title II.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

In general

A non-profit corporation which operated cafeterias in federal government buildings and recreation facilities in federal parks was not exempt from franchise, motor vehicle, and personal property taxes by the District of Columbia, even though none of the earnings of the corporation inured to the benefit of any individual. Government Services Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1951, 189 F. 2d 662, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 360, certiorari denied 72 S. Ct. 51, 342 U. S. 828, 96 L. Ed. 626).

TITLE III.—NET INCOME, GROSS INCOME AND EXCLUSIONS THEREFROM, AND DEDUCTIONS

§ 47–1557. Net income.

For the purposes of this subchapter and wherever appearing herein, unless otherwise required by the context, the words "net income" mean the gross income of a taxpayer less the deductions allowed by this subchapter. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 335, ch. 258, Art. I, title III, § 1.)

§ 47–1557a. Gross income and exclusions therefrom.

(a) The words "gross income" include gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal services of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, including salaries, wages, and compensation paid by the United States to its officers and employees to the extent the same is not exempt under this subchapter, or income derived from any trade or business or sales or dealings in property, whether real or personal, other than capital assets as defined in this subchapter, growing out of the ownership, or sale of, or interest in, such property; also from rent, royalties, interest, dividends, securities, or transactions of any trade or business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever.

(b) The words "gross income" shall not include the following:

(1) Proceeds of life-insurance policies.—The proceeds of life-insurance policies paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or otherwise (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income).

(2) Annuities, and so forth.—(A) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts and other than amounts received as annuities) under a life-insurance or endowment contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year), then the excess shall be included in gross income. Amounts received as an annuity under an annuity or endowment contract shall be included in gross income; except that there shall be excluded from gross income the excess of the amount received in the taxable year over an amount equal to 3 per centum of the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity (whether or not paid during such year), until the aggregate amount excluded from gross income under this title in respect to such annuity equals the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life-insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under subsection (1) or this subsection. This subsection and subsection (1) shall not apply with respect to so much of a payment under a life-insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, as, under section 47–1557b (a) (10), is includible in the gross income of the recipient.

(B) Employees' annuities.—If an annuity contract is purchased by an employer for an employee under a plan with respect to which the employer's contribution is deductible under subsection 47–1557b (a) (11), the employee shall include in his income the amounts received under such contract for the year received except that if the employee paid any of the consideration for the annuity, the annuity shall be included in his income as provided in subsection (b) (2) (A) of this section, the consideration for such annuity being considered the amount contributed by the employee. In all other cases, if the employee's rights under the contract are nonforfeitable except for failure to pay future premiums, the amount contributed by the employer for such annuity contract on and after such rights become nonforfeitable shall be included in the income of the employee in the year in which the amount is contributed, which amount together with any amounts contributed by the employee shall constitute the consideration paid for the annuity contract in determining the amount of the annuity required to be included in the income of the employee under subsection (b) (2) (A) of this section.

(3) Gifts, bequests, and devises.—The value of property acquired by gift, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income).

(4) Tax-free interest.—Interest upon (a) the obligations of a State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; and (b) obligations of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities.

(5) Compensation for injuries or sickness.—Amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation or employer's liability acts, or by way of damages for personal injuries, whether by suit or agreement.

(6) In the case of ministers.—The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation.

(7) Income exempt under treaty.—Income of any kind to the extent required by any treaty obligation of the United States.

(8) Income of foreign governments.

(9) Payments to veterans and others.—(A) Payments, under any of the laws relating to veterans, of benefits made to or on account of a beneficiary, to the extent such payments are not subject to taxation under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(B) Amounts received as a pension, annuity, or similar allowance for personal injuries or sickness resulting from active service in the armed forces of any country or in the Coast and Geodetic Survey or the Public Health Service to the extent such amounts are excluded from gross income under section 104 (a) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(10) Income from unincorporated business.—In the case of any person entitled to a share in the net income of any unincorporated business subject to tax under the provisions of sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e, an amount equal to the proportionate share of such person in such part of such net income as is in excess of the exemption provided in section 47–1577c: Provided, however, That such part so excluded from the gross income of such person shall be reported by and taxed against the unincorporated business under the provisions of sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e.

(11) Capital gains.—Gains from the sale or exchange of any capital assets as defined in this subchapter.

(12) Personal services.—If at least 80 per centum of the total compensation for personal services covering a period of thirty-six calendar months or more (from the beginning to the completion of such services) is received or accrued in one taxable year by an individual or a partnership, the tax attributable to any part thereof which is included in the gross income of any individual shall not be greater than the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such part had it been included in the gross income of such individual ratably over that part of the period which precedes the date of such receipt or accrual.

(13) Income derived from the sale of tangible personal property to the United States by corporations and unincorporated businesses having their principal places of business located outside the District, which property is delivered from places outside the District for use outside the District: Provided, however, That the taxpayer shall furnish to the Assessor a statement in writing of the amount of gross sales so made and, if required by the Assessor, a list of the names of the agencies of the United States through which such property was sold.

(14) Dues and initiation fees in the case of any club organized and operated exclusively for pleasure and recreation, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder. As used in this subsection, the word "dues" means only sums paid or incurred by members on a monthly, quarterly, annual, or other periodic basis for the privilege of being members of such club and any pro rata assessment made against the members as such; the word "dues" does not include any sums paid or incurred by members or their guests for food, beverages, or other tangible personal property purchased or for the use of the club's social, athletic, sporting, and other facilities; and the term "initiation fees" includes any payment, contribution, or loan, required as a condition precedent to membership, whether or not any such payment, contribution, or loan is evidenced by a certificate of interest or indebtedness.

(15) Social Security benefits.—Insurance benefit payments received under section 402 (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), of title 42, U.S. Code.

(16) Compensation received by aliens from certain international organizations.—In the case of an individual who is not a national of the United States, salaries, wages, or compensation for personal services rendered as an employee of an international organization (as defined in section 1 of International Organizations Immunities Act (22 U.S.C. sec. 288)) which is entitled to enjoy privileges, exemptions, and immunities provided by such Act.

(17) Foreign corporation real property investment income.—Income derived by a foreign corporation authorized to invest in loans secured by real estate, which does not maintain any office, officer, agent, representative or employees for the purpose of making, maintaining, or liquidating such investment, in the District of Columbia, provided that the only activities of such foreign corporation in the District of Columbia, other than those of a liaison employee, are one or more of the following:

(A) the acquisition of loans (including the negotiation thereof) secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on real property, including leaseholds, situated in the District of Columbia pursuant to commitment agreements or arrangements made prior to or following the origination or creation of such loans: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be deemed to permit servicing other than as permitted by subparagraph (D) of this paragraph (17);

(B) the physical inspection and appraisal of property in the District of Columbia as security for mortgages or deed of trust;

(C) the ownership, modification, renewal, extension, transfer, or foreclosure of such loans, or the acceptance of substitute additional obligors thereon;

(D) the making, collecting, and servicing of loans solely through a person authorized to engage in the District of Columbia in the business of servicing real estate loans for investors;

(E) maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding arising as a result of such loans;

(F) the acquisition of title to property which is the security for such a loan in the event of default on such loan, either by foreclosure, sale, or agreement in lieu thereof;

(G) pending liquidation of its investment within such period, not to exceed one year, as the Commissioners may by regulation prescribe, operating, maintaining, renting or otherwise dealing with, selling or disposing of, real property acquired by foreclosure, sale, or by agreement in lieu thereof: Provided, That if, upon the expiration of the period prescribed by the Commissioners, such property has not been sold or otherwise disposed of, such foreign corporation shall be subject to tax on all of the income derived by the corporation arising out of its ownership of such property, but such liability shall not be construed as affecting the exclusion from gross income of income from other loans made or acquired by it in accordance with this paragraph (17).

Income derived from the ownership of real property and not excludible from gross income as provided in this paragraph (17) shall be reported to the Commissioners by the person servicing the corporation's loans in the District of Columbia or by a participating bank in the District of Columbia at such times and in such manner, together with such information, as the Commissioners may by regulation require, and if there be no such person servicing loans or participating bank, then the corporation shall itself make such report of income including any other income derived from District of Columbia sources which is includible in gross income under this article. Any person or corporation who shall fail to report such income to the Commissioners, as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $500.

As used herein, the term "liaison employee" shall mean a person who does not engage in or make, maintain, or liquidate any investment of the foreign corporation and who is engaged by the foreign corporation solely for the purpose of establishing and maintaining contacts with governments and international bodies and agencies thereof; arranging conferences for, receiving and furnishing legislative publications and other information or material of interest to, transmitting information for, and arranging transportation or other accommodations for, officers or other personnel of such foreign corporation within, or to and from, the District of Columbia.

(c) Adjusted gross income.—The words "adjusted gross income" as used in this subchapter mean gross income less deductions allowed under section 47–1557b(a): Provided, however, That such deductions were directly incurred in carrying on a trade or business: And provided further, That in determining adjusted gross income, no deductions shall be allowed for charitable contributions, alimony payments, medical and dental expenses, an optional standard deduction, losses of property not connected with trade or business, or for an allowance for salaries or compensation for personal services of the person or persons liable for the tax. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 335, Art. I, title III, § 2; May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 207, ch. 246, § 3; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 130, ch. 146, title IV, §§ 403, 420; Sept. 4, 1957, 71 Stat. 605, Pub. L. 85–281, §§ 1, 3; June 27, 1960, 74 Stat. 219, Pub. L. 86–522, § 1; Sept. 19, 1966, 80 Stat. 812, Pub. L. 89–591, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Business loss

Where taxpayer buys improved property for use in trade or business with intent of razing buildings thereon and then subsequently demolishes them, he has not suffered a "loss in trade or business" within District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, but rather the property represents capital investment and amount paid for it plus expenses incurred in removing existing buildings, should be treated as cost of the land, even if contemplated plans for use of property are not realized or if buildings are demolished but not replaced or if demolition enhances rather than diminishes value of property. Reliable Home Appliances v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1966, 219 A. 2d 501).

Evidence established that it was the absolute intention of directors of corporate taxpayer at time of acquisition by corporation of property to raze existing dwelling on property, in suit for refund of corporation franchise tax paid after disallowance of claimed deduction as loss in trade or business the sum representing the claimed value of structure plus wrecking cost. Id.

Where it was absolute intention of directors of corporate taxpayer at time they acquired property to raze existing dwelling thereon, corporation was not entitled to claim a loss from destruction of building for purposes of corporate franchise tax. Id.

Capital gains

In determining whether capital gain resulted from sale of entire business for District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, factors usually considered as elements of good will are expectation that business will continue to enjoy a certain amount of patronage and that efficiency will be continued because persons employed are highly trained in performance of their jobs and can be expected to continue their employment. District of Columbia v. ACF Industries, Inc. (1965, 350 F. 2d 795, 122 U.S. App. D.C. 12).

In determining whether capital gain resulted from sale of entire business for District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, taxpayer has initial burden of establishing both existence of good will and value to be assigned to it; if parties to sale of business have allocated value of good will by agreement, great weight should be given to such allocation; in cases where there is no allocation by agreement, proper allocation can be made only by considering the entire business in light of surrounding conditions up to the time of the sale. Id.

In determining whether capital gain resulted from sale of entire business for District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, resolution of problem as to how much of price paid for business, if any, should be allocated to good will requires determination whether any good will existed at time of sale and, if so, what its value was. Id.

For District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, good will can qualify as a capital asset if held for the required length of time. Id.

In determining in sale of business whether good will, existed for required capital asset holding period to qualify for capital gain treatment for District of Columbia income and franchise tax purposes, it should be assumed, in absence of some significant event which would fix acquisition of good will at some time after commencement of business, that it came into being at time business established itself as a going concern. Id.

Under rule that in determining whether gain from sale of business is entitled to capital gains treatment in computing District of Columbia income and franchise tax the sale of entire business is treated as sale of an aggregate of individual assets, total purchase price must be apportioned among the assets of the business, each asset being assigned an amount related to reasonable market value at time of sale. Id.

In absence of countervailing policies, federal rule under which sale of entire business is treated as a sale of an aggregate of individual assets to be separately matched against definition of capital assets was applied to determine whether gain from sale of business was entitled to capital gains treatment in computing District of Columbia income and franchise tax. Id.

Dividends

Where corporation liquidates entirely, distribution from its earnings constitutes dividend for District of Columbia income tax purposes.

Purported sale of corporate stock by taxpayer, who was majority stockholder of corporation, who had controlled operation of corporation, and who, in negotiating sale, dominated course of dealings prescribed by him, at rates apparently fixed by him, to end that he receive his share of corporation's capital and its previously undistributed earnings, constituted dividend, for income tax purposes, and not sale of capital assets so as to exclude gain from gross income. B. W. Doyle v. District of Columbia (1966, 363 F. 2d 694, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 207).

Where corporation sold all of its angible assets, in return for which it received cash or its equivalent, and proceeds of the sale were reflected on corporation's books as earned surplus, when such funds were distributed in the course of corporation's liquidation the estate which managed the corporation received a taxable dividend. Estate of Migical John Uline v. District of Columbia (1966, 360 F. 2d 820, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 5).

Gross income

"Gross income" within District of Columbia income tax statute did not mean, without more, "income derived from any source whatever," and scope of phrase is limited by exceptions built into code. District of Columbia v. H. Goldman and Y. D. Goldman (1963, 328 F. 2d 520, 117 U.S. App. D.C. 219).

Taxable income

Proceeds received by major league baseball club from sales of players to newly established major league clubs in other cities, constituted "income" to club within District of Columbia Franchise Tax Act, despite fact that such transactions were incident to transfer of operations of District of Columbia club to other city. Washington American League Base Ball Club Inc. v. District of Columbia (1965, 349 F. 2d 179, 121 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

Proceeds from sale by major league baseball club of four players who had been with club more than two years did not constitute nontaxable gain from sale of capital assets, under District of Columbia Franchise Tax Act, in view of club's established practice of not treating players' contracts as capital assets. Id.

Under this subchapter, providing that gain realized from sale or exchange of property held by taxpayer for more than two years is not taxable income, gain attributable to sale of license was not taxable to taxpayer, which sold its radio and television station, together with license for operation thereof, on July 28, 1950, where taxpayer's predecessor in title had been issued a station construction permit in 1946, notwithstanding fact that current station license had been issued in May of 1950. District of Columbia v. General Teleradio, Inc. (1956, 230 F. 2d 830, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 280).

Where taxpayer's laundry plant was located in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some of its customers it supplied its own articles which it cleaned and laundered and picked up and delivered and such work was performed outside the district, it was not "work done and services performed" in the District within this subchapter and the charges therefor were not apportionable or allocable to the District in calculating income taxes. Industrial Coverall Laundry Corp. v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 669, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 266).

Where taxpayer had a laundry plant in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some customers, taxpayer furnished a supply of its own articles each week for a consideration with pick up and delivery service and the cleaning thereof was done in the plant in Virginia, source of income from the arrangement was the use or rental of the articles with pick up and delivery incidental thereto and in addition the cleaning and laundry, the latter being service and the income fairly attributable to the use or rental of the articles should be allocated to the district, in calculating income tax. Id.

Trade or business

Petitioner who purchased second-trust notes at discount, investigated credit of makers and inspected security to ascertain that value justified loan, made his own collections, maintained records of payments and followed up delinquent debtors by telephone or letter, was not engaged in investment of funds in securities but was engaged in "business or commercial activity" within statute imposing tax upon income of unincorporated businesses for privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business. Stone v. District of Columbia (1952, 198 F. 2d 601, 91 U. S. App. D. C. 140).

§ 47–1557b. Deductions.

(a) Deductions allowed.—The following deductions shall be allowed from gross income in computing net income:

(1) Expenses.—All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business (except as otherwise provided herein), traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity.

(2) Interest.—All interest paid or accrued, according to the taxpayer's method of accounting, within the taxable year.

(3) Taxes.—All taxes imposed upon the taxpayer and paid or accrued during the taxable year except—

(A) income taxes;

(B) franchise taxes imposed by this article;

(C) estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes;

(D) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed;

(E) taxes paid to any State, Territory, county, or municipality on property, business, or occupation the income from which is not taxable under this subchapter.

(4) Losses.—Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise—

(A) if incurred in a trade or business; or

(B) if incurred in any transaction entered into for the production or collection of income subject to tax under this subchapter, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income subject to tax under this subchapter, though not connected with any trade or business; or

(C) of property not connected with a trade or business; if such losses arise from fires, storms, shipwrecks, thefts, or other casualty: Provided, however, That no such loss shall be allowed as a deduction under this subsection if such loss is claimed as a deduction for inheritance- or estate-tax purposes: And provided further, That this subsection shall not be construed to permit the deduction of a los of any capital asset as defined in this subchapter.

(5) Bad debts.—Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year or, in the discretion of the Assessor, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. When satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the Assessor may allow such debt, in an amount not in excess of the part charged off within the taxable year, as a deduction. No debt which existed prior to January 1, 1939, shall be allowed as a deduction.

(6) Insurance premiums.—All fire-, tornado-, and casualty-insurance premiums paid during the taxable year in connection with property held for investment or used in a trade or business, the income from which is taxable under this subchapter.

(7) Depreciation.—A reasonable allowance for exhaustion, wear, and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence; and including in the case of natural resources allowances for depletion as permitted by reasonable rules and regulations which the Commissioners are hereby authorized to promulgate. The basis upon which such allowances are to be computed is the basis provided for in section 47–1583e.

(8) Charitable contributions.—Contributions or gifts, actually paid within the taxable year to or for the use of any religious, charitable, scientific, literary, military, or educational institution, the activities of which are carried on to a substantial extent in the District, and no part of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual: Provided, however, That such deductions shall be allowed only in an amount which in the aggregate of all such deductions does not exceed 15 per centum of the adjusted gross income.

(9) Medical, dental, and so forth, expenses of individuals.—Expenses in the case of residents, paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year, not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, for the medical care of the taxpayer, his spouse, or dependents as defined in this subchapter. The term "medical care", as used in this subsection, shall include amounts paid for the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of diseases, or for the purpose of effecting healthier function of the body (including amounts paid for accident or health insurance): Provided, however, That a taxpayer may deduct only such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of his adjusted gross income, or 5 per centum of the aggregate adjusted gross income in the case of husband and wife filing joint return: And provided further, That the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed $2,500 in the case of a husband and wife filing a joint return, or $1,250 in the case of all other residents.

(10) Alimony or separate maintenance.—In the case of residents, amounts paid as alimony or separate maintenance pursuant to and under a decree or judgment of a court of record of competent jurisdiction to adjudge or decree that the taxpayer pay such alimony or separate maintenance: Provided, however, That all amounts allowed as a deduction under this subsection shall be reported and taxed as income of the recipient thereof if such recipient is a resident as defined in this subchapter.

(11) Contributions of an employer to an employees' trust or annuity plan and compensation under a deferred-payment plan.—In the return of an employer, contributions made by such employer to an employees' trust or annuity plan and compensation under a deferred-payment plan to the extent that deductions for the same are allowed the taxpayer under the provisions of section 23(p) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code.

(12) Nontrade or nonbusiness expense.—In the case of an individual, all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year for the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income taxable under this subchapter.

(13) Optional standard deduction and irrevocable election.—In lieu of the foregoing deductions, any resident may elect to deduct for the taxable year an optional standard deduction of 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income or $1,000, whichever is lesser; in the case of joint returns filed by husband and wife living together, the combined standard deduction shall be limited to 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income of both, or $1,000, whichever is lesser; in the case of separate returns by husband and wife living together, the standard deduction of each spouse shall be limited to 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income of that spouse or $500, whichever is lesser, but the standard deduction shall be allowed to neither if the net income of one of the spouses is determined by itemizing the deductions. The option provided in this paragraph shall not be permitted on any return filed for any period less than a full calendar or full fiscal year.

The election to claim the optional standard deduction, or to itemize deductions, shall be irrevocable for the taxable year for which the election is made.

(14) Allocation of deductions.—In the case of corporations and unincorporated businesses, the deductions provided for in this section shall be allowed only for and to the extent that they are connected with income arising from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions to be allowed shall be determined by the Assessor under formula or formulas provided for in section 47–1580a.

(15) Reasonable allowance for salaries.—A reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered: Provided, however, That in the case of an unincorporated business the aggregate deduction for services rendered by the individual owners or members actively engaged in the conduct of the unincorporated business shall in no event exceed 20 per centum of the net income of such business computed without benefit of this deduction: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt any salary or other compensation for personal services from taxation as a part of the taxable income of the person receiving the same.

(b) Deductions not allowed.—In computing net income, no deductions shall be allowed in any case for—

(1) Personal, living, or family expenses;

(2) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments, made to increase the value of any property or estate;

(3) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; and

(4) Premiums paid on any life-insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy.

(5) If the net income of an unincorporated business for the taxable year is in excess of the exemption provided in section 47–1574c, no deduction which is allowed or allowable under subsection (a) of this section from the gross income of any unincorporated business subject to the tax imposed by sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e shall be allowed as deduction in the return and computation of the net income of any person entitled to share in the net income of such unincorporated business.

(6) Capital losses.—Losses from the sale or exchange of any capital asset as defined in this subchapter.

(July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 337, ch. 258, Art. I, title III, § 3; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 130, ch. 146, title IV, §§ 404–409; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 69, ch. 154, §§ 3, 4; Sept. 4, 1957, 71 Stat. 606, Pub. L. 85–281, § 4.)

AMENDMENTS

1957—Subsec. (a)(13) amended by act Sept. 4, 1957, which increased the maximum amount of the standard deduction from 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income or $500, whichever is lesser, to 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income or $1,000, whichever is lesser, and changed the deduction in the case of joint returns from 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income of each or $500 for each, whichever is lesser, to 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income of both, or $1,000, whichever is lesser.

1956—Subsec. (a)(9) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 3, which substituted "the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed $2,500 in the case of a husband and wife filing a joint return, or $1,250 in the case of all other residents" for "the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed $1,250", and permitted the deduction of such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of the aggregate adjusted gross income in the case of a husband and wife filing joint return.

Subsec. (a)(13) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 4, which changed the standard deduction from 10 per centum of the net income or $500, whichever is lesser to 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income or $500, whichever is lesser, permitted a deduction of $500 or 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income, whichever is lesser, to both husband and wife, provided that the election shall be irrevocable for the taxable year for which made and prohibited later use of the specific deductions, and inserted proviso which prohibits allowance of the standard deduction in the case of husband and wife living together if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction.

1949—Subsec. (a)(1) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 404, which substituted "trade or business (except as otherwise provided herein)," for "trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered:", and eliminated proviso which stated that nothing shall be construed to exempt any salary or other compensation for personal services from taxation as a part of the taxable income of the person receiving the same.

Subsec. (a)(4)(C) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 405, to include losses from theft.

Subsec. (a)(8) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 406, which substituted "does not exceed 15 per centum of the adjusted gross income" for "does not exceed 15 per centum of net income as computed without the benefit of this subsection."

Subsec. (a)(9) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 407, which substituted "such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of his adjusted gross income" for "such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of his net income, or 5 per centum of the aggregate net income in the case of husband and wife filing a joint return, computed with the benefit of subsection (8) of this section but without the benefit of this subsection", and "the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed $1,250" for "the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed $2,500 in the case of a husband and wife filing a joint return, or $1,250 in the case of all other residents."

Subsec. (a)(13) amended by act May 27, 1949, § 408, which changed the deduction from $500 for residents whose gross income less allowance for dependents is $5,000 or more to 10 per centum of the net income or $500, whichever is lesser, and eliminated proviso which prohibited allowance of the standard deduction in the case of husband and wife living together if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction or by use of the optional method provided in title VI, section 4(a).

Subsec. (a)(15) added by act May 27, 1949, § 409.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1957 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Sept. 4, 1957, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1956, see section 8 of act Sept. 4, 1957, set out as a note under § 47–1557a.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of subsec. (a)(13) by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1949, and amendment of subsecs. (a) (1), (4), (8) and (9) and enactment of subsec. (a)(15) applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Damages

Damages paid by major league baseball club to minor league and to owners of minor league clubs, resulting from transfer of major league club's operation to minor league city, constituted "capital investment," and were improperly deducted as business expense, within District of Columbia Francise Tax Act. Washington American League Base Ball Club, Inc. v. District of Columbia, (1965, 349 F. 2d 179, 121 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

Deductions

Where taxpayer made advances to a corporation that later went bankrupt, findings of Tax Court that evidence was insufficient to show that corporation ever became obligated to repay advances were not erroneous where taxpayer failed to establish facts necessary to substantiate his claimed deduction. N. Bord and A. R. Bord v. District of Columbia (1965, 344 F. 2d 560, 120 U.S. App. D.C. 175).

Depreciation method

Where taxpayer received real property in corporate dissolution in 1953, proper depreciation basis of these properties could not exceed total of taxpayer's interest in earned surplus account at time of dissolution, and where such amount had already been more than exhausted by depreciation deductions taken by taxpayer for years 1953 through 1959 no allowance for 1960 and 1961 District of Columbia income taxes would be permitted. B. W. Oppenheimer v. District of Columbia (1966, 363 F. 2d 708, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 221).

The proper basis for computing depreciation on corporate owned building allowable to taxpayer who had purchased all of the corporation stock for cash and then liquidated the same and transferred the assets to himself was a proper proportion of the cost to taxpayer which was the value of stock he turned over for the building. C. A. Snow, et ano. v. District of Columbia (1965, 361 F. 2d 523, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 69).

District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act revealed congressional intent to permit allowance for depreciation based on the declining balance method. Broadcasting Publications, Inc. v. District of Columbia; District of Columbia v. Broadcasting Publications, Inc. (1963, 313 F. 2d 554, 114 U.S. App. D.C. 163).

Taxpayer would be allowed use of declining balance method of depreciation in determining tax due under District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act, in absence of regulation on such subject pursuant to such Act or showing by District that such method was unreasonable. Id.

Loss in trade

Where taxpayer buys improved property for use in trade or business with intent of razing buildings thereon and then subsequently demolishes them, he has not suffered a "loss in trade or business" within District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, but rather the property represents capital investment and amount paid for it, plus expenses incurred in removing existing buildings, should be treated as cost of the land, even if contemplated plans for use of property are not realized or if buildings are demolished but not replaced or if demolition enhances rather than diminishes value of property. Reliable Home Appliances, Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1966, 219 A. 2d 501).

Evidence established that it was the absolute intention of directors of corporate taxpayer at time of acquisition by corporation of property to raze existing dwelling on property, in suit for refund of corporation franchise tax paid after disallowance of claimed deduction as loss in trade or business the sum representing the claimed value of structure plus wrecking cost. Id.

Where it was absolute intention of directors of corporate taxpayer at time they acquired property to raze existing dwelling thereon, corporation was not entitled to claim a loss from diestruction of building for purposes of corporate franchise tax. Id.

TITLE IV.—ACCOUNTING PERIODS, INSTALLMENT SALES, AND INVENTORIES

§ 47–1561. Accounting periods.

The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the Assessor does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 47–1551c (j) or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year. If the taxpayer makes a Federal income-tax return, his income shall be computed, for the purposes of this title, on the basis of the same calendar or fiscal year as in such Federal income-tax return, if the basis is accepted and approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 339, ch. 258, Art. I, title IV, § 1.)

§ 47–1561a. Period in which items of gross income included.

The amount of all items of gross income shall be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received by the taxpayer unless, under methods of accounting permitted under section 47–1561, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period. In the case of death of a taxpayer on the cash basis, no amount will be accrued on his final return; and on the accrual basis, amounts (except amounts includible in computing a partner's net income) accrued only by reason of the death of the taxpayer shall not be included in computing net income for the period in which falls the date of the taxpayer's death, but such amounts shall be included in the income of the person receiving such amounts by inheritance or survivorship from the decedent. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 339, ch. 258, Art. I, title IV, § 2.)

§ 47–1561b. Period for which deductions and credits taken.

The deductions and credits provided for in this subchapter shall be taken for the taxable year in which "paid or accrued" or "paid or incurred", dependent upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed unless, in order to clearly reflect the income, the deductions or credits should be taken as of a different period. In the case of death of a taxpayer on the cash basis, no amount will be allowed as a deduction which was accrued up to the date of the taxpayer's death; and on the accrual basis, no amount (except amounts includible in computing a partner's net income) accrued only by reason of the death of the taxpayer shall be included in computing net income for the period in which falls the date of the taxpayer's death but such amounts shall be deductible by the estate or other person who paid them or is liable for their payment. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, title IV, § 3.)

§ 47–1561c. Installment sales.

If a person reports any portion of his income from installment sales for Federal income-tax purposes under section 44 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code, and as the same may hereafter be amended and if such income is subject to tax under this subchapter, he may report such income under this subchapter in the same manner and upon the same basis as the same was reported by him for Federal income-tax purposes, if such method of reporting is accepted and approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, title IV, § 4; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 131, ch. 146, title IV, § 410.)

AMENDMENT

1949—Act May 27, 1949, substituted "the Federal Internal Revenue Code" for "Title 26, U. S. Code".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act of May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Regulations of Commissioner

Where it appeared that regulation amendments promulgated by commissioners of the District of Columbia and made applicable to any case in which liability of taxpayer had not been finally determined by final decision of court might be susceptible to different interpretation than regulations under which case had been decided by Tax Court, case would be remanded to Tax Court so that it could address itself to applicability and effect of amendments. The May Department Stores Co. v. District of Columbia (1966, 364 F. 2d 689, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 296).

§ 47–1561d. Inventories.

Whenever in the opinion of the Assessor the use of inventories is necessary in order to properly determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the Assessor may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, title IV, § 5.)

§ 47–1561e. Assessor may reject method of accounting employed by taxpayer.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subchapter, the Assessor is hereby authorized to reject any return of income reported on a cash basis where, in his opinion, the net income of the taxpayer is not properly reflected and cannot be determined on such basis, and to require the return to be filed on such a basis as in his opinion will properly reflect the net income of the taxpayer. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I. Title IV, § 6.)

TITLE V.—RETURNS

§ 47–1564. Form of returns and duty to file.

(a) Form of returns.—The Assessor is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe the forms of returns. All returns required under this title shall be filed on the forms and in the manner prescribed by the Assessor.

(b) Taxpayer to make return whether form is sent or not.—Blank forms of returns of income shall be supplied by the Assessor. It shall be the duty of the Assessor to obtain an income-tax return from every taxpayer who is liable under this subchapter to file such return; but this duty shall in no manner diminish the obligation of the taxpayer to file a return without being called upon to do so.

(c) Information returns.—Every person subject to the jurisdiction of the District in whatever capacity acting, including receivers or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, partnerships, and employers making payment of dividends, interest, rent, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other income to any person subject to tax under this subchapter, shall render such returns thereof to the Assessor as he may by rule prescribe. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, title V, § 1.)

§ 47–1564a. Requirement—Who must file.

Each of the following persons shall file a return with the Assessor stating specifically the items of his gross income and the items claimed as deductions and credits allowed under this subchapter, and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this subchapter as the Assessor may require:

(a) Residents and nonresidents.—Every nonresident of the District receiving income subject to tax under this subchapter and every resident of the District, except fiduciaries, when—

(1) his gross income for the taxable year exceeds $1,000, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife; or

(2) his gross income for the taxable year exceeds $2,000 if married and living with husband or wife; or

(3) his gross sales or gross receipts from any trade or business, other than an unincorporated business subject to tax under sections 47–1574 to 1574e, exceeds $5,000, regardless of the amount of his gross income; or

(4) the combined gross income for the taxable year of a husband and wife living together exceeds $2,000 in the aggregate, or the combined gross sales or gross receipts from any trade or business, other than an unincorporated business subject to tax under sections 47–1574 to 1574e, exceeds $5,000 regardless of the amount of their gross income.

(b) Fiduciaries.—Every fiduciary (except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual) for—

(1) every individual for whom he acts having a gross income for the taxable year of $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) every individual for whom he acts having a gross income for the taxable year of $2,000 or over, if married and living with husband or wife;

(3) every estate for which he acts, the gross income of which for the taxable year is $1,000 or over;

(4) every trust for which he acts, the gross income of which for the taxable year is $1,000 or over.

(c) Joint fiduciaries.—A return by one of two or more joint fiduciaries filed with the Assessor shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of subsection (b) of this section.

(d) If any resident or nonresident or any fiduciary is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by his duly authorized agent.

(e) (1) Corporations.—Every corporation engaging in or carrying on any trade or business within the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b. In cases where receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or are engaged in or carrying on the trade or business of corporations, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for such corporations in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make returns.

(2) Affiliated corporations shall file separate returns unless permitted by the Assessor to file consolidated returns.

(f) Unincorporated businesses.—Every unincorporated business engaging in or carrying on any trade or business within the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b having a gross income of more than $10,000, regardless of whether or not it has a net income. Such returns shall be made by the taxpayer or taxpayers liable for the payment of the tax.

(g) Partnerships.—Every partnership, other than partnerships subject to the taxes imposed by sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e on unincorporated businesses, engaged in any trade or business, or receiving income from sources within the District. There shall be included in such return the names and addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income of the partnership, if distributed, and the amount of distributive share of each individual. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 341, ch. 258, Art. I, title V, § 2; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 131, ch. 146, title IV, § 411; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 69, ch. 154, § 5.)

AMENDMENTS

1956—Subsec. (a) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, which enacted provisions identical to subsection (a) as originally enacted by act July 16, 1947.

Subsec. (b) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, which changed provisions requiring the filing of returns in cases of individuals to reduce the gross amount of income necessary from $4,000 to $1,000 if the individual is single, or if married and not living with husband and wife, and from $4,000 to $2,000 if he is married and living with husband and wife, in cases of estates, from $4,000 to $1,000, and in cases of trusts, to require the filing if the gross income is $1,000 or over whereas prior to this amendment such filing was required if the net income was $100 or over.

1949—Subsec. (a) amended by act May 27, 1949, which substituted provisions requiring the filing of returns by any person whose gross income for the taxable year exceeds $4,000 for provisions which required returns to be filed by any person whose gross income for the taxable year exceeded $1,000, if single, or if married and not living with husband and wife, and $2,000 if married and living with husband and wife, reduced the $5,000 to $4,000 the amount of gross sales or gross receipts from a trade or business necessary to require the filing of a return, inceased the minimum amount of combined gross income in the case of a husband and wife living together from $2,000 to $4,000, and required each spouse to have gross income in excess of $500.

Subsec. (b) amended by act May 27, 1949, which substituted provisions requiring fiduciaries to file returns for every individual for whom they act having a gross income for the taxable year of $4,000 or over, regardless of the individual's net income for provisions which required the filing of returns in cases where the individual, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife, had net income of $1,000 or over, if married and living with husband and wife, had net income of $2,000 or over, and in all cases if the individual had a gross income of $2,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income, reduced from $5,000 to $4,000 the minimum amount of gross income of an estate necessary to file a return, and eliminated provisions which required the filing of a return in estates having a net income of $1,000 or over.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1949, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1564b. Filing of returns.

(a) Time and place for filing returns.—All returns of income for the preceding taxable year required to be filed under the provisions of section 47–1564 shall be filed with the Assessor on or before the 15th day of April in each year, except that such returns, if made on the basis of a fiscal year, shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of such fiscal year.

(b) Extension of time for filing returns.—The Assessor may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the returns required by section 47–1564a whenever in his judgment good cause exists therefor, and he shall keep a record of every such extension. Except in case of a taxpayer who is not within the continental limits of the United States, no such extension shall be granted for more than six months, and in no case shall such extension be granted for more than one year. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 342, ch. 258, Art. I, title V, § 3.)

§ 47–1564c. Divulging of information.

(a) Secrecy of returns.—Except to any official of the District, having a right thereto in his official capacity, it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the District to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of income or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof set forth or disclosed in any return required to be filed under section 47–1564, and neither the original nor a copy of any such return desired for use in litigation in court shall be furnished where neither the District nor the United States is interested in the result of such litigation, whether or not the request is contained in an order of the court: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the furnishing to a taxpayer of a copy of his return upon the payment of a fee of $2.

(b) Reciprocal exchange of information with the United States and the several States.—Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Assessor may permit the proper officer of the United States or of any State imposing an income tax or his authorized representative to inspect income-tax returns filed with the Assessor or may furnish to such officer or representative a copy of any such income-tax returns provided the United States or such State grant substantially similar privileges to the Assessor or his representative or to the proper officer of the District charged with the administration of this title. The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Assessor or Collector relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed by this subchapter.

(c) Publication of statistics.—Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the publicaton of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports and the items thereof, or the publication of delinquent lists showing the names of taxpayers who have failed to pay their taxes at the time and in the manner provided by law, together with any relevant information which in the opinion of the Assessor may assist in the collection of such delinquent taxes.

(d) Information which may be disclosed.—Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the Assessor, in his discretion, from divulging or making known any information contained in, or relating to, any report, application, license, or return required under the provisions of this subchapter other than such information as may be contained therein relating to the amount of income or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof.

(e) Penalties for violation of this section.—Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia.

(f) Preservation of returns.—All reports, applications, and returns received by the Assessor under the provisions of this subchapter shall be preserved for six years, and thereafter until the Assessor orders them to be destroyed. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 342, ch. 258, Art. I, title V, § 4.)

CHANGE OF NAME

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150–29, eff. July 9, 1953.

TITLE VI.—TAX ON RESIDENTS AND NONRESIDENTS

§ 47–1567. Definitions.

For the purposes of this subchapter, and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "taxable income" mean the entire net income of every resident, in excess of the personal exemptions and credits for dependents allowed by section 47–1567a and that portion of the entire net income of every nonresident which is subject to tax under sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 343, ch. 258, Art. I, title VI, § 1.)

§ 47–1567a. Personal exemptions and credit for dependents.

There shall be allowed to residents the following credits against net income:

(a) (1) An exemption of $1,000 for a single person or a married person not living with husband or wife.

(2) An additional exemption of $500 for the taxpayer if he has attained the age of sixty-five before the close of his taxable year, and an additional exemption of $500 for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse has attained the age of sixty-five before the close of such taxable year, and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer.

(3) An additional exemption of $500 for the taxpayer if he is blind at the close of his taxable year, and an additional exemption of $500 for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. For purposes of this subsection, the determination of whether the spouse is blind shall be made as of the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer; except that if the spouse dies during such taxable year, such determination shall be made as of the time of such death. For purposes of this subsection, an individual is blind only if his central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or if his visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than twenty degrees.

(b) An exemption of $2,000 for a head of a family or a married person living with husband or wife. A husband and wife living together shall, in addition to the exemptions for age and for blindness allowed by subparagraphs (a) (2) and (a) (3) above, receive but one personal exemption of $2,000, but if such husband or wife make separate returns, the personal exemption of $2,000 shall be divided equally between them.

(c) An exemption of $500 for each dependent, as defined in this subchapter, whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500, except that the exemption shall not be allowed in respect of a married dependent who has made a joint return with his spouse for the taxable year beginning in such calendar year.

(d) If the status of a taxpayer changes during the taxable year with respect to his marital status the amount allowed under subsection (b) of this section shall be apportioned in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purposes of this subsection, a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it shall be considered as a month.

(e) Beginning with the first taxable year to which this article is applicable and in succeeding taxable years, the amounts allowed under subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall be prorated to the day of death in the final return of a decedent dying before the end of the taxable year, and as of the date of death the personal exemption is terminated and not extended over the remainder of the taxable year.

(f) In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a taxable year, the personal exemptions and credits for dependents shall be reduced, respectively, to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full credits provided as the number of months in the period for which the return is made bear to twelve months. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 343, ch. 258, Art I, title VI, § 2; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, title IV, § 412; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 70, ch. 154, § 6; Sept. 4, 1957, 71 Stat. 605, Pub. L. 85–281, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

1957—Act Sept. 4, 1957, authorized an additional exemption of $500 for persons over the age of 65 and for persons who are blind, and in cases where the taxpayer makes a separate return, $500 for his spouse if she is over 65 or if she is blind, and required spouses filing separate returns to divide the exemption equally between them.

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, reduced the taxpayer's exemption from $4,000 to $1,000 for a single person or a married person not living with his spouse, and to $2,000 for a head of a family or a married person living with his spouse, and authorized, in the case of a husband and wife living together, either spouse to take the full exemption or to divide the exemption between them.

1949—Act May 27, 1949, increased the taxpayer's exemption from $1,000 to $4,000.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1957 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Sept. 4, 1957, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1956, see section 8 of act Sept. 4, 1957, set out as a note under § 47–1557a.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1949, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1567b. Imposition and rates of tax—Optional method of computation.

(a) There is hereby annually levied and imposed for each taxable year upon the taxable income of every resident a tax at the following rates:

Two and one-half per centum on the first $2,000 of taxable income.

Three per centum on the next $2,000 of taxable income.

Three and one-half per centum on the next $2,000 of taxable income.

Four per centum on the next $2,000 of taxable income.

Four and one-half per centum on the next $2,000 of taxable income.

Five per centum on the taxable income in excess of $10,000.

(b) In lieu of the method of computation prescribed by subsection (a), a resident reporting on a cash basis for any full calendar year who does not claim credit for taxes paid by him to any State or Territory of the United States or political subdivision thereof under the provisions of section 47–1567d on the whole or any part of his income for such calendar year and, if his gross income for such calendar year is $5,000 or less, and is derived solely from salaries, wages, dividends, and interest, may elect to pay the tax in accordance with a table to be included in regulations.

(1) In applying such table, to determine whether the taxpayer is entitled to the personal exemption of $1,000 or $2,000, his status on the last day of his taxable year, as defined in this subchapter, shall control.

(2) An individual not living with husband or wife on the last day of the taxable year for the purposes of this subchapter, shall be considered as a single person.

(3) The election given by this section as to the computation of tax due shall be considered to have been made if the taxpayer files the return prescribed for such computation and such election shall be final and irrevocable.

(4) If the taxpayer for any taxable year has filed a return computing his tax without regard to this section, he may not thereafter elect for such year to compute his tax under this section.

(5) This section shall not apply to any fiduciary or to any married resident living with husband or wife at any time during the taxable year whose spouse files a return and computes the tax without regard to this section or section 47–1557b (a)(13), as amended.

(6) If a husband and wife living together file separate returns, each shall be treated as a single person for the purposes of this section.

(July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 344, ch. 258, Art. I, title VI, §§ 3, 4; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, title IV, § 413; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 117, ch. 218, title XII, § 1201; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 70, ch. 154, §§ 7, 8; Sept. 4, 1957, 71 Stat. 606, Pub. L. 85–281, § 5; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 858, Pub. L. 89–610, title VII, § 701.)

CODIFICATION

Section consolidates section 3 of act July 16, 1947, and section 4 of act July 16, 1947, as added by section 8 of act Mar. 31, 1956. Subsec. (a) of this section comprises section 3 of said act, and subsec. (b) of this section comprises section 4.

AMENDMENTS

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, increased individual income taxes by reducing taxable income brackets from $5,000 to $2,000, to which the prescribed rates ranging from 2½ to 5 percent will apply.

1957—Subsec. (b) amended by act Sept. 4, 1957, which substituted "$5,000" for "$10,000."

1956—Subsec. (a) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 7, which increased the rate of tax on taxable income in excess of $20,000 from 4 to 4½ per centum and in excess of $25,000 from 4 to 5 per centum.

1954—Act May 18, 1954, increased the rate of tax from 1½ per centum on the first $5,000, 2 per centum on the next $5.000, 2½ per centum on the next $5,000, and 3 per centum on the taxable income in excess of $15,000, to 2½ per centum on the first $5,000, 3 per centum on the next $5,000, 3½ per centum on the next $5,000, and 4 per centum on the taxable income in excess of $15,000.

1949—Act May 27, 1949, increased the rate of tax from 1 per centum on the first $5,000, 1½ per centum on the next $5,000, 2 per centum on the next $5,000, 2½ per centum on the next $5,000, and 3 per centum on the taxable income in excess of $20,000, to 1½ per centum on the first $5,000, 2 per centum on the next $5,000, 2½ per centum on the next $5,000, and 3 per centum on the taxable income in excess of $15,000.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1957 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Sept. 4, 1957, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1956, see section 8 of act Sept. 4, 1957, set out as a note under § 47–1557a.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Section 1202 of act May 18, 1954, provided that: "The provisions of this title [amending subsec. (a) of this section] shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1949, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

RETROACTIVE EFFECT OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Section 702 of act Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 858, Pub. L. 89–610, title VII, provided: "The amendment [to subsec. (a) of this section] applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1965".

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003—1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

§ 47–1567c. Repealed. May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, Title IV, § 414.

Section, act July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 344, ch. 258, Art. I, title VI, § 4, related to optional method of computation. Present section 4 of act July 16, 1947, which also relates to optional method of computation, is classified to subsection (b) of § 47–1567b.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF REPEAL

Repeal of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1949, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1567d. Credits against tax.

(a) Credit allowed residents.—The amount of tax payable under this title by an individual who, although a resident of the District of Columbia as defined in this subchapter, was nevertheless a bona fide domiciliary of any State or Territory of the United States or political subdivision thereof during the taxable year shall be reduced by the amount required to be paid by such individual as income or intangible personal property taxes, or both, for such taxable year to the State, Territory, or political subdivision thereof of which he was a domiciliary. The Assessor may require proof, satisfactory to him, of the payment of such income or intangible personal property taxes: Provided, however, That the credit provided for by this section shall not be allowed against any tax imposed under sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e.

(b) Credit for tax withheld on wages.—The amount deducted and withheld as tax under this subchapter during any calendar year upon the wages of any individual shall be allowed as a credit to the recipient of the income against the tax imposed by this subchapter, for taxable years beginning in such calendar year. If more than one taxable year begins in such calendar year such amount shall be allowed as a credit against the tax for the last taxable year so beginning. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, title VI, § 5; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 71, ch. 154, § 9.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, designated existing provisions as subsec. (a) and added subsec. (b).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

TITLE VII.—TAX ON CORPORATIONS

§ 47–1571. Taxable income defined.

For the purposes of this title, and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "taxable income" mean the amount of net income derived from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, title VII, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Congressional intent

Section 47–1571a imposing a privilege tax on carrying on any trade or business within the District upon net income of corporations derived from sources within the District does not disclose a congressional intent to direct the use of any particular formula in calculating the tax, much less a three-factor apportionment formula based on sales, manufacturing costs and property values. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U. S. App. D. C. 292).

Under District of Columbia statute imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District which omitted previous provision that the assessor should apply as far as practicable the interpretations of the federal income tax law, failure to re-enact such provision or one similar to it indicated congressional intent not to direct that commissioners base their regulations on those promulgated under the federal statute, particularly in view of existing District regulations which were not repudiated. Id.

Federal regulations

Under this title imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District, District commissioners in establishing a formula for determination of the tax are not bound by the regulations issued under the comparable provision of the Federal income tax law. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U. S. App. D. C. 292).

Income derived from sources within District

Where finding of District of Columbia Tax Court that interest received by resident realty corporation on note which was given by nonresidents who purchased realty within District and which was secured by deed of trust on such realty was income from sources without District and not subject to District of Columbia franchise tax was not supported by consideration of whether the interest represented income fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on within District, finding was improper in view of statute providing for franchise tax on income derived from sources within District, defined inter alia as income fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on within District. District of Columbia v. Virginia Hotel Co. (1953, 204 F. 2d 390, 92 App. D. C. 186).

§ 47–1571a. Imposition and rate of tax.

For the privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business within the District and of receiving income from sources within the District, there is hereby levied for each taxable year a tax at the rate of 5 per centum upon the taxable income of every corporation, whether domestic or foreign (except those expressly exempt under section 47–1554). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, title VII, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Apportionment

Metnod of assessor of District of Columbia in determining franchise tax on railway by treating as District costs a substantial part of total management, legal, accounting and administrative costs, as well as certain terminal expenses, incurred for benefit of entire rail system or other parts of it was inequitable. District of Columbia v. Southern Railway Co. (1960, 277 F. 2d 84, 107 U.S. App. D.C. 285).

Under this section imposing for privilege of carrying on a trade or business within the District a franchise tax at five per cent upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and statutes respecting determination of the tax, the District commissioners are not required to give weight to any particular factors in prescribing a formula to determine the portion of net income fairly attributable to business carried on within the District and hence a regulation which relied on sales as a determining factor was not invalid where the regulation would inevitably apportion the net income on the basis of sales between the District and other taxing jurisdictions where the sales were made. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Where petitioner, which was engaged in business of buying and selling waste paper in District of Columbia and Chicago, did not prepare its return on basis of a separate accounting, return, which purported to show no net income on district business could not be said to reflect absence of net income fairly attributable to that business, and computation of petitioner's franchise tax was not required to be made on basis of separate accounting and could be made by apportioning to district that portion of income which percentage of district sales bore to total sales. Thomas Paper Stock Co. v. District of Columbia (1958, 255 F. 2d 180, 103 U. S. App. D. C. 102).

Where taxpayer's laundry plant was located in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some of its customers it supplied its own articles which it cleaned and laundered and picked up and delivered and such work was performed outside the District, it was not "work done and services performed" in the District within the income tax statute and the charges therefor were not apportionable or allocable to the District in calculating income taxes. Industrial Coverall Laundry Corp. v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 669, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 266).

Where taxpayer had a laundry plant in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some customers, taxpayer furnished a supply of its own articles each week for a consideration with pick up and delivery service and the cleaning thereof was done in the plant in Virginia, source of income from the arrangement was the use or rental of the articles with pick up and delivery incidental thereto and in addition the cleaning and laundry, the latter being service and the income fairly attributable to the use or rental of the articles should be allocated to the District, in calculating income tax. Id.

This section imposing a privilege tax on carrying on any trade or business within the District upon net income of corporations derived from sources within the District does not disclose a congressional intent to direct the use of any particular formula in calculating the tax, much less a three-factor apportionment formula based on sales, manufacturing costs and property values. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

This section imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District which omitted previous provision that the assessor should apply as far as practicable the interpretations of the federal income tax law, failure to re-enact such provision or one similar to it indicated congressional intent not to direct that commissioners base their regulations on those promulgated under the federal statute, particularly in view of existing District regulations which were not repudiated. Id.

Engaging in business

Where corporate officer in charge of District of Columbia office maintained by Ohio corporation reported to home office on pending legislation and Treasury Department regulations and received inquiries about sales of corporations' products in district, and salesmen from other offices of corporation solicited sales in district, and corporation shipped substantial quantities of goods to customers in district, corporation was engaged in commercial activity and was in business in district and had an office and officer in district and hence was subject to District of Columbia business privilege tax. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 App. D. C. 15).

Where foreign corporation entered into contracts with factors in District of Columbia to sell corporation's products for it, and factors had authority to sell products only in ordinary course of business, and agreed actively to promote sale of such products, and to sell only at prices and upon terms specified by such corporation, and to make monthly accountings to the corporation, factors were agents or representatives having offices within District, and corporation was therefore not exempt from paying District franchise tax. Lever Bros. Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 39, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 147).

Exhausting administrative remedy

Under this section imposing a District franchise tax upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and regulations authorizing the assessor to relieve a taxpayer if the apportionment formula results in an inequitable tax, where taxpayer failed to show that it had exhausted the administrative remedy, taxpayer was not entitled to ask the court to hold that District assessments were invalid and erroneous because of improper apportionment formula. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Federal regulations

Under this section imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District, District commissioners in establishing a formula for determination of the tax are not bound by the regulations issued under the comparable provision of the Federal income tax law. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Regulations of Commissioners

Regulation promulgated under this section imposing franchise tax upon income of trade or business carried on in District of Columbia was not applicable to taxable years prior to its adoption. District of Columbia v. Southern Railway Co. (1960, 277 F. 2d 84, 107 U.S. App. D.C. 285).

In action by District of Columbia for review of decision of District of Columbia Tax Court holding that railway was entitled to refund of major part of franchise taxes assessed and collected from it in taxable years 1949 through 1953, evidence sustained finding that assessor did not assess taxes under regulation which controlled for years in question. Id.

Regulation of the District commissioners relying on sales as the determinative factor in apportioning franchise tax on corporation of part of net income of the taxpayer's business which was carried on partly within and partly without the District was not invalid as inherently arbitrary and unreasonable, or if not inherently unreasonable as invalid as applied to the taxpayer on the ground that it unreasonably apportioned to the District income which properly had no relation to the privilege of doing business in the District, where there was no showing that the formula used resulted in attributing to the taxpayer's privilege of doing business in the District a greater value than it actually had. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Under this title imposing a privilege tax for carrying on a business within the District, there is no implied prohibition against the use of the sales factor of the taxpayer alone in making the apportionment, and hence a regulation of the District commissioners using such factor was not invalid, especially in view of the failure of Congress to declare that part of net income fairly attributable to the District in case of a manufacturing and selling business could not properly be determined by an apportionment factor taking into account the sole factor of sales in the District as compared with total sales. Id.

Sales to the United States

Under Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, as amended, sales of tangible personal property to the United States by a corporation having its principal place of business in District of Columbia were apportionable on same basis as sales of like property to private customers, and District's contention that all of taxpayer's sales to United States were subject to tax and not apportionable was opposed to interpretation of statute and rule set out in District's own regulations. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated (1962, 306 F. 2d 761, 113 U.S. App. D.C. 92).

Sources within the District

Where parent corporation's entire income consisted of dividends from three subsidiary corporations, all of which (1) were organized under District of Columbia law, (2) had their principal offices and businesses in District, and (3) were engaged in business therein, parent corporation received its income from "sources" within the District and was therefore subject to income and franchise taxes, and it was immaterial that some of business of subsidiaries was done elsewhere, since court was not concerned with sources of their income but only with sources of parent corporation's income. Consolidated Title Corp. v. District of Columbia (1960, 275 F. 2d 885, 107 U.S. App. D.C. 221).

TITLE VIII.—TAX ON UNINCORPORATED BUSINESSES

§ 47–1574. Definition of unincorporated business.

For the purposes of this subchapter (not alone of this title) and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "unincorporated business" mean any trade or business, conducted or engaged in by any individual, whether resident or nonresident, statutory or common-law trust, estate, partnership, or limited or special partnership, society, association, executor, administrator, receiver, trustee, liquidator, conservator, committee assignee, or by any other entity or fiduciary, other than a trade or business conducted or engaged in by any corporation; and include any trade or business which if conducted or engaged in by a corporation would be taxable under sections 47–1571 and 47–1571a. The words "unincorporated business" do not include any trade or business which by law, customs, or ethics cannot be incorporated or any trade or business in which more than 80 per centum of the gross income is derived from the personal services actually rendered by the individual or members of the partnership or other entity in the conducting or carrying on of any trade or business and in which capital is not a material income-producing factor. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, title VIII, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Business or commercial activity

Petitioner who purchased second-trust notes at discount, investigated credit of makers and inspected security to ascertain that value justified loan, made his own collections, maintained records of payments and followed up delinquent debtors by telephone or letter, was not engaged in investment of funds in securities but was engaged in "business or commercial activity" within this section imposing tax upon income of unincorporated businesses for privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business. Stone v. District of Columbia (1952, 198 F. 2d 601, 91 U. S. App. D. C. 140).

Engaging in business

Where physician devoted all his time to practice of his profession and relied upon his real estate adviser for purchase or making of first trust notes or purchase of real estate, collections were made by bank, and physician did not follow up delinquent accounts, and had no employees or office connected with his investments, physician was not engaged in "business" of lending within District of Columbia Code imposing tax on privilege of engaging in any business within District. District of Columbia v. J. C. Brady (1960, 288 F. 2d 108, 109 U.S. App. D.C. 324).

In action by taxpayer against District of Columbia for recovery of franchise taxes paid on basis that he had been engaged in business of renting real estate, wherein evidence as to whether taxpayer, a practicing physician, had wholly parted with management and control of three of his properties that were rented was not conclusive, and trial court made no finding on such issue, case would be remanded for further consideration of that phase. Id.

Neither ownership per se nor even leasing of property by owner necessarily constitutes carrying on business of renting real estate within District of Columbia franchise tax imposed on businesses. Id.

Engineering services

Where total salaries paid to engineering employees, "free lance" draftsmen, and independent engineering firms ranged between 55 percent and 40 percent of gross income of sole proprietor of business engaged in certain branch of field of civil engineering, proprietor was not entitled to exemption from District of Columbia franchise tax on ground that more than 80 percent of gross income had been derived from personal services actually rendered by proprietor. District of Columbia v. Ghent (1955, 220 F. 2d 210, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 103).

Evidence

Evidence was sufficient to warrant finding of District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals that more than 80 percent of gross income was derived from a partner's own personal service, so as to bring partnership within this section excluding from franchise tax on unincorporated business a partnership in which more than 80 percent of gross income is derived from personal services actually rendered by partners. District of Columbia v. Adair (1952, 196 F. 2d 603, 90 U. S. App. D. C. 368).

Income from capital

Under this title levying a tax upon income of unincorporated businesses if less than 80 percent of gross income was derived from personal services of members of business and its capital was not a material income-producing factor, the statutory exemption with respect to income from capital did not require that capital not be used in the business but only that it not be a material income-producing factor. Rohrbaugh & Co. v. District of Columbia (1955, 225 F. 2d 264, 96 U. S. App. D. C. 207).

Under this section levying tax upon income of unincorporated business if less than 80 percent of gross income was derived from personal services of members of business and if capital was not a material income-producing factor, dividends and profits derived by brokerage and securities firm from trading securities registered in firm name constituted material income produced by the firm's capital. Id.

Insurance agency

Partnership conducting an insurance agency having gross commissions as its sole source of income and having numerous soliciting subagents who produced the majority of gross commissions, was not entitled to exemption from franchise tax under this section exempting partnership from franchise tax where more than 80% of the gross income is derived from personal services actually rendered by partners thereof. District of Columbia v. Jones and Jones (1959, 270 F. 2d 939, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 187).

Nature of tax

Unincorporated business franchise tax imposed by District of Columbia was not an "income tax" on portion of net income derived by a resident of Maryland from operation of unincorporated partnership business in District of Columbia within section 47–1567d allowing a credit against Maryland income tax for income tax paid to another state, though franchise tax was imposed upon taxable income of business and residents of District were allowed credit against individual income taxes for franchise tax paid. Gardella et ux. v. Comptroller of the State of Maryland (Ct. of App. Md. 1957, 130 A. 2d 752).

Personal services by partners

Under this section which excludes a partnership from franchise tax imposed upon unincorporated business in which more than 80 percent of the gross income is derived from the personal services actually rendered by the individual members of the partnership, percentage of gross income paid to salaried employees does not control in determining what services are the basis of the income. District of Columbia v. Adair (1952, 196 F. 2d 603, 90 U.S. App. D.C. 368).

Power of Tax Court

In franchise tax case, District of Columbia Tax Court could, upon consideration of record as a whole, properly conclude, from nature of acts of individuals and their conduct in relation to property which they had acquired and held as tenants in common, that gain from its sale had been received by them, as individuals, and not by an unincorporated business. District of Columbia v. Ben Lar Associates et al. (1958, 261 F. 2d 376, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 258).

The District of Columbia Tax Court has authority to uphold imposition of correct tax, upon right taxpayer, in correct entity, where only error found by that court is in capacity in which taxpayer is described. Arthur Jordan Foundation v. District of Columbia (1955, 219 F. 2d 503, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 71).

Stock brokerage business

Under this section levying a tax upon income of unincorporated business if less than 80 percent of gross income was derived from personal services of members of business and its capital was not a material income-producing factor, income derived by taxpayers, who conducted a brokerage and securities business, from underwriting a portion of an issue of new shares of stock by selling shares at higher market price to customers than price to taxpayers as underwriters, was a profit from purchase and sales of securities by an underwriter and not a commission paid for personal services rendered to customers. Rohrbaugh & Co. v. District of Columbia (1955, 225 F. 2d 264, 96 U. S. App. D. C. 207).

Under this section levying a tax upon income of unincorporated business if less than 80 percent of gross income was derived from personal services of members of business and its capital was not a material income-producing factor, income from sale of unlisted securities, purchased by taxpayers from a dealer at a discount constituted a profit on a purchase and sale as a merchant and not a commission for services as an agent in buying securities for customers. Id.

Stock brokerage is little different from any business whose activities are essentially those of agents for purchase and sale and such business would find neither the general corporation statute of the District, specific statutes, nor a body of case law erecting a barrier against incorporation, and consequently, it is not exempt from an unincorporated business tax. Hendrick v. District of Columbia (1950, 183 F. 2d 1002, 87 U.S. App. D.C. 265).

Trust

Where Tax Assessor levied franchise tax on trust doing business within area, on basis that such trust was corporation, and where, on appeal from such determination, District of Columbia Tax Court decided that trust was not so taxable as corporation, but rather that it was taxable as an unincorporated business, Tax Court decision was not subject to objection that, after having held trust not taxable as corporation, it had no power to impose different tax in lieu of one appealed. Arthur Jordan Foundation v. District of Columbia (1955, 219 F. 2d 503, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 71).

§ 47–1574a. Taxable income defined.

For the purposes of this title, and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "taxable income" mean the amount of net income derived from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b in excess of the exemption granted by section 47–1574c. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, Art. I, title VIII, § 2.)

§ 47–1574b. Imposition and rate of tax.

For the privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business within the District and of receiving income from sources within the District, there is hereby levied for each taxable year a tax at the rate of 5 per centum upon the taxable income of every unincorporated business, whether domestic or foreign (except those expressly exempt under section 47–1554). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, Art. I, title VIII, § 3.)

§ 47–1574c. Exemption.

Before computing the tax upon the taxable income of an unincorporated business, there shall be deducted therefrom an exemption of $5,000, except that where the period covered by a return is less than a year, or where a return shows that an unincorporated business has been carried on for less than twelve months, such exemption shall be prorated on a daily basis: Provided, however, That any amount exempted under this section from the tax imposed by section 47–1574b shall be reported and included in the gross income of that person or those persons entitled to a share therein in proportion to the share to which each person is entitled, and shall be reported in the return of each of such persons for his taxable year in which is ended the taxable year of the unincorporated business. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, Art. I, title VIII, § 4; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, title IV, § 416.)

AMENDMENT

1949—Act May 27, 1949, substituted "$5,000" for "$10,000."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1574d. By whom payable.

The taxes imposed by section 47–1574b shall be payable by the person or persons, jointly and severally, conducting the unincorporated business. The taxes imposed under this title may be assessed in the name of the unincorporated business or in the name or names of the person or persons liable for the payment of such taxes, or both. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, ch. 258, Art. I, title VIII, § 5.)

§ 47–1574e. Partners only taxable.

Individuals carrying on any trade or business in partnership in the District, other than an unincorporated business, shall be liable for income tax only in their individual capacities. The tax on all such income shall be assessed against the individual partners under sections 47–1567 to 47–1567d. There shall be included in computing the net income of each partner his distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the partnership for the taxable year; or if his net income for such taxable year is computed upon the basis of a period different from that upon the basis of which the net income of the partnership is computed, then his distributive share of the net income of the partnership for any accounting period of the partnership ending within the taxable year upon the basis of which the partner's net income is computed. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 316, ch. 258, Art. I, title VIII, § 6.)

Title IX.—Tax on Estates and Trusts

§ 47–1577. Resident and nonresident estates and trusts defined.

For the purposes of this title, estates and trusts are (a) resident estates or trusts, or (b) nonresident estates or trusts. If the decedent was at the time of his death domiciled within the District, his estate is a resident estate, and any trust created by his will is a resident trust. If the decedent was not at the time of his death domiciled within the District, his estate is a nonresident estate, and any trust created by his will is a nonresident trust. If the creator of a trust was at the time the trust was created domiciled within the District, or if the trust consists of property of a person domiciled within the District, the trust is a resident trust. If the creator of the trust was not at the time the trust was created domiciled within the District, the trust is a nonresident trust. If the trust resulted from the dissolution of a corporation organized under the laws of the District of Columbia the trust is a resident trust. If the trust resulted from the dissolution of a foreign corporation, the trust is a nonresident trust. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 1.)

§ 47–1577a. Residence or situs of fiduciary not to control.

The residence or situs of the fiduciary shall not control the classification of estates and trusts as resident or nonresident under the provisions of section 47–1577. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 2.)

§ 47–1577b. Imposition of tax.

The taxes imposed by sections 47–1567 to 47–1567d upon residents shall apply to the income of resident estates, and income from any kind of property held in resident trusts, including—

(a) income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained person or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(b) income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a guardian of any infant or incompetent person which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(c) income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(d) income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 3.)

§ 47–1577c. Computation of the tax.

The tax shall be computed upon the taxable net income of the estate or trust, and shall be paid by the fiduciary, except as provided in section 47–1577f (relating to revocable trusts) and section 47–1577g (relating to income for benefit of the grantor). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 4.)

§ 47–1577d. Net income.

The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except as to the personal exemptions and credits for dependents, and except that—

(a) there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under subsection (b) of this section in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(b) in the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary;

(c) there shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deductions for charitable contributions authorized by section 47–1557b (a) (8)) any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating a trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner provided in section 47–1557b (a) (8), or is to be used exclusively for the purposes enumerated in section 47–1557b (a) (8);

(d) there shall be allowed to an estate the same exemption as is allowed residents under the provisions of section 47–1567a (a);

(e) there shall be allowed to a trust a credit against net income of $100. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 5; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, title IV, § 415.)

AMENDMENT

1949—Subsecs. (d) and (e) added by act May 27, 1949.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1577e. Different taxable year.

If the taxable year of a beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under section 47–1577d (a), to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for any taxable year of the estate or trust ending within his taxable year. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 6.)

§ 47–1577f. Revocable trusts.

The income of a trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor of such trust where at any time the power to revest in the grantor title to any part of the corpus of the trust is vested—

(a) in the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom; or

(b) in any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 7.)

§ 47–1577g. Income for benefit of grantor.

So much of the income of any trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor as—

(a) is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, held or accumulated for future distribution to the grantor; or

(b) may, in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income, be distributed to the grantor; or

(c) is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in section 47–1557b (a) (8), relating to the so-called "charitable contribution" deduction). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 8.)

§ 47–1577h. Definition of "in discretion of grantor".

As used in this title, the term "in the discretion of the grantor" means in the discretion of the grantor either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of the part of the income in question. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 9.)

§ 47–1577i. Employees' trusts.

(a) Exemption from tax.—A trust forming part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries shall not be taxable under this subchapter and no other provision of this subchapter shall apply with respect to such trust or to its beneficiary, except as hereinafter in this section expressly provided, if such trust meets the requirements for exemption from Federal income tax under section 165 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Taxability of beneficiary.—The amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee by any such trust shall be taxable to him, in the year in which so distributed or made available, under section 47–1557a (b) (2) as if it were an annuity the consideration for which is the amount contributed by the employee.

(c) Treatment of beneficiary of trust not exempt under subsection (a).—Contribution to a trust made by an employer during a taxable year of the employer which ends within or with a taxable year of the trust for which the trust is not exempt under subsection (a) of this section shall be included in the gross income of an employee for the taxable year in which the contribution is made to the trust in the case of an employee whose beneficial interest in such contribution is nonforfeitable at the time the contribution is made. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, title IX, § 10.)

Section 165 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code, referred to in subsec. (a) refers to section 165 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and is now covered by sections 401, 402 and 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. See 26 U.S.C. §§ 401, 402, 501(a).

TITLE X.—PURPOSE OF SUBCHAPTER AND ALLOCATION AND APPORTIONMENT

§ 47–1580. Purpose of subchapter.

It is the purpose of this subchapter to impose (1) an income tax upon the entire net income of every resident and every resident estate and trust, and (2) a franchise tax upon every corporation and unincorporated business for the privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business within the District and of receiving such other income as is derived from sources within the District: Provided, however, That, in the case of any corporation, the amount received as dividends from a corporation which is subject to taxation under this subchapter, and, in the case of a corporation not engaged in carrying on any trade or business within the District, interest received by it from a corporaton which is subject to taxation under this subchapter shall not be considered as income from sources within the District for the purposes of this subchapter. The measure of the franchise tax shall be that portion of the net income of the corporation and unincorporated business as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District; Provided further, That income derived from the sale of tangible personal property by a corporation or unincorporated business not carrying on or engaging in trade or business within the District as defined in sections 47–1551 to 47–1551c shall not be considered as income from sources within the District for purposes of this subchapter, with the exception of income from sale to the United States not excluded from gross income as provided in section 47–1557a (b) (13). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 349, ch. 258, Art. I, title X, § 1; May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 207, ch. 246, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

1948—Act May 3, 1948, added the second proviso.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1948 AMENDMENT

Amendent of section by act May 3, 1948, applicable to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on Jan. 1, 1948, and to succeeding taxable years, see section 5 of act May 3, 1948, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Apportionment

Section 47–1571 et seq. imposing franchise tax on that portion of corporation's net income as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District envisions a situation where the revenue of a corporation comes from such varied and diverse sources that it can be separated into more than one stream. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Where section 47–1571 et seq. imposes franchise tax on that portion of corporation's net income as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District and a District newspaper had revenue (1) from sale of its newspapers both within and without the District and (2) from sale of advertising space and (3) in nature of interest on obligations, rents and dividends and this rent, etc., was from District sources, the newspaper's tax would be calculated on the sum of the two separate "net incomes"; i.e., (1) net income from non-operating activities (rentals, etc.) which were from sources within the District and which was specifically allocated to the District, and (2) that portion of operating net income from the trade or business which is fairly attributable to business carried on within the District. Id.

Where section 47–1571 et seq. imposes franchise tax on that portion of corporation's net income as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources with the District and the commissioners' regulations promulgated thereunder envision a procedure whereby certain income will be specifically allotted to District sources, i.e., rents, royalties, income from sale of realty, etc., and other income from various activities both within and without the District will be apportioned depending upon the source or activity which produced it, with the assessor being given broad authority with respect to the apportionment, such regulations are applicable to a newspaper which engages in multiple activities both within and without the District. Id.

Where petitioner, which was engaged in business of buying and selling waste paper in District of Columbia and Chicago, did not prepare its return on basis of a separate accounting, return, which purported to show no net income on district business could not be said to reflect absence of net income fairly attributable to that business, and computation of petitioner's franchise tax was not required to be made on basis of separate accounting and could be made by apportioning to district that portion of income which percentage of district sales bore to total sales. Thomas Paper Stock Co. v. District of Columbia (1958, 255 F. 2d 180, 13 U. S. App. D. C. 102).

Assessment

Where original formula for taxation worked out by agreement between assessor and newspaper doing business both within and without the District of Columbia did not follow any applicable regulation promulgated by the commissioners under this subchapter, such formula was erroneous. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Where deficiency assessments levied by assessor against District of Columbia newspaper doing business both within and without the District were based on the false premise that all the newspaper's income was from sources solely within the District, the assessments were invalid and were refundable. Id.

Where corporation protesting assessment of District of Columbia business privilege tax also raised before Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia the question of amount of assessment, and on review it was decided that corporation was subject to the tax, the case would be remanded to District of Columbia Tax Court as successor to the Board for consideration of question of amount of assessment. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 App. D. C. 15).

Congressional intent

Section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a privilege tax on carrying on any trade or business within the District upon net income of corporations derived from sources within the District does not disclose a congressional intent to direct the use of any particular formula in calculating the tax, much less a three-factor apportionment formula based on sales, manufacturing costs and property values. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U. S. App. D. C. 292).

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District which omitted previous provision that the assessor should apply as far as practicable the interpretations of the federal income tax law, failure to re-enact such provision or one similar to it indicated congressional intent not to direct that commissioners base their regulations on those promulgated under the federal statute, particularly in view of existing District regulations which were not repudiated. Id.

Engaging in business

A District of Columbia newspaper's net income was derived from sources both within and without the District, for District franchise tax purposes, where substantial number of newspapers was sold outside District. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D. C. 360).

In determining whether taxpayer is carrying on a trade or business solely within District of Columbia for District franchise tax purposes, passage of title is useful as a gauge but is not solely determinative of source of income. Id.

As respects whether taxpayer is carrying on a trade or business solely within District of Columbia for District franchise tax purposes, the fact that taxpayer's activities in Maryland and Virginia are not sufficient to subject it to service of process in those states is not the determinative test. Id.

That no other jurisdiction has seen fit to tax taxpayer as doing business therein is not persuasive that the taxpayer's business is solely within the District of Columbia for District franchise tax purposes. Id.

Where corporate officer in charge of District of Columbia office maintained by Ohio corporation reported to home office on pending legislation and Treasury Department regulations and received inquiries about sales of corporation's products in District, and salesmen from other offices of corporation solicited sales in District, and corporation shipped substantial quantities of goods to customers in District, corporation was engaged in commercial activity and was in business in District and had an office and officer in District and hence was subject to District of Columbia business privilege tax. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 App. D. C. 15).

Exhausting administrative remedy

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a District franchise tax upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and regulations authorizing the assessor to relieve a taxpayer if the apportionment formula results in an inequitable tax, where taxpayer failed to show that it had exhausted the administrative remedy, taxpayer was not entitled to ask the court to hold that District assessments were invalid and erroneous because of improper apportionment formula. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D. C. 292).

Federal regulations

In determining whether gain from sale of business was any income derived from sources within the District of Columbia for District income and franchise tax purposes, criteria used to determine under the Internal Revenue Act whether income was from sources within the United States should be applied. District of Columbia v. ACF Industries, Inc. (1965, 350 F. 2d 795, 122 U.S. App. D.C. 12).

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District, District commissioners in establishing a formula for determination of the tax are not bound by the regulations issued under the comparable provision of the federal income tax law. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Findings

Where finding of District of Columbia Tax Court that interest received by resident realty corporation on note which was given by nonresidents who purchased realty within District and which was secured by deed of trust on such realty was income from sources without District and not subject to District of Columbia franchise tax was not supported by consideration of whether the interest represented income fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on within District, finding was improper in view of section 47–1571 providing for franchise tax on income derived from sources within District, defined inter alia as income fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on within District. District of Columbia v. Virginia Hotel Co. (1953, 204 F. 2d 390, 92 App. D. C. 186).

Measure of tax

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a tax on net income from District of Columbia sources of foreign and domestic corporations for privilege of carrying on or engaging in trade or business within District and of receiving income from sources within District, and containing provisos, measure of tax is not limited to sale in which title passes in District. Lever Bros. Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 39, 92 App. D. C. 147).

Nonoperating net income

Rents and royalties from nonoperating activities were from District of Columbia sources and should be specifically allocated to the District in computing District franchise tax on newspaper which engaged in activities both within and without the District, and this net income should be calculated by subtracting from the gross income attributable to these sources the expenses incurred in the receipt and this net income figure would be "nonoperating net income". District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Operating net income

The circulation and advertising revenue of District of Columbia newspaper which engaged in activities both within and without the District would not be separated for apportionment purposes, as respects District of Columbia franchise tax, and both were operating revenues, and "operating net income" from advertising and circulation must be apportioned between District and non-District sources. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Power of tax court

The District of Columbia Tax Court has authority to uphold imposition of correct tax, upon right taxpayer, in correct entity, where only error found by that court is in capacity in which taxpayer is described. Arthur Jordan Foundation v. District of Columbia (1955, 219 F. 2d 503, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 71).

Regulations of Commissioners

The 1961 amendments of District of Columbia franchise tax regulations were not retroactively applicable to determine tax liability for 1956 and hence a formula using only a sales factor must be employed under 1953 regulation so that sales principally secured, negotiated or effected in District were to be deemed District sales in determining proper method of apportioning to District that part of taxpayer's net income which was "fairly attributable" to business carried on in the District. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated (1962, 305 F. 2d 761, 113 U.S. App. D.C. 92).

District of Columbia franchise tax regulations which provided that prior regulations were rescinded except for certain purposes in relation to years to which they were applicable were only regulations in effect as to tax year subsequent to promulgation of such regulations. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated; Gallant Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1961, 290 F. 2d 745, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

Under section 47–1571a imposing for privilege of carrying on a trade or business within the District a franchise tax at five percent upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and statutes respecting determination of the tax, the District commissioners are not required to give weight to any particular factors in prescribing a formula to determine the portion of net income fairly attributable to business carried on within the District and hence a regulation which relied on sales as a determining factor was not invalid where the regulation would inevitably apportion the net income on the basis of sales between the District and other taxing jurisdictions where the sales were made. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Under section 47–1571 et seq., imposing a privilege tax for carrying on a business within the District, there is no implied prohibition against the use of the sales factor of the taxpayer alone in making the apportionment, and hence a regulation of the District commissioners using such factor was not invalid, especially in view of the failure of Congress to declare that part of net income fairly attributable to the District in case of a manufacturing and selling business could not properly be determined by an apportionment factor taking into account the sole factor of sales in the District as compared with total sales. Id.

Regulation of the District commissioners relying on sales as the determinative factor in apportioning franchise tax on corporation of part of net income of the taxpayer's business which was carried on partly within and partly without the District was not invalid as inherently arbitrary and unreasonable, or if not inherently unreasonable as invalid as applied to the taxpayer on the ground that it unreasonably apportioned to the District income which properly had no relation to the privilege of doing business in the District, where there was no showing that the formula used resulted in attributing to the taxpayer's privilege of doing business in the District a greater value than it actually had. Id.

Apportionment formula, contained in 1948 regulations prescribed by Commissioners of District of Columbia to govern computation of franchise tax, was valid. District of Columbia v. Radio Corporation of America (1956, 232 F. 2d 376, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 119, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 44, 352 U. S. 845, 1 L. Ed. 2d 51).

1953 amendment to regulations, prescribed by Commissioners of District of Columbia to govern computation of franchise taxes, did not operate retroactively, and corporation's franchise tax liability for years 1949, 1950 and 1951 should have been determined under regulations then in force. Id.

Regulation prescribed by District commissioners, allocating to district gross income from sale principally secured, negotiated, or effected by owners, employees, agents, officers and branches of corporation located in District regardless of place of passage of title, was valid under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a tax on net income from District of Columbia sources of foreign and domestic corporations for privilege of carrying on or engaging in trade or business within District and of receiving income from sources within District. Lever Bros. Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 39, 92 App. D. C. 147).

Where parent corporation's entire income consisted of dividends from three subsidiary corporations, all of which (1) were organized under District of Columbia law, (2) had their principal offices and businesses in District, and (3) were engaged in business therein, parent corporation received its income from "sources" within the District and was therefore subject to income and franchise taxes, and it was immaterial that some of business of subsidiaries was done elsewhere, since court was not concerned with sources of their income but only with sources of parent corporation's income. Consolidated Title Corp v. Dist. of Columbia (1960, 275 F. 2d 885, 107 U.S. App. D.C. 221).

Where taxpayer's laundry plant was located in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some of its customers it supplied its own articles which it cleaned and laundered and picked up and delivered and such work was performed outside the District, it was not "work done and services performed" in the District within section 47–1571 et seq. and the charges therefor were not apportionable or allocable to the District in calculating income taxes. Industrial Coverall Laundry Corp. v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 669, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 266).

Where taxpayer had a laundry plant in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some customers, taxpayer furnished a supply of its own articles each week for a consideration with pick up and delivery service and the cleaning thereof was done in the plant in Virginia, source of income from the arrangement was the use or rental of the articles with pick up and delivery incidental thereto and in addition the cleaning and laundry, the latter being service and the income fairly attributable to the use or rental of the articles should be allocated to the District, in calculating income tax. Id.

§ 47–1580a. Allocation and apportionment.

The entire net income of any corporation or unincorporated business, derived from any trade or business carried on or engaged in wholly within the District shall, for the purposes of this subchapter, be deemed to be from sources within the District, and shall, along with other income from sources within the District, be allocated to the District. If the trade or business of any corporation or unincorporated business is carried on or engaged in both within and without the District, the net income derived therefrom shall, for the purposes of this subchapter, be deemed to be income from sources within and without the District. Where the net income of a corporation or unincorporated business is derived from sources both within and without the District, the portion thereof subject to tax under this subchapter shall be determined under regulation or regulations prescribed by the Commissioners. The Assessor is authorized to employ any formula or fomulas provided in any regulation or regulations prescribed by the Commissioners under this subchapter which, in his opinion, should be applied in order to properly determine the net income of any corporation or unincorporated business subject to tax under this subchapter. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 349, ch. 258, Art. I, title X, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Apportionment

Section 47–1571 et seq. imposing franchise tax on that portion of corporation's net income as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District envisions a situation where the revenue of a corporation comes from such varied and diverse sources that it can be separated into more than one stream. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Where District of Columbia statutes impose franchise tax on that portion of corporation's net income as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District and a District newspaper had revenue (1) from sale of its newspapers both within and without the District and (2) from sale of advertising space and (3) in nature of interest on obligations, rents and dividends and this rent, etc., was from District sources, the newspaper's tax would be calculated on the sum of the two separate "net incomes"; i.e., (1) net income from non-operating activities (rentals, etc.) which were from sources within the District and which was specifically allocated to the District, and (2) that portion of operating net income from the trade or business which is fairly attributable to business carried on within the District. Id.

Where District of Columbia statutes impose franchise tax on that portion of corporation's net income as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District and the commissioners' regulations promulgated thereunder envision a procedure whereby certain income will be specifically allotted to District sources, i.e., rents, royalties, income from sale of realty, etc., and other income from various activities both within and without the District will be apportioned depending upon the source or activity which produced it, with the assessor being given broad authority with respect to the apportionment, such regulations are applicable to a newspaper which engages in multiple activities both within and without the District. Id.

Where petitioner, which was engaged in business of buying and selling waste paper in District of Columbia and Chicago, did not prepare its return on basis of a separate accounting, return, which purported to show no net income on district business could not be said to reflect absence of net income fairly attributable to that business, and computation of petitioner's franchise tax was not required to be made on basis of separate accounting and could be made by apportioning to district that portion of income which percentage of district sales bore to total sales. Thomas Paper Stock Co. v. District of Columbia (1958, 255 F. 2d 180, 103 U. S. App. D. C. 102).

Where taxpayer's laundry plant was located in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some of its customers it supplied its own articles which it cleaned and laundered and picked up and delivered and such work was performed outside the District, it was not "work done and services performed" in the District within the income tax statute and the charges therefor were not apportionable or allocable to the District in calculating income taxes. Industrial Coverall Laundry Corp. v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 669, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 266).

Apportionment formula

Courts may not substitute franchise tax formula for that adopted by District of Columbia commissioners and most that they can do is reject commissioners' approach as unauthorized. District of Columbia v. General Motors Corp. (1964, 336 F. 2d 885, 118 U.S. App. D.C. 381; reversed on other grounds, 85 S. Ct. 1156).

Use of single-factor formula for determining franchise tax upon business conducted both within and without District of Columbia was not inherently arbitrary or unreasonable. Id.

Formula to effect that net income of corporation arising from activities within District of Columbia and therefore subject to franchise tax was to total net income of corporation, which obtained income from business conducted both within and without District, as sales made within District were to total sales made by corporation was a permissible one. Id.

Sales-factor formula established by regulation providing that portion of income derived from manufacture and sale or purchase and sale of tangible personal property to be apportioned to District of Columbia should be percentage of total of such income as District sales made during taxable year bears to total sales made everywhere during taxable year was not authorized by District's Income and Franchise Tax Act. General Motors Corp. v. District of Columbia (1965, 85 S. Ct. 1156).

Authority of District of Columbia tax commissioners to promulgate regulations for detailed apportionment of income of multi-state enterprises is limited by provision of District's Income and Franchise Tax Act requiring that net income of corporation doing business inside and outside District be deemed to arise from sources situated in like fashion. Id.

Allocation of portion of corporation's income derived from manufacture and sale outside District of Columbia did not relieve District tax commissioners of statutory responsibility to apportion that part of corporation's income arising from manufacture outside and sale inside District limits. Id.

It is not enough, under District of Columbia statute requiring that net income of corporation doing business inside and outside District be deemed to arise from sources situated in like fashion, to require apportionment of income derived from District sales only in case where taxed corporation has no sales outside District. Id.

Where company carries on business both inside and outside of District of Columbia with respect to income which it derives from sales made within District, provision of District's Income and Franchise Tax Act specifying that if trade or business of any corporation is carried on both within and without District income derived therefrom shall be deemed to be income from sources within and without District requires that some portion of such income be deemed to arise from sources outside District. Id.

Circulation test is not exclusive apportionment formula, for District of Columbia income tax purposes, as to all types of publications carried on partly within and partly outside the District. Broadcasting Publications, Inc. v. District of Columbia; District of Columbia v. Broadcasting Publications, Inc. (1963, 313 F. 2d 554, 114 U.S. App. D.C. 163).

Entire income of trade magazine printed and published in District of Columbia by taxpayer whose subscribers and advertisers were almost entirely outside the District, was subject to tax in District, where greater part of total business activity, including mailing of magazines to subscribers, was carried on within District, and there was no continuous physical contact outside District except for news gathering and solicitation of advertisers. Id.

Assessor has discretion to select, from District of Columbia franchise tax regulations, most appropriate formula for apportioning that part of corporate taxpayer's net income which is fairly attributable to business carried on in District and, in absence of such formula, can devise formula which, in his judgment, subject to court review, will properly determine net income subject to tax and amount of tax. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated; Gallant Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1961, 290 F. 2d 745, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

Method of assessor of District of Columbia in determining franchise tax on railway by treating as District costs a substantial part of total management, legal, accounting and administrative costs, as well as certain terminal expenses, incurred for benefit of entire rail system or other parts of it was inequitable. District of Columbia v. Southern Ry. Co. (1960, 277 F. 2d 84, 107 U.S. App. D.C. 285).

Where original formula for taxation worked out by agreement between assessor and newspaper doing business both within and without the District of Columbia did not follow any applicable regulation promulgated by the commissioners under section 47–1571 et seq., such formula was erroneous. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Where deficiency assessments levied by assessor against District of Columbia newspaper doing business both within and without the District were based on the false premise that all the newspaper's income was from sources solely within the District, the assessments were invalid and were refundable. Id.

Apportionment formula, contained in 1948 regulations prescribed by Commissioners of District of Columbia to govern computation of franchise tax, was valid. District of Columbia v. Radio Corporation of America (1956, 232 F. 2d 376, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 119, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 44, 352 U. S. 845, 1 L. Ed. 2d 51).

Burden of proof

Taxpayer doing business both within and without District of Columbia did not sustain its burden of showing that franchise tax levied on it by District of Columbia as determined by single-factor sales formula was not reasonably attributable to business transacted in District. District of Columbia v. General Motors Corp. (1964, 336 F. 2d 885, 118 U.S. App. D.C. 381; reversed on other grounds 85 S. Ct. 1156).

Burden was on corporate taxpayer to show by specific evidence that double taxation would result from application of formula of District of Columbia for imposing franchise tax. Id.

Corporation which obtained income from business conducted both within and without District of Columbia failed to show that double taxation in violation of commerce clause would result from application of District's formula for franchise tax based upon single-factor sales formula. Id.

Congressional intent

Section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a privilege tax on carrying on any trade or business within the District upon net income of corporations derived from sources within the District does not disclose a congressional intent to direct the use of any particular formula in calculating the tax, much less a three-factor apportionment formula based on sales, manufacturing costs and property values. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District which omitted previous provision that the assessor should apply as far as practicable the interpretations of the federal income tax law, failure to re-enact such provision or one similar to it indicated congressional intent not to direct that commissioners based their regulations on those promulgated under the federal statute, particularly in view of existing District regulations which were not repudiated. Id.

Exhausting administrative remedy

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a District franchise tax upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and regulations authorizing the assessor to relieve a taxpayer if the apportionment formula results in an inequitable tax, where taxpayer failed to show that it had exhausted the administrative remedy, taxpayer was not entitled to ask the court to hold that District assessments were invalid and erroneous because of improper apportionment formula. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Federal regulations

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a franchise tax on net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District, District commissioners in establishing a formula for determination of the tax are not bound by the regulations issued under the comparable provision of the federal income tax law. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Nonoperating net income

Rents and royalties from nonoperating activities were from District of Columbia sources and should be specifically allocated to the District in computing District franchise tax on newspaper which engaged in activities both within and without the District, and this net income should be calculated by subtracting from the gross income attributable to these sources the expenses incurred in their receipt and this net income figure would be "nonoperating net income". District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Operating net income

The circulation and advertising revenue of District of Columbia newspaper which engaged in activities both within and without the District would not be separated for apportionment purposes, as respects District of Columbia franchise tax, and both were operating revenues, and "operating net income" from advertising and circulation must be apportioned between District and non-District sources. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

Regulations of Commissioners

Where it appeared that regulation amendments promulgated by commissioners of the District of Columbia and made applicable to any case in which liability of taxpayer had not been finally determined by final decision of court might be susceptible to different interpretation than regulations under which case had been decided by Tax Court, case would be remanded to Tax Court so that it could address itself to applicability and effect of amendments. The May Department Stores Co. v. District of Columbia (1966, 364 F. 2d 689, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 296).

Regulation promulgated under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing franchise tax upon income of trade or business carried on in District of Columbia was not applicable to taxable years prior to its adoption. District of Columbia v. Southern Ry. Co. (1960, 277 F. 2d 84, 107 U.S. App. D.C. 285).

Regulation of the District commissioners relying on sales as the determinative factor in apportioning franchise tax on corporation of part of net income of the taxpayer's business which was carried on partly within and partly without the District was not invalid as inherently arbitrary and unreasonable, or if not inherently unreasonable as invalid as applied to the taxpayer on the ground that it unreasonably apportioned to the District income which properly had no relation to the privilege of doing business in the District, where there was no showing that the formula used resulted in attributing to the taxpayer's privilege of doing business in the District a greater value than it actually had. The Smoot Sand and Gravel Corp. v. District of Columbia (1958, 261 F. 2d 758, 104 U.S. App. D.C. 292).

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing for privilege of carrying on a trade or business within the District a franchise tax at five per cent upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within the District and statutes respecting determination of the tax, the District commissioners are not required to give weight to any particular factors in prescribing a formula to determine the portion of net income fairly attributable to business carried on within the District and hence a regulation which relied on sales as a determining factor was not invalid where the regulation would inevitably apportion the net income on the basis of sales between the District and other taxing jurisdictions where the sales were made. Id.

Under section 47–1571 et seq. imposing a privilege tax for carrying on a business within the District, there is no implied prohibition against the use of the sales factor of the taxpayer alone in making the apportionment, and hence a regulation of the District commissioners using such factor was not invalid, especially in view of the failure of Congress to declare that part of net income fairly attributable to the District in case of a manufacturing and selling business could not properly be determined by an apportionment factor taking into account the sole factor of sales in the District as compared with total sales. Id.

1953 amendment to regulations, prescribed by Commissioners of District of Columbia to govern computation of franchise taxes, did not operate retroactively, and corporation's franchise tax liability for years 1949, 1950, and 1951 should have been determined under regulations then in force. District of Columbia v. Radio Corporation of America (1956, 232 F. 2d 376, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 119, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 44, 352 U. S. 845, 1 L. Ed. 2d 51).

Sales to the United States

Under Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, as amended, sales of tangible personal property to the United States by a corporation having its principal place of business in District of Columbia were apportionable on same basis as sales of like property to private customers, and District's contention that all of taxpayer's sales to United States were subject to tax and not apportionable was opposed to interpretation of statute and rule set out in District's own regulations. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated (1962, 305 F. 2d 761, 113 U.S. App. D.C. 92).

Sources within the District

A District of Columbia newspaper's net income was derived from sources both within and without the District, for District franchise tax purposes, where substantial number of newspapers was sold outside District. District of Columbia v. Evening Star Newspaper Co. (1959, 273 F. 2d 95, 106 U.S. App. D.C. 360).

In determining whether taxpayer is carrying on a trade or business solely within District of Columbia for District franchise tax purposes, passage of title is useful as a gauge but is not solely determinative of source of income. Id.

As respects whether taxpayer is carrying on a trade or business solely within District of Columbia for District franchise tax purposes, the fact that taxpayer's activities in Maryland and Virginia are not sufficient to subject it to service of process in those states is not the determinative test. Id.

That no other jurisdiction has seen fit to tax taxpayer as doing business therein is not persuasive that the taxpayer's business is solely within the District of Columbia for District franchise tax purposes. Id.

Where taxpayer had a laundry plant in Virginia and many of its customers were located in the District of Columbia and to some customers, taxpayer furnished a supply of its own articles each week for a consideration with pick up and delivery service and the cleaning thereof was done in the plant in Virginia, source of income from the arrangement was the use or rental of the articles with pick up and delivery incidental thereto and in addition the cleaning and laundry, the latter being service and the income fairly attributable to the use or rental of the articles should be allocated to the District, in calculating income tax. Industrial Coverall Laundry Corp. v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 669, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 266).

Tax Court's authority

Tax Court was not precluded, by lack of regulatory formula, from determining income fairly attributable to District of Columbia for franchise tax purposes but could determine such amount by applying applicable tax regulations and using formula Tax Court deemed best suited to determine such income. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated; Gallant Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1961, 290 F. 2d 745, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

§ 47–1580b. Allocation of income and deductions between organizations, etc.

In any of two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in the District, and whether or not affiliated) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the Assessor is authorized to distribute, apportion, or allocate gross income or deductions between or among such organizations, trades, or businesses, whenever in his opinion such distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any of such organizations, trades, or businesses. The provisions of this section shall apply, but shall not be limited in application to any case of a common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act and jointly owned or controlled directly or indirectly by two or more common carriers by railroad subject to said Act. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 349, ch. 258, Art. I, title X, § 3.)

Title XI.—Bases

§ 47–1583. Basis for determining gain or loss.

The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of property shall be the cost of such property, except that—

(a) If the property is of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof.

(b) In respect of any real or tangible property acquired after December 31, 1938, the cost thereof shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) By adding to its original cost to the taxpayer the amount of all expenditures connected therewith, including real-estate taxes upon the property, which were properly chargeable to capital account and were not deducted in any income-tax return which the taxpayer was required to file under the provisions of this subchapter or sections 47–1501 to 47–1547; but such additions as are herein provided for shall include only those expenditures made by the taxpayer between the time the property was acquired by him and the date of sale or other disposition of the property.

(2) By deducting from such cost the full loss sustained since acquisition for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion to the extent allowed or allowable (whichever amount is the greater) on such property in all returns required to be filed by the taxpayer under the provisions of this subchapter or of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547.

(3) In the case of property (including intangible personal property) acquired by gift or inheritance, where the transfer thereof to the taxpayer was subject to tax by the United States or by any jurisdiction in which the property had a taxable situs at that time, the basis of the property so acquired shall be the highest valuation then placed upon such transfer by the United States or by any authorized taxing State or Territory thereof. If such transfer of the property was not subject to the aforesaid transfer tax, the base shall be the fair market value of such property at the time acquired. For the purpose of this subsection, the time such inherited property was acquired shall be the date of death of the decedent. The basis herein provided for shall be subject to the appropriate adjustment or adjustments defined in subsection (b) of this section.

(c) If the property was acquired before January 1, 1939, the basis shall be the fair market value as of that date or, at the option of the taxpayer, the cost of such property, and in the case of real or tangible property such cost shall be diminished by exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, and depletion actually sustained before such date: Provided, however, That the preceding valuation so determined shall be adjusted by the appropriate additions and deductions provided for in subsection (b) of this section to cover the period from January 1, 1939, to the date of sale or other disposition of the property. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 350, ch. 258, Art. I, title XI, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction with other laws

Statute defining taxable income for income tax purposes has no bearing upon statute relating to imposition of real property tax upon previously exempt additional grounds of religious institution which have been sold at profit, and fact that determination of gain or loss on sale of church properties was not in accord with income tax statute could not invalidate assessment. Simpson Memorial Methodist Ch. v. District of Columbia (1952, 199 F. 2d 169, 91 U. S. App. D. C. 105).

§ 47–1583a. Gain or loss from sale or other disposition of property.

(a) Computation of gain or loss.—The gain or loss, as the case may be, from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the difference between (a) the amount realized from such sale or other disposition of the property and (b) the basis as defined in section 47–1583.

(b) Amount realized.—The amount realized from the sale or exchange of property shall be its selling price, and such price shall include cash payments received or to be received subsequently therefor, plus the sum of any mortgage and other encumbrances thereon at the time of such sale or exchange. The amount realized shall also include at its then market value any property received in part or in full settlement of the property sold or exchanged, adjusted to include the then existing encumbrances on such property received in exchange. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 350, ch. 258, Art. I, title XI, § 2.)

§ 47–1583b. Exchange in reorganizations.

When in connection with the reorganization of a corporation, a taxpayer receives, in place of stock or securities owned by him, any stock or securities of the reorganized corporation, no gain or loss shall be deemed to occur from the exchange until the new stock or securities are sold or realized upon and the gain or loss is definitely ascertained, until which time the new stock or securities received shall be treated as taking the place of the stock and securities exchanged. For the purposes of this section, the word "reorganization" means (1) a statutory merger or consolidation; or (2) the acquisition by one corporation, in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock, of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation; or (3) the acquisition by one corporation, in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock, of substantially all the properties of another corporation, but in determining whether the exchange is solely for voting stock the assumption by the acquiring corporation of a liability of the other, or the fact that property acquired is subject to a liability, shall be disregarded; or (4) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its shareholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred; or (5) a recapitalization; or (6) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, title XI, § 3.)

§ 47–1583c. Basis for dividends paid in property.

Where any property other than money is paid by a corporation as a dividend, the base to the recipient thereof shall be the market value of such property at the time of its distribution by such corporation. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, title XI, § 4.)

§ 47–1583d. Exception to applicability of sections 47–1583 through 47–1583b.

The provisions of sections 47–1583 through 47–1583b shall not apply to the sale or exchange of any property defined as a capital asset by section 47–1551c (1). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, title XI, § 5.)

§ 47–1583e. Depreciation.

The bases used in determining the amount allowable as a deduction from gross income under the provisions of section 47–1557b (a) (7) shall be—

(a) where the property was acquired after December 31, 1938, by purchase, the basis shall be the cost thereof to the taxpayer;

(b) where the property was received in exchange for other property after December 31, 1938, the basis shall be the market value thereof at the time of such exchange;

(c) where the property was inherited or acquired by gift after December 31, 1938, the basis shall be that defined in subsection 47–1583 (b) (3);

(d) if the property was acquired prior to January 1, 1939, the appropriate basis set forth in subsection (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be used: Provided, however, That the taxpayer may, at his option, use as the basis the market value of such property as of January 1, 1939;

(e) the taxpayer may deduct in each taxable year only such amount of depreciation as was actually sustained during that year and such annual deduction shall be based upon the useful life of the property remaining after the date used by the taxpayer in establishing the valuation: Provided, however, That the allowance for depreciation actually sustained during any taxable year may not be increased by any depreciation of the property which was allowable as a deduction in any earlier taxable year: And provided further, That any basis so established may not be changed in a subsequent taxable year, unless written approval of the Assessor has been first obtained. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, title XI, § 6.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Depreciation

Where taxpayer received real property in corporate dissolution in 1953, proper depreciation basis of these properties could not exceed total of taxpayer's interest in earned surplus account at time of dissolution, and where such amount had already been more than exhausted by depreciation deductions taken by taxpayer for years 1953 through 1959 no allowance for 1960 and 1961 District of Columbia income taxes would be permitted. B. W. Oppenheimer v. District of Columbia (1966, 33 F. 2d 708, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 221).

The proper basis for computing depreciation on corporate owned building allowable to taxpayer who had purchased all of the corporate stock for cash and then liquidated the same and transferred the assets to himself was a proper proportion of the cost to taxpayer which was the value of stock he turned over for the building. C. A. Snow, et ano v. District of Columbia (195, 361 F. 2d 523, 124 U.S. App. D.C. 69).

Under law of District of Columbia, distributions from corporate earnings were dividends, fully taxable, but distributions from depreciation reserves were not income subject to tax. District of Columbia v. H. Goldman and Y. D. Goldman (1963, 328 F. 2d 520, 117 U.S. App. D.C. 219).

TITLE XII.—ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION; TIME OF PAYMENT

§ 47–1586. Duties of Assessor.

The Assessor is hereby required to administer the provisions of this subchapter. As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the Assessor shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of tax. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Apportionment formula

Assessor has discretion to select, from District of Columbia franchise tax regulations, most appropriate formula for apportioning that part of corporate taxpayer's net income which is fairly attributable to business carried on in District and, in absence of such formula, can devise formula which, in his judgment, subject to court review, will properly determine net income subject to tax and amount of tax. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated; Gallant Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1961, 290 F. 2d 745, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

Tax Court's authority

Tax Court was not precluded, by lack of regulatory formula, from determining income fairly attributable to District of Columbia for franchise tax purposes but could determine such amount by applying applicable tax regulations and using formula Tax Court deemed best suited to determine such income. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated; Gallant Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1961, 290 F. 2d 745, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

§ 47–1586a. Statements and special returns.

Every person upon whom the duty is imposed by this subchapter to file any applications, returns, or reports or who is liable for any tax imposed by this subchapter shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Assessor from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the Assessor deems it necessary, he may required any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as he believes sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable to tax under this subchapter and the extend of such liability. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 2.)

§ 47–1586b. Examination of books and witnesses.

The Assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed hereunder, or for the purpose of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayer, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the Assessor shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then, and in that event, the Assessor may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or one of the judges thereof, and said court or any judge thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to such summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the Assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the Assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 3; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (a), (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia", "judge" for "justice", and "judges" for "justices."

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

§ 47–1586c. Return by Assessor.

If any person fails to make and file a return at the time prescribed by law or by regulations made under authority of law, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the Assessor shall make the return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. Any return so made and subscribed by the Assessor shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 4.)

§ 47–1586d. Determination and assessment of deficiency.

If a deficiency in tax is determined by the Assessor, the taxpayer shall be notified thereof and given a period of not less than thirty days, after such notice is sent by registered mail or by certified mail, in which to file a protest and show cause or reason why the deficiency should not be paid. Opportunity for hearing shall be granted by the Assessor, and a final decision thereon shall be made as quickly as practicable. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 5; June 11, 1960, 74 Stat. 203, Pub. L. 86–507, § 1(54).)

AMENDMENT

1960—Act June 11, 1960, inserted words "or by certified mail" following "registered mail."

CROSS REFERENCE

Use of certified mail receipts as prima facie evidence of delivery, see § 14–506.

§ 47–1586e. Jeopardy assessment.

(a) Authority for making.—If the Assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this subchapter will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful.

(b) Bond to stay collection.—The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the Collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the Collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount the collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for this section, such amount would be due. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 6.)

§ 47–1586f. Payment of tax.

(a) Time of payment.—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the total amount of tax due as shown on the taxpayer's return is due and payable in full at the time prescribed in this article for the filing of such return.

(2) INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAXES.—Any amount of individual income tax due, in excess of that withheld or remitted by way of a declaration of estimated tax, is due and payable in full at the time prescribed in this subchapter for filing an income tax return.

(3) DEFICIENCIES.—Any deficiency in any tax imposed by this subchapter, determined by the Assessor under the provisions of section 47–1586d shall be due and payable within ten days from the date of the assessment.

(4) EMPLOYERS.—Every employer required to deduct and withhold tax under this subchapter shall, for the quarterly period beginning October 1, 1956, and for each quarterly period thereafter, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period make return to the Assessor and pay over to the Collector the tax required to be withheld under this subchapter.

(5) JEOPARDY WITHHOLDING ASSESSMENTS.—If the Assessor, in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in paragraph (4) of subsection (a) of this section is in jeopardy, he may require the employer to make such a return and pay such tax at any time.

(6) PAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.—The estimated tax provided for in this subchapter shall be paid as follows:

(A) If the declaration is filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in four equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration; the second and third on July 15 and October 15 respectively, of the taxable year and the fourth on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(B) If the declaration is filed after April 15 and not after July 15 of the taxable year and is not required by this subchapter to be filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in three equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration; the second on October 15 of the taxable year and the third on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(C) If the declaration is filed after July 15 and not after October 15 of the taxable year and is not required by this subchapter to be filed on or before July 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in two equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, and the second on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(D) If the declaration is filed after October 15 of the taxable year, and is not required by this subchapter to be filed on or before October 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in full at the time of the filing of the declaration.

(E) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed in this subchapter, including cases where extensions of time have been granted, subparagraphs (B), (C) and (D) of paragraph (6) of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply, and there shall be paid at the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before such time if the declaration had been filed within the time prescribed in this subchapter, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been payable if the declaration had been so filed.

(7) If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased, as the case may be, to reflect the respective increase or decrease in the estimated tax by reason of such amendment, and if any amendment is made after October 15 of the taxable year any increase in the estimated tax by reason thereof shall be paid at the time of making such amendment.

(8) In the application of paragraphs (4), (5), (6) and (7) of subsection (a) of this section to taxpayers reporting income on a fiscal year basis, there shall be substituted for the dates specified therein, the months corresponding thereto.

(b) Extension of time for payments.—At the request of the taxpayer the Assessor may extend the time for payment by the taxpayer of the amount determined as the tax for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof: Provided, however, That where the time for filing a return is extended for a period exceeding six months under the provisions of section 47–1564b (b), the Assessor may extend the time for payment of the tax, or the first installment thereof, to the same date to which he has extended the time for filing the return. In such case the amount in respect to which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(c) Voluntary advance payment.—A tax imposed by this subchapter, or any installment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258; Art. I, title XII, § 7; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 71, ch. 154, § 10; Mar. 2, 1962, 76 Stat. 10, Pub. L. 87–408, § 201.)

AMENDMENTS

1962—Act Mar. 2, 1962, amended paragraph (1) of subsection (a) which read as follows: "(a) Time of payment—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, one-half of the total amount of the tax due as shown on the taxpayer's return shall be paid to the Collector on the 15th day of April following the close of the calendar year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid to the Collector on the 15th day of October following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then one-half of the total amount of such tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the tenth month following the close of the fiscal year", to read as above set out.

1956—Subsec. (a) amended generally by act Mar. 31, 1956. Prior to such amendment, subsection read as follows: "One-half of the total amount of the tax due as shown on the taxpayer's return shall be paid to the Collector on the 15th day of April following the close of the calendar year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid to the Collector on the 15th day of October following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then one-half of the total amount of such tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the tenth month following the close of the fiscal year. Any deficiency in tax determined by the Assessor under the provisions of section 5 of this title shall be due and payable within ten days from the date of the assessment."

APPLICABLE DATE OF 1962 AMENDMENTS

Section 202 of act Mar. 2, 1962, provided that the amendment of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) "shall be applicable to the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1961".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1586g. Withholding of tax.

(a) WITHOLDING OF TAX AT SOURCE.—Whenever the Assessor shall deem it necessary in order to satisfy the District's claim for a tax payable by any foreign corporation or unincorporated business, he may, by rules and regulations, require any person subject to the jurisdiction of the District to withhold and pay to the Collector an amount not in excess of 5 per centum of all income payable by such person to such foreign corporation or unincorporated business. After such foreign corporation or unincorporated business shall have filed all returns required under this title, and the same shall have been audited, the Collector shall refund any overpayment to the taxpayer.

(b) WITHHOLDING OF TAX BY EMPLOYER.—Every employer making payment of wages on or after October 1, 1956, to any employee as defined in this subchapter, shall deduct and withhold a tax upon such wages, such tax to be determined by one of the following methods, to be elected by the employer, subject to the approval of the Assessor, with respect to any employee—in accordance with a percentage method of withholding similar in principle to that under section 3402 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, to be included in regulations:

in accordance with tables similar in principle to those contained in section 3402 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, to be included in regulations; in accordance with a percentage of the amount of tax withheld under section 3402 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or comparable provision in effect at the time with respect to the withholding of United States income tax, such percentage to be included in regulations; or by such other method as may be prescribed in regulations.

(1) If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(2) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days (including Sundays and holidays) which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employed during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(3) In determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this section, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(4) The Commissioners may, by regulations, authorize employers—

(A) to estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(B) to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(C) to deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon the wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount that would be required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter if the payroll period of the employee were quarterly.

(5) The Commissioners are authorized to provide by regulation, under such conditions and to such extent as they deem proper, for withholding in addition to that otherwise required under this section in cases in which the employer and the employee agree to such additional withholding. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered the tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section.

(c) OVERLAPPING PAY PERIODS.—If payment of wages is made to an employee by an employer—

(1) with respect to a payroll period or other period, any part of which is included in a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to such employee by such employer;

(2) without regard to any payroll period or other period, but on or prior to the expiration of a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to such employee by such employer;

(3) with respect to a period beginning in one and ending in another calendar year; or

(4) through an agent, fiduciary, or other person who also has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays the wages payable by another employer to such employee, the manner of withholding and the amount to be deducted and withheld under this section shall be determined in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Commissioners under which the withholding exemption allowed to the employee in any calendar year shall approximate the withholding exemption allowable with respect to an annual payroll period.

(d) INCLUDED AND EXCLUDED WAGES.—If the remuneration paid by an employer to an employee for services performed during one-half or more of any payroll period of not more than thirty-one consecutive days constitutes wages, all the remuneration paid by such employer to such employee for such period shall be deemed to be wages; but if the remuneration paid by an employer to an employee for services performed during more than one-half of any such payroll period does not constitute wages, then none of the remuneration paid by such employer to such employee for such period shall be deemed to be wages.

(e) WITHHOLDING EXEMPTIONS.—(1) An employee receiving wages shall on any day be entitled to the withholding exemptions allowed under this subchapter.

(2) Every employee shall, on or before October 1, 1956, or before the date of commencement of employment, whichever is later, furnish his employer with a signed withholding exemption certificate relating to the withholding exemptions which he claims, which in no event shall exceed the number to which he is entitled.

(3) Withholding exemption certificates shall take effect as of the beginning of the first payroll period ending, or the first payment of wages made without regard to a payroll period, on or after the date on which such certificate is so furnished: Provided, That certificates furnished before October 1, 1956, shall be considered as furnished on that date.

(4) A withholding exemption certificate which takes effect under this section shall continue in effect with respect to the employer until another such certificate takes effect under this section. If a withholding exemption certificate is furnished to take the place of an existing certificate, the employer, at his option, may continue the old certificate in force with respect to all wages paid on or before the first status determination date, January 1 or July 1 of each year, which occurs at least thirty days after the date on which such new certificate is furnished.

(5) If, on any day during the calendar year, the withholding exemptions to which the employee may reasonably be expected to be entitled at the beginning of his next taxable year is different from the exemptions to which the employee is entitled on such day, the employee shall in such cases and at such times as the Commissioners may prescribe, furnish the employer with a withholding exemption certificate relating to the exemptions which he claims with respect to such next taxable year, which shall in no event exceed the exemptions to which he may reasonably be expected to be so entitled. Exemption certificates issued pursuant to this subsection shall not take effect with respect to any payment of wages made in the calendar year in which the certificate is furnished.

(6) If, on any day during the calendar year, the withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is less than the withholding exemptions claimed by the employee on the withholding exemption certificate then in effect with respect to him, the employee shall, within ten days thereafter, furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the exemptions to which he is entitled on such day. If, on any day during the calendar year, the withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is greater than the withholding exemptions claimed, the employee may furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the exemptions to which he is entitled on such day.

(7) Withholding exemption certificates shall be in such form and contain such information as the Commissioners may by regulations prescribe.

(f) FAILURE TO WITHHOLD OR PAY AMOUNTS WITHHELD.—(1) Every employer, who fails to withhold or pay to the Collector any sums required by this section to be withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable therefor to the District of Columbia; and any sum or sums withheld in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be, and shall be, held in trust by the employer for the District of Columbia.

(2) The District of Columbia shall have a lien upon all the property of any employer who fails to withhold or pay over to the Collector sums required to be withheld under this section. If the employer withholds but fails to pay over the amounts withheld to the Collector the lien shall accrue on the date the amounts were withheld. If the employer fails to withhold, the lien shall accrue on the date the amounts were required to be withheld.

(g) STATEMENT TO BE FURNISHED EMPLOYEE.—(1) Every person required to deduct and withhold from an employee a tax under this section, or who would have been required to deduct and withhold a tax under this section if the employee had claimed no more than one withholding exemption, shall furnish to each such employee in respect to the wages paid by such person to such employee during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if his employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, on the day on which the last payment of wages is made, a written statement showing the following:

(A) The name and address of such person;

(B) The name and address of the employee and his social security account number;

(C) The total amount of wages as defined in this subchapter; and

(D) The total amount deducted and withheld as tax under this section.

The statement required to be furnished by this subsection in respect of any wages shall be furnished at such other times, shall contain such other information, and shall be in such form, as the Commissioners may by regulation prescribe. A duplicate of such statement if made and filed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioners shall constitute the return required to be made in respect to such wages.

(2) The Commissioners may promulgate regulations providing for reasonable extensions of time, not in excess of thirty days, to employers required to furnish statements under this subsection.

(h) LIABILITY FOR TAX WITHHELD.—An employer shall be liable for the payment of tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section. Such tax shall be paid to the Collector and shall not be paid to any other person.

(i) DECLARATIONS, REQUIREMENTS, TIME FOR FILING.—(1) Every person residing or domiciled in the District at the times prescribed in paragraph (4) of this subsection shall, at such times, make a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if—

(A) the gross income for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to consist of wages and of not more than $1,000 from sources other than such wages, and can reasonably be expected to exceed the total amount of the personal exemptions to which he is entitled under this subchapter plus $5,000; or

(B) the gross income can reasonably be expected to include more than $1,000 which is not subject to the withholding provisions of this subchapter, and can reasonably be expected to exceed the personal exemptions to which he is entitled under this subchapter, plus $500.

This requirement shall not apply to any elective officer of the Government of the United States or any employee on the staff of an elected officer in the legislative branch of the Government of the United States if such employee is a bona fide resident of the State of residence of such elected officer, or any officer of the executive branch of such Government whose appointment to the office held by him was by the President of the United States and subject to confirmation by the Senate of the United States and whose tenure of office is at the pleasure of the President of the United States, unless such officers are domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year. Under this subchapter, a declaration of estimated tax shall be considered a return of income.

(2) In the declaration required under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the individual shall state—

(A) the amount which he estimates as the amount of income tax due under this subchapter for the taxable year;

(B) the amount which he estimates as the credit for tax withheld for the taxable year under this subchapter;

(C) the excess of the amount estimated under subparagraph (A) over the amount estimated under subparagraph (B), which excess for purposes of this section shall be considered the estimated tax for the taxable year; and

(D) such other information as may be prescribed in regulations promulgated by the Commissioners.

(3) In the case of a husband and wife, a single declaration under this section may be made by them jointly, in which case the liability with respect to the estimated tax shall be joint and several. No joint declaration may be made if the husband and wife are separated under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or if they have different taxable years. If a joint declaration is made but a joint return is not made for the taxable year, the estimated tax for such year may be treated as the estimated tax of either husband or wife, or may be divided between them.

(4) The declaration required under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be filed with the Assessor on or before April 15 of the taxable year, except that if the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subsection are first met—

(A) after April 1 and before July 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before July 15 of the taxable year;

(B) after July 1 and before October 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before October 15 of the taxable year; or

(C) after October 1 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year: Provided, That the declaration required to be filed during 1956 may be filed not later than October 15, 1956, if the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subsection are fulfilled at any time prior to October 1, 1956.

(5) An individual may make amendments of a declaration filed during the taxable year under this subsection, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners.

(6) If on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year the taxpayer files a return for the taxable year for which the declaration is required and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, then under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners—

(A) if the declaration is not required to be filed during the taxable year, but is required to be filed on or before such January 15, such return shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as such declaration; and

(B) if the tax shown on the return, reduced by the credits under this subchapter, is greater than the estimated tax shown in a declaration previously made or, in the last amendment thereof, such return shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as the amendment of the declaration permitted by this subsection to be filed on or before such January 15.

(7) The Commissioners may promulgate regulations governing reasonable extensions of time for filing declarations and paying the estimated tax. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extensions shall be for more than six months.

(8) If the taxpayer is unable to make his own declaration, the declaration shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer.

(9) The provisions of section 47–1564c shall apply to a declaration of estimated tax.

(10) Payment of the estimated tax, or any installment thereof, shall be considered payment on account of the tax for the taxable year.

(j) RELIEF FROM ONE-HALF OF INCOME TAX LIABILITY FOR THE FIRST TAXABLE YEAR UNDER WITHHOLDING.—One-half of the liability for the income tax imposed by this subchapter for the calendar year 1956, or the fiscal year of a taxpayer beginning during such calendar year, upon any resident of the District (other than fiduciaries) shall be discharged. The remainder of the total amount of the income tax due as shown on the taxpayer's return shall be paid to the collector on the 15th of April, 1957, or if the return be made on the basis of a fiscal year the remainder of the total amount of such tax shall be paid on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(k) Repealed. Sept. 6, 1966, 80 Stat. 632, Pub. L. 89–554, § 8(a).

(July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 8; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 72–77, ch. 154, § 11; Sept. 6, 1966, 80 Stat. 632, Pub. L. 89–554, § 8(a).)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Act Sept. 6, 1966, amended section by repealing subsec. (k), which related to the withholding of District of Columbia income taxes by heads of departments or agencies of the United States, with respect to employees thereof whose regular place of employment was within the District of Columbia, and which is now covered by 5 U.S.C. § 5516.

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, designated existing provisions as subsec. (a) and added subsecs. (b)—(k).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Effective date of lien

Lien for District of Columbia withholding taxes was without further action being taken, perfected or choate at time when income tax was or should have been withheld. District of Columbia v. Hechinger Properties Co. (D.C. App. 1964, 197 A. 2d 157).

§ 47–1586h. Tax a personal debt.

Every tax imposed by this subchapter, and all increases, interest, and penalties thereof, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a personal debt, from the person or persons liable to pay the same to the District and shall be entitled to the same priority as other District taxes, and the taxes levied under this subchapter and the interest and penalties thereon shall be collected by the Collector in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 9.)

§ 47–1586i. Period of limitation upon assessment and collection.

(a) General rule.—Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section—

(1) the amount of income taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be assessed within three years after the return is filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period;

(2) in the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, or by his estate during the period of administration, or by a corporation, the tax shall be assessed, and any proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such tax shall be begun within twelve months after written request therefor (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, or by the corporation, but not after the expiration of three years after the return is filed. This subsection shall not apply in the case of a corporation unless—

(A) such written request notifies the Assessor that the corporation contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(B) the dissolution is in good faith begun before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(C) the dissolution is completed;

(3) if the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 25 per centum of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time within five years after the return was filed;

(4) For the purposes of subsections (a), (1), (a) (2), and (a) (3), a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(b) False return.—In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(c) Waiver.—Where before the expiration of the time prescribed in subsection (a) for the assessment of the tax, both the Assessor and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

(d) Collection after assessment.—Where the assessment of any income tax imposed by this subchapter has been made within the period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, but only if begun (1) within three years after the assessment of the tax or (2) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the Assessor and the taxpayer before the expiration of such three-year period. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 354, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 10; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, title IV, § 417.)

AMENDMENT

1949—Subsec. (a)(4) amended by act May 27, 1949, which deleted proviso suspending the periods of limitation upon the assessment and collection of taxes in cases where the taxpayer has appealed to the Board of Tax Appeals until such cases have been finally disposed of in the Board of Tax Appeals by final decision, dismissal, or otherwise.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Deficiency assessment

Statute of limitations did not bar income tax deficiency assessment. N. Bord and A. R. Bord v. District of Columbia (1965, 344 F. 2d 560, 120 U.S. App. D.C. 175).

§ 47–1586j. Refunds.

(a) REFUND TO TAXPAYER. Except as to any deficiency taxes assessed under the provisions of section 47–1586d, where there has been an overpayment of any tax imposed by this subchapter, the amount of such overpayment may be credited against any liability in respect of any income or franchise tax or installment thereof (whether such tax was assessed as a deficiency or otherwise), on the part of the person who made the overpayment, and the balance shall be refunded to such person.

No such credit or refund shall be allowed after three years from the time the tax was paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, and no tax or part thereof which the Assessor may determine to have been an overpayment shall be refunded after the period prescribed therefor in the Act appropriating the funds from which such refund would otherwise be made. The amount of such credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim was filed, then during the three years immediately preceding the allowance of such credit or refund. Every claim for credit or refund must be in writing, under oath; must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, and must be filed with the Assessor: Provided, That if it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court that any part of any tax which was assessed as a deficiency under the provisions of section 47–1586d was an overpayment, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment at the rate of one-third of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month from the date such overpayments were paid until the date of refund, and in addition thereto any interest upon such overpayment which was paid by the taxpayer shall be refunded.

(b) REFUND TO EMPLOYER.—(1) Where there has been an overpayment of tax under section 47–1586g, refund or credit shall be made to the employer only to the extent that the amount of such overpayment was not deducted and withheld under section 47–1586g by the employer.

(2) Unless written application for refund or credit is received by the Assessor from the employer within three years from the date the overpayment was made, no refund or credit shall be allowed.

(c) REFUND OF OVERPAYMENT OF TAX WITHHELD.—(1) Where the amount of the tax withheld at the source under section 47–1586g exceeds the taxes imposed by this subchapter against which the tax so withheld may be credited under this section, the amount of such excess shall be considered an overpayment: Provided, That, any other provision of law notwithstanding, interest on any overpayment of taxes collected under the withholding provisions of this subchapter and under any declaration of estimated tax shall not begin to accrue until ninety days after the overpayment is made or after the date of filing of a final return, whichever is later.

(2) PRESUMPTION AS TO DATE OF PAYMENT.—For the purposes of this section, any tax actually deducted and withheld at the source during any calendar year under this subchapter shall, in respect of the recipient of the income, be deemed to have been paid on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year with respect to which such tax is allowable as a credit under this subchapter. For the purpose of this section, any amount paid prior to the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year as estimated tax for such taxable year shall be deemed to have been paid on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of such taxable year.

(3) Authority to refund overpayments of taxes collected pursuant to section 47–1586g is vested in the Commissioners or their duly authorized representatives. Such refunds shall be made from moneys paid pursuant to the provisions of section 47–1586g and retained in a special account in the Treasury of the United States. The total amount so retained shall not exceed $500,000 at any one time. Any excess in such special account not required for refunding overpayments collected pursuant to section 47–1586g at any time, as determined by the Assessor, shall be transferred to the general fund of the District. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 355, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 11; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 133, ch. 146, title IV, § 418; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 78, ch. 154, § 12.)

AMENDMENTS

1956—Subsec. (a), formerly entire section, so designated by act Mar. 31, 1956, and amended by substituting "may be credited against any liability in respect of any income or franchise tax or installment thereof (whether such tax was assessed as a deficiency or otherwise), on the part of the person who made the overpayment, and the balance shall be refunded to such person" for "shall be credited against any income tax or installment thereof, whether such tax was assessed as a deficiency or otherwise, then due from the taxpayer, and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer", and "at the rate of one-third of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month" for "at the rate of 4 per centum per annum."

Subsecs. (b) and (c) added by act Mar. 31, 1956.

1949—Act May 27, 1949, authorized the refunding of interest upon overpayments paid by the taxpayer.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–1586k. Closing agreements.

The Assessor is authorized to enter into a written agreement with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any income tax for any period ending prior to the date of the agreement. If such agreement is approved by the Commissioners within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive and except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified; and in any suit or proceeding relating to the tax liability of the taxpayer such agreement shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 355, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 12.)

§ 47–1586*l*. Compromises.

(a) Authority to make.—Whenever in the opinion of the Commissioners there shall arise with respect of any tax imposed under this subchapter any doubt as to the liability of the taxpayer or the collectibility of the tax for any reason whatsoever, the Commissioners may compromise such tax.

(b) Concealment of assets.—Any person who, in connection with any compromise under this section or offer of such compromise or in connection with any closing agreement under this title or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully (1) conceals from any officer or employee of the District of Columbia any property belonging to the estate of the taxpayer or other person liable with respect of the tax, or (2) receives, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record or makes under oath any false statement relating to the estate or the financial condition of the taxpayer or to the person liable in respect of the tax, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia.

(c) Of penalties and interest.—The Commissioners shall have the power for cause shown to compromise any penalty which may be imposed by the Assessor under the provisions of this subchapter. The Assessor may adjust any interest where, in his opinion, the facts in the case warrant such action. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 355, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 13; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

§ 47–1586m. Definition of "person".

The term "person" as used in this title includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 14.)

REFERENCES IN TEXT

The term "title" as used in this section refers to §§ 47–1586 to 47–1586n.

§ 47–1586n. Payment to Collector and receipts.

The taxes provided under this subchapter shall be collected by the Collector and the revenues derived therefrom shall be turned over to the Treasury of the United States for credit to the District in the same manner as other revenues are turned over to the United States Treasury for credit to the District. The Collector shall, upon written request, give to the person making payment of any income tax a full written or printed receipt therefor. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, title XII, § 15.)

TITLE XIII.—PENALTIES AND INTEREST

§ 47–1589. Failure to file return.

(a) FAILURE TO FILE RETURN.—In case of any failure to make and file a return required by this subchapter, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioners or Assessor in pursuance of law, 5 per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax for each month or fraction thereof that such failure continues, not to exceed 25 per centum in the aggregate, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. With respect to declarations of estimated tax, for the purposes of this subsection, the amount and due date of each installment shall be the same as if a declaration had been filed within the time prescribed showing an estimated tax equal to the correct tax reduced by the amount of credit for tax withheld.

(b) FAILURE TO FILE EMPLOYER'S QUARTERLY RETURN.—An employer required to withhold taxes on wages and make quarterly returns to the Assessor and to make payment of amounts withheld to the Collector who fails to withhold such taxes, or to make such returns, or who fails to remit amounts collected to the Collector, shall be subject to a civil penalty (in addition to criminal penalties provided for in this subchapter) equal to 25 per centum of the amount of taxes that should have been properly withheld and paid over to the Collector for each such failure. Such penalty shall be assessed by the Assessor and collected by the Collector.

(c) UNDERESTIMATE OF TAX BY RESIDENTS.—If 80 per centum of the tax, determined without regard to the amount of credit for tax withheld, exceeds the estimated tax, increased by such credit, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to such excess, or equal to 6 per centum of the amount by which such tax so determined exceeds the estimated tax so increased, whichever is the lesser. This subsection shall not apply to the taxable year in which falls the death of the taxpayer, nor shall it apply to the taxable year in which the taxpayer makes a timely payment on April 15, July 15, and October 15, of such year, and January 15 of the succeeding year, and the total of all such payments is an amount at least as great as though computed on the basis of the facts shown on his return for the preceding taxable year.

(d) COLLECTION OF PENALTIES ADDED TO TAX.—The amount added to any tax under this section shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, in which case the amount so added shall be assessed and collected. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIII, § 1; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 79, ch. 154, § 13.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Subsec. (a), formerly first sentence of section, so designated by act Mar. 31, 1956, and amended to provide for the amount and due date of each installment with respect to declarations of estimated tax.

Subsecs. (b) and (c) added by act Mar. 31, 1956.

Subsec. (d), formerly second sentence of section, so designated by act Mar. 31, 1956.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1955, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Basis of Court's decision

Where Tax Court, in reaching decision on assessment of negligence penalty, did not rely upon ground that taxpayers failed to report their proceeds of sale of corporate asset as nontaxable income in space provided on return, court on appeal could not uphold Tax Court's findings on that ground. N. Bord and A. R. Bord v. District of Columbia (1965, 344 F. 2d 560, 120 U.S. App. D.C. 175).

§ 47–1589a. Interest on deficiencies.

(a) Assessment and Collection.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed.

(b) If extension granted for payment of deficiency.—If the time for payment of any part of a deficiency is extended, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month for the period of the extension. If a part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in full, together with all penalties and interest due thereon, prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month shall be added and collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIII, § 2; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 79, ch. 154, § 14.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, substituted "one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month" for "6 per centum per annum" in subsecs. (a) and (b).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1589b. Additions to the tax in case of deficiency.

(a) Negligence.—If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

(b) Fraud.—If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, collected, and paid. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIII, § 3.)

§ 47–1589c. Additions to the tax in case of nonpayment.

(a) Tax shown on return.

(1) General rule.—Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this subchapter, or any installment thereof, or any part of such amount or installment, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) If extension granted.—Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under section 47–1589d is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in subsection (a) (1) of this section, interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Deficiency.—Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under section 47–1589a or under section 47–1589b, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in section 47–1589 is not paid in full within ten days from the date of assessment thereof, there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIII, § 4; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 79, ch. 154, § 14.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, substituted "one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month" for "6 per centum per annum" in subsecs. (a), (b) and (c).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1589d. Time extended for payment of tax shown on return.

If the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, is extended under the authority of section 47–1586f (b), there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the expiration of the period of the extension. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIII, § 5; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 79, ch. 154, § 14.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, substituted "one-half of 1 per centum per month or portion of a month" for "6 per centum per annum."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1589e. Penalties.

(a) Willful violation.—Any person required under this subchapter to pay or collect any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of this subchapter, who willfully refuses to pay or collect such tax, to make such return, to keep such records, or to supply such information, or who makes a false or fraudulent return, or who willfully attempts in any manner to defeat or evade the tax imposed by sections 47–1551 to 47–1595, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with costs of prosecution. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions on information by the Corporation Counsel or one of his assistants in the name of the District.

(b) Definition of "person".—The term "person" as used in this title includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIII, § 6; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

REFERENCES IN TEXT

The term "title", as used in this section, refers to sections 47–1589 to 47–1589e.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded Act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Constitutionality

The District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947 is not unconstitutional on any theory of "taxation without representation". E. Green v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1966, 221 A. 2d 441).

TITLE XIV.—LICENSES

§ 47–1591. Requirement.

(a) CORPORATION OR UNINCORPORATED BUSINESS.—No corporation or unincorporated business, except such corporations or unincorporated businesses as are expressly exempt under the provisions of section 47–1554, shall engage in or carry on any trade or business in the District without a license so to do issued under this subchapter in addition to all other licenses and permits required by law, except as hereinafter provided. For the first calendar year to which this subchapter is applicable, no license shall be required of any corporation licensed under the provisions of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547. Every corporation not so licensed and every unincorporated business shall obtain such license within sixty days after the approval of sections 47–1551 to 47–1595. Every corporation or unincorporated business which commences to engage in or carry on any trade or business in the District after the passage of sections 47–1551 to 47–1595 shall obtain a license under this subchapter within sixty days after the date of the commencement of such trade or business in the District. Applications for licenses shall be filed with the Assessor prior to January 1 of each year upon forms prescribed and furnished by the Assessor, and each application shall be accompanied by a fee of $10: Provided, however, That any unincorporated business having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or less shall not be required to obtain the license provided for in this title.

(b) TRADE, BUSINESS, OR PROFESSIONAL LICENSE.—Every person, other than a corporation, who, as an individual, sole proprietor, partner, associate, or joint venturer shall, in the District of Columbia, engage in or conduct a trade, business, or profession, which is excluded from the imposition of the District of Columbia tax on unincorporated businesses under the definition set forth in section 47–1574, shall file with the Assessor prior to December 1st of the calendar year 1957, and prior to December 1st of each calendar year thereafter, an application for a trade, business, or professional license, accompanied by a license fee of $25, which license, upon issuance, shall entitle such person to engage in or conduct a trade, business, or profession in the District of Columbia during the next ensuing calendar year: Provided, That no license shall be required under this subsection to be obtained by any individual or sole proprietor engaging in or conducting a trade, business, or profession in the District of Columbia whose annual gross receipts from such trade, business, or profession in the District of Columbia were, during the prior calendar year, less than $5,000, and no partner, associate, or joint venturer shall be required to obtain a license where the annual gross receipts of the partnership, association, or joint venture in the District of Columbia were, during the prior calendar year, less than $5,000: And provided further, That every person who, during any calendar year, commences as an individual, sole proprietor, partner, associate, or joint venturer, to engage in or conduct a trade, business, or profession in the District of Columbia without having so engaged in the prior calendar year, shall, within fifteen days after the date in said commencement year on which such trade, business, or profession attains gross receipts of $5,000, make application to the Assessor, accompanied by a license fee of $25, for the license required by this subsection for the calendar year during which the trade, business, or profession was commenced, and any person who, during the prior calendar year, although engaged in a trade, business, or profession, did not attain gross receipts of $5,000, shall, within fifteen days after the date within the calendar year on which such trade, business, or profession attains gross receipts of $5,000, make application to the Assessor, accompanied by a license fee of $25, for the license required by this subsection for the calendar year during which the trade, business, or profession, attained gross receipts of $5,000.

No license shall be required (1) of any registered nurse or practical nurse for the purpose of engaging in or conducting a trade, business, or profession of registered nurse or practical nurse in the District of Columbia, (2) of any person licensed under section 35–425, for the purpose of acting within the District of Columbia for any life insurance company as a general agent, agent, or solicitor in the solicitation or procurement of applications for insurance, or (3) of any person engaged in the ministry of healing by prayer or spiritual means alone and who is a member of a church or denomination whose tenets and teachings include the practice of such healing. No officer or employee of the Government of the United States, or the government of the District of Columbia, and no individual in private or public employment who is compensated for services performed by him as an employee for his employer shall, for such employment, be required to obtain a license and, in the case of a partnership, association, or joint venture, no license shall be required of any partner, associate, or joint venturer who does not himself engage in or conduct the trade, business, or professional activities of the partnership, association, or joint venture in the District of Columbia. The license required to be obtained under the provisions of this subsection shall be in addition to all other licenses, fees, and permits required by law. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 1; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 133, ch. 146, title IV, § 419; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 79, ch. 154, § 15; Sept. 4, 1957, 71 Stat. 606, Pub. L. 85–281, § 7.)

AMENDMENTS

1957—Subsec. (b) amended by act Sept. 4, 1957, which added provisos, and exempted persons licensed under § 35–425, persons engaged in the ministry of healing by prayer or spiritual means alone and who are members of a church or denomination whose tenets and teachings include the practice of healing, officers and employees of the Government of the United States or of the Government of the District of Columbia, individuals in private or public employment compensated for services performed by them as employees for their employer, and partners, associates, or joint venturers who do not engage in or conduct the trade, business or professional activities.

1956—Subsec. (a), formerly entire section, so designated by act Mar. 31, 1956.

Subsec. (b) added by act Mar. 31, 1956.

1949—Act May 27, 1949, exempted unincorporated businesses having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or less from the license requirement.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1957 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Sept. 4, 1957, applicable to the calendar year 1958 and subsequent calendar years, see section 8 of act Sept. 4, 1957, set out as a note under § 47–1557a.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1949 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 27, 1949, applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after Dec. 31, 1948, see section 421 of act May 27, 1949, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1591a. Duration of license.

All licenses issued under this title shall be in effect for the duration of the calendar year for which issued, unless revoked as provided in this title, and shall expire at midnight on the 31st day of December of each year. No licenses issued under this title may be transferred to any other person. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 2; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 80, ch. 154, § 16.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, substituted "No licenses issued under this title may be transferred to any other person" for "No license may be transferred to any other corporation or unincorporated business."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551a.

§ 47–1591b. Licenses to be posted.

All licenses granted under this title to persons having an office or place of business in the District must be conspicuously posted in the office or on the premises of the licensee, and said license shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the police or other officers duly authorized to make such inspection. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 3; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 80, ch. 154, § 17.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act Mar. 31, 1956, substituted "persons" for "corporations or unincorporated businesses."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, applicable to taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1955, see section 19 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–1551c.

§ 47–1591c. Repealed. May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 207, ch. 246, § 4.

Section, act July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 4, provided for license or certificate of agent or employee of corporation or unincorporated business having no office or place of business in the District.

§ 47–1591d. Revocation.

The Commissioners may, after hearing, revoke any license issued hereunder for failure of the licensee to file a return or corrected return within the time required by this subchapter, or to pay any installment of tax when due. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 5.)

§ 47–1591e. Renewal.

Licenses shall be renewed for the ensuing calendar year upon application as provided in section 47–1591. No license shall be issued or renewed if the taxpayer has failed or refused to pay any tax or installment thereof, or penalties or interest thereon, imposed by this subchapter: Provided, however, That, the Commissioners, in their discretion, for cause shown, may, on such terms or conditions as they may determine or prescribe, waive the provisions of this section. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 6.)

§ 47–1591f. Penalty for failure to obtain license.

Any person engaged in or carrying on any trade or business in the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b without having obtained a license so to do, within the time prescribed by section 47–1591, and any person engaging in or carrying on any trade or business in the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b for or on behalf of any corporation or unincorporated business not having a license so to do, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure, refusal, or violation, and each and every day that such failure, refusal, or violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions on information by the Corporation Counsel or any of his assistants in the name of the District: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to mere collection by an agent of income of a corporation or unincorporated business not having the license required under this title. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, title XIV, § 7; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 80, ch. 154, § 18; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

TITLE XV.—APPEAL

§ 47–1593. Appeal to Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment of a deficiency in tax determined and assessed by the Assessor under the provisions of section 47–1586d and any person aggrieved by the denial of any claim for refund made under the provisions of section 47–1586j, may, within ninety days from the date of the assessment of the deficiency or from the date of the denial of a claim for refund, as the case may be, appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404, 47–2407 to 47–2411. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, ch. 258, Art. I, title XV, § 1.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

In general

Where corporation delivered to examiner in office of District of Columbia Assessor of Taxes, checks in respect to business privilege tax assessed against corporation, and a letter protesting the tax, and Assessor's office handed on the checks to office of Collector of Taxes, there was sufficient payment of tax to Collector to permit an appeal by corporation to District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia, (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

§ 47–1593a. Election of remedy.

The remedy provided in section 47–1593 shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such tax in accordance with the provisions of section 47–1593. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, ch. 258, Art. I, title XV, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Choice of remedy

Under District of Columbia Code to effect that administrative remedy for recovery of taxes shall not be deemed to take away from taxpayer any remedy which he might have had under any other provision of law, taxpayer is permitted recourse to either administrative remedy or common-law suit for recovery of District of Columbia taxes, and inasmuch as decision of Tax Court or filing of an appeal with that court precludes taxpayer from filing suit under his common-law remedy, exhaustion of administrative remedy can in no sense be a condition precedent to a common-law action. District of Columbia v. J. C. Brady (1960, 288 F. 2d 108, 109 U.S. App. D.C. 324).

TITLE XVI.—RULES AND REGULATIONS

§ 47–1595. Commissioners to prescribe and publish rules.

The Commissioners shall prescribe and publish such rules and regulations, consistent with the provisions of this subchapter, as may be necessary and proper for its enforcement and efficient administration. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, ch. 258, Art. I, title XVI, § 1.)

§ 47–1595a. Commissioners authorized to make rules and regulations in regard to District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1956.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this Act. (Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 71, ch. 154, title VI, § 601.)

§ 47–1601. Imposition of tax.

Taxes shall be imposed in relation to estates of decedents, the shares of beneficiaries of such estates, and gifts as hereinafter provided:

(a) All real property and tangible and intangible personal property, or any interest therein, having its taxable situs in the District of Columbia, transferred from any person who may die seized or possessed thereof, either by will or by law, or by right of survivorship, and all such property, or interest therein, transferred by deed, grant, bargain, gift, or sale (except in cases of a bona fide purchase for full consideration in money or money's worth), made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the decedent, or made in contemplation of death, to or for the use of, in trust or otherwise (including property of which the decedent has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from such property or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom), to the father, mother, husband, wife, children by blood or legally adopted children, or any other lineal descendants or lineal ancestors of the decedent, shall be subject to a tax as follows: 1 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $5,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 2 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 3 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 4 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000 and not in excess of $1,000,000; 5 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $1,000,000.

(b) So much of said property so transferred to each of the brothers and sisters of the whole or half blood of the decedent shall be subject to a tax as follows: 3 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $2,000 and not in excess of $25,000; 4 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 6 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 8 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 10 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000.

(c) So much of said property so transferred to any person other than those included in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section and all firms, institutions, associations, and corporations shall be subject to a tax as follows: 5 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $1,000 and not in excess of $25,000; 7 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 9 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 12 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 15 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000.

(d) Executors, administrators, trustees, and other persons making distribution shall only be discharged from liability for the amount of such tax, with the payment of which they are charged, by paying the same as hereinafter described.

(e) Property transferred exclusively for public or municipal purposes, to the United States or the District of Columbia, or exclusively for charitable, educational, or religious purposes, shall be exempt from any and all taxation under the provisions of this section.

(f) Where any beneficiary has died or may hereafter die within six months after the death of the decedent and before coming into the possession and enjoyment of any property passing to him, and before selling, assigning, transferring, or in any manner contracting with respect to his interest in such property, such property shall be taxed only once, and if the tax on the property so passing to said beneficiary has not been paid, then the tax shall be assessed on the property received from such share by each beneficiary thereof, finally entitled to the possession and enjoyment thereof, as if he had been the original beneficiary, and the exemptions and rates of taxation shall be governed by the respective relationship of each of the ultimate beneficiaries to the first decedent.

(g) The provisions of sections 47–1601 to 47–1607 shall apply to property in the estate of every person who shall die after August 18, 1937.

(h) The transfer of any property, or interest therein, within 2 years prior to death, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death.

(i) All property and interest therein which shall pass from a decedent to the same beneficiary by one or more of the methods specified in this section, and all beneficial interests which shall accrue in the manner herein provided to such beneficiary on account of the death of such decedent, shall be united and treated as a single interest for the purpose of determining the tax hereunder.

(j) Whenever any person shall exercise a general power of appointment derived from any disposition of property, made either before or after the passage of this chapter, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a transfer taxable, under the provisions of this chapter, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power; and whenever any person possessing such power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same, within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omissions or failure in the same manner as though the person or persons thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related had succeeded thereto by the will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

(k) The doctrine of equitable conversion shall not be invoked in the assessment of taxes under this chapter.

REFUND OF TAXES PAID FOR TRANSFER OF PROPERTY TO AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS

Section 2 of act June 24, 1946, provided that: "This Act [amending subsec. (e) of this section] shall not authorize nor require the refund of any taxes paid for the transfer of any property to the American National Red Cross except such taxes as may have been paid under protest."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Alienation of property

That decedent's real estate was subject to statutory lien to secure payment of decedent's debt did not prevent devisee from coming into possession and enjoyment of devise within provision of paragraph (f) of this section providing that where beneficiary dies within six months after death of decedent and before coming into the possession and enjoyment of any property, such property shall be taxed only once. Fisher v. District of Columbia (1948, 164 F. 2d 707, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 371).

Charitable, educational, or religious purposes

A transfer by will to a nonresident educational institution of sum of $100,000, to use net income for payment of tuition and related fees for study at a university located in Washington, D. C., for doctoral degrees by as large a number of predoctoral fellows of nonresident educational institution as such income would permit was exempt from taxation under the inheritance and estate tax provisions as property transferred exclusively for educational purposes within District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. University of Notre Dame etc. (1957, 246 F. 2d 697, 101 U. S. App. D. C. 10).

Where will left property in trust for distribution of income and finally the principal to such worthy charity or charities in the District of Columbia as trustees in their own discretion might select, such property was transferred exclusively for charitable, educational, or religious purposes within the District of Columbia and was therefore exempt from District of Columbia inheritance tax. District of Columbia v. Castiello, etc. (1956, 230 F. 2d 839, 97 U. S. App. D. C. 289).

Conclusiveness of findings

In proceeding for review of decision of District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals that decedent died domiciled in District of Columbia so as to subject his property to inheritance taxes imposed by District of Columbia Code, and that decedent had not retained domicile in state from which he had come to District of Columbia to work for the Government, findings of Board were required to be accepted when not clearly wrong. Weitknecht v. District of Columbia (1952, 195 F. 2d 570, 90 U. S. App. D. C. 291, certiorari denied 73 S. Ct. 47, 344 U. S. 837, 97 L. Ed. 651).

Contemplation of death

Advanced age alone does not establish contemplation of death for inheritance tax purposes. District of Columbia v. Fadeley et al. (1956, 233 F. 2d 667, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 176, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 64, 352 U. S. 847, 1 L. Ed. 2d 57).

Where agreement between decedent and other partners for transfer of decedent's partnership interest was such that decedent alone was to have fixed percentage of partnership profits, and others assumed certain calculated risks, agreement was not without valuable consideration for inheritance tax purposes. Id.

Evidence justified finding that action of a settlor, three months before death of settlor, in renouncing a retained right to income from trust property, was in contemplation of death so that trust property was properly included in settlor's gross estate for inheritance taxation. Heller v. District of Columbia (1952, 198 F. 2d 983, 91 U. S. App. D. C. 238).

Evidence justified finding of Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia that a conveyance of realty made by decedent less than two years before death of decedent, and a transfer of promissory note receivable which decedent made less than two years before her death, were made in contemplation of death so as to subject them to inheritance tax. Id.

Construction

The sections of this chapter forming complementary parts of death tax plan for the District of Columbia must be construed together. District of Columbia v. Safe Deposit & Trust Co. of Baltimore (1941, 116 F. 2d 21, 72 App. D. C. 197).

Domicile

In determining whether federal employee was, at time of his death, legally domiciled in Florida or in District of Columbia which sought to impose inheritance tax, court could review legal effect attached to evidence before board of tax appeals since a domiciliary determination involves a compound consideration of fact and law. Pace v. District of Columbia (1943, 135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

Where district court, sitting in probate, concluded that federal employee died a resident of Florida and ordered his will transmitted to clerk of appropriate court in that state and a few weeks later granted ancillary letters testamentary, such orders were entitled to weight but were not conclusive on question whether the federal employee was domiciled in the District of Columbia so as to permit the District to impose an inheritance tax. Id.

Evidence

Evidence sustained finding that a decedent who had come to District of Columbia for position in Government, and who remained in district until his death several years after he lost his Government position, did not have a fixed and definite intent to return to his original home after he lost his Government position, and that consequently decedent died domiciled in District of Columbia so as to subject his property to inheritance taxes imposed by District of Columbia Code. Weitknecht v. District of Columbia (1952, 195 F. 2d 570, 90 U. S. App. D. C. 291, certiorari denied 73 S. Ct. 47, 344 U. S. 837, 97 L. Ed. 651).

Evidence established that federal employee who died after 27 years of official service in District of Columbia was legally domiciled in Florida, his domicile of origin, at time of his death, and therefore petitioner was not subject to the District of Columbia inheritance tax. Pace v. District of Columbia (1943, 135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

General power of appointment

Where irrevocable trust instrument, which provided for distribution of remainder of corpus to income beneficiary at age 45, gave beneficiary general power of appointment, but provided that in default of appointment undistributed corpus should be transferred to persons who would be entitled to distribution of beneficiary's personal estate as of date of his death, and beneficiary executed, under seal, an instrument releasing all power of appointment and died before reaching 45, value of corpus passing on death of beneficiary was not subject to inheritance tax. District of Columbia v. Lloyd (1947, 160 F. 2d 581, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 70).

Where during her lifetime, the beneficiary received the income from a trust without restriction upon its use, with principal held in trust so that she could not encumber or dispose of it even if there had been no restrictive provisions and where by will she could dispose of principal to those whom she might direct, she possessed a general power of appointment subject to taxation. Lane v. District of Columbia (1950, 182 F. 2d 105, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 337).

Jointly owned property

Statute subjected to inheritance tax one half of value of shares of stock, which first sister had purchased with her own funds, and which first sister had registered jointly in names of herself and of second sister, with right of survivorship, on death of second sister. P. McKimmey v. District of Columbia (1962, 300 F. 2d 724, 112 U.S. App. D.C. 132).

Life interest

In District of Columbia inheritance tax proceeding, evidence sustained finding of the Tax Court that taxpayer who advanced money to brother for purchase of bonds, had intended to make gift of only life interest in such bonds, reserving remainder to herself, and that when bonds had passed to taxpayer upon death of brother there had been no transfer of any "interest" in bonds within this chapter. District of Columbia v. Wilson (1954, 216 F. 2d 630, 94 U. S. App. D. C. 399).

A life interest or contingent remainder held by decedent, if created by another, is considered to terminate at death and is not transferable interest within this chapter. Id.

Ownership of property

In determining whether there has been taxable transfer within this chapter, concern is with real ownership of property rather than with refinements of title. District of Columbia v. Wilson (1954, 216 F. 2d 630, 94 U. S. App. D. C. 399).

Payment in lieu of support

A transfer in lieu of husband's obligation to support his first wife during their joint lives, or until her remarriage, was made for adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, and if lump-sum payment made by executrix to first wife pursuant to property settlement agreement was in lieu of support obligation, it was not subject to a transfer tax. District of Columbia v. F. C. Lewis etc. (1961, 288 F. 2d 137, 109 U.S. App. D.C. 353).

Purchase for consideration

Where contract between stockholders provided that minority stockholders would surrender their stock to a trustee together with insurance policies on their lives, the proceeds of which would be payable to their wives in event of death and would constitute payment of the stock, which would then be returned to corporation and reissued, majority stockholder having power to terminate contract at any time, and minority stockholders had paid their own insurance premiums, additional stock so acquired by majority stockholder was not exempt from inheritance tax as having been acquired by bona fide purchaser for full "consideration in money or money's worth". O'Connor v. District of Columbia (1946, 153 F. 2d 225, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 351).

Record on appeal

Record on appeal from assessment of District of Columbia inheritance tax sustained Tax Court's finding that gifts to two grandsons were based on life motives and were not made in contemplation of death. District of Columbia v. Fadeley et al. (1956, 233 F. 2d 667, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 176, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 64, 352 U. S. 847, 1 L. Ed. 2d 57).

Remainder interest

Where testamentary trustee was authorized to invade corpus to meet reasonable needs of beneficiaries in their respective stations of life, including emergencies and protracted illness, taking into account funds otherwise available to them, and to be liberal in so doing, there was standard under which fair estimate could be made of market value of interests which remaindermen would take in determining their liabilty for inheritance taxes, and evidence of wages, life expectancies, health, accustomed scale of living, economic circumstances and other sources of income of beneficiaries as of date of death would permit reasonable measurement of possibility of invasion. McCeney et al. v. District of Columbia (1956, 230 F. 2d 832, 97 U. S. App. D. C. 282).

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are liable for inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interest required that market value be at least approximated as closely as possible in light of all available facts. Id.

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are to pay inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interests as determined in accordance with regulations require that actual market value of interest be determined as nearly as possible, and regulation providing that where corpus may be invaded on behalf of donee for life or for years, taxable value of interest of donee shall be value of entire corpus, was inconsistent with statutes and objectionable in not permitting facts bearing on likelihood of invasion and on market values of life and remainder interests to be considered. Id.

Review

In proceeding by bank against District of Columbia for review of decision of Board of Tax Appeals, decision of board that bank, which was paying interest to its depositors, was required to pay gross earnings tax for years 1946 and 1947 although bank sold its assets, ceased business and went into voluntary liquidation on November 30, 1946, was affirmed by the Court of Appeals in banc by an equally divided court. Columbia National Bank of Washington v. District of Columbia (1952, 195 F. 2d 942, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 224).

Testamentary transfers

Where taxpayer and his housekeeper had entered into agreement whereby he bought and paid for house but title was taken in her name, and, pursuant to agreement that house should belong to survivor upon death of other, housekeeper had willed house to taxpayer, transfer of house to taxpayer at death of his housekeeper was subject to tax under this section taxing all property transferred from any person who may die, seized or possessed thereof, either by will, or by law, or by right of survivorship. Slyder v. District of Columbia (1951, 187 F. 2d 217, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 170).

Where contract between stockholders provided that minority stockholders would surrender their stock to a trustee together with insurance policies on their lives, the proceeds of which would be paid to the wives of minority stockholders upon death and would constitute payment for the stock, which was then to be returned to the corporation and reissued, additional stock so acquired by majority stockholder was not acquired by an inter vivos transfer, but by a transfer testamentary in character and was subject to inheritance tax. O'Connor v. District of Columbia (1946, 153 F. 2d 225, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 351).

§ 47–1602. Tax based on market value—Appraisal.

The tax provided in section 47–1601 shall be paid on the market value of the property or interest therein at the time of the death of the decedent as appraised by the assessor or, in the discretion of the assessor, upon the value as appraised by the probate court of the District. The taxable portion of real or personal property held jointly or by the entireties shall be determined by dividing the value of the entire property by the number of persons in whose joint names it was held. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, Art. I, § 2; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1112, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "assessor" the first time said word appears.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Burden of establishing market value

A remainder interest under a trust, under applicable regulation, in absence of evidence relating to value filed with assessor, would not be deemed to establish a presumption conclusive in the Tax Court that such remainder was without value, but under such regulation remainderman had burden of introducing such evidence as would enable Tax Court to find market value of remainder was less than figure on which tax was assessed, but in view of remainderman's misinterpretation of such regulation, decision denying him relief would be set aside and remanded to permit remainderman to introduce evidence of market value. The Alabama Polytechnic Institute v. District of Columbia (1958, 250 F. 2d 408, 102 U. S. App. D. C. 83).

Foreign corporations

Where Delaware Corporation doing a title insurance business has its principal and sales office in the District, keeps all its corporate records in the District office, and concedes it transacts all its business in the District, it is subject to the District tax on gross receipts in the District. It is immaterial that its business related entirely to Maryland land. Suburban Title & Investment Corp. v. District of Columbia (1950, 180 F. 2d 387, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 112).

Jointly owned property

Statute subjected to inheritance tax one half of value of shares of stock, which first sister had purchased with her own funds, and which first sister had registered jointly in names of herself and of second sister, with right of survivorship, on death of second sister. P. McKimmey v. District of Columbia (1962, 300 F. 2d 724, 112 U.S. App. D.C. 132).

Law governing

Where sections 47–704 to 47–709 provided for annual assessment of real estate in District of Columbia and that annual valuation of real estate should constitute basis of taxation for next succeeding year, and this section provided that inheritance tax should be paid on market value of property or interest therein at time of the death of deceased as appraised by assessor and that appraisal should be taken as true value of property or interest therein, market value of property or interest as determined by appraiser controlled and not annual valuation placed upon property for purposes of property tax. Fisher v. District of Columbia (1948, 164 F. 2d 707, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 371).

Market value of remainder interest

Where testamentary trustee was authorized to invade corpus to meet reasonable needs of beneficiaries in their respective stations of life, including emergencies and protracted illness, taking into account funds otherwise available to them, and to be liberal in so doing, there was standard under which fair estimate could be made of market value of interests which remaindermen would take in determining their liability for inheritance taxes, and evidence of wages, life expectancies, health, accustomed scale of living, economic circumstances and other sources of income of beneficiaries as of date of death would permit reasonable measurement of possibility of invasion. McCeney et al. v. District of Columbia (1956, 230 F. 2d 832, 97 U. S. App. D. C. 282).

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are liable for inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interest required that maket value be at least appoximateld as closely as possible in light of all available facts. Id.

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are to pay inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interests as determined in accordance with regulations require that actual market value of interest be determined as nearly as possible, and regulation providing that where corpus may be invaded on behalf of donee for life or for years, taxable value of interest of donee shall be value of entire corpus, was inconsistent with statutes and objectionable in not permitting facts bearing on likelihood of invasion and on market values of life and remainder interests to be considered. Id.

§ 47–1603. Appraisal deemed true value—Tax to be lien—Exceptions.

The appraisal thus made shall be deemed and taken to be the true value of the said property or interest therein upon which the said tax shall be paid, and the amount of said tax and the tax imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 shall be a lien on said property or interest therein for the period of ten years from the date of death of the decedent: Provided, however, That such lien shall not attach to any personal property sold or disposed of for value by an administrator, executor, or collector, of the estate of such decedent appointed by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills for the District or by order of said court, or his successor approved by said court, but a lien for said taxes shall attach on all property acquired in substitution therefor for a period of ten years after the acquisition of such substituted property: And provided further, That such lien upon such substituted property shall, upon sale by such personal representatives, be extinguished and shall reattach in the manner as provided with respect of such original property. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 684, ch. 690, title V, Art. I, § 3; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (b); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, § 1; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 26, 1939, substituted "register of wills for the District" for "register of wills of the District of Columbia."

1938—Act May 16, 1938, inserted the two proviso clauses relating to attachment and extinguishment of liens.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1938 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 16, 1938, effective at 12:01 ante meridian on May 17, 1938, see section 5(h) of act May 16, 1938, set out as a note under § 47–1601.

§ 47–1604. Report by decedent's personal representative—Contents—Payment.

The personal representative of every decedent, the gross value of whose estate is in excess of $1,000 shall, within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose an itemized schedule of all the property (real, personal, and mixed) of the decedent, the market value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent, the name or names of the persons to receive the same and the actual value of the property that each will receive, the relationship of such persons to the decedent, and the age of any persons who receive a life interest in the property, and any other information which the assessor may require. Said personal representative shall, within eighteen months of the date of the death of the decedent and before distribution of the estate, pay to the collector of taxes the taxes imposed by section 47–1601 upon the distributive shares and legacies in his hands and the tax imposed by section 47–1601 against each distributive share or legacy shall be charged against such distributive share or legacy unless the will shall otherwise direct. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 684, ch. 690, title V, Art. I, § 4; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, added the word "gross" before the word "value" the first time said word appears, and deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the words "collector of taxes."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Burden of establishing market value

A remainder interest under a trust, under applicable regulation, in absence of evidence relating to value filed with assessor, would not be deemed to establish a presumption conclusive in the Tax Court, that such remainder was without value, but under such regulation remainderman had burden of introducing such evidence as would enable Tax Court to find market value of remainder was less than figure on which tax was assessed, but in view of remainderman's misinterpretation of such regulation, decision denying him relief would be set aside and remanded to permit remainderman to introduce evidence of market value. The Alabama Polytechnic Institute v. District of Columbia (1958, 250 F. 2d 408, 102 U. S. App. D. C. 83).

Construction

There is no conflict between this section and 47–2403; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

Time of payment

Section 47–2403 requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the eighteen months provision of this section. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

§ 47–1605. Collection of tax from distributive share.

The personal representative of the decedent shall collect from each beneficiary entitled to a distributive share or legacy the tax imposed upon such distributive share or legacy in section 47–1601, and if the said beneficiary shall neglect or fail to pay the same within fifteen months after the date of the death of the decedent such personal representative shall, upon the order of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, sell for cash so much of said distributive share or legacy as may be necessary to pay said tax and all the expenses of said sale. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, Art. I, § 5; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, § 1; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, reenacted section without change.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

§ 47–1606. Property not under control of personal representative.

Every person entitled to receive property taxable under section 47–1601, which property is not under the control of a personal representative, and is over $1,000 in value, shall, within six months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose an itemized schedule of all property (real, personal, and mixed) received or to be received by such person; the market value of the same at the time of the death of the decedent and the relationship of such person to the decedent; and any other information which the assessor may require. The tax on the transfer of any such property shall be paid by such person to the collector of taxes within nine months after the date of the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That with respect to real estate passing by will or inheritance such report shall be made within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, and the tax on the transfer thereof shall be paid within eighteen months after the date of the death of the decedent. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, Art. I, § 6, formerly § 7; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5(c); renumbered July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 26, 1939, reenacted section without change.

1938—Act May 16, 1938, inserted the proviso clause.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1938 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 16, 1938, effective at 12:01 ante meridian on May 17, 1938, see section 5(h) of act May 16, 1938, set out as a note under § 47–1601.

§ 47–1607. Life and future estates—Payment of tax—Lien.

In the case of any grant, deed, devise, descent, or bequest of a life interest or term of years, the donee for life or years shall pay a tax only on the value of his interest, determined in a manner as the Commissioners by regulation may prescribe, and the donee of the future interest shall pay a tax only on his interest as based upon the value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent creating such interest. The value of any future interest shall be determined by deducting from the market value of such property at the time of the death of such decedent the value of the precedent life interest or term of years. Where the future interest is vested the donee thereof shall pay the tax within the time in which the tax upon the precedent life interest or term of years is required to be paid under the provisions of sections 47–1604 and 47–1606, as the case may be.

Where the future interest is contingent the personal representative of such decedent or the persons interested in such contingent future estate shall have the option of (1) paying, within the time herein provided for the payment of taxes due upon vested future interests, a tax equal to the mean between the highest possible tax and the lowest possible tax which could be imposed under any contingency or condition whereby such contingent future interest might be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended, or abridged; or (2) paying the tax upon such transfer at the time when such future interest shall become vested at rates and with exemptions in force at the time of the death of the decedent: Provided, That the personal representative or trustee of the estate of the decedent or the persons interested in the future contingent interest shall deposit with the assessor a bond in the penal sum of an amount equal to twice the tax payable under option (1) hereof. Such bonds shall be payable to the District and shall be conditioned for the payment of such tax when and as the same shall become due and payable. The tax upon the transfer of future interests or remainders shall be a lien upon the property or interest transferred from the date of the death of the decedent creating the interests and shall remain in force and effect until ten years after the date when such remainder or future interest shall become vested in the donee thereof. If the tax upon the transfer of a contingent future interest is paid before the same shall become vested, such tax shall be paid by the personal representative out of the corpus of the estate of the decedent, otherwise by the person or persons entitled to receive the same. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, Art. I, § 7, formerly § 10; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5(d), renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the word "such" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "the" before the word "decedent" immediately before the proviso and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District"

1938—Act May 16, 1938, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "In the case of any grant, deed, devise, descent, or bequest of a life interest or term of years, the donee for life or years shall pay a tax only on the value of his interest, and the donee of the future interest shall pay his tax when his right of possession or enjoyment accrues. In the case of a devise, descent, bequest, or grant to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the expiration of one or more life estates or of a term of years, the tax shall be assessed on the value of the property or interest therein coming to the beneficiary at the time when he becomes entitled to the same in possession or enjoyment. Said tax shall be a lien for the period of ten years on the property or interest therein from the date when said beneficiary becomes entitled to the same in possession or enjoyment."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1938 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 16, 1938, effective at 12:01 ante meridian on May 17, 1938, see section 5(h) of act May 16, 1938, set out as a note under § 47–1601.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Character of interest

The critical date for the determination of the character of a vested interest is the date of the deceased's death. District of Columbia v. Clark (1949, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

Market value of remainder interest

Where testamentary trustee was authorized to invade corpus to meet reasonable needs of beneficiaries in their respective stations of life, including emergencies and protracted illness, taking into account funds otherwise available to them, and to be liberal in so doing, there was standard under which fair estimate could be made of market value of interests which remaindermen would take in determining their liability for inheritance taxes, and evidence of wages, life expectancies, health, accustomed scale of living, economic circumstances and other sources of income of beneficiaries as of date of death would permit reasonable measurement of possibility of invasion. McCeney et al v. District of Columbia (1956, 230 F. 2d 832, 97 U. S. App. D. C. 282).

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are liable for inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interest required that market value be at least approximated as closely as possible in light of all available facts. Id.

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are to pay inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interests as determined in accordance with regulations require that actual market value of interest be determined as nearly as possible, and regulation providing that where corpus may be invaded on behalf of donee for life or for years, taxable value of interest of donee shall be value of entire corpus, was inconsistent with statutes and objectionable in not permitting facts bearing on likelihood of invasion and on market values of life and remainder interests to be considered. Id.

Remainder interests

Under the statutory definition of vested interests, the interests herein presented were vested remainders, while at the same time, the remainder interests were subject to be divested should the remaindermen, or any of them, fail to survive the life estate, and as such were subject to taxation. Keep v. District of Columbia (1950, 181 F. 2d 789, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 206).

Vested and contingent interests

Where grantor devised residue to widow in trust and provided that upon her death or remarriage the residue was to be divided among the children until they reached thirty-seven, such estates were vested for the purposes of taxation. District of Columbia v. Clark (1949, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

Where the characteristics of a vested interest and a contingent interest had been firmly established in District of Columbia by repeated court decisions and by statutory enactment, Congress in using terms "vested" and "contingent" in this section distinguishing between a vested interest and a contingent interest and providing a different method of taxation for each without defining such terms, recognized as valid for tax purposes, the well established distinction between those two classes of estates. O'Neill v. District of Columbia (1943, 132 F. 2d 601, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 79).

Where testator devised his residuary estate to his wife for life and on her death to testator's daughters in fee simple share and share alike and "in the event that either of them be then dead unto the survivor of them", the daughters acquired a "vested interest" and not a "contingent interest" within this section which recognizes and taxes separately vested interest and contingent interest. Id.

ARTICLE II—ESTATE TAX

§ 47-1608. Imposition of tax—Additional levy on transfers.

In addition to the taxes imposed by sections 47-1601 to 47–1607, there is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every decedent who, after August 18, 1937, shall die a resident of the District, a tax equal to eighty per centum of the Federal estate tax imposed by section 301, title III, of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended, or as hereafter amended or reenacted. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, art. II, § 1, formerly § 18, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Amount of tax

Under sections of this chapter providing unified system of death taxes for the District of Columbia, amount payable to District as estate tax was not 80 percent of the Federal estate tax, but was merely the difference between that amount and the inheritance tax which had been paid to the District on account of the same estate. District of Columbia v. Safe Deposit & Trust Co. of Baltimore (1941, 116 F. 2d 21, 72 App. D. C. 197).

§ 47–1609. Credits—Restriction.

There shall be credited against and applied in reduction of the tax imposed by section 47–1608 the amount of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession tax lawfully imposed by any State or Territory of the United States, in respect of any property included in the gross estate for Federal estate tax purposes as prescribed in title III of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended, or as hereafter amended or reenacted: Provided, however, That only such taxes as are actually paid and which are proper allowances against the Federal estate tax may be applied as a credit against and in reduction of the tax imposed by section 47–1608. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, art II, § 2, formerly § 19, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, § 1; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 46, ch. 33, § 3 (a).)

AMENDMENTS

1942—Act Feb. 2, 1942, amended section by substituting words "which are proper allowances" for words "credit therefor claimed and allowed" in the proviso.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, substituted "imposed by section 1 of this article" for "imposed by section 18 of this title", and "section 1" for "section 18", which for purposes of codification have been translated to "section 47–1608."

§ 47–1610. Not to exceed difference between maximum credit and levy by States.

In no event shall the tax imposed by section 47–1608 exceed the difference between the maximum credit which might be allowed against the Federal estate tax imposed by title III of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended, or as hereafter amended or re-enacted, and the aggregate amount of the taxes described in section 47–1609 (but not including the tax imposed by section 47–1608) allowable as a credit against the Federal estate tax. AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, substituted "section 1" for "section 18" and "section 2" for "section 19", which for purposes of codification have been translated to "section 47–1608" and "section 47–1609", respectively.

§ 47–1611. Benefits to District.

The purpose of section 47–1608 is to secure for the District the benefit of the credit allowed under the provisions of section 301(c) of title III of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended, or as hereafter amended or re-enacted, to the extent that the District may be entitled by the provisions of said Revenue Act, by imposing additional taxes, and the same shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose: Provided, That the amount of the tax imposed by section 47–1608 shall not be decreased by any failure to secure the allowance of credit against the Federal estate tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, art. II, § 4, formerly § 21, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" both times it appears.

§ 47–1612. Tax on transfer of nonresidents' real and personal property.

A tax is hereby imposed upon the transfer of real property or tangible personal property in the District of every person who at the time of death was a resident of the United States but not a resident of the District, and upon the transfer of all property, both real and personal, within the District of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the amount by which the credit allowable under the applicable Federal Revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes actually paid to the several States exceeds the amount actually so paid for such taxes, exclusive of estate taxes based upon the difference between such credit and other estate taxes and inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes, as the value of the property in the District bears to the value of the entire estate, subject to estate tax under the applicable Federal Revenue Act. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title V, Art. II, § 5, formerly § 27, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 363, ch. 223, § 5 (g), and renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" each time it appears.

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, amended section generally. Prior to such amendement, section read as follows: "Every executor or administrator of a decedent dying a resident of the District of Columbia or, if there is no executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting within the District of Columbia, then any person in actual or constructive possession of any property forming part of the gross estate of the decedent for Federal estate-tax purposes shall, within thirty days of the filing of the return for Federal estate-tax purposes required by section 304 of the Revenue Act of 1926, file with the assessor for the District of Columbia a copy, verified by the affidavit of the person filing the return with the assessor, of such Federal estate-tax return and shall, within thirty days after the date of any communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, confirming, increasing, or diminishing the tax shown to be due, file a copy of such communication with the assessor. With the copy of the Federal estate-tax return there shall be filed an affidavit as to the several amounts paid or expected to be paid as taxes within the purview of section 19 hereof."

CHANGE OF NAME

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150–29, eff. July 9, 1953.

§ 47–1614. Assessment on basis of return.

The assessor shall, upon receipt of the return and accompanying affidavit, assess such amount as he may determine, from the basis of the return, to be due the District. Upon receipt of a copy of any communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, herein required to be filed, the assessor shall make such additional assessment or shall make such abatement of the assessment as may appear proper (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 688, ch. 690, title V, Art. II, § 7, formerly § 23, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "assessor" the first time the said word appears, and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

§ 47–1615. Tax payable within seventeen months.

The estate taxes imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 shall be paid to the collector of taxes within seventeen months after the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That in any case where the time for the payment of taxes imposed by subdivision (a) of section 301, title III, of the Revenue Act of 1926, is extended by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, then the tax imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 shall be paid within sixty days after the expiration of such extended period, together with interest as provided in section 47–1619: Provided further, That any additional assessment found to be due under section 47–1614 shall be paid to the collector of taxes within thirty days after the determination of such additional assessment by the assessor. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 688, ch. 690, title V, Art. II, § 8, formerly § 24, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "The tax imposed by this article shall be paid to the collector of taxes within thirty days after the determination of said taxes by the assessor of the District of Columbia."

CHANGE OF NAME

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150–29, eff. July 9, 1953.

ARTICLE III—GENERAL

§ 47–1616. Liability of bond for assessments—Limitation.

The bond of the personal representative of the decedent shall be liable for all taxes and penalties assessed under this chapter, except inheritance taxes and penalties imposed in relation to the transfer of property not under the control of such personal representative: Provided, That in no case shall the bond of the personal representative be liable for a greater sum than is actually received by him. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 1, formerly Art. I, § 6, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, added the exception.

§ 47–1617. Monthly report of names of decedents by register of wills.

The register of wills of the District shall report to the assessor on forms provided for the purpose every qualification in the District upon the estate of a decedent. Such report shall be filed with the assessor at least once every month, and shall contain the name of the decedent, the date of his death, the name and address of the personal representative, and the value of the estate, as shown by the petition for administration or probate. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 2, formerly Art. I, § 8, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" both times said word appears.

§ 47–1618. Administration—Rules—Testimony—Production of books and records.

The commissioners shall have supervision of the enforcement of this chapter and shall have the power to make such rules and regulations, consistent with this chapter, as may be necessary for enforcement of this chapter and efficient administration and to provide for the granting of extension of time within which to perform the duties imposed by this chapter. The assessor shall determine all taxes assessable under this chapter, and immediately upon the determination of same, shall forward a statement of the taxes determined to the person or persons chargeable with the payment thereof and shall give advice thereof to the collector of taxes.

The assessor is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before him to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to this chapter and the assessor is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of this chapter. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the assessor may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or one of the judges thereof, and said court or any judge thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 3, formerly Art. I, § 9, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, § 1; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (a), (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, eliminated references to the members of the Board of Assistant Assessors or the Board of Personal Tax Appeals, and provisions which authorized an appeal to the Board of Personal Tax Appeals.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia," and "judge" and "judges" for "justice" and "justices", respectively.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Intent of Congress

This chapter manifests a congressional intention to require that such tax be computed on the value of the realty or what the beneficiary actually received, and not the gross value of the realty transferred. Hyman v. District of Columbia (1957, 247 F. 2d 585, 101 U.S. App. D.C. 179)

Market value of remainder interest

Where testamentary trustee was authorized to invade corpus to meet reasonable needs of beneficiaries in their respective stations of life, including emergencies and protracted illness, taking into account funds otherwise available to them, and to be liberal in so doing, there was standard under which fair estimate could be made of market value of interests which remaindermen would take in determining their liability for inheritance taxes, and evidence of wages, life expectancies, health, accustomed scale of living, economic circumstances and other sources of income of beneficiaries as of date of death would permit reasonable measurement of possibility of invasion. McCeney et al. v. District of Columbia (1956, 230 F. 2d 832, 97 U. S. App. D. C. 282).

This chapter providing that remaindermen under testamentary trust are liable for inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interest required that market value be at least approximated as closely as possible in light of all available facts. Id.

This chapter providing that remandermen under testamentary trust are to pay inheritance tax only on market value of remainder interests as determined in accordance with regualtions require that actual market value of interest be determined as nearly as possible and regulation providing that where corpus may be invaded on behalf of donee for life or for years, taxable value of interest of donee shall be value of entire corpus, was inconsistent with statutes and objectionable in not permitting facts bearing on likelihood of invasion and on market values of life and remainder interests to be considered. Id.

Measure of tax on encumbered property

While a tax on inheritance or succession is not a property tax but a duty or excise laid on the privilege of taking property by descent, it is measured by the market value of the transferred property at the time the owner died. Hyman v. District of Columbia (1957, 247 F. 2d 585, 101 U. S. App. D. C. 179).

Where decedent owed her brother a large sum of money and her will provided that if he had a claim on her realty interest, devise thereof should be "subject to such claim or lien" District of Columbia Inheritance Tax should have been computed not on the gross value of the realty received by the brother, but on the value thereof after the brother's claim thereon had been deducted. Id.

Where an unqualified devise transfers legal title, if it is encumbered at the date of death, the then market value of the property transferred is the gross value, less the encumbrance for inheritance tax purposes. Id.

Refund of tax

Where estate's claim for refund of District of Columbia estate tax had been denied by assessor, District of Columbia Tax Court should not have dismissed appeal from assessor's ruling, although claim could not be determined until a simultaneous claim for refund of federal estate tax had been decided, but claim should have been placed on Tax Court's reserve calendar, until federal claim had been decided. Forsberg, estate of v. District of Columbia (1955, 220 F. 2d 197, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 90).

§ 47–1619. Arrears.

If the taxes imposed by this chapter are not paid when due, one-half of 1 per centum interest for each month or portion of a month from the date when the same were due until paid shall be added to the amount of said taxes and collected as a part of the same, and said taxes shall be collected by the collector of taxes in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 4, formerly Art. I, § 11, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, § 1; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 47, ch. 33, § 3(c); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 2(a).)

AMENDMENTS

1952—Act July 10, 1952, reduced the interest rate from one percentum to one-half of one per centum for each month or portion of a month, and eliminated provisions which required payment of interest at the rate of six per centum per annum in cases where the time for payment of the tax is extended by the assessor, or where the tax is lawfully suspended, or where the date for payment is extended by the provisions of section 47–1615 beyond seventeen months after the date of death.

1942—Act Feb. 2, 1942, inserted provisions requiring payment of interest at the rate of six per centum per annum in cases where the date for payment of any tax imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 is extended by the provisions of section 47–1615 beyond seventeen months after the date of death of the decedent.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, inserted provisions requiring the payment of interest at the rate of six per centum per annum in cases where the time for payment of the tax is extended by the assessor or where the payment of the tax is lawfully suspended.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Section 8 of act July 10, 1952, provided that: "The amendments made by section 2 of this Act [to this section and sections 46–304, 47–1538, 47–1540, 47–1541 and 47–2624] shall be effective July 1, 1952."

§ 47–1620. Enforcement.

If any person shall fail to perform any duty imposed upon him by the provisions of this chapter or the regulations made hereunder the Commissioners may proceed by petition for mandamus to compel performance and upon the granting of such writ the court shall adjudge all costs of such proceeding against the delinquent. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 5, formerly Art. I, § 12, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "commissioners."

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47–1621. Failure to file return—False return—Penalty.

Any person required by this chapter to file a return who fails to file such return within the time prescribed by this chapter, or within such additional time as may be granted under regulations promulgated by the commissioners, shall become liable in his own person and estate to the District in an amount equal to 10 per centum of the tax found to be due. In case any person required by this chapter to file a return knowingly files a false or fraudulent return, he shall become liable in his own person and estate to the said District in an amount equal to 50 per centum of the tax found to be due. Such amounts shall be collected in the same manner as is herein provided for the collection of the taxes levied under this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 6, formerly Art. I, § 13; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 362, ch. 223, § 5 (e), renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "Commissioners," and the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

1938—Act May 16, 1938, substituted "10 per centum of the tax" for "25 per centum of the tax."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1938 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 16, 1938, effective at 12:01 ante meridian on May 17, 1938, see section 5(h) of act May 16, 1938, set out as a note under § 47–1601.

§ 47–1622. Wilful failure to pay taxes, make return—Penalty.

Any person required by this chapter to pay a tax or required by law or regulation made under authority thereof to make a return or keep any records or supply any information for the purposes of computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this chapter, who wilfully fails to pay such tax, make any such return, or supply any such information at the time or times required by law or regulation shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 7, formerly Art. I, § 14, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, reenacted section without change.

§ 47–1623. Release of lien.

When the assessor is satisfied that the tax liability imposed by this chapter has been fully discharged or provided for, he may, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, issue his certificate, releasing any or all property from the lien herein imposed by this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 8, formerly Art. I, § 15 renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "of any estate" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "imposed by this chapter" following the word "liability," the words "of said District" following the word "Commissioners," and the words "of such estate" following the word "property."

§ 47–1624. Transfers of assets—Notice—Portion retained to pay tax—Assessor to examine assets—Issuance of certificate.

No person holding, within the District tangible or intangible assets of any resident or nonresident decedent, of the value of $300 or more, shall deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, unless notice of the date and place of such intended transfer be served upon the assessor of the District of Columbia at least ten days prior to such delivery or transfer, nor shall any person holding, within the District of Columbia, any assets of a resident or nonresident decedent, of the value of $300 or more, deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by said District Court without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax which may be assessed on account of the transfer of such assets under the provisions of sections 47–1601 to 47–1624 without an order from the assessor of the District of Columbia authorizing such transfer. It shall be lawful for the assessor of the District, personally, or by his representatives, to examine said assets at any time before such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain as herein required a sufficient portion or amount to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter shall render such person liable to the payment of such taxes. The assessor of the District may issue a certificate authorizing the transfer of any such assets whenever it appears to the satisfaction of said assessor that no tax is due thereon: Provided, however, That any corporation, foreign or domestic to the District having outstanding stock or other securities registered in the sole name of a decedent whose estate or any part thereof is taxable under this chapter may transfer the same, without notice to the assessor and without liability for any tax imposed thereon under this chapter, upon the order of an administrator, executor, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills of the District, or appointed by said court, or his successor approved by said court: Provided further, That the lessor of a safe-deposit box standing in the joint names of a decedent and a survivor or survivors may deliver the entire contents of such safe-deposit box to the survivor or survivors, after examination of such contents by the assessor or his representative, without any liability on the part of the said lessor for the payment of such tax. (Aug. 17 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 9, formerly Art. I, § 16; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 362, ch. 223, § 5 (f), renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, § 1; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 26, 1939, added the first proviso, and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" the first time the said word appears in the first, second, and fourth sentences and added the words "of the value of $300 or more" both times they appear.

1938—Act May 16, 1938, added the second proviso.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1938 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 16, 1938, effective at 12:01 ante meridian on May 17, 1938, see section 5(h) of act May 16, 1938, set out as a note under § 47–1601.

§ 47–1625. Bureau of Internal Revenue to supply information to Commissioners.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Commissioners relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed under this chapter or relative to any person whose estate is subject to the provisions of said sections. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 10, formerly Art. II, § 26, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 363, ch. 223, § 5 (g), and renumbered July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150–29, eff. July 9, 1953.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective at 12:01 antemeridian on May 17, 1938, see section 5(h) of act May 16, 1938, set out as a note under § 47–1601.

CROSS REFERENCE

Secrecy of information, see § 47–2504.

§ 47–1626. Assessor to determine tax if return not filed when due.

If any return required by this chapter is not filed with the assessor when due, the assessor shall have the right to determine and assess the tax or taxes from such information as he may possess or obtain. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 11, as added July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

§ 47–1627. Assessor may compound and settle tax.

The assessor is authorized to enter into an agreement with any person liable for a tax on a transfer under sections 47–1601 to 47–1607, in which remainders or expectant estates are of such nature or so disposed and circumstanced that the value of the interest is not ascertainable under the provisions of this chapter, and to compound and settle such tax upon such terms as the assessor may deem equitable and expedient. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 12, as added July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

§ 47–1628. Definitions.

In the interpretation of this chapter unless the context indicates a different meaning the term "tax" means the tax or taxes mentioned in this chapter.

(a) The term "District" means the District of Columbia.

(b) The term "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

(c) The term "assessor" means the assessor of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(d) The term "collector of taxes" means the collector of taxes for the District of Columbia, or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(e) The term "Metropolitan Police Department" means the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia.

(f) The term "include" when used in a definition contained in this chapter shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

(g) The term "resident" means domiciled and the term "residence" means domicil. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 13, formerly Art. I, § 17, renumbered and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "The word 'person' when used in this title shall include individuals, partnerships, associations, and corporations."

§ 47–1629. Situs of intangibles—Trust estates—Aliens.

Credits, securities, and other intangible personal property within the District not employed in carrying on any business therein by the owner shall be deemed to be located at the domicil of the owner for purposes of taxation under this chapter, and, if held in trust, shall not be deemed to be located in the District for purposes of taxation under this chapter solely because of the trustee being domiciled in the District: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to property owned by alien decedents, and that nothing herein contained shall affect the taxation by the District of any property owned by alien decedents which, at the time of the death of such decedents, shall be under the jurisdiction of the District or over which the District has control. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 15, as added July 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 747, ch. 568.)

§ 47–1630. Compromise and settlement of taxes.

In all cases where the assessor claims that a decedent was domiciled in the District at the time of his death and the taxing authorities of a State or States make a similar claim with respect to their State or States, the assessor may, with the approval of the Commissioners, compromise and settle the taxes imposed by this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title V, Art. III, § 16, as added June 22, 1942, 56 Stat. 377, ch. 433, § 5.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 6 of act June 22, 1942, provided that: "The amendment made by section 5 of this Act [adding this section] shall apply to estates of decedents dying before or after its enactment [June 22, 1942]."

Chapter 17.—FINANCIAL INSTITUTION, GUARANTY COMPANY, AND PUBLIC UTILITY TAXES

47–1705. Insolvent building or homestead associations.
47–1706. Private banks.
47–1707. Washington Stock Exchange.
47–1708. Note brokers.
47–1709. Private banks and note brokers to pay annual tax on the first day of July each year.
47–1710. Applicability of Acts of Congress to national banks in the District of Columbia.

§ 47–1701. Banks, gas, electric-lighting, and telephone companies.

Each national bank as the trustee for its stockholders, through its president or cashier, and all other incorporated banks and trust companies in the District of Columbia, through their presidents or cashiers, and all gas, electric lighting, and telephone companies, through their proper officers, shall make affidavit to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August each year as to the amount of its or their gross earnings or gross receipts, as the case may be, for the preceding year ending the 30th day of June, and each national bank and all other incorporated banks and trust companies respectively shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia per annum 6 percent on such gross earnings and each gas company, electric lighting company, and telephone company shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia per annum 4 per centum on such gross receipts, from the sale of public utility commodities and services within the District of Columbia. And in addition thereto the real estate owned by each national or other incorporated bank, and each trust, gas, electric lighting, and telephone company in the District of Columbia shall be taxed as other real estate in said District. Each gas, electric lighting, and telephone company shall pay, in addition to the taxes herein mentioned, the franchise tax imposed by the District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, and the tax imposed upon stock in trade of dealers in general merchandise under section 47–1207. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 5; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 2(a); May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118 ch. 218, title XIV, § 1401; July 24, 1956, 70 Stat. 599, ch. 669, § 8 (a).)

REFERENCES IN TEXT

The District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act of 1947, referred to in the text, is classified to subchapter II of chapter 15 of this title.

AMENDMENTS

1956—Act July 24, 1956, eliminated provisions which related to taxation of street railroad companies and companies operating street railroads and bus services.

1954—Act May 18, 1954, included companies operating bus services, reduced the tax on gross receipts of street railroad companies and companies operating street railroads and bus services from 3 to 2 per centum, required payment of vehicle-mileage tax, and substituted provisions reqiuring payment of the income and franchise taxes for provisions which required payment of corporate income taxes.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, required a report of gross receipts, reduced the tax on gas companies from 5 to 4 per centum and on street railroads from 4 to 3 per centum, increased the tax on insurance companies from 1½ to 2 per centum, and inserted provisions requiring gas, electric light, telephone and street railroad companies to pay the corporate income tax and the personal property tax on merchandise stock in trade in addition to the tax imposed by this section.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Section 8(a) of act July 24, 1956, provided in part that the amendment of this section shall be effective on Aug. 15, 1956.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Section 1403 of act May 18, 1954, provided in part that: "The first section of this title [amending this section] shall become effective on the 1st day of July 1954."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1939 AMENDMENT

Section 2 (b) of title IV of act July 26, 1939, provided as follows: "This section [amending this section] shall not apply to gross earnings or gross receipts for any fiscal year ending the 30th day of June prior to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940. Taxes shall be levied and collected for the fiscal years preceding the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, under said paragraph 5 of section 6 of said act of July 1, 1902, as if this title had not been enacted."

TAX ON PRIVILEGE OF DOING BUSINESS

The District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, August 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 688, ch. 690, title VI, § 16, as added by act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, § 6 (a), provided that the entire title VI, imposing a tax on the privilege of doing business, should expire June 30, 1939. This title appeared as sections 970 to 970r of title 20 of the 1929 District of Columbia Code, Supp. V, Title VII of the Revenue Act of 1939, July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1119, ch. 367, provided that:

"The laws authorizing the imposition by the District of Columbia of intangible personal property taxes and business privilege taxes are hereby extended from and after June 30, 1939, for the following purposes in connection with the taxes accrued or due under such laws prior to July 1, 1939—

"(1) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with such laws and the regulations issued thereunder;

"(2) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such laws;

"(3) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses; and

"(4) For the assessment and collection of such taxes and the filing of liens therefor."

TAXATION OF STREET RAILROAD COMPANIES

Section 2 of the act Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815, provided in part: "That that part of the proviso in paragraph five, section six [this section], relating to street railroads 'shall be construed to mean that all street railroad companies shall pay four per centum per annum on their gross receipts within the District of Columbia and other taxes as provided by existing law.'"

NOTES TO DECISIONS

In general

This statute is all inclusive covering gross earnings from whatever source. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Hazen (1937, 90 F. 2d 406, 67 App. D. C. 161).

This being a measure to tax the gross earnings of gas, electric and telephone companies, said tax is merely franchise in nature and therefore is not a burden on commerce. Id.

Attachment date

Liability for gross receipts tax, on operators of street railroads and buses in District of Columbia, attached as gross earnings were received, and even though statute leveling tax was repealed prior to date for payment thereof, liability for payment was not thereby affected. D.C. Transit System, Inc. v. Pearson et al. (D.C.D.C. 1957, 149 F. Supp. 18).

Classification of banks

A difference in tax rate on gross earnings as between savings banks and national and all other incorporated banks constituted a valid classification for tax purposes. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Where national banks and savings banks in District of Columbia all engaged in both savings account and commercial banking business, administrative classification of state banks as savings banks and national banks as not savings banks for tax purposes was improper. Id.

Construction

The Loan Shark Law, § 26–601 et seq., the usury law, § 28–703 et seq., and this chapter are to be read together and when so read constitute a comprehensive code for business of lending money in the District of Columbia. Hartman v. Lubar (1943, 133 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 95, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1329, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716, rehearing denied 64 S. Ct. 30, 320 U. S. 808, 88 L. Ed. 488).

Electric company

Federal laws

12 U. S. C. § 548 relating to state taxation of national bank shares was addressed to state legislatures and was inapplicable to gross earnings tax to which banks in District of Columbia were subject, although said section was relevant as indication of congressional policy. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Franchise tax

Francise tax distinguished from property tax, see Potomac Electric P. Co. v. Rudolph (1928, 29 F. 2d 634, 58 App. D. C. 261, certiorari denied 49 S. Ct. 185, 278 U. S. 656, 73 L. Ed. 565).

Gas company

A company engaged in the manufacture and supplying of gas may deduct from gross receipts the amount expended for raw materials from which gas is manufactured when the money that was spent for the raw materials had been taken from the capital of the company. District of Columbia v. Georgetown Gas-Light Co. (1916, 45 App. D.C. 63).

Interest

Interest paid by national bank in District of Columbia to depositors on savings accounts was not deductible in computing gross earnings within this section. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

The act of April 24, 1917, § 1 (U. S. C., title 31, § 746) exempting interest on government bonds, etc., from taxation, was applicable to the tax imposed by this paragraph. District of Columbia v. Riggs Nat. Bank (1929, 30 F. 2d 873, 58 App. D. C. 349, certiorari denied 49 S. Ct. 343, 279 U. S. 846, 73 L. Ed. 991).

Liability for tax

Successor, which assumed all of liabilities of predecessor operator of streetcar and bus lines in District of Columbia, was liable for gross receipts tax on predecessor's earnings. D. C. Transit System, Inc. v. Pearson et al. (D.C.D.C. 1957, 149 F. Supp. 18).

Motion to dismiss

Where plaintiff bank seeks recovery of taxes allegedly paid by it involuntarily after they were illegally and erroneously assessed by the District over the amount actually due, motion to dismiss complaint will be denied, since the taxes were paid involuntarily and parties were not on terms of equality. American Security & Trust Co. v. District of Columbia (D.C.D.C. 1950, 91 F. Supp. 713, affirmed 202 F. 2d 21, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 33).

Telephone company

Payments received by telephone company, which rendered telephone services to public in the District of Columbia, for services rendered to telephone companies doing business in Maryland and Virginia were not subject to gross receipts tax applicable to public utility companies doing business in District of Columbia. The Chesapeake and Potomac Tel. Co. v. District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. The Chesapeake and Potomac Tel. Co. (1963, 325 F. 2d 217, 117 U.S. App. D.C. 21).

The District of Columbia gross receipts tax applicable to public utility companies is an excise tax on privilege of furnishing franchised public utility services in the District. Id.

When a public service company supplies services or facilities to another public utility company in the same field for sole purpose of enabling the latter company to serve its customers more efficiently, such services are not public utility commodities or services within meaning of gross receipts tax statute applicable to public utility companies, and such services are not subject to gross receipts tax. Id.

Where all telephone company's services were performed within District of Columbia, its receipts from all its services including handling of interstate calls, which services were necessarily performed in conjunction with services which connecting companies performed outside the District, were subject to tax imposed on gross receipts from sale of public utility services within the District. Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. v. District of Columbia (1943, 137 F. 2d 674, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 53).

Where telephone company did not print telephone directories but bought them as finished products, the company was entitled to deduct amount which it paid for the directories from its gross receipts, in order to determine its "gross earnings" subject to gross earnings tax. Id.

§ 47–1702. Bonding, title, guaranty and fidelity companies.

All companies, incorporated or otherwise, who guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, and all companies who furnish abstracts of titles to real property, or who insure real estate titles, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia one and one-half per centum of their gross receipts in the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 6; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction

The words "gross receipts" here construed are not equivalent to the words "consideration received" used in a section not in issue imposing a tax on consideration received on all insurance contracts on risks in the District. Suburban Title & Investment Corp. v. District of Columbia (1950, 180 F. 2d 387, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 112).

§ 47–1703. Savings banks.

Savings banks having no capital stock and paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make affidavit to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August in each year as to the amount of their surplus and undivided profits, and shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum equal to one and one-half per centum on the amount of their surplus and undivided profits on the 30th day of June preceding.

Incorporated savings banks paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make report under oath to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August in each year as to the amount of their gross earnings, less the amount paid as interest to their depositors for the preceding year ending June 30th, and shall pay thereon to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia four per centum per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 7; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

1904—Act Apr. 28, 1904, added the second paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Classification of banks

A difference in tax rate on gross earnings as between savings banks and national and all other incorporated banks constituted a valid classification for tax purposes. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Where national banks and savings banks in the District of Columbia engaged in both savings account and commercial banking business, administrative classification for gross earnings tax purposes of state banks as savings banks and national banks as not savings banks was invalid as not in harmony with this chapter. Id.

Where a bank is an incorporated savings bank under any and all tests pursuant to which that status is accorded to state banks, and when the character of its business and its methods of conducting it are identified with those of state institutions, it is taxable under § 47–1703 and not under § 47–1701. Hamilton National Bank v. District of Columbia (1949, 176 F. 2d 624, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 109, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

The Board of Tax Appeals was justified in holding state chartered banks to be taxable under § 47–1703 as incorporated savings banks, and not taxable under § 47–1701. Id.

Constitutionality

To rebut presumption of constitutionality of tax statutes or pattern of tax statutes there must at minimum be firm factual showing of burdens so onerous on class subject to discrimination and so lacking in possible foundation as to negative possibility of reasonable judgment. District of Columbia National Bank v. District of Columbia (1965, 348 F. 2d 808, 121 U.S. App. D.C. 196).

Record showing that there were seven national banks in District of Columbia and a number of banks in adjoining counties of Virginia and Maryland, that about 50% of District of Columbia national bank's business was with depositors and borrowers with residence or business location in those counties and that such bank was in active competition with national banks located in those counties was insufficient to rebut presumption of constitutionality of District of Columbia statute imposing gross earnings tax. Id.

Construction

Plain meaning of words is generally most persuasive evidence of intent of legislature, and must be taken, however hard or unexpected particular effect, where unambiguous language calls for logical and sensible result. District of Columbia National Bank v. District of Columbia (1965, 348 F. 2d 808, 121 U.S. App. D.C. 196).

Courts may properly use recourse to legislative history in construing statute, and may depart from literal meaning of words when at variance with legislative intent as revealed by legislative history. Id.

In construing statutes, it was duty of court to seek to harmonize simultaneous application of general legislation and District of Columbia legislation. Id.

National banks in District of Columbia were subject to gross earnings tax imposed by District of Columbia taxing statute. Id.

Franchise tax

The tax imposed by this statute is clearly a franchise tax, and not a property tax on the earnings of banks as such. Security Sav. & Commercial Bank v. District of Columbia (1922, 279 F. 185, 51 App. D. C. 316).

Gross earnings tax

In proceeding by bank against District of Columbia for review of decision of Board of Tax Appeals, decision of board that bank, which was paying interest to its depositors, was required to pay gross earnings tax for years 1946 and 1947 although bank sold its assets, ceased business and went into voluntary liquidation on November 30, 1946, was affirmed by the Court of Appeals in banc by an equally divided court. Columbia National Bank of Wash. v. District of Columbia (1952, 195 F. 2d 942, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 224).

Motion to dismiss

Where plaintiff bank seeks recovery of taxes allegedly paid by it involuntarily after they were illegally and erroneously assessed by the District over the amount actually due, motion to dismiss complaint will be denied, since the taxes were paid involuntarily and parties were not on terms of equality. American Security & Trust Co. v. District of Columbia (D.C.D.C. 1950, 91 F. Supp. 713, affirmed 202 F. 2d 21, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 33).

Payment under protest

Where litigation, determining that trust companies were subject merely to tax of 4 percent of their gross earnings after deduction of interest paid on savings deposits, had not been concluded at time they paid, under protest, gross earnings tax of 6 percent, without deduction of interest paid on savings deposits; and they would have risked penalties of 1 percent a month and summary distraint of their property by not paying, it could not be said that payments had been made "voluntarily," so as to preclude recovery. District of Columbia v. American Security & Trust Co. (1953, 202 F. 2d 21, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 33).

Public utilities

Conventional public utilities are entitled to rates and gross revenues sufficient to cover all elements of cost of utility service, including gross earnings taxes, and in addition a fair net return after taxes. District of Columbia National Bank v. District of Columbia (1965, 348 F. 2d 808, 121 U.S. App. D.C. 196).

§ 47–1704. Building associations.

Building associations in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia two per centum per annum on their entire gross earnings for the preceding year ending June 30th. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 9; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

1904—Act Apr. 28, 1904, reduced the tax from 4 to 2 per centum per annum.

§ 47–1705. Insolvent building or homestead associations.

Whenever and after any building or homestead association, which was incorporated or doing business under the law of the District of Columbia, has ceased to do business by reason of insolvency no tax on personal property, either tangible or intangible, shall be levied, assessed, or collected by the District of Columbia against or from such association if such tax shall diminish the assets of such association necessary for the payment of the full amount due on share accounts in, or on shares of, such association to the holders thereof, and such tax, if heretofore levied, shall be abated as against any such associations as are or have been found by the comptroller of the currency to be insolvent. (Aug. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 1210, ch. 446.)

§ 47–1706. Private banks.

Private banks or bankers not incorporated shall pay a tax of five hundred dollars per annum. Every person, firm, company, or association not incorporated having a place of business where credits are opened by the deposit or collection of moneys or currency subject to be paid or remitted upon draft, check, or order, or where money is advanced or loaned on stocks, bonds, bullion, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or where stocks, bonds, bills of exchange or promissory notes are received for discount or for sale, shall be regarded as a private bank or banker. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 621, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 14.)

§ 47–1707. Washington Stock Exchange.

The Washington Stock Exchange, through its president or treasurer, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum equal to five hundred dollars per annum in lieu of tax on the members thereof for business done on said exchange. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 15.)

CODIFICATION

That part of section 6, par. 15, of act July 1, 1902, which imposed a tax of $250 per annum upon general brokers, and of $100 per annum upon any broker who is a member of a regularly organized stock exchange outside of the District, has been omitted in view of Lappin v. District of Columbia (22 App. D. C. 80), holding in effect that the statute, by imposing an unreasonable burden on the right of a citizen to pursue a lawful occupation open to his competitors upon less onerous terms operates substantially as the taking of property without due process of law, and was therefore within the prohibition of the 5th Amendment of the Constitution.

§ 47–1708. Note brokers.

Note brokers shall pay a tax of one hundred dollars per annum. Every person, firm, company, or association not incorporated (except private banks and bankers) that loans money on promissory notes without real estate or collateral security or advances money on personal property as security without possession of said personal property shall be deemed a note broker: Provided, That exception shall be made of cooperative associations whose business is restricted to the members of such association. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 16.)

§ 47–1709. Private banks and note brokers to pay annual tax on the first day of July each year.

The taxes for said private banks and bankers, and note brokers shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, and shall date from the 1st day of July in each year and expire on the 30th day of June following. Said taxes shall date from the 1st day of the month in which the liability begins, and payment shall be made for a proportionate amount. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 17.)

The provisions of all Acts of Congress relating to national banks shall apply in the several States, the District of Columbia, the several Territories and possessions of the United States, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. (Sept. 8, 1959, 73 Stat. 458, Pub. L. 86–230, § 14.)

§ 47–1801. Licenses—Fee—Term.

On and after the first day of September 1937, every domestic, foreign, or alien company organized as a stock, mutual, reciprocal, Lloyd's, fraternal, or any other type of insurance company or association, before issuing contracts of insurance against loss of life or health, or by fire, marine, accident, casualty, fidelity and surety title guaranty, or other hazard not contrary to public policy, shall obtain from the superintendent of insurance of the District of Columbia an annual license or certificate of authority, upon payment of a fee of $25 to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. All licenses for insurance companies who may apply for permission to do business in the District of Columbia shall date from the first of the month in which application is made, and expire on the 30th day of April following, and payments shall be made in proportion. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 1.)

§ 47–1802. Penalty for engaging in business without license or certificate of authority.

Any such company issuing contracts of insurance in the District of Columbia, without first having obtained license or certificate of authority from the superintendent of insurance so to do, shall upon conviction be subject to a fine of $100 per day for each day it shall engage in business without such license or certificate of authority. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 2.)

§ 47–1803. Prosecutions.

All prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 3; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

§ 47–1804. Annual statements required—Filing fee.

Each of such companies shall file an annual statement, in the form prescribed by the superintendent of insurance, before March 1 of each year, of its operations for the year ending December 31 immediately preceding. Such statement shall be verified by the oath of the president and secretary or in their absence by two other principal officers. The fee for filing said statement shall be $20 and payment therefor shall be made to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 4.)

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47–1805. Revocation of license if statement not filed.

If any such company shall fail to file the annual statement herein required, the superintendent of insurance may thereupon revoke its license or certificate of authority to transact business in the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 5.)

§ 47–1806. Rates on insurance companies—Exceptions—Definitions—Marine insurance excluded.

All such companies, including companies which issue annuity contracts, shall also pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum of money as taxes equal to 2 per centum of their policy and membership fees and net premium receipts or consideration received on all insurance and annuity contracts on risks in the District of Columbia, said taxes to be paid before the 1st day of March of each year on the amount of such income for the year ending December 31, next preceding. Such tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes except (1) taxes upon real estate and (2) fees and charges provided for by the insurance laws of the District including amendments made to such laws by this title.

Net premium receipts or consideration received means gross premiums or consideration received less the sum of the following:

1. Premiums received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned on policies or contracts canceled or not taken.

2. Dividends paid in cash or used by the policyholders in payment of renewal premiums.

Nothing contained in this section or in sections 47–1801, 47–1807 shall apply with respect to marine insurance written within the said District and reported, taxed, and licensed under the provisions of sections 35–1101 to 35–1132. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 6; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 358, ch. 223, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

1938—Act May 16, 1938, added the words "including companies which issue annuity contracts" following the word "companies" the first time said word appears, "or consideration" following the word "receipts" the first time said word appears, "and annuity" following the word "insurance" the first time said word appears, "or consideration received" and "or consideration" in the second paragraph, "received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned" and "or contracts" in the third paragraph (numbered (1)), and deleted the words "Premiums paid for reinsurance where the same are paid to companies duly licensed to do business in the District, and."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction

Where section not in issue imposes a tax on "consideration received" the words "gross receipts" being construed in the instant case are not equivalent to "consideration received." Suburban Title & Investment Corp. v. District of Columbia (1950, 180 F. 2d 387, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 112).

Insurance companies

Title insurance companies, whose business consisted solely of issuing either certificates of title or title policies to real estate in District of Columbia and such further incidental transactions as related to such main objectives, were "insurance companies" within this section imposing tax on membership fees and premium receipts of insurance companies in lieu of all other taxes. Real Estate Title Ins. Co. v. District of Columbia (1947, 161 F. 2d 887, 82 U. S. App. D. C. 170).

§ 47–1807. Penalty for failure to pay tax.

If any such company shall fail to pay the tax herein required, it shall be liable to the District of Columbia for the amount thereof, and in addition thereof a penalty of 8 per centum per month thereafter until paid. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 7.)

§ 47–1808. Exemption of nonprofit relief associations.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall apply to any relief association, not conducted for profit, composed solely of officers and enlisted men of the United States Army or Navy, or solely of employees of any other branch of the United States Government service or solely of employees of the District of Columbia government, or solely of employees of any individual, company, firm, or corporation or to any fraternal organization which issues contracts of insurance exclusively to its own members. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II. § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Group Health Association

Group Health Association falls within exempting proviso of statute. Jordan v. Group Health Assn. (1940, 107 F. 2d 239, 71 App. D. C. 38).

The word "corporation" as used in the exemption obviously refers to private concerns, not governmental agencies, and Group Health is relieved from the requirements of this section. Id.

Navy Mutual Aid Association

The Navy Mutual Aid Association formed to aid families of deceased members, by providing a substantial sum for their relief at as near actual net cost of insurance as possible, and by securing for them without cost, pensions to which they may be entitled, was subject to the provisions of the Life Insurance Act but not subject to the tax on insurance companies. Fechteler et al. v. Jordan (1955, 218 F. 2d 865, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 54).

A tax of 7 cents per gallon on all motor-vehicle fuels within the District of Columbia, sold or otherwise disposed of by an importer, or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, shall be levied, collected, and paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

All proceeds of the taxes imposed under the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, except as otherwise provided in section 47–1910, and all moneys collected from fees charged for the registration and titling of motor vehicles including fees charged for the issuance of permits to operate motor vehicles, shall be deposited in a special account in the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia, and shall be appropriated and used solely and exclusively for the following purposes:

(1) For the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of public highways, including the necessary administrative expenses in connection therewith;

(2) For the expenses of the office of the director of vehicles and traffic incident to the regulation and control of traffic and the administration of the same; and

(3) For the expenses necessarily involved in the police control, regulation, and administration of traffic upon the highways: Provided, however, That the total amount to be expended under this item shall not exceed 15 per centum of the total amount appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force. For the fiscal year 1938 all moneys appropriated for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of highways and administrative expenses in connection therewith, all moneys appropriated for the department of vehicles and traffic, and 15 per centum of all moneys appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force shall be paid from and chargeable against the fund hereby created.

1954—Act May 18, 1954, increased the motor-vehicle fuel tax from 5 to 6 cents a gallon.

1952—Act June 4, 1952, increased the tax per gallon on all motor-vehicle fuels within the District from 2 to 5 cents per gallon.

1937—Act Aug. 17, 1937, deleted the following sentence from the first paragraph: "The proceeds of the tax, except as provided in section 10, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia and shall be available for appropriation by the Congress exclusively for road and street improvement and repair," and added the second paragraph.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Section 803 of act Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 858, Pub. L. 89–610, title VIII, provided: "The amendments made by section 801 and 802 of this title [to this section and § 47–1912] shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins more than thirty days after the date of approval of this Act [Sept. 30, 1966]".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Section 1103 of act May 18, 1954, provided that: "This title [amending this section and section 47–1912] shall become effective on the first day of the first month following approval of this Act [May 18, 1954]."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Section 4 of act June 4, 1952, provided that: "This Act [amending this section and section 47–1912, and repealing section 47–1901b] shall become effective on the first day of the first month following its enactment [June 4, 1952], but not prior to July 1, 1952."

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003—1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

COMPACTS FOR TAXATION OF MOTOR FUELS CONSUMED BY INTERSTATE BUSES AND FOR BUS TAXATION PRORATION AND RECIPROCITY.

TITLE I

SECTION 101. The consent of Congress is hereby given to the States of Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, and Maryland, and to the District of Columbia to enter into a compact on taxation of motor fuels consumed by interstate buses. But before any other States, any Province of Canada, or any State or territory or the Federal District of Mexico shall be made a party to such compact, the further consent of Congress shall first be obtained. Such compact shall be in substantially the following form:

COMPACT ON TAXATION OF MOTOR FUELS CONSUMED BY INTERSTATE BUSES

ARTICLE I.—PURPOSES

The purposes of this agreement are to—

(a) avoid multiple taxation of motor fuels consumed by interstate buses and to assure each State of its fair share of motor fuel taxes;

(b) establish and facilitate the administration of a criterion of motor fuel taxation for interstate buses which is reasonably related to the use of highway and related facilities and services in each of the party States; and

(c) encourage the availability of a maximum number of buses for intrastate service by removing motor fuel taxation as a deterrent in the routing of interstate buses.

ARTICLE II.—DEFINITIONS

(a) State: State shall include the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the territories of the United States, the Provinces of Canada, and the States, Territories, and Federal District of Mexico.

(b) Contracting State: Contracting State shall mean a State which is a party to this agreement.

(c) Administrator: Administrator shall mean the official or agency of a State administering the motor fuel taxes involved.

(d) Person: Person shall include any individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, or any other group or combination acting as a unit.

(e) Bus: Bus shall mean any motor vehicle of a bus type engaged in the interstate transportation of passengers and subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or any agency successor thereto, or one or more State regulatory agencies concerned with the regulation of passenger transport.

(f) Gallon: Gallon shall mean the liquid measure containing 231 cubic inches.

ARTICLE III.—GOVERNING PRINCIPLE

For purposes of this compact, the primary principle for the imposition of motor fuel taxes shall be consumption of such fuel within the State. Motor fuel consumed by buses shall be taxed on the existing basis, as it may be from time to time, and under the procedures for collection of such taxes by each party State, except that to the extent that this compact makes provision therefor, or for any matter connected therewith, such provision shall govern.

ARTICLE IV.—HOW FUEL CONSUMED TO BE ASCERTAINED

The amount of fuel used in the operation of any bus within this State shall be conclusively presumed to be the number of miles operated by such bus within the State divided by the average mileage per gallon obtained by the bus during the tax period in all operations, whether within or without the party State. Any owner or operator of two or more buses shall calculate average mileage within the meaning of this article by computing single average figures covering all buses owned or operated by him.

ARTICLE V.—IMPOSITION OF TAX

Every owner or operator of buses shall pay to the party State taxes equivalent to the amount of tax per gallon multiplied by the number of gallons used in its operations in the party State.

ARTICLE VI.—REPORTS

On or before the last business day of the month following the month being reported upon, each bus owner or operator subject to the payment of fuel taxes pursuant to this compact shall make such reports of its operations as the State administrator of motor fuel taxes may require and shall furnish the State administrator in each other party State wherein his buses operate a copy of such report.

ARTICLE VII.—CREDIT FOR PAYMENT OF FUEL TAXES

Each bus owner or operator shall be entitled to a credit equivalent to the amount of tax per gallon on all motor fuel purchased by such operator within the party State for use in operations either within or without the party State, and upon which the motor fuel tax imposed by the laws of such party State has been paid.

ARTICLE VIII.—ADDITIONAL TAX OR REFUND

If the bus owner or operator's monthly report shows a debit balance after taking credit pursuant to article VII, a remittance in such net amount due shall be made with the report. If the report shows a credit balance, after taking credit as herein provided, a refund in such net amount as has been overpaid shall be made by the party State to such owner or operator.

ARTICLE IX.—ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any two States. Thereafter it shall enter into force and become binding upon any State subsequently joining when such State has enacted the compact into law. Withdrawal from the compact shall be by act of the legislature of a party State, but shall not take effect until one year after the Governor of the withdrawing State has notified the Governor of each other party State, in writing, of the withdrawal.

ARTICLE X.—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any State or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any State participating herein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party States and in full force and effect as to the State affected as to all severable matters.

SEC. 102. As used in the compact set forth in section 101 with reference to the District of Columbia—

(1) the term "Legislature" shall mean the Congress of the United States; and

(2) the term "Governor" shall mean the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 103. The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall enter into the compact authorized by section 101 of this title without further action on the part of the Congress, and issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the implementation of such compact. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act, nothing herein shall be construed so as to affect the authority vested in the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia by Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952 (66 Stat. 824). The performance of any function vested by this Act in the Board of Commissioners (other than the entry into a compact authorized by this Act) or in any office or agency under the jurisdiction and control of said Board of Commissioners may be delegated by said Board of Commissioners in accordance with section 3 of such plan.

SEC. 104. All provisions of law applicable to the District of Columbia shall, to the extent they are inconsistent with the compact authorized by this title, be inapplicable to the taxation of buses (as that term is defined in the compact) in the District of Columbia during such time as the District is a party to such compact.

SEC. 105. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this title is expressly reserved.

TITLE II

SEC. 201. The consent of Congress is hereby given to the States of Maine, New Hamphire, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and New York, and to the District of Columbia to enter into a compact providing for bus taxation proration and reciprocity. But before any other State, any Province of Canada, or any State or territory or the Federal District of Mexico shall be made a party to such compact, the further consent of Congress shall first be obtained. Such compact shall be in substantially the following form:

BUS TAXATION PRORATION AND RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT

ARTICLE I.—PURPOSES AND PRINCIPLES

SEC. 1. Purposes of agreement: It is the purpose of this agreement to set up a system whereby any contracting State may permit owners of fleets of buses operating in two or more States to prorate the registration of the buses in such fleets in each State in which the fleets operate on the basis of the proportion of miles operated within such State to total fleet miles, as defined herein.

SEC. 2. Principle of proration of registration: It is hereby declared that in making this agreement the contracting States adhere to the principle that each State should have the freedom to develop the kind of highway user tax structure that it determines to be most appropriate to itself, that the method of taxation of interstate buses should not be a determining factor in developing its user tax structure, and that annual taxes or other taxes of the fixed-fee type upon buses which are not imposed on a basis that reflects the amount of highway use should be apportioned among the States, within the limits of practicality, on the basis of vehicle miles traveled within each of the States.

ARTICLE II.—DEFINITIONS

(a) State: State shall include the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the territories of the United States, the Provinces of Canada, and the States, Territories, and Federal District of Mexico.

(b) Contracting State: Contracting State shall mean a State which is a party to this agreement.

(c) Administrator: Administrator shall mean the official or agency of a State administering the fee involved, or, in the case of proration of registration, the official or agency of a State administering the proration of registration in that State.

(d) Person: Person shall include any individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, or any other group or combination acting as a unit.

(e) Base State: Base State shall mean the State from or in which the bus is most frequently dispatched, garaged, serviced, maintained, operated, or otherwise controlled, or also in the case of a fleet bus the State to which it is allocated for registration under statutory requirements. In order that this section may not be used for the purpose of evasion of registration fees, the administrators of the contracting States may make the final decision as to the proper base State, in accordance with article III(h) hereof, to prevent or avoid such evasion.

(f) Bus: shall mean any motor vehicle of a bus type engaged in the interstate transportation of passengers and subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, or any agency successor thereto, or one or more State regulatory agencies concerned with the regulation of passenger transport.

(g) Fleet: As to each contracting State, fleet shall include only those buses which actually travel a portion of their total miles in such State. A fleet must include three or more buses.

(h) Registration: Registration shall mean the registration of a bus and the payment of annual fees and taxes as set forth in or pursuant to the laws of the respective contracting States.

(i) Proration of registration: Proration of registration shall mean registration of fleets of buses in accordance with article IV of this agreement.

(j) Reciprocity: Reciprocity shall mean that each contracting State, to the extent provided in this agreement, exempts a bus from registration and registration fees.

ARTICLE III.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

(a) Effect on other agreements, arrangements, and understandings: On and after its effective date, this agreement shall supersede any reciprocal or other agreement, arrangement, or understanding between any two or more of the contracting States covering, in whole or in part, any of the matters covered by this agreement; but this agreement shall not affect any reciprocal or other agreement, arrangement, or understanding between a contracting State and a State or States not party to this agreement.

(b) Applicability to exempt vehicles: This agreement shall not require registration in a contracting State of any vehicles which are in whole or part exempt from registration under the laws or regulations of such State without respect to this agreement.

(c) Inapplicability to caravaned vehicles: The benefits and privileges of this agreement shall not be extended to a vehicle operated on its own wheels, or in tow of a motor vehicle, transported for the purpose of selling or offering the same for sale to or by any agent, dealer, purchaser, or prospective purchaser.

(d) Other fees and taxes: This agreement does not waive any fees or taxes charged or levied by any State in connection with the ownership or operation of vehicles other than registration fees as defined herein. All other fees and taxes shall be paid to each State in accordance with the laws thereof.

(e) Statutory vehicle regulations: This agreement shall not authorize the operation of a vehicle in any contracting State contrary to the laws or regulations thereof, except those pertaining to registration and payment of fees; and with respect to such laws or regulations, only to the extent provided in this agreement.

(f) Violations: Each contracting State reserves the right to withdraw, by order of the administrator thereof, all or any part of the benefits or privileges granted pursuant to this agreement from the owner of any vehicle or fleet of vehicles operated in violation of any provision of this agreement. The administrator shall immediately give notice of any such violation and withdrawal of any such benefits or privileges to the administrator of each other contracting State in which vehicles of such owner are operated.

(g) Cooperation: The administrator of each of the contracting States shall cooperate with the administrators of the others an each contracting State hereby agrees to furnish such aid and assistance to each other within its statutory authority as will aid in the proper enforcement of this agreement.

(h) Interpretation: In any dispute between or among contracting States arising under this agreement, the final decision regarding interpretation of questions at issue relating to this agreement shall be reached by joint action of the contracting States, acting through the administrator thereof, and shall upon determination be placed in writing.

(i) Effect of headings: Article and section headings contained herein shall not be deemed to govern, limit, modify, or in any manner affect the scope, meaning, or intent of the provisions of any article or part hereof.

(j) Entry into force: This agreement shall enter into force and become binding between and among the contracting States when enacted or otherwise entered into by any two States. Thereafter, it shall enter into force and become binding with respect to any State when enacted into law by such State. If the statutes of any State so authorize or provide, such State may become party to this agreement upon the execution thereof by an executive or administrative official thereof acting on behalf of and for such State.

ARTICLE IV.—PRORATION OF REGISTRATION

(a) Applicability: Any owner of a fleet may register the buses of said fleet in any contracting State by paying to said State total registration fees in an amount equal to that obtained by applying the proportion of in-State fleet miles divided by the total fleet miles, to the total fees which would otherwise be required for regular registration of each of all such vehicles in such contracting State.

All fleet pro rata registration fees shall be based upon the mileage proportions of the fleet during the period of twelve months ending on August 31 next preceding the commencement of the registration year for which registration is sought: Except, that mileage proportions for a fleet not operated during such period in the State where application for registration is made will be determined by the Administrator upon the sworn application of the applicant showing the operations during such period in other States and the estimated operations during the registration year for which registration is sought, in the State in which application is being made; or if no operations were conducted during such period a full statement of the proposed method of operation.

If any buses operate in two or more States which permit the proration of registration on the basis of a fleet of buses consisting of a lesser number of vehicles than provided in article II(g), such fleet may be prorated as to registration in such States, in which event the buses in such fleet shall not be required to register in any other contracting States if each such vehicle is registered in some contracting State (except to the extent it is exempt from registration as provided in article III(b)).

If the administrator of any State determines, based on his method of the operation thereof, that the inclusion of a bus or buses as a part of a fleet would adversely affect the proper fleet fee which should be paid to his State, having due regard for fairness and equity, he may refuse to permit any or all of such buses to be included in his State as a part of such fleet.

(b) Total fleet miles: Total fleet miles, with respect to each contracting State, shall mean the total miles operated by the fleet (1) in such State, (2) in all other contracting States, (3) in other States having proportional registration provisions, (4) in States with which such contracting State has reciprocity, and (5) in such other States as the administrator determines should be included under the circumstances in order to protect or promote the interest of his State; except that in States having laws requiring proration on the basis of a different determination of total fleet miles, total fleet miles shall be determined on such basis.

(c) Leased vehicles: If a bus is operated by a person other than the owner as a part of a fleet which is subject to the provisions of this article, then the operator of such fleet shall be deemed to be the owner of said bus for the purposes of this article.

(d) Extent of privileges: Upon the registration of a fleet in a contracting State pursuant to this article, each bus in the fleet may be operated in both interstate and intrastate operations in such State (except as provided in article III(e)).

(e) Application for proration: The application for proration of registration shall be made in each contracting State upon substantially the application forms and supplements authorized by joint action of the administrators of the contracting States.

(f) Issuance of identification: Upon registration of a fleet, the State which is the base State of a particular bus of the fleet shall issue the required license plates and registration card for such bus and each contracting State in which the fleet of which such bus is a part operates shall issue a special identification identifying such bus as a part of a fleet which has fully complied with the registration requirements of such State. The required license plates, registration cards, and identification shall be appropriately displayed in the manner required by or pursuant to the laws of each respective State.

(g) Additions to fleet: If any bus is added to a prorated fleet after the filing of the original application, the owner shall file a suplemental application. The owner shall register such bus in each contracting State in like manner as provided for buses listed in an original application and the registration fee payable shall be determined on the mileage proportion used to determine the registration fees payable for buses registered under the original application.

(h) Withdrawals from fleet: If any bus is withdrawn from a prorated fleet during the period for which it is registered or identified, the owner shall notify the administrator of each State in which it is registered or identified of such withdrawal and shall return the plates and registration card or identification as may be required by or pursuant to the laws of the respective States.

(i) Audits: The Administrator of each contracting State shall, within the statutory authority of such administrator, make any information obtained upon an audit of records of any applicant for proration of registration available to the administrators of the other contracting States.

(j) Errors in registration: If it is determined by the administrator of a contracting State, as a result of such audits or otherwise, that an improper fee has been paid his State, or errors in registration found, the administrator may require the fleet owner to make the necessary corrections in the registration of his fleet and payment of fees.

ARTICLE V.—RECIPROCITY

(a) Grant of reciprocity: Each of the contracting States grants reciprocity as provided in this article.

(b) Applicability: The provisions of this agreement with respect to reciprocity shall apply only to a bus properly registered in the base State of the bus, which State must be a contracting State.

(c) Nonapplicability to fleet buses: The reciprocity granted pursuant to this article shall not apply to a bus which is entitled to be registered or identified as part of a prorated fleet.

(d) Extent of reciprocity: The reciprocity granted pursuant to this article shall permit the interstate operation of a bus and intrastate operation which is incidental to a trip of such bus involving interstate operation.

(e) Other agreements: Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to prohibit any of the contracting States from entering into separate agreements with each other for the granting of temporary permits for the intrastate operation of vehicles registered in the other State; nor to prevent any of the contracting States from entering into agreements to grant reciprocity for intrastate operation within any zone or zones agreed upon by the States.

ARTICLE VI.—WITHDRAWAL OR REVOCATION

Any contracting State may withdraw from this agreement upon thirty days' written notice to each other contracting State, which notice shall be given only after the repeal of this agreement by the legislature of such State, if adoption was by legislative act, or after renunciation by the appropriate administrative official of such contracting State if the laws thereof empower him so to renounce.

ARTICLE VII.—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any State or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any State participating herein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party States and in full force and effect as to the State affected as to all severable matters.

SEC. 202. The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have the power to make such exemptions from the coverage of the agreement as may be appropriate and to make such changes in methods for the reporting of any information required to be furnished to the District of Columbia pursuant to the agreement as, in its judgment, shall be suitable: Provided, That any such exemptions or changes shall not be contrary to the purposes set forth in article I of the agreement and shall be made in order to permit the continuance of uniformity of practice among the contracting States with respect to buses.

SEC. 203. The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall enter into the agreement authorized by section 201 of this title without further action on the part of the Congress, and issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the implementation of such agreement. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act, nothing herein shall be construed so as to affect the authority vested in the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia by Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952 (66 Stat. 824). The performance of any function vested by this Act in the Board of Commissioners (other than the entry into a compact authorized by this Act) or in any office or agency under the jurisdiction and control of said Board of Commissioners may be delegated by said Board of Commissioners in accordance with section 3 of such plan.

SEC. 204. All provisions of law applicable to the District of Columbia shall, to the extent they are inconsistent with the agreement authorized by this title, be inapplicable to the taxation and registration of buses in the District of Columbia during such time as the District is a party to such agreement.

SEC. 205. Unless otherwise provided in any statute withdrawing the District of Columbia from participation in the agreement, the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall be the officer to give notice of withdrawal therefrom.

SEC. 206. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this title is expressly reserved. (Apr. 14, 1965, 79 Stat. 58, Pub. L. 89–11, §§ 101 to 206).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF REPEAL

Repeal of section effective on the first day of the first month following its enactment, but not prior to July 1, 1952, see section 4 of act June 4, 1952, set out as a note under § 47–1901.

§ 47–1902. Definitions.

As used in sections 47–1901 to 47–1916—

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means all vehicles propelled by internal-combustion engines, electricity, or steam, except traction engines, road rollers, and vehicles propelled only upon rails and tracks.

(b) The term "motor vehicle fuels" means gasoline and other volatile and inflammable liquid fuels produced or compounded for the purpose of operating or propelling internal-combustion engines: Provided, That kerosene shall not be considered to be a motor-vehicle fuel in the meaning of this chapter.

(c) The term "importer" means any person who brings into, or who produces, refines, manufactures, or compounds, in the District of Columbia motor-vehicle fuel to be used by him or to be sold, kept for sale, bartered, delivered for value, or exchanged for goods. The term "distributor" means any person other than an importer, who purchases motor-vehicle fuel for sale to another person for resale.

(d) The term "person" includes individual, partnership, corporation, and association.

(e) The term "commissioners" means the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

(f) The term "highways" means the right of way of streets, avenues, and roads, bridges, viaducts, underpasses, drainage structures, guard rails, signs, signals, curbing, and dikes, fills, and retaining walls necessary to support or protect the highway.

(g) The term "construction" means the supervising, inspecting, actual building, and all expenses incidental to the construction of a highway, including the acquisition of the necessary rights of way.

(h) The term "reconstruction" means a widening or a rebuilding of the highway or any portion thereof and of sufficient width and strength to care adequately for traffic needs, including all expenses incidental to the reconstruction of a highway and the acquisition of the necessary rights of way.

(i) The term "maintenance" means the constant making of needed repairs to preserve the highway.

(j) The term "improvement" means the betterment of a highway by construction, reconstruction, or resurfacing. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 106, ch. 131, § 2; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 677, ch. 690, title III, § 2; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 358, ch. 223, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

1938—Act May 16, 1938, substituted "signals," for "and protective structures in connection with highways" in subsec. (f), and added subsec. (j).

1937—Act Aug. 17, 1937, deleted from subsection (c) the words "or otherwise disposed of by him or to be used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes" and inserted in lieu thereof the words which follow the word "sold" to the end of the subsection, and added subsecs. (f), (g), (h), and (i).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Gasoline imported by United States

United States is not an "importer" or "person" within the meaning of the act. District of Columbia v. American Oil Co. (1930, 39 F. 2d 510, 59 App. D. C. 260).

§ 47–1903. Importers—License—Application for—Contents—Fee—Bond—Issuance—Revocation.

(a) No person shall bring into, or produce, refine, manufacture, or compound in the District of Columbia motor-vehicle fuel to be used by him or to be sold, bartered, delivered for value, or exchanged for goods, and no person shall engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels in the District of Columbia unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked license authorizing him so to do issued by the commissioners. The application for such license shall contain (1) the name of the applicant; (2) the name under which the applicant intends to transact business and the name and place of business of the local representative; (3) the location of the applicant's place of business; (4) the date such business was established; and (5) any other information required under regulations promulgated by the commissioners of the District of Columbia. In case the applicant is a corporation, the application shall also contain the corporate name, place, and time of incorporation, and the names of the officers and directors, and, if a foreign corporation, the name of its resident general agent, and in case the applicant is a partnership the names and addresses of the several persons constituting the partnership. Such application shall be signed and sworn to by the owner of such business, if owned by an individual; by the partners, if owned by a partnership; or by the president and secretary of the corporation, or by its manager or resident general agent, if owned by a corporation. At the time of applying for such license the applicant shall pay to the collector of taxes as an annual license fee the sum of $5 and shall file with the commissioners of the District of Columbia a bond in the form to be prescribed by said commissioners, in the approximate sum of three times the average monthly motor-fuel tax due from said such importer during the next preceding twelve months, or estimated to be so due in the next succeeding twelve months, to be executed by a surety company duly licensed to do business under the laws of the District of Columbia, payable to the District of Columbia and conditioned upon the prompt payment of any and all taxes and penalties, levied and imposed in sections 47–1901 and 47–1903 to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, and generally upon faithful compliance with the terms of sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 by such importer: Provided, That in no case shall such bond be less than $5,000 nor more than $20,000.

(b) Upon filing such application and bond and the payment of the fee, the assessor shall issue to such applicant a license which shall authorize the applicant to engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels for one year unless such license is sooner revoked.

(c) If any importer fails, refuses, or neglects to file the monthly report within the time required by section 47–1904, or to pay the tax within the time required by section 47–1906 there shall be added to such tax an amount equal to the sum of 20 per centum of the amount of such tax, and the assessor shall promptly notify the importer and the bonding company by notice sent by registered mail or by certified mail to such importer requiring him to show cause why the license should not be revoked. If in the opinion of the assessor the importer fails within ten days after the mailing of such notice to show that failure to file the monthly report or to pay the tax as the case may be within the time required was due to accident or justifiable oversight, the assessor shall forthwith revoke such license. Any importer whose license has been revoked shall not be issued another license for twelve months following the date of said revocation.

(d) Before any person whose license has been revoked may obtain another license to engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels, such person shall pay all delinquent taxes and penalties due hereunder remaining unpaid by him. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 3; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 677, ch. 690, title III, § 3; June 11, 1960, 74 Stat. 203, Pub. L. 86–507, § 1(55).)

AMENDMENTS

1960—Act June 11, 1960, inserted the words "or by certified mail" following "registered mail."

1937—Act Aug. 17, 1937, amended section generally.

CROSS REFERENCE

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Application for license

Under this section requiring foreign corporation applying for license to engage in district in business of importer of motor fuels to state in application the name of its resident general agent, designation of resident general agent is a prerequisite to engaging in business of importing fuels and where foreign importer, in application for license, stated that it had no general agent but gave name of limited agent, Commissioners properly declined to grant license. Cities Service Oil Co. v. McLaughlin, Commissioner, etc. (D.C.D.C. 1960, 189 F. Supp. 227).

Constitutionality

Requirement that foreign corporation applying for license to import motor fuels into District of Columbia state on application name of its resident general agent was clearly connected with granting of license and requirement was entirely within legislative discretion and was not unconstitutional on ground that it was arbitrary, unreasonable, and unnecessary. Cities Service Oil Co. v. McLaughlin, Commissioner, etc. (D.C.D.C. 1960, 189 F. Supp. 227).

Resident general agent

Foreign corporation was not entitled to a license to import motor-vehicle fuel into the District of Columbia where it failed to meet the qualifications of the statute and police regulation requiring an importer qualifying for a license to designate a local representative and to maintain a local office or place of business within the District. Cities Service Oil Company v. W. N. Tobriner et al. (1962, 306 F. 2d 752, 113 U.S. App. D.C. 145).

District of Columbia motor fuel tax law and police regulation required that foreign corporation acting thereunder designate local representative, but did not require designation of resident general agent by corporation which maintained no such agent. Cities Service Oil Co. v. R. E. McLaughlin, Commissioner, etc. (1961, 292 F. 2d 759, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 266).

Sale to United States

Congress did not intend to permit the United States to import gasoline, tax-free, and yet impose a tax if delivery to the United States by the vendor should be made in the District instead of across the line in Virginia. District of Columbia v. American Oil Co. (1930, 39 F. 2d 510, 59 App. D. C. 260).

§ 47–1904. Monthly report to assessor of amount of fuel sold.

Each importer engaged in the District of Columbia in the sale or other disposition or use of motor-vehicle fuel shall render to the assessor of the District of Columbia, on or before the twenty-fifth day of each calendar month, on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the said assessor, a sworn report of the total number of gallons of motor-vehicle fuel within the District of Columbia sold or otherwise disposed of by such importer or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, and of the number of gallons of such fuel so sold or otherwise disposed of for exportation from and resale without the District of Columbia, during the preceding calendar month. Such report shall be sworn to by one of the principal officers in case of a domestic corporation, by the resident general agent, or attorney in fact, or by a chief accountant or officer in case of a foreign corporation, or by the managing agent or owner in case of a partnership or association. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 4; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

1941—Act Dec. 26, 1941, substituted "twenty-fifth" for "last."

§ 47–1905. Invoices to be rendered by importers to all purchasers except in cases of retail sales.

Invoices shall be rendered by importers and distributors to all purchasers from them of motor-vehicle fuel within the District of Columbia except in case of retail sales. Said invoices shall contain a statement, printed thereon in a conspicuous place, that the liability to the District of Columbia for the tax herein imposed has been assumed by a licensed importer named in said statement and that the importer has paid the tax or will pay it on or before the twenty-fifth day of the calendar month next succeeding the purchase. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 5; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 678, ch. 690, title III, § 4; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

1941—Act Dec. 26, 1941, substituted "twenty-fifth" for "last."

1937—Act Aug. 17, 1937, inserted the words "and distributors" after "importers," and "by a licensed importer named in said statement" after "assumed."

§ 47–1906. Tax to be paid to collector not later than twenty-fifth day of next succeeding calendar month.

The tax in respect to motor-vehicle fuel so sold or otherwise disposed of or used in any calendar month shall be paid by the importer on or before the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, who shall issue a receipt to the importer therefor. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 6; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

1941—Act Dec. 26, 1941, substituted "twenty-fifth" for "last."

§ 47–1907. Importer's records of transactions subject to inspection of assessor and collector.

The records of all purchases, receipts, sales, other dispositions, and uses of motor-vehicle fuel of every importer, distributor, or dealer shall, at all times during the business hours of the day, be subject to inspection by the assessor and the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, or by their duly authorized agents or by any other agent duly authorized by the Commissioners to make such inspection. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 7; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 678, ch. 690, title III, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

1937—Act. Aug. 17, 1937, added the words "distributor, or dealer."

§ 47–1908. Penalty for accepting fuel from importer without an itemized sale statement.

It shall be unlawful for any person to accept or receive from any importer or distributor, except in cases of retail sales, any motor-vehicle fuel unless the statement provided for in section 47–1905 appears upon the invoice for the fuel. If any such motor-vehicle fuel is received and accepted by any person upon the invoice of which said statement does not appear, such person shall pay to the collector of taxes the tax herein imposed. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 8; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 679, ch. 690, title III, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

1937—Act Aug. 17, 1937, added the words "or distributor" and deleted following the word "imposed" the words "or be liable to the District of Columbia for double the amount of the said tax, which amount may be recovered by civil suit or action in any court of competent jurisdiction."

§ 47–1909. Fuel exported from District of Columbia exempted from taxation.

No tax on motor-vehicle fuels exported or sold for exportation from the District of Columbia to any other jurisdiction or nation shall be imposed. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 9.)

§ 47–1910. Motor fuel used for any purpose other than motor vehicle—Refund of tax payment.

Any person who purchases any motor-vehicle fuel in the District of Columbia to be used for operating or propelling any stationary gas engine, tractor used for agricultural purposes, motor-boat, aeroplane, or aircraft of any character, or for cleaning or dyeing, or for any other purpose other than use in a motor vehicle operated, or intended to be operated, in whole or in part upon any of the public highways of the District of Columbia, on which motor-vehicle fuel the tax imposed by sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 shall have been paid, shall be refunded the amount of such tax so paid by the importer, upon presenting to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sworn statement accompanied by the invoices showing such purchase, which statement shall set forth the total amount of such motor-vehicle fuel so purchased and used by such consumer other than in motor vehicles operated, or intended to be operated, on any of the public highways of the District of Columbia. Such refunds shall be made by check by the collector of taxes from moneys paid for taxes on motor-vehicle fuels and retained on deposit as hereinafter in this section provided. For the purpose of such refunds the collector of taxes is authorized at all times to retain in a special fund on deposit in a Government depositary moneys paid him for such taxes, the total amount so retained on deposit not to exceed $1,000 at any one time. Applications for refunds as provided herein, must be filed with the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia within sixty days from the date of purchase: Provided, That before any refund shall be made the applicant shall furnish to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia satisfactory evidence by sworn statement of the exempted use of such fuel purchased by him. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 10; Aug. 11, 1939, 53 Stat. 1409, ch. 692.)

AMENDMENT

1939—Act Aug. 11, 1939, substituted "sixty days" for "thirty days."

CROSS REFERENCE

Refund of taxes, see § 47–1016 and notes.

§ 47–1911. Violations—Penalty.

Any person violating any provision of sections 47–1903 to 47–1906 inclusive, or section 47–1908, or refusing or obstructing inspection under section 47–1907, or falsely making any statement or report required by sections 47–1901 to 47–1916, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 11; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 679, ch. 690, title III, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

1937—Act Aug. 17, 1937, included violations of section 47–1908, and deleted the words "Any person who fails to pay any tax upon motor-vehicle fuels imposed by this act shall be liable to the District of Columbia for a penalty equal to twice the amount of such tax. Such penalty may be collected in a civil suit in any court of competent jurisdiction."

§ 47–1912. Tax on fuel sold by United States agency in the District of Columbia.

When under authority of law gasoline or other motor-vehicle fuel is sold by an agency of the United States within the District of Columbia, for use in privately owned vehicles, such agency of the United States shall, by agreement with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, arrange for the collection of the tax of 7 cents per gallon herein authorized to be imposed, and for accounting to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia for the proceeds of such tax collections. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 14; June 4, 1952, 66 Stat. 100, ch. 366, § 2; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 117, ch. 218, title XI, § 1102; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 858, Pub. L. 89–610, title VIII, § 802.)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, increased the tax on motor vehicle fuel from six to seven cents per gallon.

1954—Act May 18, 1954, increased the tax on motor-vehicle fuel from 5 to 6 cents a gallon.

1952—Act June 4, 1952, increased the tax on gasoline or other motor-vehicle fuel from 2 to 5 cents per gallon.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Amendment of this section by act Sept. 30, 1966, as effective on the first day of the first month which begins more than thirty days after Sept. 30, 1966, see § 703 of such act, set out as a note under § 47–1901.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on the first day of the first month following May 18, 1954, see section 1103 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–1901.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act June 4, 1952, effective on the first day of the first month following June 4, 1952, see section 4 of act June 4, 1952, set out as a note under § 47–1901.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003–1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

§ 47–1913. Violations to be prosecuted by corporation counsel.

All prosecution for violations of the provisions of sections 47–1901 to 47–1906 or regulations prescribed thereunder may be in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants; and all suits for the collection of any tax or penalty under sections 47–1901 to 47–1906 or such regulations shall be instituted by the corporation counsel or any of his assistants. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 15; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia' was substituted for "police court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

§ 47–1914. Construction—Not to affect public hackers.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed in any wise to affect the provisions of sections 47–2331 to 47–2333. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 16.)

CODIFICATION

The paragraphs of act July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, referred to, were amended by act July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 550, ch. 366. Paragraphs 11, 13, and 14 of act July 1, 1902, contain subject matter closely akin to paragraphs 31, 32, and 33 of act July 1, 1932, which appear in this Code, as they are now amended, as §§ 47–2331 to 47–2333.

§ 47–1915. Construction—Personal tax laws not affected.

Nothing in sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 shall be construed as affecting the application to motor vehicles of the personal-property tax in force on May 3, 1924, which personal-property tax shall continue to be levied, assessed, and collected on motor vehicles. (Apr. 23. 1924, 43 Stat. 110, ch. 131, § 17.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction

This act should be considered as a whole, and, if possible, given an interpretation that will harmonize and accord full force and effect to all of its provisions. District of Columbia v. Bailey (1927, 18 F. 2d 367, 57 App. D. C. 151).

§ 47–1916. Commissioners to make necessary regulations.

The commissioners may make such regulations as in their judgment are necessary for the administration of sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 and may affix thereto such fines and penalties as in their judgment are necessary to enforce such regulations (in cases in which a penalty is not otherwise provided by law). (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 110, ch. 131, § 18.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Resident general agent

Foreign corporation was not entitled to a license to import motor-vehicle fuel into the District of Columbia where it failed to meet the qualifications of the statute and police regulation requiring an importer qualifying for a license to designate a local representative and to maintain a local office or place of business within the District. Cities Service Oil Company v. W. N. Tobriner et al. (1962, 306 F. 2d 752, 113 U.S. App. D.C. 145).

District of Columbia motor fuel tax law and police regulation required that foreign corporation acting thereunder designate local representative, but did not require designation of resident general agent by corporation which maintained no such agent. Cities Service Oil Co. v. R. E. McLaughlin, Commissioner, etc. (1961, 292 F. 2d 759, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 266).

§ 47–1917. Street paving—Assessments.

Assessments in accordance with existing law shall be made for paving and repaving roadways, where such roadways are paved or repaved, with funds derived from the collection of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels. (Mar. 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 167, ch. 44, § 1.)

§ 47–1918. Revenue and disbursements.

All moneys derived from assessments for paving and repaving roadways under provisions of existing law arising from the expenditure of the fund created by the tax on motor-vehicle fuels, shall be paid into the treasury of the United States and be credited to and constitute a part of said fund and shall thereafter be available for appropriation in the same manner as the proceeds of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels. (June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 550, ch. 302.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Provided by existing law

Term "provided by existing law" should be held to refer to the provision of the statute relating to the paving, and not to the assumed principle of common law relating to the relocation of the tracks. District of Columbia v. Georgetown & T. R. Co. (1930, 41 F. 2d 424, 59 App. D. C. 335).

§ 47–1919. Continuation of uncompleted projects at end of fiscal year.

Any projects or portions of projects chargeable to the gasoline-tax road and street improvement fund during the fiscal year 1925 and subsequent fiscal years and uncompleted at the close of those years shall be a continuing charge upon the fund until completed and shall, except in so far as conditions beyond the control of the commissioners prevent, be given priority over projects subsequently made a charge upon such fund. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1226, ch. 477.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Invalidity

A special repaving assessment under acts authorizing assessments on frontage basis was invalid. Reichelderfer v. Hechinger (1932, 57 F. 2d 943, 61 App. D. C. 104).

Chapter 20.—DOG TAX

Sec.
47–2001. Dog tax.
47–2002. Collector to furnish metallic tag.
47–2003. Impounding of dogs found at large.
47–2004. Dogs wearing tags regarded as personal property—Damages for injuring or destruction of same.
47–2005. Owner of dog liable to civil action for damages caused by the dog.
47–2006. Dogs must wear collar with owner's name and tag.
47–2007. Removing dog's collar, insignia, or tag—Penalty.
47–2008. Poundmaster given power to make arrest.

§ 47–2001. Dog tax.

There shall be levied a tax of $3 each per annum upon all dogs owned or kept in the District of Columbia; said tax to be collected as other taxes in said District are or may be collected. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 1; July 5, 1945, 59 Stat. 409, ch. 267, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1945—Act July 5, 1945, increased the tax from $2 to $3.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorganization Order No. 20 dated Nov. 10, 1952, transferred the sale of dog licenses (Dog Tax) from the Collector of Taxes to the Superintendent of Licenses. This order was issued pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952. The order and the plan are set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration.

§ 47–2002. Collector to furnish metallic tag.

It shall be the duty of the collector of taxes, upon receipt of said tax, to give to the person paying the same, for each dog so paid for, a suitable metallic tag, stamped with the year, showing that said tax has been duly paid; and he shall keep a record of all such payments, with the date thereof, and the name, color, and sex of such dog, and the name of the person claiming any dog so paid for; and a copy of such record, certified under the hand and official seal of the said collector, which shall be given to any person demanding the same, upon payment of twenty-five cents therefor, shall be prima-facie evidence of such payment in any court of the District of Columbia. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 2.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorganization Order No. 20 dated Nov. 10, 1952, transferred the sale of dog licenses (Dog Tax) from the Collector of Taxes to the Superintendent of Licenses. This order was issued pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952. The order and plan are set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration.

§ 47–2003. Impounding of dogs found at large.

The poundmaster of the District of Columbia shall, during the entire year, seize all dogs found running at large, and shall impound the same; and if within forty-eight hours the same are not redeemed by the owners thereof by the payment of two dollars they shall be sold or destroyed, as the poundmaster may deem advisable; and any sale made by virtue hereof shall be deemed valid to all intents and purposes in all courts of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no owner, keeper, or purchaser, shall be permitted to redeem any dog seized and impounded as aforesaid, nor shall the Poundmaster deliver any dog to an owner, keeper, or purchaser, unless such owner, keeper, or purchaser shall first satisfy the Poundmaster that he has obtained for such dog the tax tag provided for in section 47–2002, and if at such time there shall be in force a proclamation of the Commissioners requiring dogs to be vaccinated against rabies, such owner, keeper, or purchaser shall also satisfy the Poundmaster that such dog has been vaccinated against rabies in accordance with such proclamation. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 3; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 547, ch. 1332; July 5, 1945, 59 Stat. 409, ch. 267, § 2; Sept. 13, 1961, 75 Stat. 498, Pub. L. 87–227, § 2(1).)

AMENDMENTS

1961—Section 2(1) of act Sept. 13, 1961, struck out the following: "without the tax tag issued by the collector aforesaid attached, and all female dogs in heat found running at large". This makes it permissible for the poundmaster to seize all dogs running at large.

1945—Act July 5, 1945, added proviso.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1961 AMENDMENT

Section 4 of act Sept. 13, 1961, makes this amendment "effective thirty days after the date of its approval" [Sept. 13, 1961].

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorganization Order No. 52 of the Board of Commissioners dated June 30, 1953, combined with Reorganization Order No. 57, and redesignated Organization Order No. 141, dated Aug. 20, 1964, transferred to the Metropolitan Police Department under the direction and control of the Chief of Police, all functions under the previously existing District of Columbia Pound, including the duties, powers, and authorities of all officers and employees assigned thereto. The order established the position of Poundmaster to be responsible for the performance of those functions under the direction and control of the Chief of Police. The order abolished the previously existing District of Columbia Pound. This order was issued pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952. The order and plan are set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration.

CROSS REFERENCE

General provisions concerning animals running at large, see §§ 1–224b, 1–230.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Effect of amendment

The amendment of this chapter without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (1923, 286 F. 772, 52 App. D. C. 310).

§ 47–2004. Dogs wearing tags regarded as personal property—Damages for injuring or destruction of same.

Any dog wearing the tax tag hereinbefore provided for shall be regarded as personal property in all the courts of said District, and any person injuring or destroying the same shall be liable to a civil action for damages, which, upon proof of said injuring or killing, may be awarded in a sum equal to the value usually put upon such property by persons buying and selling the same, subject to such modifications as the particular circumstances of the case may make proper. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 4; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 547, ch. 1332; Sept. 13, 1961, 75 Stat. 498, Pub. L. 87–227, § 2(2).)

AMENDMENT

1961—Section 2(2) of act Sept. 13, 1961, amended the section by striking out "Any dog wearing the tax tag hereinbefore provided for, except female dogs in heat, shall be permitted to run at large within the District of Columbia, and any" and inserting in lieu thereof "Any". This eliminates provision permitting licensed dogs to run at large.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1961 AMENDMENT

Section 4 of act Sept. 13, 1961, makes this amendment "effective thirty days after the date of its approval" [Sept 13, 1961]

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Absence of tag

This section does not change the common law rule to extent that any dog not wearing tax tag is not "personal property" and that anyone injuring the same is not liable in damages. Scharfeld v. Richardson (1943, 133 F. 2d 340, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

The owner of dog which had not been provided with a tax tag as required by this chapter could recover for the loss of the dog as result of a fatal assault perpetrated by another dog whose owner had been apprised of its malevolent propensities. Id.

Common law

At common law, a dog is "personal property" and its owner may recover for a willful or negligent injury thereto. Scharfeld v. Richardson (1943, 133 F. 2d 340, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

Construction

This section and § 47–2004 must be construed together. Scharfeld v. Richardson (1943, 133 F. 2d 340, 70 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

§ 47–2005. Owner of dog liable to civil action for damages caused by the dog.

Any person owning any dog so recorded in the collector's office shall be liable in a civil action for any damage done by said dog to the full amount of the injury inflicted. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 5.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Common law

At common law, an owner may be liable in civil action for damage caused by his dog. Scharfeld v. Richardson (1943, 133 F. 2d 340, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 376, 145 A. L. R. 980).

Construction

This section and § 47–2005 are to be construed together. Scharfeld v. Richardson (1943, 133 F. 2d 340, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

§ 47–2006. Dogs must wear collar with owner's name and tag.

It shall be the duty of any person owning or possessing a dog to place, or cause to be placed and kept, around the neck of such dog, a collar, on which shall be marked and engraved, in legible and durable characters, the name of the owner or possessor, and the letters "D. C.," and to which collar must be attached the insignia or tax-tag furnished by the District tax-collector, in accordance with sections 47–2001, 47–2002, under the penalty of not less than five nor more than ten dollars; and if any person shall put, or cause to be put, a collar, with the insignia or tax-tag, around the neck of any dog owned or possessed by any person or persons residing in the District, without having obtained a license for keeping such animal, he, she, or they shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than five nor more than ten dollars for each and every offense. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 6.)

§ 47–2007. Removing dog's collar, insignia, or tag—Penalty.

Any person who shall remove, or cause to be removed, the collar and insignia or tax-tag from the neck of any dog, or entice any properly licensed dog into any inclosure for the purpose of taking off its collar or insignia, or shall for such purpose decoy or entice any animal out of the inclosure or house of its owner or possessor, or shall seize or molest any dog while held or led by any person, or shall bring any dog into the District for the purpose of taking up and killing the same, shall forfeit and pay a sum of not more than twenty dollars. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 8.)

§ 47–2008. Poundmaster given power to make arrest.

In order to carry out properly and effectively the duties imposed upon him by Congress the poundmaster is hereby given authority as a special police officer of the Metropolitan police department of the District of Columbia, with authority to make arrests in the performance of his duty. (June 6, 1930, 46 Stat. 522, ch. 411, § 1.)

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Transfer of functions to Metropolitan Police Department, under direction and control of chief of police, see note under § 47–2003.

CODIFICATION

This section as enacted contained the clause, "and he shall receive a salary at the rate of $3,080 per annum." These provisions have been omitted because subsequent appropriation acts have provided a different salary.

Chapter 21.—PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT AGENCY LICENSES

Sec.

47–2101. Employment agencies—License required—Definitions.
47–2102. Bond.
47–2103. Registers.
47–2104. Receipts.
47–2105. Location of place in which conducted.
47–2106. Application of minor.
47–2107. Inspection.

Sec.
47–2108. False information.
47–2109. Exceptions from license requirements.
47–2110. Employment contract.
47–2111. Character of employer—Fraud.

§ 47–2101. Employment agencies—License required—Definitions.

It shall be unlawful for any person to open, keep, operate, maintain, or carry on any private employment agency without first having obtained a license from the District of Columbia so to do. The fee for such license shall be $100 per annum. Any license may be denied, revoked, or suspended for cause by the said commissioners. A person whose application for a license is denied, or whose license is revoked or suspended by the commissioners may obtain a review of the action of the commissioners in the District of Columbia Court of Appeals in the manner provided by sections 11–742, 17–303, 17–304, 17–305(b), 17–306 and 17–307 of the District of Columbia Code.

(a) The term "private employment agency" means any business, enterprise, or undertaking that procures, offers to procure, promises to procure, attempts to procure, or aids in procuring, either directly or indirectly, help or employment for another, for any fee, remuneration, profit, or any consideration whatsoever, promises, paid, or received therefor, either directly or indirectly. It shall also include domestic, commercial, clerical, executive, professional, and general employment bureaus, and shall apply to theatrical employment agencies and nurses' registry conducted for profit or gain.

(a–1) The term "nurses' registry" means and includes the business of conducting an agency, bureau, office, or other place for the purpose of procuring, offering to procure, promising to procure, attempting to procure, or aiding in procuring employment or engagements for nurses of any kind.

(a–2) The term "theatrical employment agency" includes the business of conducting any agency, bureau, office, or other place providing engagements for circus, vaudeville, theatrical, and other entertainments or exhibitions or performances, or of giving information as to where such engagements may be procured or provided, but does not include the business of managing the artists or the attraction constituting such performances, where such business only incidentally involves the seeking of employment therefor.

(a–3) The term "applicant for employment" means any person seeking work, employment, or engagement of any character.

(a–4) The term "applicant for help" means any person seeking help, employees, or performers.

The singular shall include the plural and the masculine the feminine. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 559, ch. 366; Aug. 31, 1954, 68 Stat. 1048, ch. 1173, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1; Dec. 23, 1963, 77 Stat. 617, Pub. L. 88–241, § 10.)

CODIFICATION

"The Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "any justice of the court of appeals" to conform to the provisions of act Aug. 31, 1954, which vested exclusive jurisdiction to review action of the Commissioners in revoking, suspending or denying a license under this section in the Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. See § 11–742(a)(5).

This chapter sets out that part of the 1932 License Law that deals with employment agencies. Penalties for violating §§ 47–2101 to 47–2109 are in § 47–2347.

AMENDMENTS

1963—Section 10 of act, Dec. 23, 1963, amended the first paragraph by striking out the colon preceding the proviso and changing it to a period and by striking out everything in the paragraph beginning with the word "Provided" and inserting in lieu thereof the matter beginning with the words, "A person whose".

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "Proprietors or owners of intelligence offices, information bureaus, registries, or employment offices, by whatsoever name called, shall pay a license tax of ten dollars per annum."

CHANGE OF NAME

Act July 8, 1963, § 6, substituted "District of Columbia Court of Appeals" for "Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia". Provisions identical with those of said section 6 were contained in act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1172, Pub. L. 88–873, § 6, which was repealed by Act Dec. 23, 1963, 77 Stat. 629, Pub. L. 88–241, § 21(a).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1963 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Dec. 23, 1963, was made effective on Jan. 1, 1964. See not preceding ch. 1, Title 11.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Object of statute

Primary objective of statute providing that no persons shall operate employment agency without obtaining license was to furnish by careful supervision and regulation protection of individual applicants seeking employment through unscrupulous private agencies from many possible abuses within area. National Staffing Consultants Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1965, 211 A. 2d 762).

Penal nature of statute

Statutes providing that no person shall operate employment agency without obtaining license and providing that violation of statute is misdemeanor are penal in nature. National Staffing Consultants Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1965, 211 A. 2d 762).

§ 47–2102. Bond.

No license shall become effective under section 47–2101 until bond in due form in the penal sum of $1,000, or such lesser amount as the commissioners may determine with two or more sureties or a duly authorized surety company to be approved by the commissioners, shall have been deposited with the commissioners. The bond shall be payable to the District of Columbia and shall be conditioned that the person applying for the license will comply with this chapter and shall pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of any misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud, or deceit, or any unlawful act or omission of any licensed person, made, committed, or omitted in the business conducted under such license, or caused by any other violation of this chapter in carrying on the business for which such license is granted. One or more recoveries upon such bond shall not vitiate the same, but it shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, however, That the aggregate amount of all such recoveries shall not exceed the full amount of the bond. Upon the commencement of any action or actions against the surety upon any such bond for a sum or sums aggregating or exceeding the amount of such bond the commissioners may require a new and additional bond in like amount as the original one which shall be filed with the commissioners within thirty days of the demand therefor. Failure to file such bond within the prescribed time shall constitute cause for the revocation of the license therefor issued. Any suit or action against the surety on any bond required by the provisions of this section shall be commenced within one year from the accruing of the cause of action thereon.

If at any time, in the opinion of the commissioners, the sureties, or any of them, shall become irresponsible, the person holding such license shall, upon notice from the commissioners, give a new bond, and the failure to give a new bond within ten days after such notice, in the discretion of the commissioners, shall operate as a revocation of such license.

The commissioners shall furnish to anyone applying therefor a certified copy of any such bond filed in their office upon the payment of a fee of $1, and such certified copy shall be prima facie evidence in any court that such bond was duly executed and delivered by the person or corporation whose name appears therein. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42b, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 560, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2103. Registers.

It shall be the duty of every licensee to keep a register, approved by the commissioners, in which shall be entered, in the English language, the date of the application for employment, the name and address of the applicant to whom employment is promised or offered, the amount of the fee received. and, whenever possible, the names and addresses of former employers or persons to whom such applicant is known. Such licensee shall also enter in a separate register approved by the commissioners, in the English language, the name and address of every applicant accepted for help, the date of such application, kind of help requested, the names of the persons sent, with the designation of the one employed, and the amount of the fee received. The aforesaid registers of applicants for employment and help shall be open during office hours to inspection by the said commissioners. No such licensee shall make any false entry in such registers. It shall be the duty of every licensee, whenever possible, to communicate orally or in writing with at least one of the persons mentioned as references for every applicant for work in private families or employed in a fiduciary capacity, and the result of such investigation shall be kept on file in such agency: Provided, That if the applicant for help voluntarily waives in writing such investigation of references by the licensee, failure on the part of the licensee to make such investigation shall not be deemed a violation of this section. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42c, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2104. Receipts.

It shall be the duty of such licensee to give to every applicant for employment from whom a fee shall be received a receipt in which shall be stated the name of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the purpose for which it was paid, and to every applicant for help a receipt stating the name and address of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the kind of help to be provided. Every receipt given by such licensee shall bear the name and address of such licensee printed in large type thereon. Every receipt shall have printed on the back thereof a copy of section 47–2108 in the English language. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42d, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2105. Location of place in which conducted.

No private employment agency licensed under section 47–2101 shall be located in rooms used for living purposes, or in rooms where boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served or persons sleep, or in any building or on premises wherein rooms are located and used for living purposes, or wherein boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served, or persons sleep, or in any building wherein such rooms are located; nor shall any such private employment agency be located in any such building where the entrance thereto is not separate and apart from the entrance to the building proper, or where there is any entrance into the building proper from said private employment agency: Provided, That no one shall be precluded from keeping an employment agency in an office building by reason of there being a cafe or restaurant in another part of said building. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42e, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch 366.)

§ 47–2106. Application of minor.

No licensee shall accept any application for employment made by or on behalf of any child, or shall place or assist in placing any such child in any employment whatever in violation of any compulsory education or child labor laws. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42f, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2107. Inspection.

All registers, books, records, and other papers required to be kept pursuant to this chapter in any private employment agency shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the commissioners, and every licensee shall post in a conspicuous place in such agency the license certificate. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42g, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2108. False information.

No licensee conducting any private employment agency shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading information, representation, notice, or advertisement, nor shall he give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning an engagement or employment to any applicant who shall register or apply for an engagement or employment or help. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42h, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2109. Exceptions from license requirements.

This chapter shall not apply to employment bureaus conducted by registered medical institutions, duly incorporated hospitals, or duly incorporated alumni associations of registered nurses, or to any bureau maintained by persons for the purpose of securing help or employees where no fee is charged. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42i, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Exempt agencies

Where no fee of any kind was paid by or received from individuals interested in meeting possible future corporate employers at career centers arranged for benefit of latter by defendant, defendant qualified as exception to statutory license requirement under provision excepting any bureau where no fee is charged. National Staffing Consultants Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1965, 211 A. 2d 762).

Business consulting firm, which conducted professional and semiprofessional career opportunity centers for corporate clients, which was paid agreed contract price for its services prior to holding of career center without regard to their success in hiring persons attending, and which received no fee if prospective employee was hired as result of attending meeting, did not conduct "private employment agency" within statute providing that no person shall operate employment agency without obtaining license. Id.

§ 47–2110. Employment contract.

No such person shall induce or attempt to induce any domestic employee to leave his employment with a view to obtaining other employment through such agency. Whenever any licensed person, or any other acting for him, agrees to send one or more persons, to work as contract laborers in any one place outside the city in which such agency is located, the said licensed person shall give to the applicant for employment, in writing, the name and address of the employer, name and address of the employee, nature of the work to be performed, wages offered, destination of the person employed, and terms of transportation. (June 19, 1906, 34 Stat. 308, ch. 3438, § 9.)

§ 47–2111. Character of employer—Fraud.

No such licensed person shall send, or cause to be sent, any female as a servant or inmate or performer to enter any place of bad repute, house of ill fame, or assignation house, or to any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, or place resorted to for the purpose of prostitution, or gambling house, the character of which such licensed person could have ascertained upon reasonable inquiry. No such licensed person shall knowingly permit any person of bad character, prostitutes, gamblers, intoxicated persons, or procurers, to frequent such agency. No such person shall procure or offer to procure help or employment in rooms or on premises where intoxicating liquors are sold to be consumed on the premises, whether or not dues or a fee or privilege is exacted, charged, or received directly or indirectly: Provided, That it shall be unlawful for employment agents or agencies to send applicants for employment to employers other than those who have applied to such agents or agencies for help or labor. For the violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this section the penalty shall be a fine of not more than two hundred dollars and in default in payment thereof by imprisonment in the workhouse for a period of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. No such licensed person shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading notice or advertisement. All advertisements of such employment agency by means of cards, circulars, or signs, and in newspapers and other publications, and all letter heads, receipts, and blanks shall contain the name and address of such employment agency, and no such licensed person shall give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning employment to any applicant who shall register for employment or help. (June 19, 1906, 34 Stat. 308, ch. 3438, § 10.)

Chapter 22.—PUBLIC AUCTION PERMITS

Sec.

47–2201. Public auction—Auction of merchandise without permit from Commissioners prohibited.

§ 47–2202. Application for permit—Fee—Information to be furnished.

Every such permit shall be issued for a definite period of time not exceeding twelve months from its date of issue, and the date and hour of its expiration shall be stated in the permit, and before such permit shall be issued the applicant therefor shall pay to the District of Columbia, through its collector of taxes, such fee as the said Board of Commissioners may deem sufficient to reimburse the District of Columbia for the work and expense of issuing the permit and gathering information concerning the applicant and his goods as the said board may deem prudent and best for the protection of the public, but which fee shall not exceed the sum of $50. The application for the said permit shall be by verified petition, stating the name of the applicant, residence, street, and number of the proposed place of selling, and shall set forth in detail the goods to be sold and what statements or representations are to be made or advertised as to the same, and the length of time for which the permit is desired; and, if previously engaged in a like or similar business, to designate all the places where the same was conducted, and shall furnish to said commissioners such further evidence as shall be deemed necessary to establish the truth of the statements made in the said petition. (Sept. 8, 1916, 39 Stat. 846, ch. 473, § 2.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Amendment

1932—Act July 1, 1932, transferred the authorization to issue licenses from the assessor to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent, and increased the fee for a certificate of assignment or transfer from 50 cents to $1.

Transfer of Functions

Reorganization Order No. 55 of the Board of Commissioners dated June 30, 1953, established under the direction and control of a Commissioner, a Department of Licenses and Inspections headed by a Director. The order set out the purpose, organization, and functions of the new department. The order provided that all of the functions and positions of the following named organizations were transferred to the new Department of Licenses and Inspections: The Department of Inspections including the Engineering Section, the Building Inspection Section, the Electrical Section, the Elevator Inspection Section, the Fire Safety Inspection Section, the Plumbing Inspection Section, the Smoke and Boiler Inspection Section, and the Administrative Section; and similarly the Department of Weights, Measures and Markets, the License Bureau, the License Board, the License Committee, the Board of Special Appeals, the Board for the Condemnation of Dangerous and Unsafe Buildings, and the Central Permit Bureau. The order provided that in accordance with the provisions of Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952 the named organizations were abolished. The order and plan are set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Taxicabs

Under statutes delegating to District of Columbia Public Utilities Commission power to regulate public utilities, Congress did not confer the power to grant or withhold licenses to operate taxicabs, but such power was delegated to Commissioners of the District of Columbia. Associated Taxicab Operators v. Hayes et al. (1957, 240 F. 2d 638, 99 U. S. App. D. C. 400).

§ 47–2302. Compliance with fire escape laws and regulations required before license is issued.

No license shall be issued to any person for the operation of a business in any building or part thereof containing living or lodging quarters of any description required to be licensed under authority of this Act, nor for any place of public assembly required to be licensed as hereinafter provided, nor for any other building or place mentioned in sections 5–317 to 5–323, required to be licensed as hereinafter provided or required to be licensed in any other Act of Congress, until the Director of Inspection, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, and any other official of the District of Columbia who shall be designated by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, have certified in writing to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent that the applicant for license has, as to such building or place, complied with all laws enacted and regulations made and promulgated for the protection of life and property. AMENDMENTS

1947—Act July 22, 1947, substituted "for the operation of a business in any building or part thereof containing living or lodging quarters of any description required to be licensed under authority of this Act, nor for any place of public assembly required to be licensed as hereinafter provided, nor for any other building or place mentioned in sections 5–317 to 5–323, required to be licensed as hereinafter provided or required to be licensed in any other Act of Congress, until the Director of Inspection, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, and any other official of the District of Columbia who shall be designated by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia" for "to conduct any business for which a license is required in any building mentioned in the Act entitled 'An Act to require the erection of fire escapes in certain buildings in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes,' approved March 19, 1906, as amended by the Act approved March 2, 1907, until such building has been provided and equipped with a sufficient number of fire escapes and other appliances required by said Acts; and no license shall be issued under the provisions of this section relating to hotels, apartment houses, lodging houses, theaters, public halls, public amusement parks, or buildings in which moving pictures are displayed for profit or gain, until the inspector of buildings, the chief officer of the fire department, and the electrical engineer", and inserted words "as to such building or place" preceding "complied with all laws."

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Section prior to such amendment, read as follows: "That when more than one business, trade, profession, or calling for which a license is herein prescribed shall be carried on by the same person, the license tax shall be paid for each such business, trade, profession, or calling: Provided, That licenses issued under any of the provisions of this Act shall be good only for the location designated thereon, and no license shall be issued for more than one place of business, profession, or calling, without the payment of a separate tax for each: Provided further, That no license shall be granted under the provisions of this section, relating to hotels and theaters, until the Inspector of Buildings and the chief officer of the Fire Department have certified in writing to the Assessor that the applicant for license has complied with the laws enacted and the regulations made and promulgated for the protection of life and property." See § 47–2304.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1947 AMENDMENT

Section 4 of act July 22, 1947, provided that: "This Act [amending this section and sections 47–2304 and 47–2308, and repealing sections 47–2329 and 47–2330] shall become effective sixty days after its passage and approval [July 22, 1947]."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Previous building construction

Building regulations had no controlling effect in determining whether fan-shaped landing was improper construction where building was constructed before adoption of building regulations which were limited to new residential buildings. Phillips v. Capital Investment & Guaranty Co. (D.C. Mun. App. 1943, 32 A. 2d 249).

§ 47–2303. Theater licenses—Revocation for failure to comply with regulations for decency.

Any license issued by the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent to the proprietor of a theater or other public place of amusement may be terminated by the commissioners whenever it shall appear to them that after due notice the person holding such license shall have failed to comply with such regulations as may be prescribed by the commissioners for the public decency. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 3; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 551, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That all licenses issued shall date from the first day of November in each year and expire on the thirty-first day of October following, except as hereinafter provided. Licenses issued at any time after the beginning of the license year shall date from the first day of the month in which the license was issued and end on the last day of the license year above prescribed, and payment shall be made of the proportionate amount of the annual license tax: Provided, That in cases where the tax is less than five dollars per annum the license shall terminate one year from the first day of the month in which the license was issued." See § 47–2305.

§ 47–2304. Separate license for each business, trade, or profession by same person—Place of business restricted to that designated in license—Operation under license by others prohibited.

When more than one business, trade, profession, or calling for which a license is prescribed in this chapter shall be carried on by the same person, the license fee or tax shall be paid for each such business, trade, profession, or calling, except where otherwise specifically provided in this chapter; Provided, That licenses issued under any of the provisions of this chapter shall be good only for the location designated thereon, except in the case of licenses issued under this chapter for businesses and callings which in their nature are carried on at large and not at a fixed place of business, and no license shall be issued for more than one place of business, profession, or calling, without the payment of a separate fee or tax for each, and if a business is conducted in more than one building a separate license shall be required for the business in each building: Provided further, That no person holding a license under the terms of this chapter shall willfully suffer or allow any other person chargeable with a separate license to operate under his license. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 4; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 551, ch. 366; July 22, 1947, 61 Stat. 402, ch. 296, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

1947—Act July 22, 1947, required a separate license for the business in each building where a business is conducted in more than one building.

1932—Act July 1, 1932, inserted provisions requiring the payment of a license fee or tax for each business where more than one business, trade, profession or calling is carried on by the same person, and which limit the use of a license only for the location designated thereon. These provisions were formerly contained in § 47–2302.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1947 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 22, 1947, effective 60 days after July 22, 1947, see section 4 of act July 22, 1947, set out as a note under § 47–2302.

§ 47–2305. Date and expiration of license—Prorating for late application.

All licenses issued shall date from the 1st day of November in each year and expire on the 31st day of October following, except as hereinafter provided. Licenses issued at any time after the beginning of the license years shall date from the 1st day of the month in which the license was issued and end on the last day of the license year above prescribed, and payment shall be made of the proportionate amount of the annual license fee or tax: Provided, That where the license fee is $5 or less the fee shall not be prorated: And provided further, That no fee or tax shall be prorated to an amount less than $5. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 5; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 551, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That all licenses granted under the terms of this section must be conspicuously posted on the premises of the licensee. Said licenses shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the police or other officers duly authorized to make such inspections. Licensees having no located place of business shall exhibit their licenses when requested to do so by any of the officers above named." See § 47–2306.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47–2306. Licenses to be posted on premises—Exhibition to police.

All licenses granted under the terms of this chapter must be conspicuously posted on the premises of the licensee and said licenses shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the police or other officers duly authorized to make such inspections. Licensees having no located place of business shall exhibit their licenses when requested to do so by any of the officers above named. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 6; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 551, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That no person shall set up, operate, or conduct any business or device by or in which any person, animal, or living object shall act or be exposed as a target for any ball, projectile, missile, or thing thrown or projected, for or in consideration of profit or gain, directly or indirectly." See § 47–2343.

§ 47–2307. Construction and definition of terms.

For the purposes of this chapter the word "person" shall signify and include firms, corporations, companies, associations, executives, administrators, guardians, or trustees; the word "agent" shall signify and include every person acting for another; the word "merchandise" shall signify and include every article of commerce whether sold in bulk or otherwise; the word "dealers" shall signify and include every person engaged in selling or offering for sale any description of merchandise or property. Words of one number shall signify and include words of both numbers, respectively, and words of one gender shall signify and include words of every gender, respectively: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted as repealing any specific Act of Congress or any of the police or building regulations of the District of Columbia regarding the establishment or conduct of the businesses, trades, professions, or callings named in this chapter, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 551, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That apothecaries or druggists shall pay a license tax of six dollars per annum. Every person who sells patent medicines, or manufactures, compounds, sells, or dispenses medicines by prescription or otherwise from a located place of business shall be regarded as an apothecary or druggist." See § 47–2308.

§ 47–2308. Druggists, apothecaries, and patent-medicine sellers.

Apothecaries or druggists shall pay a license fee of $12 per annum. Every person who sells patent medicines, or manufactures, compounds, sells, or dispenses medicines by prescription or otherwise from a located place of business shall be regarded as an apothecary or druggist. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 8; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 551, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That auctioneers shall pay a license tax of one hundred dollars per annum. Hereafter the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled 'An Act to prevent fraudulent transactions on the part of commission merchants,' approved March twenty-first, eighteen hundred and nine-two, shall be applicable to all licensed auctioneers, their agents, and employees." See § 47–2309.

§ 47–2309. Auctioneers—Penalty for failure to account.

Auctioneers shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum. No license shall issue hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police. If any licensed auctioneer, his agent or employee, shall convert to his own use in the District of Columbia any goods, wares, merchandise, or personal property of any description, or the proceeds of the same, and shall fail to pay over the avails or proceeds from the sale thereof, less his proper charges, within five days after receiving the money or its equivalent from the purchaser or purchasers of said goods, wares, merchandise, or personal property of any description, and after demand made therefor by the person entitled to receive the same, or his or her duly authorized agent, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon information and conviction in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions shall be fined not more than $1,000 or be imprisoned not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal or alter the provisions of §§ 47–2201 to 47–2208. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 623, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 9; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 552, ch. 366; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That commission merchants shall pay a license tax of forty dollars per annum. Every person, firm, or corporation that acts as agent for others in negotiating sales or purchases of goods, wares, or merchandise, live stock, produce, and so forth, or negotiates freights for railroads, ships, or vessels, or for the shippers or consignees of freights carried by railroads, ships, or vessels, shall be regarded as a commission merchant.

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "Police Court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

CODIFICATION

Section was not enacted as part of section 7 of act July 1, 1902, which comprises this chapter.

§ 47–2311. Massage establishments—Turkish, Russian, or medicated baths.

Owners or managers of massage establishments and Turkish, Russian, or medicated baths shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum. No license shall be issued under this section without the approval of the major and superintendent of police. It shall be unlawful for any female to give or administer massage treatment or any bath to any person of the male sex, or for any person of the male sex to give or administer massage treatment or any bath to any person of the female sex, in any establishment licensed under this section. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished as hereinafter provided in this chapter; and, in addition to such penalty, it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to revoke the license of the owner or manager of the establishment wherein the provisions of this section shall have been violated. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 624, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 11; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 552, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That proprietors or owners of hacks, coaches, omnibuses, carriages, wagons, and other passenger vehicles for hire shall pay license taxes as follows: Vehicles drawn by one animal, six dollars per annum; autovehicles, automobiles, electromobiles, or other horseless vehicles by whatever name called, and vehicles drawn by more than one animal nine dollars per annum. Licenses issued under this section shall date from July first in each year. The driver of every licensed passenger vehicle, while transacting business as such driver, shall wear conspicuously upon his breast a badge numbered to correspond with the license of his vehicle. The badge shall be furnished by the District of Columbia and a tax of fifty cents shall be charged therefor in addition to the amount of the vehicle license." See § 47–2331.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

§ 47–2320. Theaters, moving pictures, skating rinks, dances, exhibitions, lectures, entertainments—Assignment of police and firemen and additional fees based thereon.

(a) Owners or managers of theaters having a stage and movable scenery, used for the purpose of acting, performing, or playing in any play, farce, interlude, opera, or other theatrical or dramatic performance, or any scene, section, or portion of any play, farce, burlesque, or drama of any description, for profit or gain, shall pay a license fee of $50 per annum.

When in the opinion of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia, it is necessary to post firemen at, on, and about the licensed premises for the protection of the public safety, in addition to the license fee provided for above, such owners or managers shall pay a further monthly permit fee, to be determined monthly by the said Chief Engineer, based upon a reasonable estimate of the number of hours to be spent by firemen at, on, and about the licensed premises, such fee to be payable in advance on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought. The firemen so assigned shall be charged for by the hour at the wage rate of the firemen so assigned in effect on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought.

(b) Owners or managers of theaters in which moving pictures are displayed, for profit or gain, shall pay a license fee of $30 per annum.

(c) Owners or managers of buildings in which skating rinks, fairs, carnivals, balls, dances, exhibitions, lectures, or entertainments of any description are conducted, for profit or gain, shall pay a license fee of $8 per annum: Provided, That for entertainments, concerts, or performances of any kind where the proceeds are intended for church or charitable purposes, and where no rental is charged, no license shall be required: Provided further, That when, in the opinion of the Major and Superintendent of Police and the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia, or either of them, it is necessary to post policemen or firemen, or both, at, on, and about the licensed premises for the protection of the public safety, in addition to the license fee provided for above, such owners or managers shall pay a further monthly permit fee, to be determined monthly by the said Major and Superintendent and Chief Engineer, or either of them, based upon a reasonable estimate of the number of hours to be spent by policemen and firemen at, on, and about the licensed premises, this fee to be payable in advance on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought. Policemen and firemen so assigned shall be charged for by the hour at the basic daily wage rate of policemen and firemen so assigned in effect the first day of the month for which the permit is sought. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 625, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 20; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 553, ch. 366; June 29, 1948, 62 Stat. 1109, ch. 735, §§ 1, 2.)

AMENDMENTS

1948—Subsec. (a) amended by act June 29, 1948, § 1, which added the second paragraph.

Subsec. (c) amended by act June 29, 1948, § 2, which added the last proviso.

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally, and among other changes, reduced the license fee for theaters having a stage and movable scenery from $100 to $50 per annum, and for buildings in which skating rinks, fairs, carnivals, balls, dances, exhibitions, lectures, or entertainments are conducted from $100 to $8 per annum, and inserted provisions requiring payment of a fee of $30 per annum by owners or managers of theaters in which moving pictures are displayed.

PRIOR PROVISIONS

Some portions of D. C. 1929, title 20, §§ 907–910, may still be in effect. For this reason they are set out herein as notes. They read as follows:

"907. Billiard, pool, bagatelle tables, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep any billiard table, bagatelle table, shuffleboard, jenny-lind table, pool table, or any table upon which legitimate games are played, in any saloon, room, or place of business within the District of Columbia for public use or for profit or gain, without a license therefor first had and obtained from the superintendent of licenses of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 1.)"

"908. Same; date of license.—Every person taking out such license shall pay to the collector of taxes of said District a license fee of twelve dollars per annum for each table. Said license may be granted or refused in the discretion of the superintendent of licenses of said District, and all licenses so granted shall date from the first day of the month in which the liability began and expire on the thirty-first day of October in each year: Provided, That in all cases of refusal of said superintendent of licenses to grant said license, or upon written protest of a majority or more of the property owners or residents of the block in which it is proposed to grant such license, an appeal may be taken to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, whose decision shall be final. Proprietors of bowling alleys in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of said District an annual license tax of twelve dollars for each alley. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 45; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat 565, ch. 1815.)"

"909. Same; penalty for failure to procure license.—Every person who shall own, keep, or use any billiard table, bagatelle table, pool table, or any table or board of the kind mentioned in section 907 of this title, for public use or profit without such license first had and obtained, shall, on conviction in the police court, be fined twenty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding three months for each offense, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 3.)"

"910. Same; to be closed twenty-four hours every Sunday.—It shall not be lawful for the proprietors of billiard tables, pool tables, bagatelle tables, jenny lind tables, or other tables of the kind mentioned in section 907 of this title, shuffleboards and bowling alleys, kept for public hire and gain in the District of Columbia to sell or to allow to be sold in the same room, spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, and all such places shall be closed during the entire twenty-four hours of each and every Sunday, and also between twelve o'clock midnight and four o'clock in the morning. And it shall be unlawful for the proprietor or proprietors of any billiard or pool room or billiard or pool table operated in connection with a bar-room or other place where intoxicating liquors are sold to suffer or permit any minor under eighteen years of age to frequent, visit, or patronize the same.

"Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than forty dollars, and shall in addition forfeit his or her license, in the discretion of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 565, ch. 204, § 6; Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 595, ch. 315, § 4; May 22, 1902, 32 Stat. 202, ch. 819.)"

§ 47–2322. Shooting galleries.

Owners or managers of shooting galleries shall pay a license fee of ten dollars per annum. No shooting gallery shall be licensed until the inspector of buildings for the District of Columbia shall furnish a certificate that suitable precautions have been taken for the public safety by the erection of suitable shields and such appliances as, in his judgment, may be necessary. Before such license shall be issued the proprietor shall furnish to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent the written consent of a majority of the occupants and residents on the same side of the square or block in which the proposed gallery is to be located and also on the confronting side of the square fronting opposite to the same. The major and superintendent of police is hereby authorized to prescribe the caliber of firearms and kind of cartridges to be used in such licensed places. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 625, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 22; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That persons conducting concerts, entertainments, or balls to which an admission fee is charged, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license tax of three dollars for each day or night."

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Chief of police as successor to major and superintendent of police, see note under § 4–103.

§ 47–2323. Baseball—Football—Athletic exhibitions—Amusement parks.

(a) Owners or managers of grounds used for baseball, football, or other athletic exhibitions to which an admission fee is charged, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum.

When, in the opinion of the Major and Superintendent of Police and Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia, or either of them, it is necessary to post policemen or firemen, or both, at, on, and about the licensed premises for the protection of the public safety, in addition to the license fee provided for above, such owners or managers shall pay a further monthly permit fee, to be determined monthly by the said Major and Superintendent and Chief Engineer, or either of them, based upon a reasonable estimate of the number of hours to be spent by policemen and firemen, or either of them, at, on, and about the licensed premises, such fee to be payable in advance on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought. Policemen and firemen so assigned shall be charged for by the hour at the basic hourly wage rate of the policemen and firemen so assigned in effect on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought.

(b) Owners or managers of grounds used for amusement parks, to which an admission is charged, directly or indirectly, other than those used for athletic exhibitions, shall pay a license fee of $65 per annum. Annual licenses issued under this section shall date from April 1 in each year. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 625, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 23; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366; June 29, 1948, 62 Stat. 1109, ch. 735, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

1948—Subsec. (a) amended by act June 29, 1948, which added the second paragraph.

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That proprietors or owners of any circus shall pay a license tax of two hundred dollars per day." See § 47–2325.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Chief of police as successor to Maior and Superintendent of Police, see note under § 4–103.

Fire chief as successor to Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, see note under § 4–402.

§ 47–2324. Swimming pools.

Owners or managers of swimming pools, indoor or outdoor, shall pay a license fee of $15 per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 625, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 24; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners or lessees of grounds used for horse racing, tournaments, athletic sports, baseball, football, polo, golf, and kindred games, or where feats of horsemanship are performed, to which admission fees are charged or which are used for profit or gain, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license tax of twenty dollars per week or five dollars per day." See § 47–2323.

§ 47–2325. Circuses.

Proprietors or owners of any circus transported by railroad into the District of Columbia shall pay a license fee of $3 per day for each carload of circus equipment, and proprietors or owners of any circus transported by wagons or motor trucks into the District of Columbia shall pay a license tax of $2 per day for each motor-truck load or wagon load of circus equipment, but not to exceed $250 per day. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 25; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners or lessees of grounds or premises used for picnics or lawn fêtes, or resorts where theatrical or musical attractions or other amusements are presented, to which admission fees are charged or which are used for profit or gain, directly or indirectly, and which are not taxed under any other paragraph of this section, shall pay a license tax of three dollars per day or ten dollars per week and five dollars additional for each subsequent consecutive week, or for an annual license a tax of one hundred dollars."

§ 47–2326. Carnivals and fairs.

Owners or managers of carnivals or fairs, by whatsoever name called, conducted for profit or gain, and not held in any building or structure licensed under this chapter, shall pay a license fee of $35 per day. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 26; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners of lessees of buildings used for skating rinks, fairs, carnivals, or amusements not otherwise provided for in this section shall pay a license tax of three dollars per day, or ten dollars for the first week and five dollars additional for each subsequent consecutive week, or for an annual license a tax of one hundred dollars." See § 47–2320.

§ 47–2327. Commission merchants in food—Bakeries—Bottling establishments—Groceries—Markets—Restaurants.

(a) Commission merchants dealing in food or food products shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum.

(b) Owners or managers of bakeries, bottling establishments, candy-manufacturing establishments, grocery stores, ice-cream manufacturing establishments, meat shops, and market stands handling food or food products shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum: Provided, That if any licensee hereunder shall conduct upon the same premises more than one of the callings herein listed, no additional fee shall be required.

(c) Owners or managers of delicatessens, ice-cream parlors, restaurants, soda fountains, or soft-drink establishments shall pay a license fee of $15 per annum: Provided, That if any licensee hereunder shall conduct upon the same premises more than one of the callings herein listed, or listed in paragraph (b) of this section, no additional fee shall be required. Within the meaning of this subparagraph a restaurant shall be any place where food or refreshments are served to transient customers to be eaten on the premises where sold.

(d) Wholesale dealers in fish or other marine products shall pay a license fee of $30 per annum.

(e) Owners or managers of dairies shall pay a license fee of $160 per annum.

(f) All dealers in food or food products not listed herein, or elsewhere in this chapter, shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 27; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners or lessees of shooting galleries, fencing schools, public gymnasiums, place where firearms of any description are used, or schools where the art of self-defense is taught shall pay a license tax of twelve dollars per annum: Provided, That no place of business or shooting gallery where firearms are to be used shall be licensed until the inspector of buildings for the District of Columbia shall furnish a certificate that suitable precautions have been taken for the public safety by the erection of iron shields and such appliances as in his judgment may be necessary: And provided further, That before such license shall be issued the proprietor shall furnish to the assessor of the District of Columbia the written consent of a majority of the occupants and residents on the same side of the square or block in which the proposed gallery is to be located and also on the confronting side of the square fronting opposite to the same. The major and superintendent of police is hereby authorized to prescribe the caliber of firearms and kind of cartridges to be used in such licensed places." See § 47–2322.

CROSS REFERENCE

Conversion by commission merchants, see § 22–1208.

§ 47–2328. Classification of buildings containing living quarters for licenses—Fees—Buildings exempt from license requirement.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to classify, according to use, method of operation, and size, buildings containing living or lodging quarters of every description, to require licenses for the business operated in each such building as in their judgment requires inspection, supervision or regulation by any municipal agency or agencies, and to fix a schedule of license fees therefor in such amount as, in their judgment, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of such inspection, supervision or regulation: Provided, however, That no license shall be required for single-family or two-family dwellings, nor for a rooming house offering accommodations for no more than four roomers. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 28; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366; July 22, 1947, 61 Stat. 402, ch. 296, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

1947—Act July 22, 1947, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "Owners or managers of hotels shall pay a license fee of $18 per annum. Every place where food and lodging are provided for transient guests shall be regarded as a hotel."

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That proprietors or owners of apparatus or machines known as merry-go-rounds, flying horses, or similar devices for amusement shall pay a license tax of twelve dollars for the first week and ten dollars for each subsequent consecutive week, or three dollars per diem; Provided, That license therefore may be refused in the discretion of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1947 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 22, 1947, effective 60 days after July 22, 1947, see section 4 of act July 22, 1947, set out as a note under § 47–2302.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Estoppel

Where plaintiff's application for building permit showed that he wished to operate a hotel but two weeks before plaintiff got his permit Commissioners of District of Columbia had given public notice of a hearing with regard to proposed new licensing regulations, and a month after he got permit and several months before he completed his alterations, new licensing regulations were adopted providing that a building must have at least 30 bedrooms to be licensed as a hotel, and it did not appear that plaintiff was prevented from continuing to use his 18 bedroom property as before, there was no basis for estoppel against refusal to grant license to operate a hotel. Courembis v. District of Columbia et al. (1952, 193 F. 2d 18, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 372).

Fee schedule

Where statute, which expressly repealed former licensing statutes, authorized District of Columbia Commissioners to classify, according to use, method of operation and size, buildings containing living or lodging quarters, to require license for business of operating such buildings, and to fix schedule of license fee in such amount as would be commensurate with cost of inspection, supervision, or regulations, and commissioners issued order imposing on owners or managers of hotels, apartment houses, and lodging houses, same license fees as were imposed under repealed statute, schedule of fees was invalid. District of Columbia v. Greenway, Inc. (D. C. Mun. App. 1954, 103 A. 2d 872).

Hotels

Requirement in District of Columbia licensing regulations that a building must have at least 30 bedrooms in order to be licensed as a hotel was within licensing authority of Commissioners of the District of Columbia. Courembis v. District of Columbia et al. (1852, 193 F. 2d 18, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 372).

Requirement of District of Columbia licensing regulations that a building must have at least 30 bedrooms in order to be licensed as a hotel was not arbitrary. Id.

§§ 47–2329, 47–2330. Repealed. July 22, 1947, 61 Stat. 402, ch. 296, § 3.

Section 47–2329, acts July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 29; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366, prescribed the license fee payable by owners and managers of apartment houses.

Section 47–2330, acts July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 30; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366, prescribed the license fee payable by owners of lodging houses.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF REPEAL

Repeal of sections effective 60 days after July 22, 1947, see section 4 of act July 22, 1947, set out as a note under § 47–2302.

§ 47–2331. Vehicles for hire—Hackers' licenses—Identification tags on vehicles—Sightseeing vehicles for school children, occasional purposes—Ambulances, private vehicles for funeral purposes—Issuance of licenses—Payment of fees.

(a) Every passenger vehicle for hire licensed under this section shall be considered a public vehicle.

(b) Any person, partnership, association, trust, or corporation operating or proposing to operate any vehicle or vehicles not confined to rails or tracks for the transportation of passengers for hire over all or any portion of any defined route or routes in the District of Columbia, except when such vehicle or vehicles are to be operated solely for sight-seeing purposes, shall, on or before the 1st day of October in each year, or before commencing such operation, submit to the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia, in triplicate, an application for license, stating therein the name of such person, partnership, association, trust, or corporation, the number and kind of each type of vehicle to be used in such operation, the schedule or schedules and the total number of vehicle-miles to be operated with such vehicles within the District of Columbia during the twelve month period beginning with the 1st day of November in the same year: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to companies operating both street railroad and bus services in the District of Columbia which pay taxes to the District of Columbia on their gross receipts: Provided further, That nothing contained in the preceding proviso shall be construed to require such companies to comply with the provisions of section 44–301. The Public Service Commission shall thereupon verify and approve, or return to the applicant for correction and resubmission, each such statement, and when approved, forward one copy thereof to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agents and return one copy to the applicant. Upon receipt of the approved copy, and prior to the 1st day of November in the same year, or before commencing such operation, each such applicant shall pay to the collector of taxes, in lieu of any other personal or license tax, in connection with such operation, the sum of 1 cent for each vehicle-mile proposed to be operated in the District of Columbia in accordance with the application as approved. Upon presentation of the receipt for such payment, the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent shall issue a license authorizing the applicant to carry on the operations embodied in the approved application. No increase of operations shall be commenced or continued unless and until an application similar to the original and covering such increase in operation shall have been approved and forwarded in the same manner and the corresponding additional payment made and license issued. No license shall be issued under the terms of this paragraph without the approval of the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia.

(c) Owners of passenger vehicles for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more, in addition to the driver or operator, other than those licensed in paragraph (b) of this section, shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum for each vehicle used. No such vehicle shall be operated unless there shall be conspicuously displayed therein a license issued under the terms of this paragraph. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 1 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly.

(d) Owners of passenger vehicles for hire, whether operated from a private establishment or from public space, other than those licensed under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and under paragraph (i) of this section, shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each such vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Stands for such vehicles upon public space, adjacent to hotels or otherwise, may be established in the manner provided in section 40–603. The Public Service Commission is hereby authorized to make and enforce all such reasonable and usual police regulations as it may deem necessary for the proper conduct, control, and regulation of all vehicles described in this and the preceding paragraphs and section 47–2333. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 1 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly.

(e) No person shall engage in driving or operating any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section without having procured from the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent a license which shall not be issued except upon evidence satisfactory to the director of motor vehicles under the direction of the commissioners of the District of Columbia that the applicant is a person of good moral character and is qualified to operate such vehicle, and upon payment of an annual license fee of $5. Such license shall be displayed within the vehicle at all times while the licensee is engaged in driving any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraphs (c) and (d). Application for such license shall be made in such form as shall be prescribed to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent. Each annual license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be numbered, and there shall be kept in the Department of Vehicles and Traffic a record containing the name of each person so licensed, his annual license number, and all matters affecting his qualifications to be licensed hereunder. No license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be assigned or transferred.

(f) All vehicles licensed under this section shall bear such identification tags as the commissioners of the District of Columbia may from time to time direct; and nothing herein contained shall exempt such vehicles from compliance with the traffic and motor-vehicle regulations of the District of Columbia, nor shall it deprive the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia from assuming control over such vehicles, under such regulations as the Public Service Commission may from time to time adopt and promulgate: Provided, That nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed so as to diminish the powers conferred on the commissioners of the District of Columbia under the provisions of sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–605, 40–609 to 40–611, and 40–613 to 40–615, nor to diminish the powers conferred on the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia by said sections and by sections 40–1001 to 40–1007 creating the Public Service Commission.

(g) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the procuring of a license, or the payment of a tax, with respect to a vehicle operated for sightseeing purposes if the only passengers transported in such sightseeing operations are school children, their teachers, or escorts, and transported to the District of Columbia from the State in which their school is located in such vehicle and if a certificate for each such vehicle is obtained from the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia. Application for such certificate shall be made to the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia stating the name of the school, the date or dates on which such operations would be conducted, and sufficient information for identification of the vehicle to be so engaged. The said Commission shall furnish to such school a certificate for each such vehicle upon which there shall be entered the name of the school, the date or dates on which such vehicle may be operated, and identification of the vehicle for which the said certificate is granted. Such certificate shall be conspicuously displayed in or on said vehicle when operated in the District of Columbia.

(h) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the procuring of a license, or the payment of a tax, with respect to a vehicle operated for sightseeing purposes if such sightseeing operations are only occasional and the only passengers transported in such sightseeing operations are persons transported to the District of Columbia from a point or points outside of said District in such vehicle, and if a certificate for such operation is obtained from the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia. Application for such certificate shall be made to the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia, stating the date or dates on which occasional sightseeing operations would be conducted and the number of vehicles to be operated. The said Commission shall furnish such applicant a certificate for each such vehicle upon which shall be entered the date or dates such operations may be conducted without a license from the District of Columbia: Provided, That such certificates shall not be issued for such occasional sightseeing operations under the same ownership, management, control, or arrangement for a greater number of days than authorized in this paragraph. The certificate herein authorized shall be conspicuously displayed in each such vehicle when operated in the District of Columbia. The operation in the District of Columbia by the same ownership, management, control, or arrangement of any such vehicle or vehicles in sightseeing operations shall not be construed to be occasional if such ownership, management, control, or arrangement shall operate any such vehicle or vehicles for sightseeing purposes in the District of Columbia for more than fifteen calendar days in any license year. Motor vehicles transporting school children for sightseeing purposes as exempted under paragraph (g) of this section shall not be included in such computation of operations. Sightseeing operations shall not be construed to include transportation to or from the hotel or terminal en route into or out of said District.

(i) Owners of ambulances for hire and owners of passenger vehicles which, when used for hire, are used exclusively for funeral purposes shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each such vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 in each year but may be issued on or after March 1 of each year: Provided, however, That licenses issued under this paragraph for the license period expiring on June 30 of any year shall remain valid until such expiration date, and the holders of such licenses, if otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to have issued to them upon expiration of such licenses new licenses for the license year beginning April 1 to be prorated for the remainder of the license year.

(j) No person shall engage in driving or operating any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraph (i) of this section without having procured from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent a license which shall only be issued upon evidence satisfactory to the Director of Motor Vehicles, under the direction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, that the applicant is a person of good moral character and is qualified to operate such vehicle, and upon payment of an annual license fee of $5. Such license shall be carried upon the person of the licensee or in the vehicle while engaged in driving such vehicle when such vehicle is being used for hire. Application for such license shall be made in such form as shall be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent. Each annual license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be numbered, and there shall be kept in the Department of Vehicles and Traffic a record containing the name of each person so licensed, his annual license number and all matters affecting his qualifications to be licensed hereunder. No license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be assigned or transferred. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 31; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 570, ch. 41; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1046, ch. 313, § 3; Jan. 15, 1942, 56 Stat. 3, ch. 2; June 20, 1942, 56 Stat. 375, ch. 428; July 30, 1951, 65 Stat. 126, ch. 247, §§ 1, 2; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 119, ch. 218, title XIV, § 1402; July 19, 1954, 68 Stat. 493, ch. 544, § 1; Aug. 30, 1964, 78 Stat. 634, Pub. L. 88–503, § 21.)

AMENDMENTS

1954—Par. (b) amended by act May 18, 1954, which added a proviso to the first sentence to exempt companies operating both street railways and bus services which pay gross receipts taxes, deleted the word "franchise" and substituted "1 cent" for "eight-tenths of 1 cent" in the third sentence.

Par. (e) amended by act July 19, 1954, which substituted "which shall not" for "and a badge numbered to correspond with the number of said license, neither of which shall" in the first sentence, and "at all times while the licensee is" for "and a badge numbered to correspond with the number of said license neither of which shall" in the second sentence.

1951—Par. (c) amended by act July 30, 1951, § 1, which substituted "March 1" for "March 15."

Par. (d) amended by act July 30, 1951, § 1, which substituted "March 1" for "March 15."

Par. (i) amended by act July 30, 1951, § 2, which substituted "April 1" for "July 1", and inserted the proviso.

1942—Par. (d) amended by act June 20, 1942, which added words "and under paragraph (i) of this section."

Pars. (g) and (h) added by act Jan. 15, 1942.

Pars. (i) and (j) added by act June 20, 1942.

1939—Par. (c) amended by act July 19, 1939, which substituted "April 1" for "March 1", "March 15" for "February 15", "April 1, 1940" for "March 1, 1940", and "March 31, 1940" for "February 29, 1940."

Par. (c) amended by act Apr. 5, 1939, which inserted provisions relating to the dating of licenses.

Par. (d) amended generally by act Apr. 5, 1939, which, among other changes, required licenses to date from April 1 instead of from July 1, and eliminated provisions which related to the carrying on each vehicle a number corresponding to the number of the license issued therefor.

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners or managers of massage establishments shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars per annum: Provided, That no license shall be issued under this paragraph without the approval of the major and superintendent of police."

CHANGE OF NAME

Act Aug. 30, 1964, substituted "Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia" for "Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia". See section 2–2418.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Section 1403 of act May 18, 1954, provided in part that: "The second section of this title [amending par. (b) of this section] shall become effective on the 1st day of November 1954."

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Reorganization Order No. 22 of the Board of Commissioners dated Dec. 2, 1952, appointed additional members to the Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Licenses, and delegated to the Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Licenses the power to suspend and revoke licenses issued under section 47–2331. It was further provided that in the event that the Director of Vehicles and Traffic denied an application for a license, the applicant would have a right of appeal to the Board of Revocation and Review.

Reorganization Order No. 54 of the Board of Commissioners dated June 30, 1953, and made effective Aug. 15, 1953, established under the direction and control of the Engineer Commissioner a Department of Vehicles and Traffic headed by a Director. The new department is to provide for the planning of traffic and parking facilities and the administration of motor vehicle laws. The order abolished the previously existing Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Cards and transferred its functions to the new department. The organization of the new department as set out in the order included a Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Cards. These orders were issued pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952. The orders and plan are set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Busses

This section requires, in respect of bus transportation, the licensing of vehicles rather than uses or businesses, and contemplates but one license for such a vehicle, which, under the stipulated facts operates primarily in regularly-routed passenger service and but occasionally in charter-bus and sight-seeing service, and if the drafters intended to require a separate license for occasional charter-bus and sight-seeing service, they did not provide for it. Capital Transit Co. v. District of Columbia (1937, 87 F. 2d 748, 66 App. D. C. 351).

This section is not restricted to those who are engaged in business in the District of Columbia, but it requires, in respect of bus transportation, the licensing of vehicles rather than uses or businesses. District of Columbia v. Monumental Motor Tours (1941, 122 F. 2d 195, 74 App. D. C. 147).

Construction

A taxicab is a "common carrier" and use by it of the public streets is not a right but a privilege or license which can be granted on such conditions as the Legislature may impose for the protection of the public, and this section must be construed with that purpose in mind. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

—— With other laws

The reciprocity provision of section 40–303 exempting certain foreign vehicle owners and drivers from the requirements of a District driver's permit and District vehicle registration has no other effect, and compliance with that act exempts no one, resident or nonresident, from the license tax imposed on owners of passenger vehicles for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more in addition to the driver or operator. District of Columbia v. Monumental Motor Tours (1941, 122 F. 2d 195, 74 App. D. C. 147).

Foreign busses operating in District

This section does not interfere with interstate operation as applied to a Maryland corporation and its employee operating a sightseeing bus from Baltimore to the District of Columbia by way of Annapolis and return, but interferes only with operation from point to point within the District, and hence can be constitutionally applied to them. District of Columbia v. Monumental Motor Tours (1941, 122 F. 2d 195, 74 App. D. C. 147).

License—Transferability

The license which owner of a taxicab is required to obtain is for the vehicle and not for the use or business, and is personal and not transferable. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

Moral character of applicant

Findings of Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Cards that two applicants for licenses to drive taxicabs were not of good moral character were supported by substantial evidence. Green, Williams, and Tymus v. Silver (D.C.D.C. 1962, 207 F. Supp. 133).

That applicant for license to drive taxicab was unable to purchase liability insurance, had violated parking regulations, and 11 years before, had had his operator's permit revoked for accumulation of traffic points did not constitute evidence as to moral fitness at time of application. Id.

That applicant for license to drive taxicab had been arrested in 1943 when in his early twenties, on disorderly conduct charge which government dropped was not sufficient evidence to support finding that he was not proper person to receive public vehicle operator's license in 1961. Id.

Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Cards had right to consider prior arrest of applicant for public vehicle operator's license reflecting upon moral character of applicant, even though there was no trial and no conviction. Id.

Necessity

Taxicab owner could not operate taxicab without having taxicab operator's license, even though such operation was for his own private use, and while displaying an off-duty sign. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

Operators license

District of Columbia Board of Commissioners had authority to delegate to Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Cards the Commissioners' powers to grant or deny licenses to operate taxicabs and, in reviewing Board's findings, only if action of board was arbitrary or unsupported by evidence may Board's judgment be overruled. Green, Williams, and Tymus v. Silver (D.C.D.C. 1962, 207 F. Supp. 133).

Passenger vehicles for hire

Vehicles are "passenger vehicles for hire" when hired by an undertaker or lodge as clearly as when hired by individual passengers, and subject to tax. Cave v. District of Columbia (1937, 90 F. 2d 383, 67 App. D. C. 138).

Unless a restricted meaning is to be given to the word "passenger," it follows that ambulances are "passenger vehicles for hire." Hazen v. Chambers (1940, 108 F. 2d 741, 71 App. D. C. 220).

Sick or well, one who is carried, for hire, through the streets in a vehicle kept and driven by another for such purposes is considered a passenger in the ordinary sense of the word, and whether the hire is greater or less than the cost of the service is not material. Id.

Power to license taxicabs

Under statutes delegating to District of Columbia Public Utilities Commission power to regulate public utilities, Congress did not confer the power to grant or withhold licenses to operate taxicabs, but such power was delegated to Commissioners of the District of Columbia. Associated Taxicabs Operators v. Hayes et al. (1957, 240 F. 2d 638, 99 U. S. App. D. C. 400).

§ 47–2332. Rental or leasing of motor vehicle without driver.

The owners or managers of establishments where automobiles or other motor vehicles are kept for rent or lease without a driver shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum for each such establishment: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to exempt such owners or managers from paying additional license taxes required by this chapter. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 32; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That mediums, clairvoyants, soothsayers, fortune tellers, or palmists, by whatsoever name called, conducting business for profit or gain, directly or indirectly, when permitted to practice their calling in the District of Columbia, shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars per annum: Provided, That no license shall be issued without the approval of the major and superintendant of police." See § 47–2342.

§ 47–2333. Vehicles hauling goods from public space.

Owners of vehicles for hire, used in hauling goods, wares, or merchandise, and operating from public space, shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each vehicle. Stands for such vehicles upon public space may be established in the manner provided in section 40–603. Licenses issued under this section shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 15 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 33; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 570, ch. 41; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1046, ch. 313, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 17, 1939, substituted "April 1" for "March 1", "March 15" for "February 15", "April 1, 1940" for "March 1, 1940", and "March 31, 1940" for "February 29, 1940."

Act Apr. 5, 1939, inserted the sentence relating to the dating of licenses.

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That hucksters or produce dealers at large shall pay a license tax of twelve dollars per annum for each vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April first in each year. Every person who vends or sells fresh, smoked, or salt fish, meats, oysters, clams, shellfish, poultry, game, butter, eggs, vegetables, fruits, berries, candies, nuts, groceries, or produce of any kind from a vehicle of any description shall be regarded as a huckster. Every driver shall be furnished with a badge corresponding to the number of his license, which shall be worn conspicuously while transacting business, and a similar number on metal shall also be furnished him which shall be attached to his vehicle: Provided, That no license shall be required of any person bringing to and selling at the several markets produce of his own raising: And provided further, That raisers of produce shall not be exempt from the license tax imposed unless they sell such produce at the several markets or by the wholesale in cart, wagon, or carload lots." See § 47–2336.

§ 47–2334. Repairing of motor vehicles.

Owners or managers of establishments where motor vehicles of any description are washed, cleaned, greased, oiled, or repaired, for profit or gain, shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 627, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 34; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That fuel hucksters shall pay a license tax of five dollars per annum for each vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Every person who vends or sells fuel, oils, gasoline, wood, coal, and so forth, from house to house from vehicles of any description shall be regarded as a fuel huckster."

§ 47–2335. Livery stables.

Owners or managers of livery stables shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to exempt such owners or managers from paying additional license taxes required by this chapter. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 627, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 35; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That peddlers shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars per annum. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April first of each year, and one person only shall be entitled to operate thereunder. Every person who vends or sells from house to house miscellaneous articles of merchandise or personal property of any description, either as a foot peddler or selling from a vehicle, shall be regarded as a peddler." See §§ 47–2336, 47–2337.

§ 47–2336. Sales on streets or public places.

No person shall sell any article of merchandise, or anything whatever, excepting newspapers sold at large and not from a fixed location, upon the public streets, or from public space in the District of Columbia, without a license first having been obtained under this section. Persons so licensed shall be considered as venders, whether selling from a fixed location, on foot from house to house, or from a vehicle of any description, and shall pay a license tax of $12 per annum. Every vender so licensed shall be furnished with a badge corresponding to the number of his license, which badge shall be worn conspicuously whenever transacting business, and where sales are made from a vehicle such vender shall be provided with a metal plate containing a number similar to the number of his license, which plate shall be conspicuously attached to the vehicle at all times when such vender is transacting business: Provided, That no license shall be required of any person bringing to and selling at the several markets produce of his own raising: And provided further, That raisers of produce shall not be exempt from the license tax imposed unless they sell such produce at the several markets or by the wholesale in cart, wagon, or carload lots. The commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make, modify, and enforce necessary regulations governing the conduct upon the public streets and public spaces of venders licensed hereunder, including the power to locate the places where licensed venders on the public streets and public spaces shall stand, and to change them as often as the public interests require. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 627, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 36; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That brewers or manufacturers of fermented liquors of any description for sale, and brewers' agents, shall pay a license tax of two hundred and fifty dollars per annum: Provided, That agent's license under this paragraph shall only authorize the licensee to conduct his business with the goods of the brewer represented by such agent: And provided further, That a licensed brewer's solicitor, whose business is confined to soliciting orders for his principal, shall not be liable for the license tax provided for in this paragraph."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

License fee

Where there was no evidence, and no clear probability, that District of Columbia license fee did not exceed cost of policing sales of religious propaganda, conviction for selling religious magazines on streets without having paid license fee could not be sustained. Busey v. District of Columbia (1944, 138 F. 2d 592, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

Purpose

This section is a regulatory measure, and its aim is not to impose a tax for general revenue purposes but to provide a fee commensurate with costs of inspection, supervision, or regulation. Busey v. District of Columbia (1944, 138 F. 2d 592, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

Sale

Where defendants stood on street corner and by signs which they carried, offered magazines to the public at 5 cents each, and each defendant handed a magazine to prosecuting witness and collected 5 cents, each defendant made a "sale" within this section. Busey v. District of Columbia (1944, 138 F. 2d 592, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 189).

§ 47–2337. Solicitors.

Solicitors shall pay a license fee of five dollars per annum. Any person who goes from house to house, or place to place, within the District of Columbia, selling or taking orders for or offering to sell or take orders for goods, wares, merchandise, or any article or thing of value for future delivery, or for services to be performed in the future or for the making, manufacturing, or repairing of any article or thing whatsoever for future delivery, and requiring or accepting a deposit for such future delivery or service, shall be deemed to be a "solicitor," within the meaning of this section: Provided, however, That this definition shall not apply to persons selling goods, wares, merchandise, or any article or thing of value for resale to retailers in that commodity. Any person desiring a solicitor's license shall make application to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent on forms to be provided for that purpose, stating the name of the applicant, the name and address of the person whom he represents, the class and kind of goods offered for sale, or the kind of service to be performed. Such application shall be accompanied by a bond in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, running to the District of Columbia, conditioned upon the making of final delivery of the goods ordered, or services to be performed, in accordance with the terms of such order, or failing therein, that the advance payment on such order be refunded. Any person aggrieved by the action of any such solicitor shall have the right of action on the bond for the recovery of money, or damages, or both. All orders taken by licensed solicitors shall be in writing in duplicate, stating the terms thereof and the amount paid in advance, and one copy shall be given to the purchaser. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 627, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 37; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That distillers or rectifiers shall pay a license tax of two hundred and fifty dollars per annum."

§ 47–2338. Guides.

No person shall, for hire, guide or escort any person through or about the District of Columbia, or any part thereof, unless he shall have first secured a license so to do. The fee for each such license shall be ten dollars per annum. No license shall be issued hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police. The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make reasonable regulations for the examination of all applicants for such licenses and for the government and conduct of persons licensed hereunder, including the power to require said persons to wear a badge while engaged in their calling. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 627, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 38; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended par. 38 of act July 1, 1902, generally. Prior to such amendment, par. 38 amended section 8 of act Mar. 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 566.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Chief of police as successor to major and superintendent of police, see note under § 4–103.

§ 47–2339. Secondhand dealers—Classification—Licensing—Stolen property.

(a) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to classify dealers in secondhand personal property (referred to in this section as "dealers") and to fix and collect a license fee for each such class of dealer, which fee, in the judgment of the Commissioners, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of inspection, supervision, and regulation of such class of dealer.

(b) In classifying dealers the Commissioners may take into consideration the kind of property dealt in, whether the property is retained by the dealer for sale at retail, whether the property is disposed of by the dealer out of the District of Columbia, whether the property is disposed of by the dealer as junk or otherwise, and such other criteria as the Commissioners may deem appropriate.

(c) Any person engaging in the business of buying, selling, trading, exchanging, or dealing in secondhand personal property of any description, including the return of unused portion of any ticket, order, or token purporting to evidence the right of the holder or possessor thereof to be transported by any railroad or other common carrier, however operated, from one State or Territory of the United States, or from the District of Columbia, to any other State or Territory of the United States or to the District of Columbia, shall be regarded as a dealer, and shall obtain the appropriate license and pay the fee therefor fixed by the Commissioners. For the purposes of this section, the term "secondhand personal property" shall not include any item of personal property (1) which the possessor thereof has acquired as part payment or allowance on the sale by such possessor of a new or rebuilt item of personal property, (2) which the possessor thereof has acquired by reason of its return to him for credit, refund, or exchange by a person having purchased such item from such possessor, or (3) which is offered for sale, trade, or exchange by the person who repossesses the same.

(d) When any property has been stolen and sold in the District of Columbia to a dealer under such circumstances that the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, after such dealer has been afforded a hearing, are satisfied that such dealer had cause to believe, or could have ascertained by reasonable inquiry or investigation that the property was stolen, and that the dealer did not make reasonable inquiry or investigation as to the title of the seller before making the purchase, the Commissioners are authorized and directed to revoke the license of such dealer; and this action shall not be a bar to criminal prosecution for receiving stolen goods: Provided, That nothing in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting the Commissioners from suspending or revoking the license of such dealer under the authority contained in section 47–2345. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 627, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 39; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366; July 3, 1956, 70 Stat. 491, ch. 511, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Act July 3, 1956, amended section generally, and among other changes, empowered the Commissioners to classify dealers in secondhand personal property, authorized the fixing of license fees for each class, and eliminated provisions which required payment of a license tax of $50 per annum.

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section provided for payment of an annual tax by billposters and sign painters.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Section 3 of act July 3, 1956, provided that: "The first section of this Act [amending this section] shall take effect on November 1 next after the approval of this Act [July 3, 1956]."

CROSS REFERENCE

Other provisions for regulation and supervision of secondhand dealers, see §§ 1–224, 4–147.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Dismissal of appeal

Appeal was dismissed as improvidently granted where it appeared that important question (collateral estoppel in criminal prosecutions) which court had thought would be presented was not appropriately before it. J. O. King v. District of Columbia (1965, 345 F. 2d 440, 120 U.S. App. D.C. 223).

Res judicata

Finding that defendant was not guilty of conducting business dealing in secondhand personal property without first having obtained license to do so did not bar later information alleging that same offense had been committed after first judgment. District of Columbia, v. J. O. King (D.C. App. 1964, 201 A. 2d 530).

Sales records, keeping of Dealer in old and used phonograph records who held secondhand dealer's license was dealer in "secondhand personal property" and subject to requirement that records be kept. A. M. Draisner v. District of Columbia (D.C. App. 1965, 212 A. 2d 612).

That dealers in secondhand books were exempted from certain requirements of regulation requiring keeping of records did not require that dealer in secondhand phonograph records be similarly exempted. Id.

Dealer in secondhand phonograph records could not complain that record keeping regulation imposed upon him unreasonable burden where he had made no effort whatever to comply with regulation. Id.

It would not be assumed that regulation requiring secondhand dealers to keep certain records would be construed and applied in unreasonable manner by those whose duties it was to enforce regulation. Id.

Sales without license

Engaging in the business of selling secondhand property without a license was not indictable at common law. Today it is at most but an infringement of local police regulations, and its moral quality is relatively inoffensive. District of Columbia v. Clawans (1937, 57 S. Ct. 660, 300 U. S. 617, 81 L. Ed. 843).

§ 47–2340. Dealers in dangerous weapons.

Dealers in dangerous or deadly weapons shall pay a license tax of $50 per annum. No license shall issue hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make and promulgate regulations for the conduct of the business of persons licensed hereunder, including the power to require a record to be kept of all sales of deadly or dangerous weapons, to prescribe a form therefor, and to require reports of all such sales to the major and superintendent of police at such time as the Commissioners may deem advisable. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 40; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners or lessees of any buildings, structures, or tanks used for the storage of any description of inflammable oils in quantities exceeding five barrels shall pay a license tax of ten dollars per annum and shall have the approval of the fire marshal before license is granted."

§ 47–2341. Private detectives.

(a) Private detectives, or detective agencies, by whatsoever name called, shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum: Provided, That no license shall be issued under this section without the approval of the major and superintendent of police.

(b) For the purpose of this section, the term "detective" or "detective agency" shall mean and include any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of, or advertising, or representing himself, or itself, as being engaged in the business of detecting, discovering, or revealing crime or criminals, or securing information for evidence relating thereto, or discovering or revealing the identity, whereabouts, character, or actions of any person or persons, thing or things.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of detective, or operate, manage, or conduct a detective agency, for profit or gain, or to advertise or represent his business to be that of a detective, or that of conducting, managing, or operating a detective agency, without first obtaining a license so to do.

(d) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make such reasonable regulations as they deem advisable for the government and conduct of the business of private detectives licensed hereunder, and are further authorized and empowered to revoke the license of a private detective when in their judgment such is deemed advisable in the public interest.

(e) All laws which govern the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia in the matters of persons, property, or money shall be applicable to all private detectives licensed hereunder, and such detectives shall make like returns and dispositions of such matters as is required by existing law and the rules of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia governing the Metropolitan police department. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 41; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 559, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That owners or lessees of laundries operated otherwise than by hand power shall pay a license tax of twenty dollars per annum. Owners or lessees of laundries operated by hand labor shall pay a license tax of ten dollars per annum."

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Damages

$1,250 to private detective for malicious prosecution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license was not excessive in view of interruption of business, expense of defending against charge, including attorneys' fees, injury to business and personal reputation, and emotional disturbance involved. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, injury to reputation and mental suffering were proper elements of damage, and there was no error in instructions permitting those elements to be considered by jury. Id.

Defenses

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, defendants could not successfully contend that they did not institute or instigate proceedings, where they did not deny making charge to licensing officials with intent to secure revocation of license or refusal to renew it, and defendants' complaint brought about official action and all that followed. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

Instructions

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, injury to reputation and mental suffering were proper elements of damage, and there was no error in instructions permitting those elements to be considered by jury. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

Malicious prosecution

That private detective kept his office open for collection of money previously earned or that he later secured permission to operate pending disposition of appeal did not preclude detective from maintaining malicious prosecution action based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew his license, and that factor went only to reduce his damages. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

Questions for jury

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, the existence of malice and the absence of probable cause were for the jury under conflicting evidence. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

Renewal of license

As affecting private detective's right to maintain an action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, absence of right of appeal to the courts was immaterial, and if some judicial element was essential, it would be supplied by fact that District Commissioners' action in arbitrarily refusing or revoking a license would be reviewable, if in no other way, by independent action in equity. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

Special injury

Private detective sustained "special injury" sufficient to sustain action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, where proceedings in no way involved protection of defendants' interests, detective's livelihood depended on license, license was in effect revoked, and for nearly a month detective was disabled from carrying on his work. Melvin v. Pence (1942, 130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149).

§ 47–2342. Fortune telling.

Mediums, clairvoyants, soothsayers, fortune tellers, palmists, or phrenologists, by whatsoever name called, conducting business for profit or gain, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license tax of $250 per annum. No license shall be issued hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police, nor shall any license be issued hereunder to any person not an actual resident of the District of Columbia for two years next preceding his date of application: Provided, That no license shall be required of persons pretending to tell fortunes or practice palmistry, phrenology, or any of the callings herein listed, in a regular licensed theater, or as a part of any play, exhibition, fair, or show presented or offered in aid of any benevolent, charitable, or educational purpose: And provided further, That no license shall be required of any ordained priest or minister, or accredited representative of any such priest or minister, the fees for whose ministrations are not the private property of such ordained priest, minister, or accredited representative of such priest or minister. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 43; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That dealers in second-hand personal property shall pay a license tax of forty dollars per annum. Every person who buys, sells, trades, exchanges, or deals in old gold, silver, jewelry, precious stones, iron, metals of all kinds, cordage, tentage, hides, pelts, glass, rags, paper ordnance, ship chandler's stores, junk, furniture, clothing, or second-hand personal property of any description shall be regarded as a second-hand dealer." See § 47–2339.

§ 47–2343. Exposing persons or animals as targets prohibited.

No person shall set up, operate, or conduct any business or device by or in which any person, animal, or living object shall act or be exposed as a target for any ball, projectile, missile, or thing thrown or projected for or in consideration of profit or gain, directly or indirectly. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 44; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "Pawnbrokers shall continue to pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia one hundred dollars for license, and be subject to the regulations prescribed by existing law."

§ 47–2344. Commissioners may regulate, modify, or eliminate license requirements.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered, when in their discretion such is deemed advisable, to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed in this chapter and which, in their judgment, require inspection, supervision, or regulation by any municipal agency or agencies and to fix the license fee therefor in such amount as, in their judgment, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of such inspection, supervision, or regulation, and are further authorized and empowered in their discretion to modify any of the provisions of this chapter so far as eliminating therefrom any business or calling in this chapter required to be licensed, or to raise or lower the amount of the license fee provided in this chapter, as the cost of inspection, supervision, or regulation is raised or lowered. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 45; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "Keepers of billiard, bagatelle, jenny lind, and pool tables, shuffleboards, or any table upon which legitimate games are played within the District of Columbia for public use, or for profit or gain, shall continue to pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia twelve dollars per annum license for each table and be subject to the provisions of the Act of Congress approved February twenty-five, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled 'An Act to license billiard and pool tables in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.'" See § 47–2321.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Amusement machines

Under this section authorizing Commissioners of District of Columbia, when in their discretion such is advisable, to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed specifically, Commissioners had power to require a license for mechanical amusements designed for use by public such as a mechanical amusement horse and was not discriminatory. Abdow v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1954, 108 A. 2d 374).

License required by police regulation, defining a mechanical amusement machine and providing that owners or operators of establishments in which mechanical amusement machines are offered for public use, shall obtain and pay an annual license fee as therein specified was one for regulation and not for revenue. Id.

Questions for jury

Whether occupant of a sleeping room with an alcove used for cooking was a roomer, having no exclusive right of possession, so that proprietor of rooming house had right to enter and inspect room at reasonable times, or was a tenant and had right to exclusive possession was for jury. Vaughn v. Neal (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 234).

Regulations

A regulation of the commissioners of the District of Columbia defining a rooming house for licensing purposes as a building occupied for a consideration by more than four persons who are not members of owner's immediate family was valid, notwithstanding section 5–301 et seq. relating to fire escapes and safety provisions defined a rooming house as a building in which rooms are rented and sleeping quarters are provided to accommodate 10 or more persons. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

This section authorizing commissioners of District of Columbia when in their discretion such is advisable to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed is a proper delegation of power, and regulations promulgated thereunder are valid provided determination of commissioners is made by reasonable standards and is not arbitrary. Id.

Rooming houses

One who occupies a room in consideration for services rendered occupies sleeping accommodations for a "consideration", within regulations of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia defining a rooming house and requiring a license therefor. Byrd v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 46).

Under the regulations issued by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia defining a rooming house and requiring a license therefor, it was not intended that servants be counted toward the more than four persons occupying a house. Id.

In the absence of contract to the contrary, one who had only a sleeping room with an alcove used for cooking, in view of District of Columbia rooming house regulations which define sleeping accommodations, was a "roomer," not a "tenant" of a self-contained "apartment" unit, and, hence, under regulations could not deny to proprietor a key to the room or the right to make reasonable inspections thereof. Vaughn v. Neal (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 234).

§ 47–2344a. Undertakers' licenses—Qualifications—Examination—License without examination—Authority of Commissioners—Appropriations—Definitions.

(a) On and after ninety days from August 1, 1947, no person shall, in the District of Columbia, discharge any of the duties, of an undertaker, unless there has been issued to him by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a license therefor in full force and effect. The fee for such license shall be $20 per annum, which shall be paid to the Collector of Taxes of the District of Columbia. Such license shall be issued at the time and in the manner provided in section 47–2305.

(b) An applicant for a license shall submit proof satisfactory to the Commissioners, on such forms as the Commissioners may prescribe, that he is not less than twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States, of good moral character; that he is a graduate of a recognized high school or educational equivalent; that he is a graduate of a school or college of embalming, whose course of instruction is not less than nine months, comprising not less than eight hundred and forty hours of study, and that he has had not less than two years' practical experience in the business or profession. Such applicant shall be examined theoretically and practically in anatomy, embalming, embalming fluids, sanitation, disinfection, the care and preparation of dead human bodies for burial and the shipment of same, laws and regulations pertaining to communicable diseases, and such other subjects as the Commissioners deem appropriate and proper.

An examination of applicants for a license shall be held not less frequently than once each year at such time and place as the Commissioners shall determine; notice of such examination shall be given at least thirty days prior to the date set therefor.

(c) Every person, who, on August 1, 1947, is registered as an undertaker with the Health Department of the District of Columbia and who was actually engaged, at any time during the five-year period immediately preceding August 1, 1947, in discharging the duties of an undertaker and who desires to continue to discharge such duties shall be entitled to a license therefor without examination upon application therefor and upon furnishing proof satisfactory to the Commissioners that he was so registered and so discharging such duties; that he is not less than twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States, of good moral character; and that he is a graduate of a school or college of embalming whose course of instruction is not less than nine months, comprising not less than eight hundred and forty hours of study, or that he has had actual experience equivalent thereto; and upon payment of the license fee hereinbefore provided.

(d) The Commissioners are hereby authorized:

(1) After notice and open hearing, to refuse to issue or renew or to suspend or revoke a license for fraud or misrepresentation in the application therefor, or for misconduct during an examination therefor, or for any act or practice detrimental to the public health or safety, including the act of removing a dead human body without the prior consent of a person who, under the law, is authorized to give such consent, or for violation of the laws and regulations of the District of Columbia relating to the removal or burial or disposal of dead human bodies or the provisions of this section or of the rules and regulations hereinafter authorized to be promulgated, or for conviction of a felony as shown by a certified copy of the record of the court of conviction.

(2) To appoint a committee of five persons of good moral character, two of whom shall have been actually and continuously engaged in discharging the duties of an undertaker or embalmer in the District of Columbia for at least five years next preceding their appointment and the Health Officer of the District of Columbia, or a member of the personnel of the Health Department designated by said Health Officer, who shall serve ex officio as a member of said committee, to conduct the examination of applicants for a license hereinbefore provided; the appointment of each such person shall be for a period of one year unless sooner terminated by the Commissioners for cause; such appointees, except the Health Officer or person designated by him, shall be entitled to a per diem of $10 for each day they are actually engaged in discharging their duties pursuant to this section.

(3) To issue licenses without examination to persons licensed by other Territories and States upon the same terms and conditions as such States and Territories issue licenses without examination to persons licensed by the District of Columbia.

(4) To prescribe the terms, conditions, and license fee, not to exceed $10 per annum, under which apprenticeship shall be served.

(5) To employ, and provide for necessary travel, in accordance with section 305, chapter 51, subchapter III of chapter 53, and sections 5341, 5342, 5504, 5509 and 7154 of title 5, U.S. Code [relating to the classification of government employees and related matters], such additional employees as may be necessary and to make such expenditures as may be necessary for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations promulgated by authority thereof. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia not otherwise appropriated, funds to carry out the provisions of this section.

(6) To promulgate and enforce, and from time to time to alter, such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, as they deem necessary, for the proper execution and enforcement of the provisions of this section.

(7) To designate as their agent for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section, the Health Officer of the District of Columbia.

(e) The provisions of section 47–2301 relative to the assignment or transfer of a license and the provisions of section 47–2309 relative to the definition of the word "person" shall not apply to licenses issued under the provisions of this section. The word "person" as used in this section shall be construed to mean a natural person only, and licenses issued under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable or transferable.

(f) As used in this section the term "undertaker" includes a funeral director, mortician, embalmer, and any person who performs services with respect to the care and preparation of dead human bodies for burial or cremation. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 44A, as added Aug. 1, 1947, 61 Stat. 711, ch. 428, and amended Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 972, ch. 782, title XI, § 1106 (a).)

CODIFICATION

The reference in this section to "section 305, chapter 51, subchapter III of chapter 53, and sections 5341, 5342, 5504, 5509, and 7154, of title 5, U.S. Code, relating to the classification of government employees and related matters," was substituted for "the Classification Act of 1949", on authority of § 7(b) of act Sept. 6, 1966, Pub. L. 89–554, set out in note under § 1–251. The Classification Act of 1949, as amended (Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 954, ch. 782, as amended), was repealed by act Sept. 6, 1966, 80 Stat. 632, Pub. L. 89–554, § 8(a) (of which § 1 revised and enacted title 5, U.S.C., into law), and is now covered by the provisions of title 5, U.S.C., cited.

AMENDMENT

1949—Act Oct. 28, 1949, § 1106(a), which was a part of the Classification Act of 1949, and which has since been repealed, substituted "Classification Act of 1949" for "Classification Act of 1923". See codification note above.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

The Department of Occupations and Professions established under the direction and control of the Board of Commissioners by Reorganization Order No. 59 as amended, includes an Undertakers' Examining Committee. This new department is established for the purpose of performing functions of the District Government concerned with licensing, registering, and regulating certain professions and occupations. The order is set out in the Appendix to Title 1, Administration, along with Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1952.

§ 47–2345. Promulgation of regulations authorized—Suspension or revocation of licenses—Bonding of licensees authorized to collect moneys—Exemptions.

(a) The Commissioners are further authorized and empowered to make any regulations that may be necessary in furtherance of the purpose of this chapter and to suspend or revoke any license issued hereunder when, in their judgment, such is deemed desirable in the interest of public decency or the protection of lives, limbs, health, comfort, and quiet of the citizens of the District of Columbia, or for any other reason they may deem sufficient.

(b) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this chapter requiring an inspection as a prerequisite to the issuance of a license, the Commissioners are authorized to provide by regulation that any such inspection shall be made either prior or subsequent to the issuance of a license, but any such license, whether issued prior or subsequent to a required inspection, may be suspended or revoked for failure of the licensee to comply with the laws or regulations applicable to the licensed business, trade, profession, or calling.

(c) The Commissioners may in their discretion require that any class or subclass of licensees licensed under the authority of this chapter to engage in a business, trade, profession or calling involving an express or implied agreement to collect money for others shall give bond to safeguard against financial loss those persons with whom such class or subclass of licensees may so agree.

The bond which may be required by the Commissioners under the authority of this subparagraph shall be a corporate surety bond in an amount to be fixed by the Commissioners, but not to exceed $15,000, conditioned upon the observance by the licensee and any agent or employee of said licensee of all laws and regulations in force in the District of Columbia applicable to the licensee's conduct of the business, trade, profession, or calling licensed under the authority of this chapter, for the benefit of any person who may suffer damages resulting from the violation of any such law or regulation by or on the part of such licensee, his agent or employee.

Any person aggrieved by the violation of any law or regulation applicable to a licensee's conduct of a business, trade, profession, or calling involving the collection of money for others shall have, in addition to his right of action against such licensee, a right to bring suit against the surety on the bond authorized by this subparagraph, either alone or jointly with the principal thereon, and to recover in an amount not exceeding the penalty of the bond any damages sustained by reason of any act, transaction, or conduct of the licensee and any agent or employee of said licensee which is in violation of law or regulation in force in the District of Columbia relating to the business, trade, profession, or calling licensed under this chapter; and the provisions of the second, third (except the last sentence thereof), and fifth subparagraphs of paragraph (b) of section 1–244, shall be applicable to such bond as if it were the bond authorized by the first subparagraph of such paragraph (b) of section 1–244: Provided, That nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to impose upon the surety on any such bond a greater liability than the total amount thereof or the amount remaining unextinguished after any prior recovery or recoveries.

This subparagraph shall not be applicable to persons when engaged in the regular course of any of the following professions or businesses:

(1) Attorneys at law.

(2) Persons regularly employed on a regular wage or salary, in the capacity of creditment or in a similar capacity, except as an independent contractor.

(3) Banks and financing and lending institutions.

(4) Common carriers.

(5) Title insurers and abstract companies while doing an escrow business.

(6) Licensed real estate brokers.

(7) Employees of any class or subclass of licensees required to give bond under this subparagraph.

(July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 46; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366; July 3, 1956, 70 Stat. 491, ch. 511, § 2; Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 447, Pub. L. 86–217, § 1; Apr. 22, 1960, 74 Stat. 72, Pub. L. 86–431, § 4.)

AMENDMENTS

1960—Subpar. (a) amended by act Apr. 22, 1960, to empower the Commissioners to suspend any license.

1959—Subpar. (c) added by act Sept. 1, 1959.

1956—Act July 3, 1956, designated existing provisions as subpar. (a) and added subpar. (b).

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "An annual license tax is hereby imposed upon the following classes of business, trades, and professions, namely: Boarding houses (public), one dollar per room; claim agents, twenty-five dollars; building and other contractors, twenty-five dollars; carriage or wagon making establishments, twenty-five dollars; cigar dealers, twelve dollars; confectionery establishments, twelve dollars; dealers of every description in the several markets, except farmers and producers, five dollars; florists, fifteen dollars; land and improvement companies, fifty dollars; undertaking establishments twenty-five dollars."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Due process

Revocation of taxicab operator's license by Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Licenses, on ground he had sexually assaulted and robbed citizen at gun point, was violation of due process where hearing on charges was held while criminal charges based on same alleged offense were pending. Silver, Chairman v. McCamey (1955, 221 F. 2d 873, 95 U. S. App. D. C. 318).

Temporary suspension of a license, unlike revocation, pending serious criminal charge, is not necessarily inconsistent with due process. Id.

Renewal of license

Roomer's act in changing lock on door and refusing to provide proprietor of rooming house with a key, thereby preventing proprietor from compliance with regulations relative to inspection and repair and jeopardizing renewal of proprietor's rooming house license sufficiently constituted "disorderly conduct" or "nuisance" and the violation of obligation of her tenancy to the injury of the proprietor so as to entitle proprietor to possession. Vaughn v. Neal (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 234).

Delegation of authority

Broad delegation to Board of Appeals and Review of jurisdiction over appeals submitted by applicants for licenses, permits and certificates from actions taken by responsible officials of Department of Licenses and Inspections is not inconsistent with statutes giving Commissioners of District of Columbia broad authority to enact regulations including regulations which delegate jurisdiction over licenses. S. Brown v. W. N. Tobriner et al. (D.C.D.C. 1963, 218 F. Supp. 754).

Commissioners of District of Columbia could not confer absolutely upon the Board of Revocation and Review of Hackers' Identification Card the power to revoke licenses, which power had been placed in the Commissioners by statute, where statute imposed a greater duty on Commissioners than mere administrative supervision, so that Commissioners could not void or shunt way by way of delegation the duties imposed by statute. Frazier etc., v. Silver (D.C.D.C. 1960, 185 F. Supp. 625).

§ 47–2346. Prosecutions.

Prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any section added hereto from time to time by the commissioners of the District of Columbia, or of any regulation made by the commissioners under authority of this chapter, shall be on information in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 47; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section read as follows: "That any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof in the police court of the District of Columbia, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each offense, and in default of payment by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, in the discretion of the court, except as otherwise provided in this section." See § 47–2347.

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "Police Court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Judicial notice

The court would take judicial notice that license regulations applying to rooming houses were adopted during war emergency when thousands of people were coming to Washington to live in rooming houses and that it was vitally necessary to protect their health. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

Motion to quash

Whether premises on which violations of rooming house regulations allegedly occurred were within the operation of such regulations though licensed as an apartment house could not be determined on motion to quash information. District of Columbia v. Basiliko (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 407).

Premises included

That premises were licensed as an apartment house did not preclude prosecution for violations of rooming house regulations which allegedly occurred on such premises. District of Columbia v. Basiliko (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 407).

§ 47–2347. Penalties.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or additions thereto made from time to time by the commissioners of the District of Columbia, where no specific penalty is fixed, or the violation of any regulation made by the commissioners under the authority of this chapter, shall upon conviction be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than ninety days. Any person failing to file any information required by this chapter, or by any regulation of the commissioners of the District of Columbia made under the provisions hereof, or who in filing any such information makes any false or misleading statement, shall upon conviction be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than ninety days. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 48; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366.)

AMENDMENT

1932—Act July 1, 1932, amended section generally. Prior to such amendment, section defined terms used in this chapter. See § 47–2307.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Fines

Where fine of $150 imposed on one convicted of operating rooming house without a license was only half of the maximum permitted by statute, fine could not be termed excessive as a matter of law by Municipal Court of Appeals on appeal and could not be reduced. Tillman v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1951, 77 A. 2d 316).

Trial by jury

The penalty imposed by this section is not one as to which there is a constitutional right to a trial by jury. District of Columbia v. Clawans (1937, 57 S. Ct. 660, 300 U. S. 617, 81 L. Ed. 843).

A single offense of using premises for a purpose other than a single family dwelling without an occupancy permit or of operating a rooming house without a license, is a petty offense not involving moral turpitude nor indictable at common law, and therefore a jury trial is not demandable as of right. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

Where accused was charged under three separate informations which were consolidated for trial, with using premises without a certificate of occupancy, operating the premises as a rooming house between certain dates without a license, and using the same premises as a rooming house without a license between certain other dates, jury trial was properly denied. Id.

§ 47–2348. Saving clause.

Any violation of any provision of law or regulation issued hereunder which is repealed by this chapter and any liability arising under such provisions or regulations may, if the violation occurred or the liability arose prior to such repeal, be prosecuted to the same extent as if this chapter had not been enacted. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 49, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2349. Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 50, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2350. Refund of erroneously-paid fees.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to refund any license fee or tax, or portion thereof, erroneously paid or collected under this chapter. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 51, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366.)

The words "Board of Equalization and Review" shall mean the Board of Equalization and Review of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 1, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–2402. Board of Tax Appeals—District of Columbia Tax Court.

The commissioners shall appoint a board of one person, subject to removal by the commissioners, to be called the "Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia," which person shall be a citizen of the United States. Such person shall be appointed for the term of ten years, except such appointment as may be made for the remainder of an unexpired term. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled by the commissioners only for an unexpired term. Such person shall be eligible for reappointment. Such person shall be an attorney and in active practice of law for at least ten years next preceding his appointment.

The salary of such person so appointed shall be $23,500 per annum. The commissoners are authorized to employ such other personal servces as may be necessary to carry out the provisons of this chapter and to provide for the expenses of the board. The salaries of employees other than the board shall be fixed in accordance with section 305, chapter 51, subchapter III of chapter 53, and sections 5341, 5342, 5504, 5509 and 7154, of title 5, U.S. Code [relating to the classification of government employees and related matters], but such employees shall be appointed without regard to civil-service requirements. The commissioners shall include in their annual estimates such amounts as may be required for the salaries and expenses herein authorized.

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall hereafter be known as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof shall be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court. The said District of Columbia Tax Court shall not be deemed or held to be a constituent member of the assessing or taxing authority of the District of Columbia but shall be deemed to be an independent agency, separate and apart from such assessing and taxing authority. All references in any statute (except this paragraph) to the Board of Tax Appeals or to the Board when used in the sense of the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or to the member thereof shall be considered to be made to the District of Columbia Tax Court and to the judge thereof, respectively.

Whenever the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court shall be unable to hear and determine any case, or if said judge shall disqualify himself from hearing and determining any case, or if that office should become vacant, the Commissioners are authorized in their discretion to appoint any member in good standing of the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to hear and determine such case or cases in the place and stead of the duly appointed judge, or of the duly appointed judge who has vacated that office: Provided, That, if the office of judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court shall become vacant, no such vacancy shall be deemed to exist for the purposes of this paragraph after the expiration of one hundred and twenty days, except that the person appointed to fill the temporary vacancy may and shall determine all cases the hearing of which commenced within such one hundred and twenty days. Any person appointed under this paragraph to act in the place and stead of the duly appointed judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, or so to act while that office is vacant, shall take the oath of office and shall be paid on a per diem basis in an amount to be determined by the Commisisoners and paid out of the annual appropriation for the District of Columbia Tax Court. No action taken under this paragraph shall operate to reduce the salary of the duly appointed judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court. No person employed by the United States or by the District of Columbia shall be appointed under this paragraph.

The judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court may hereafter retire—

(1) after having served as a judge of such court for a period or periods aggregating twenty years or more, whether continuously or not;

(2) after having served as a judge of such court for a period or periods aggregating ten years or more, whether continuously or not, and having attained the age of seventy years; or

(3) after having become permanently disabled from performing his duties, regardless of age or length of service.

Such judge may retire for disability by furnishing to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a certificate of disability signed by the chief judge of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. The judge who retires under this section shall receive annually in monthly installments, during the remainder of his life, a sum equal to such proportion of the salary received by such judge at the time of such retirement as a total of his aggregate years of service bears to the period of thirty years, the same to be paid in the same manner as the salary of such judge. In no event shall the sum received by such judge hereunder be in excess of the salary of such judge at the time of such retirement. In computing the years of service under this section, service in the Board of Tax Appeals of the District of Columbia, as heretofore constituted, shall be included whether or not such service be continuous.

(a) The term "retire" as used in this section shall mean and include retirement, resignation, or failure of reappointment upon the expiration of the term of office of incumbent.

(b) Any judge receiving retirement salary other than for disability under the provisions of this section may be called upon by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to perform such judicial duties as may be requested of him in said court, but in any event no such retired judge shall be required to render such service for more than ninety days in any calendar year after such retirement. In case of illness or disability precluding the rendering of such service such retired judge shall be fully relieved of any such duty during such illness or disability. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 2, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8, and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5(a); Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 972, ch. 782, title XI, § 1106(a); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 547, ch. 649, § 5; July 11, 1955, 69 Stat. 290, ch. 302, § 3; July 2, 1956, 70 Stat. 485, ch. 494, § 1; Aug. 14, 1964, 78 Stat. 431, Pub. L. 88–426, § 306(i)(4).)

CODIFICATION

The reference in this section to "section 305, chapter 51, subchapter III of chapter 53, and sections 5341, 5342, 5504, 5509 and 7154, of title 5, U.S. Code [relating to the classification of government employees and related matters]" was substituted for "the Classification Act of 1949, as amended", on authority of § 7(b) of act Sept. 6, 1966, Pub. L. 89–554, set out in note under § 1–251. The Classification Act of 1949, as amended (Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 954, ch. 782, as amended), was repealed by act Sept. 6, 1966, 80 Stat. 632, Pub. L. 89–554, § 8(a) (of which § 1 revised and enacted title 5, U.S.C., into law), and is now covered by the provisions of title 5, U.S.C., cited.

AMENDMENTS

1964—Section 306(i)(4) of act Aug. 14, 1964, amended the first sentence of the second paragraph by striking out $17,500 and inserting in lieu thereof $23,500, thus increasing the salary of the Judge to $23,500.

1956—Act July 2, 1956, increased the term of office from four years to ten years, and inserted the provisions relating to retirement of the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court.

1955—Act July 11, 1955, increased the salary from $13,000 to $17,500.

1952—Act July 10, 1952, increased the salary from $8,000 to $13,000, and added the third and fourth paragraphs redesignating the Board of Tax Appeals as the District of Columbia Tax Court and authorizing the Commissioners to appoint a member of the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to act in place and stead of the judge whenever he is unable to hear and determine any case, if he disqualifies himself, or if the office is vacant.

1949—Act Oct. 28, 1949, § 1106(a), which was a part of the Classification Act of 1949, and which has since been repealed, substituted "Classification Act of 1949" for "Classification Act of 1923". See codification note above.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, increased the salary from $7,500 to $8,000.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF ACT AUG. 14, 1964

See note to section 1–204a.

GROUP INSURANCE PROVISIONS OF ACT AUG. 14, 1964

See note to section 1–204.

RETROACTIVE SALARY PROVISIONS OF ACT AUG. 14, 1964

See note to section 1–204a.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Section 2 of act July 2, 1956, provided that: "The amendment to the first paragraph of section 2 of title IX of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, set forth in the first section of this Act [to the first paragraph of this section], shall take effect after the expiration of the term of office of the present judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Choice of remedy

Under District of Columbia Code to effect that administrative remedy for recovery of taxes shall not be deemed to take away from taxpayer any remedy which he might have had under any other provision of law, taxpayer is permitted recourse to either administrative remedy or common-law suit for recovery of District of Columbia taxes, and inasmuch as decision of Tax Court or filing of an appeal with that court precludes taxpayer from filing suit under his common-law remedy, exhaustion of administrative remedy can in no sense be a condition precedent to a common-law action. District of Columbia v. J. C. Brady (1960, 288 F. 2d 108, 109 U.S. App. D.C. 324).

Nature of Board

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia is not a "court" but it is an "administrative agency" to which a taxpayer seeking relief may appeal an alleged excessive assessment of the Board of Equalization and Review. Watrous v. District of Columbia (1943, 135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia is an "administrative agency" established to furnish more efficient, speedy, and less expensive method of determining validity of assessments, and is "quasi judicial" in nature, but is not a "court". Lindner v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

§ 47–2403. Appeal from assessment—Hearing and decision.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment by the District against him of any personal-property, inheritance, estate, business-privilege, gross-receipts, gross-earnings, insurance-premiums, or motor-vehicle-fuel tax or taxes, or penalties thereon, may, within ninety days after notice of such assessment, appeal from such assessment to the board, provided such person shall first pay such tax, together with penalties and interest due thereon, to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. The mailing to the taxpayer of a statement of taxes due shall be considered notice of assessment with respect of such taxes. The board shall hear and determine all questions arising on said appeal and shall make seprate findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall render its decision thereon in writing. The board may affirm, cancel, reduce, or increase such assessment. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 3, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8, and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 3 (a).)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

AMENDMENTS

1952—Act July 10, 1952, deleted the provision which required protest to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia to be in writing.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, including assessment of motor-vehicle-fuel taxes.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Generally

Prior to creation of Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, taxpayer was subject to common-law rule prohibiting challenge of tax unless involuntarily paid, and a mere statement tax is being paid under protest does not make it an "involuntary payment". Lindner v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

Burden of proof

Taxpayer asserting invalidity of personal property assessment has the burden of proof. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

Construction

There is no conflict between this section and § 47–1604; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

This section was general section applicable to all taxes referred to therein, and to all time situations which might arise, and reference to interest and penalties was used in respect of taxes whose due dates might antedate expiration of 90 days after receipt of notice of assessment within which appeal was to be taken. Id.

Election of remedies

As to taxpayer paying voluntarily, this chapter creating Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia created new right and the remedy provided by it is exclusive, but, as to taxpayer paying involuntarily within common-law meaning, remedy before the board is cumulative and such taxpayer may elect between statutory remedy and common-law remedy. Linder v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

Estoppel

Taxpayer was not estopped from denying, for personal property tax purposes, the figures set up by her in her income tax returns for depreciation purposes. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

Exclusiveness of remedies

A taxpayer may contest validity of tax voluntarily paid, which is a new right created by this chapter establishing Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, and remedy provided by this chapter is the only remedy for such right. Linder v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

The remedy before Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, afforded an aggrieved taxpayer, is not exclusive of common law remedy. Id.

Exemption of real estate

Commissioners of District of Columbia had no power to exempt real estate of institutional owner where application for exemption came after property had been assessed for year, and an appeal within ninety days after the tax statement was mailed was its only remedy. Congregational Home of District of Columbia v. District of Columbia (1953, 202 F. 2d 808, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 73).

Jurisdiction

Where the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia was without jurisdiction of a claim for refund of part of business privilege tax because there had been no overpayment when claim was made, the stipulation of the parties could not confer jurisdiction. J. E. Dyer & Co. v. District of Columbia (1941, 115 F. 2d 945, 73 App. D. C. 52).

Parties

A national bank claiming that it was discriminated against by administrative application of §§ 47–1701, 47–1703, imposing tax on gross earnings of banks, was entitled to maintain proceeding before Board of Tax Appeals notwithstanding absence of bank favored by the administrative practice. Hamilton Nat. Bank. v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U.S. App. D.C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Payment of tax

Where donee's grandsons did not pay District of Columbia inheritance tax which was required by will to be paid by residuary legatee, they were not entitled to appeal from the assessment. District of Columbia v. Fadeley et al. (1956, 233 F. 2d 667, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 176, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 64, 352 U. S. 847, 1 L. Ed. 2d 57).

Where corporation delivered to examiner in office of District of Columbia Assessor of Taxes, checks in respect to business privilege tax assessed against corporation, and a letter protesting the tax, and Assessor's office handed on the checks to office of Collector of Taxes, there was sufficient payment of tax to Collector to permit an appeal by corporation to District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

The requirement of this section that one who appeals to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall first pay such tax is jurisdictional. Industrial Bank of Washington v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 46, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 233).

Under section 47–1604, providing for payment of inheritance tax within 18 months after decedent's death, and this section the payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of notice of assessment was condition precedent to the taking of the appeal. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

Person aggrieved

Though inheritance tax of District of Columbia on certain dispositions of property was technically not assessed against legatee, assessment was "against him" for all practical purposes where he was required under terms of will to pay same, and he could appeal under this section as a "person aggrieved" by any assessment "against him." District of Columbia v. Fadeley et al. (1956, 233 F. 2d 667, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 176, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 64, 352 U. S. 847, 1 L. Ed. 2d 57).

Generally an executor is not "person aggrieved" for purposes of an appeal to Tax Court unless either estate as whole is directly affected by decision appealed from, or unless his individual interests are directly and personally affected thereby. Id.

Personal property

When personal property assessment is challenged and is brought before the Board of Tax Appeals, the issue is the correct fair cash value, not merely the basis upon which the assessor proposed his assessment. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

Remedy as cumulative

Congress may provide an exclusive administrative remedy for recovery of illegally collected taxes, or abolish common-law right of action and substitute new statutory right, but, unless so declared expressly or impliedly, statutory remedy is "cumulative" of common law remedy. Linder v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

Tax Court's authority

Tax Court was not precluded, by lack of regulatory formula, from determining income fairly attributable to District of Columbia for franchise tax purposes but could determine such amount by applying applicable tax regulations and using formula Tax Court deemed best suited to determine such income. District of Columbia v. Gallant Incorporated; Gallant Incorporated v. District of Columbia (1961, 290 F. 2d 745, 110 U.S. App. D.C. 202).

Time to appeal

Requirement that appeal be taken within 90 days after notice of assessment of realty tax is jurisdictional to the appeal. Jewish War Veterans etc. v. District of Columbia (1957, 243 F. 2d 646, 100 U. S. App. D. C. 223).

Taxpayer could not toll running of 90 days period within which to appeal real estate tax assessment by merely returning to assessor the notice of assessment which taxpayer received and which determined beginning of the period. Id.

The statute requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the 18 months provision fixed by § 47–1604, Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

See, also, J. E. Dyer & Co. v. District of Columbia (1941, 115 F. 2d 945, 73 App. D. C. 52).

Where taxpayer overpaid its business privilege tax only because, on its own responsibility, it made incorrect returns and underpaid its personal property taxes, claim that business privilege taxes should be abated to extent of additional payment of tangible personal property taxes was barred in view of fact that appeal to Board of Tax Appeals was made more than 90 days after notice of assessment of business privilege taxes. Hecht Co. v. District of Columbia (1942, 129 F. 2d 353, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 142).

§ 47–2404. Review by court—Procedure—Decision of Board, when final—Modification or reversal.

(a) The decision of the Board may be reviewed by the court as hereinafter provided if a petition for such review is filed by either the District or the taxpayer within thirty days after the decision is rendered. Such petition for review shall be filed with the Board, and shall be in such form as the Board by regulation shall provide. Upon such review the court shall have the power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Board with or without remanding the case for hearing as justice may require. The court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to review the decisions of the Board in the same manner and to the same extent as decisions of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in civil actions tried without a jury; and the judgment of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari in the manner provided in title 28, United States Code, section 1254, as amended. The court is authorized to adopt rules for the filing of the record on review, the preparation of the record for review, and the conduct of the proceedings upon such review.

(b) The board is authorized to fix a fee, not in excess of the fee usually charged and collected therefor by the clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, for comparing and preparing the transcript of record, and to fix charges for supplying copies of testimony or copies of other documents and papers. The fees and charges so fixed shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District and deposited in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia.

(c) The decision of the board shall become final (1) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review, if no such petition be duly filed within such time; or (2) upon the expiration of time allowed for filing of petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court, or no petition for certiorari has been filed; or (3) upon denial of a petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court; or (4) upon the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of the mandate of the Supreme Court, if such Court directs that the decision of the board be affirmed or the petition for review dismissed.

(d) If the Supreme Court directs that the decision of the board be modified or reversed, the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the Supreme Court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time it was rendered unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected to accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the Board shall become final when so corrected.

(e) If the decision of the board is modified or reversed by the court and if (1) the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been filed, or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied, or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time such decision of the board was rendered, unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected so that it will accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the board shall become final when so corrected.

(f) If the Supreme Court orders a rehearing, or if the case is remanded by the court for rehearing and if (1) the time allowed for filing of a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been duly filed; or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied; or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered upon such rehearing shall become final in the same manner as though no prior decision of the board had been rendered.

(g) As used in this section the term "mandate," in case a mandate has been recalled prior to the expiration of thirty days from the date of the issuance thereof, means the final mandate. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 4, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8, and amended June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127; July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 544, ch. 649, § 3 (b).)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

AMENDMENT

1952—Subsec. (a) amended by act July 10, 1952, which substituted "the court shall have the power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Board" for "the court shall have the power to affirm, or if the decision of the Board is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse the decision of the Board", "decisions of the Board in the same manner and to the same extent as decisions of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in civil actions tried without a jury; and" for "decisions of the Board, and", and "title 28, United States Code, section 1254" for "section 347, Title 28, U.S. Code", and eliminated provisions which stated that the findings of fact by the Board shall have the same effect as a finding of fact by an equity court or a verdict of a jury.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Administrative review

Except in cases of absolute exemption, the tax exemption in each year is dependant on the use to which property is put, and original determination of exemption or absence thereof is largely an administrative question for the assessing authorities, and administrative review is available to the Tax Court and review of its decision is available in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. Workshop Center of the Arts v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 145 A. 2d 571).

Conclusions of law

The District of Columbia Tax Court's conclusions of law, even if considered factual, are not binding on Court of Appeals if clearly erroneous. District of Columbia v. Seven-Up Washington, Inc. (1954, 214 F. 2d 197, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 272, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 851, 347 U. S. 989, 98 L. Ed. 1123).

Conclusiveness of findings

In proceedings to review assessment of inheritance tax in the District of Columbia, involving question of whether decedent was domiciled in Florida or in the District, Court of Appeals, convinced that Board of Tax Appeals was clearly wrong in finding that decedent was domiciled in the District, could not set aside board's determination. District of Columbia v. Pace (1944, 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, U. S. Code, title 28, Appendix, relating to review of findings of fact generally would not supersede special statutory measure of review of decisions of Board of Tax Appeals of District of Columbia. Id.

The Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has power to review decisions of Board of Tax Appeals for the District as under equity practice in which whole case, both facts and law, are open for consideration, subject to rule that findings of fact are treated as presumptively correct and accepted unless clearly wrong. Id.

In proceeding for review of decision of District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals that decedent died domiciled in District of Columbia so as to subject his property to inheritance taxes imposed by District of Columbia Code, and that decedent had not retained domicile in state from which he had come to District of Columbia to work for the Government, findings of Board were required to be accepted when not clearly wrong. Weitknecht v. District of Columbia (1952, 195 F. 2d 570, 90 U. S. App. D. C. 291, certiorari denied 73 S. Ct. 47, 344 U. S. 837, 97 L. Ed. 651).

Where taxpayer was organized for purpose of lending money on realty but it acquired realty by foreclosure, finding of Board of Tax Appeals that the realty was held primarily for sale to customers in ordinary course of business, so that profits on sales were taxable as ordinary income and not as profits derived from sale of "capital assets", was not clearly wrong and could not be disturbed. Real Estate Mortgage & Guaranty Corporation v. District of Columbia (1944, 141 F. 2d 361, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 390).

A finding of fact by Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia will not be disturbed on appeal unless clearly erroneous. Connecticut Ave. Cafe v. District of Columbia (1948, 169 F. 2d 304, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 272).

Payment under protest

When taxpayer who had been previously taxed on basis of his equitable interest in marginal stocks but is then reassessed by tax authorities for full value, a payment under protest raises the question whether such new assessment was without authority of law. Hunt v. District of Columbia (1940, 108 F. 2d 10, 71 App. D. C. 143).

Questions not raised below

On taxpayer's petition to review decision of Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia redetermining petitioner's income tax for 1939 imposed by District of Columbia, petitioner could not question the amount of its gross receipts found by the District and the Board of Tax Appeals where no such question was raised before the Board, and petitioner had stipulated that the only issue was the correctness of the District's action in using the ratio of District sales to total sales as the sole basis for apportioning petitioner's net income. Eastman Kodak Co. v. District of Columbia (1942, 131 F. 2d 347, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 339).

Remand

A remainder interest under a trust, under applicable regulation, in absence of evidence relating to value filed with assessor, would not be deemed to establish a presumption conclusive in the Tax Court that such remainder was without value, but under such regulation remainderman had burden of introducing such evidence as would enable Tax Court to find market value of remainder was less than figure on which tax was assessed, but in view of remainderman's misinterpretation of such regulation, decision denying him relief would be set aside and remanded to permit remainderman to introduce evidence of market value. The Alabama Polytechnic Institute v. District of Columbia (1958, 250 F. 2d 408, 102 U. S. App. D. C. 83).

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, upon finding invalid the prevailing administrative practice in assessment of gross earnings tax against banks in District of Columbia, remanded case with instructions to cancel assessment unless tax assessor upon re-examination of entire subject removed discriminations. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 890, 94 L. Ed. 546).

Where taxpayer pleaded that proposed valuations of personal property were in excess of fair cash value of property, an issue of fact was presented which should have been resolved by a finding and the lack of a finding and conclusion on the point required the remandment of the case to Board of Tax Appeals. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

Time for filing petition

Where District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals on April 30, 1951, rendered decision on corporation's appeal in respect to business privilege tax, and corporation filed review petition which was served on District of Columbia on May 31 shortly before Board closed its office at 4:45 p. m., and the District with knowledge of sole member of Board, who had been consulted by telephone at his home, put cross-petition for review under door of Board's office an hour later, District's cross-petition was timely filed within this section requiring petition for review to be filed by District or taxpayer within 30 days after decision. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

§ 47–2405. Appeals of real estate assessments.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment, equalization, or valuation made pursuant to sections 47–708 and 47–709, may within ninety days after October 1 of the year in which such assessment, equalization, or valuation is made, appeal from such assessment, equalization, or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2404 and 47–2413: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided, except that, in case of increase of valuation of real property over that for the immediately preceding year, where no notice in writing of such increase of valuation is given the taxpayer prior to March 1 of the particular year, no such complaint shall be required for appeal.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment or valuation made in pursuance of section 47–710 may, within ninety days after October 15 of the year in which said valuation or assessment is made, appeal from such assessment or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2404 and 47–2413: Provided, however, That if the taxpayer shall be notified in writing not later than September 1 of a particular year of the valuation of the real estate valued in accordance with section 47–710, such taxpayer shall first make a complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment made in pursuance of section 47–711 may, within ninety days after April 15 of the year in which such assessment is made, appeal from such assessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2404 and 47–2413: Provided, however, That if the taxpayer shall be notified in writing not later than March 1 of a particular year of the valuation of the real estate valued in accordance with section 47–711, such taxpayer shall first make a complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any reassessment made in pursuance of section 47–712, may within ninety days after notice of said reassessment, appeal from said reassessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404.

Any person aggrieved by a reassessment or redistribution made pursuant to section 47–716, may within ninety days after notice of such reassessment or redistribution, appeal from such reassessment or redistribution in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 5, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8, and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 544, ch. 649, § 3 (c).)

CODIFICATION

The five paragraphs of this section comprise, respectively, the last sentences of subsecs. (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of section 5 of the act Aug. 17, 1939, title IX. Such section 5 is classified in its entirety as follows: subsection (a) to sections 47–708 and 47–709; subsection (b) to section 47–710; subsection (c) to section 47–711; subsection (d) to section 47–712, and subsection (e) to section 47–716.

AMENDMENTS

1952—Act July 10, 1952, amended the provisos in the first, second and third paragraphs by inserting provisions in the first paragraph dispensing with the complaint where no notice of an increase of valuation is given to the taxpayer prior to March 1, substituting "if the taxpayer shall be notified in writing not later than September 1 of a particular year of the valuation of the real estate valued in accordance with section 47–710, such taxpayer shall first make a complaint" for "such person shall have first made his complaint" in the second paragraph, and "if the taxpayer shall be notified in writing not later than March 1 of a particular year of the valuation of the real estate valued in accordance with section 47–711, such taxpayer shall first make a complaint" for "such person shall have first made his complaint" in the third paragraph.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, amended the first, second and third paragraphs by substituting "October 1" for "August 1" in the first paragraph, "October 15" for "August 1" in the second paragraph, and "April 15" for "February 1" in the third paragraph, and by adding the proviso to each of such paragraphs requiring the person to have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

Composition and functions of Board of Equalization and Review, see note under § 47–604.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Authority to reduce

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia has authority to reduce an assessment of real property made by Board of Assistant Assessors and approved by Board of Equalization and Review, notwithstanding the absence of a showing that the assessment is capricious or arbitrary or so at variance with true value as to be actually or constructively fraudulent. Watrous v. District of Columbia (1943, 135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

Where each lot was assessed at $4,008 and Board of Tax Appeals found value in money of each lot to be $3,500, the Board had power to reduce the assessment, notwithstanding absence of showing that assessment was capricious or arbitrary, under § 47–2403 providing that the Board may affirm, cancel, reduce or increase assessment. Id.

§ 47–2406. Appeal from imposition of tax involuntarily paid—Suit.

Any taxpayer who shall have paid within three years immediately preceding August 17, 1937, any tax to the District involuntarily, and under circumstances which according to law would entitle such taxpayer to the right to sue at law for the recovery of such tax, may within ninety days from May 16, 1938, appeal from the imposition of such tax in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 6, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Dismissal of appeal

Dismissal of appeal by Board of Tax Appeals where the tax was voluntarily paid. General Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (1940, 110 F. 2d 261, 71 App. D. C. 321).

Payment to avoid revocation of license

A corporation licensed to do business in the district which is assessed a tax on its earnings and fails to pay the sum until it receives from the assessor a rule to show cause why their license should not be revoked, and then pays the tax and penalty under protest to avoid revocation of their license, pays the tax involuntarily, entitling it to sue for the recovery of the tax under this act. Panitz v. District of Columbia (1940, 112 F. 2d 39, 72 App. D. C. 131).

A claim for refund of taxes filed on the ninety-first day was on time, where the ninetieth day fell on Sunday. Sherwood Bros., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1940, 113 F. 2d 162, 72 App. D.C. 155).

Voluntary payment

In District of Columbia, a tax payment voluntarily made cannot be recovered. District of Columbia v. J. C. Brady (1960, 288 F. 2d 108, 109 U.S. App. D.C. 324).

§ 47–2407. Refund of erroneous collections.

Any sum finally determined by the board to have been erroneously paid by or collected from the taxpayer shall be refunded by the District to the taxpayer from its annual appropriation for refunding erroneously paid taxes in said District. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 7, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–2408. Rules of procedure.

The board shall adopt and promulgate rules of procedure in matters for determination by the board under the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 8, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–2409. Summons—Authority to take testimony.

The board is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before it to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to this chapter; and the board is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of this chapter. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the board may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or one of the judges thereof, and said court or any judge thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 9, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8, and amended June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (a), (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia", and "judge" and "judges" for "justice" and "justices", respectively.

§ 47–2410. Certain suits forbidden.

No suit shall be filed to enjoin the assessment or collection by the District of Columbia or any of its officers, agents, or employees of any tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 10, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Adequate remedy at law

Where taxpayer had an adequate remedy at law by payment of the gross receipts tax, claim for refund, and either appeal to the District of Columbia Tax Court or civil action therein, suit for injunction against collection of the tax would not lie. D. C. Transit System Inc. v. Pearson, Collector of Taxes etc., et al. (1958, 250 F. 2d 765, 102 U. S. App. D. C. 102).

Fact that owner of household furniture and personal effects, and that holder of lien on such personalty, considered costs incurred in proceedings for collection for personal property taxes against personalty to be excessive, did not provide basis to enjoin Collector of Taxes from having personalty sold for personal property taxes, at least where there was no showing that there were no appropriate remedies at law. Pearson v. Laughlin (1951, 190 F. 2d 658, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 130).

Where plaintiff in action to enjoin sale of furniture and personal effects for property taxes had only a lien on property, so that plaintiff's claims furnished no basis for saying distraint was illegal, and Collector of Taxes had given assurances that sale would be subject to outstanding liens, sale would not be enjoined. Id.

Offer of payment

Where holder of liens on household furniture and personal effects offered to give Collector of Taxes an uncertified check for taxes assessed against personalty, but there was no offer to pay interest or expenses, and offer was made on non-business day, over telephone, while trucks and men were at hand to move personalty to auction rooms, and during preceding business week lien holder had asserted existence of his outstanding liens on personalty, and had subsequently asserted absolute ownership in himself, and at no time during such week had lien holder tendered payment of taxes, Collector was justified in refusing to stay orderly course of collection proceedings, and refusal to Collector to accept offer did not preclude sale of personalty for taxes. Pearson v. Laughlin (1951, 190 F. 2d 658, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 130).

Maintenance of suit

Statutory ban against injunction to restrain collection of taxes is more honored in the breach than in the observance, and upon a showing of considerations that appeal to discretion of court of equity, suit for injunction may be entertained and determination of validity of tax made in such summary and expeditious manner. D. C. Transit System, Inc. v. Pearson et al. (D.C.D.C. 1957, 149 F. Supp. 18).

Where District of Columbia was seeking to collect gross receipts tax from successor of recipient, action to enjoin distraint of successor's property to enforce payment could be maintained. Id.

§ 47–2411. Manner of serving notices.

Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended, addressed to such person at the address given in any return filed by him, or, if no return has been filed, then to his last-known address. The proof of mailing of any notice mentioned in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which must be determined under the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 11, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47–2412. Reference by Commissioners to the Board.

In any matter affecting taxation, the determination of which is by law left to the discretion of the commissioners, the commissioners may, if they so elect, refer such matter to the board to make findings of fact and submit recommendations, such findings of fact and recommendations, if any, to be advisory only and not binding on the commissioners, and shall be without prejudice to the commissioners to make such further and other inquiry and investigation concerning such matter as they in their discretion shall consider necessary or advisable. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 13, as added July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1110, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (c).)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–2413. Overpayments—Board of Tax Appeals.

(a) Where there has been an overpayment of any tax, the amount of such overpayment shall be refunded to the taxpayer. No such refund of taxes other than inheritance and estate taxes shall be allowed after after two years from the date the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The amount of refund of taxes other than inheritance and estate taxes shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the two years immediately preceeding the filing of the claim, or if no claim is filed, then during the two years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund. No such refund of inheritance and estate taxes shall be allowed after three years from the date the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The amount of refund of any such inheritance and estate taxes shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim is filed, then during the three years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund. Every claim for refund must be in writing under oath, must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded and must be filed with the Assessor. If the Assessor disallows all or any part of the claim for refund, he shall send to the taxpayer by registered or certified mail a notice of such disallowance. Within ninety days after the mailing of the notice of disallowance, if the claim is acted upon within six months after the filing thereof, or within ninety days after the termination of such six months' period, if the claim is not acted upon within such period, the taxpayer may appeal to the Board, in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403 and 47–2404: Provided, That this subsection shall not apply to the taxes imposed by sections 47–1501 to 47–1548; by sections 47–1551 to 47–1595; or by sections 47–2601 to 47–2629 and 47–2701 to 47–2713, refunds of which are otherwise provided for by law; and that it shall not apply to the real estate tax.

(b) In any proceeding under this chapter, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction to determine whether there has been any overpayment of tax and to order that such overpayment be credited or refunded to the taxpayer: Provided, That a timely refund claim has been filed. Where a notice of assessment is mailed to the taxpayer on or before the last day on which a timely claim for refund could be filed, an appeal filed within ninety days after the mailing of such notice asserting an overpayment shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be a timely claim for refund.

(c) The remedies provided to the taxpayer under this chapter shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit for the recovery of an overpayment of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such overpayment with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia under this chapter.

(d) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, if it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter that there has been an overpayment of any tax, whether as a deficiency or otherwise, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment of tax at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from the date such overpayment was paid until the date of refund: Provided, That with respect to that part of any overpayment which was not assessed and paid as a deficiency or as additional tax such interest shall be allowed and paid only from the date of filing a claim for refund, a petition to the Board, or a complaint with a court of competent jurisdiction, as the case may be.

(e) For the purposes of this section, any interest or penalties paid by the taxpayer in connection with an overpayment of tax shall be deemed to be a part of such overpayment of tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 14, as added July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 546, ch. 649, § 4, and amended June 11, 1960, 74 Stat. 204, Pub. L. 86–507, § 1(56); June 27, 1960, 74 Stat. 224, Pub. L. 86–528, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1960—Subsec. (a) amended by act June 27, 1960, to increase the period for refund of estate and inheritance taxes from two years to three years from the date the tax is paid.

Subsec. (a) amended by act June 11, 1960, which inserted words "or by certified mail" following "registered mail."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Limitations

Where claim for refund of a District of Columbia estate tax was not filed within two years of payment of the tax, Tax Court had no jurisdiction to decide anything, and if it had jurisdiction it had no authority to do otherwise than deny petitioner's claim in view of this section providing no refund of an overpayment shall be allowed after two years from date the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period, claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. American Security and Trust Co. etc. v. District of Columbia (1956, 235 F. 2d 19, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

§ 47–2414. Reestablishment of Board.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Reorganization Act of 1949 and notwithstanding the provisions of Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952, relating to the District of Columbia, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall not be abolished, and, if prior to July 10, 1952, it has been abolished, it is hereby reestablished. In either event, the functions of the said Board of Tax Appeals transferred to the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia by said Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952 are hereby retransferred to said Board of Tax Appeals or to said Board of Tax Appeals as hereby reestablished, to be exercised in the same manner, to the same extent, and under the same provisions of law as if said Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 had never gone into effect, except only as such provisions of law may be modified by this Act.

All petitions, answers, or other pleadings, documents, or papers filed with, and all actions taken by, and all decisions rendered by, the person, persons, office, or agency to which said Board of Commissioners may have redelegated the functions of said Board of Tax Appeals, between the effective date of said Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 and July 10, 1952, shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if filed with, taken by, or rendered by, said Board of Tax Appeals or said Board of Tax Appeals as hereby reestablished.

If, prior to July 10, 1952, the said Board of Tax Appeals shall have been abolished, the said Board of Commissioners shall appoint an individual to act as the member of the said Board of Tax Appeals as hereby reestablished, said appointment to be made in accordance with the provisions of section 47–2402. (July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 547, ch. 649, § 7.)

Chapter 25.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Sec.
47–2501. Authorization for advance of funds by Secretary of Treasury.
47–2501a. Annual payment by the United States—Appropriations.
47–2501b. Annual payment by the United States—Deficiency appropriations.
47–2502. Regulations.
47–2503. Separability of provisions.
47–2504. Divulging of information obtained from Bureau of Internal Revenue unlawful—Penalties.

§ 47–2501. Authorization for advance of funds by Secretary of Treasury.

The Secretary of the Treasury, notwithstanding the provisions of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act, approved June 29, 1922, is authorized and directed to advance, on the requisition of the commissioners of the District of Columbia, made in the manner now prescribed by law, out of any money in the treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary, from time to time, to meet the general expenses of said District, as authorized by Congress, and such amounts so advanced shall be reimbursed by the said commissioners to the treasury out of taxes and revenue collected for the support of the government of the said District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 692, ch. 690, title VII, § 2; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, § 7; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title VI; Mar. 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 39, ch. 37, § 3; June 27, 1942, 56 Stat. 460, ch. 452, § 11; June 28, 1944, 58 Stat. 533, ch. 300, § 14.)

AMENDMENTS

1944—Act June 28, 1944, struck out the words "until and including June 30, 1944," from the beginning of the first sentence.

1939—Act July 26, 1939, deleted the words "during said fiscal year" following the words "from time to time."

1938—Act May 16, 1938, deleted the word "the" from the phrase "of the taxes" in the last clause.

§ 47–2501a. Annual payment by the United States—Appropriations.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1967, and for each fiscal year thereafter, there is authorized to be appropriated, as the annual payment by the United States toward defraying the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia, the sum of $60,000,000 which shall be credited to the general fund of the District of Columbia. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 361, ch. 258, Art. VI, § 1; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 113, ch. 218, title VII, § 701; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 857, Pub. L. 89–610, title V, § 501.)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, combined with this section those provisions of § 47–2501b which related to appropriations in addition to those originally authorized by this section, and which, in addition, provided for the payments so authorized to be credited to the general fund; and increased the authorization for the annual Federal payment from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000. See amendment notes under § 47–2501b.

As originally enacted, this section authorized appropriations for fiscal year ending June 30, 1948, and for each fiscal year thereafter, as the annual payment by United States toward defraying expenses of government of the District, the sum of $12,000,000, of which $11,000,000 should be credited to the general fund of the District, and $1,000,000 should be credited to the water fund of the District, established by chapter 15 of title 43.

1954—Act May 18, 1954, designated the provisions of this section, which had been enacted by the 1947 act as "Article VI" of such act, as § 1 of such article.

PRIOR LAW

Prior to act July 16, 1947, cited to the text of this section, act July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1085, ch. 367, title I, which was classified to former § 47–134, authorized appropriations for fiscal year June 30, 1940 and each fiscal year thereafter, as the annual payment by the United States toward defraying expenses of government of the District, the sum of $6,000,000. Such provisions were superseded by this section and § 47–2501b, and were repealed by § 502 (80 Stat. 857) of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, title V, cited to the text of this section.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003–1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

§ 47–2501b. Annual payment by the United States—Deficiency appropriations.

If in any fiscal year or years a deficiency exists between the amount appropriated and the amount authorized by this article to be appropriated, additional appropriations are hereby authorized for subsequent fiscal years to pay such deficiency or deficiencies. (July 16, 1947, ch. 258, Art. VI, § 2, as added May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 113, ch. 218, title VII, § 701, and amended Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 83, ch. 154, § 401; June 6, 1958, 72 Stat. 183, Pub. L. 85–451, § 2; Aug. 27, 1963, 77 Stat. 130, Pub. L. 88–104, § 1; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 857, Pub. L. 89–610, title V, § 501.)

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, eliminated subsec. (a) (which authorized appropriations in addition to those authorized by § 47–2501a) and subsec. (c) (which provided that the payments authorized should be credited to the general fund of the District), such provisions now being covered by § 47–2501a as amended by the same act (see, also, 1956, 1958 and 1963 amendments note below); and, in reenacting the remaining provisions, eliminated the designation of subsec. "(b)" with respect thereto.

1956, 1958 and 1963—In former subsec. (a) which, commencing with fiscal year 1955, authorized appropriations in addition to those authorized by § 47–2501a, these acts increased the additional authorizations commencing with fiscal years 1957, 1959 and 1964, respectively, from $9,000,000 commencing with fiscal year 1955, to $39,000,000 commencing with fiscal year 1964; and based on the increased authorizations in each case, continued the provisions of a former proviso by which certain amounts of the aggregate annual payments by the United States appropriated under this section and § 47–2501a to the credit of the general fund for specified fiscal years should be available for capital outlay only, and then on a cumulative basis only to the extent of not more than 50 per centum of the cumulative total of capital outlay appropriations payable from such general fund which became available for expenditure on and after July 1, 1954. See 1966 amendment note above.

In addition, the 1956 act (March 31, 1956) amended former subsec. (b) (now entire section) by substituting "amount authorized by this article to be appropriated" for "amount of $20,000,000 authorized by this article to be appropriated". See 1966 amendment note above.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003–1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

§ 47–2502. Regulations.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, as amended and shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of the Revenue Act of 1939. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 693, ch. 690, title VII, § 3, formerly § 4, renumbered and amended May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 7; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1119, ch. 367, title VIII, § 2.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, referred to in the text, is classified to §§ 40–101 to 40–105, 47–1401 to 47–1412, 47–1601 to 47–1629, 47–1801 to 47–1808, 47–1901 to 47–1903, 47–1905, 47–1907, 47–1908, 47–1911, 47–2501 to 47–2504.

The Revenue Act of 1939, referred to in the text, is classified to §§ 11–332, 47–134, 47–1204, 47–1211, 47–1501 to 47–1543, 47–1601 to 47–1629, 47–1701, 47–2402, 47–2403, 47–2405, 47–2412, and 47–2501 to 47–2503.

AMENDMENT

1939—Act July 26, 1939, added the last clause pertaining to the Revenue Act of 1939.

§ 47–2503. Separability of provisions.

If any provision of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937 and the Revenue Act of 1939 or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 693, ch. 690, title VII, § 4, formerly § 5, renumbered and amended May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 7; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1119, ch. 367, title VIII, § 1.)

§ 47–2601. Definitions.

1. "Assessor" means the Assessor of the District or his duly authorized representatives.

2. "Business" includes any activity engaged in by any person or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect.

3. "Collector" means the Collector of Taxes of the District or his duly authorized representatives.

4. "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District or their duly authorized representatives.

5. "District" means the District of Columbia.

6. "Engaging in business" means commencing, conducting, or continuing in business, as well as liquidating a business when the liquidator thereof holds himself out to the public as conducting such a business.

7. "Food" means cereals and cereal products; milk and milk products, including ice cream; meat and meat products; fish and fish products; eggs and egg products; vegetables and vegetable products; fruit, fruit products, and fruit juices; soft drinks; spices and salt; flavoring extracts and condiments; sugar and sugar products; coffee and coffee substitutes; tea; cocoa and cocoa products; and ice: Provided, however, That the word "food" shall not include spiritous or malt liquors and beer.

8. "Gross receipts" means the total amount of the sales prices of the retail sales of vendors, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise.

9. "Person" includes an individual, partnership, society, club, association, joint-stock company, corporation, estate, receiver, trustee, assignee, or referee, and any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, whether appointed by a court or otherwise, and any combination of individuals acting as a unit.

10. "Purchaser" includes a person who purchases property or to whom are rendered services, receipts from which are taxable under this chapter.

11. "Purchaser's certificate" means a certificate signed by a purchaser and in such form as the Assessor shall prescribe, stating the purpose to which the purchaser intends to put the subject of the sale, or the status or character of the purchaser.

12. "Retailer" includes—

(a) every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail;

(b) every person engaged in the business of making retail sales at auction of tangible personal property owned by the person or others;

(c) every person engaged in the business of making sales for storage, use, or other consumption, or in the business of making sales at auction of tangible personal property owned by the person or others for storage, use, or other consumption.

13. "Retail establishment" means any premises in which the business of selling tangible personal property is conducted or in or from which any retail sales are made.

14. (a) "Retail sale" and "sale at retail" mean the sale in any quantity or quantities of any tangible personal property or service taxable under the terms of this chapter. Said term shall mean all sales of tangible personal property to any person for any purpose other than those in which the purpose of the purchaser is to resell the property so transferred in the form in which the same is, or is to be, received by him, or to use or incorporate the property so transferred as a material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale by manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining. For the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter, these terms shall include but shall not be limited to the following:

(1) The sale of any meals, food or drink or other like tangible personal property for a consideration.

(2) Any production, fabrication, or printing of tangible personal property on special order for a consideration.

(3) The sale or charges for any room or rooms, lodgings, or accommodations furnished to transients by any hotel, inn, tourist camp, tourist cabin, or any other place in which rooms, lodgings, or accommodations are regularly furnished to transients for a consideration.

(4) The sale of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel, or steam, when made to any purchaser for purposes other than resale or for use in manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining.

(5) The sale of material used in the construction, and of materials used in the repair or alteration, of real property, which materials, upon completion of such construction, alterations, or repairs, become real property, regardless of whether or not such real property is to be sold or resold.

(6) The sale or charges for possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract, regardless of the length of time of such lease or contract or whether such lease or contract is oral or written; in such event, for the purposes of this chapter, such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rental paid: Provided, however, That the gross proceeds from the rental of films, records or any type of sound transcribing to theaters and radio and television broadcasting stations shall not be considered a retail sale: Provided further, That the gross proceeds from the rental of textiles, the essential part of which rental includes recurring service of laundering or cleaning thereof, shall not be considered a retail sale.

(b) The term "retail sale" and "sale at retail" shall not include the following:

(1) Sales of tickets for admission to places of amusement and sports.

(2) Sales of transportation and communication services.

(3) Professional, insurance, or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

(4) Any sale in which the only transaction in the District is the mere execution of the contract of sale and in which the tangible personal property sold is not in the District at the time of such execution: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to be an exemption from the tax imposed under chapter 27 of this title.

(5) Sales to a common carrier or sleeping-car company by a corporation all of whose capital stock is owned by one or more common carriers or sleeping-car companies of tangible personal property, procured or acquired by such corporation outside the District, which consists of repair or replacement parts used for the maintenance or repair of any train operating principally without the District in the course of interstate commerce, or commerce between the District and a State, provided such sales are made in connection with the furnishing of terminal services pursuant to a written agreement entered into before January 1, 1963.

15. "Return" includes any return filed or required to be filed as herein provided.

16. (a) "Sales price" means the total amount paid by a purchaser to a vendor as consideration for a retail sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold.

(2) The cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expenses.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property prior to its sale at retail. The total amount of the sales price includes all of the following: a. Any services that are a part of the sale. b. Any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the vendor.

(4) Amounts charged for any cover, minimum, entertainment, or other service in hotels, restaurants, cafes, bars, and other establishments where meals, food, or drink, or other like tangible personal property is furnished for a consideration.

(b) The term "sales price" does not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) The amount charged for property returned by purchasers to vendors upon rescission of contracts of sale when the entire amounts charged therefor are refunded either in cash or credit, and when the property is returned within ninety days from the date of sale.

(3) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) The amount of reimbursement of tax paid by the purchaser to the vendor under this chapter.

(5) Transportation charges separately stated, if the transportation occurs after the sale of the property is made.

17. "Sale" and "selling" mean any transaction whereby title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property is or is to be transferred by any means whatsoever, including rental, lease, license, or right to reproduce or use, for a consideration, by a vendor to a purchaser, or any transaction whereby services subject to tax under this chapter are rendered for consideration or are sold to any purchaser by any vendor, and shall include, but not be limited to, any "sale at retail" as defined in this chapter. Such consideration may be either in the form of a price in money, rights, or property, or by exchange or barter, and may be payable immediately, in the future, or by installments.

18. "Semipublic institution" means any corporation, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized exclusively for religious, scientific, charitable, or educational purposes, including hospitals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. For the purpose of this chapter an organization or institution which does not embrace the generally recognized relationship of teacher and student shall be deemed not to be operated for educational purposes.

19. "Tangible personal property" means corporeal personal property of any nature.

20. "Tax" means the tax imposed by this chapter.

21. "Taxpayer" means any person required by this chapter to make returns or to pay the tax imposed by this chapter.

22. "Tax year" means the calendar year, or the taxpayer's fiscal year if it be other than the calendar year when such fiscal year is regularly used by the taxpayer for the purpose of reporting District income taxes as the tax period in lieu of the calendar year.

23. "Vendor" includes a person or retailer selling property or rendering services upon the receipts from which a tax is imposed under this chapter.

24. The foregoing definitions shall be applicable whenever the words defined are used in this chapter unless otherwise required by the context. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 112, ch. 146, title I, §§ 101—124; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 117, ch. 218, title XIII, §§ 1301, 1302; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 80, ch. 154, title II, §§ 201–203; Sept. 2, 1964, 78 Stat. 847, Pub. L. 88–564, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

1964—Act Sept. 2, 1964, amended subsection 14(b), by adding paragraph (5) thereto.

1956—Par. 14(a)(6) amended generally by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 201. Prior to such amendment, such paragraph read as follows: "The grant of the right to continuous possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract if such grant of possession would be taxable if outright sale were made; in such event such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rentals paid."

Par. 16(a)(4) added by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 202.

Par. 17 amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 203, which included rental, lease, license, or right to reproduce or use.

1954—Par. 7 amended by act May 18, 1954, § 1301, which deleted the word "bottled" preceding "soft drinks" and the words "when used for household consumption" following "ice", and eliminated beverages such as are ordinarily dispensed at bars and soda fountains or in connection therewith from the proviso.

Par. 14(a)(1) amended by act May 18, 1954, § 1302, which substituted "The sale of any meals, food or drink or other like tangible personal property for a consideration" for "The sale for consumption of any meals, food or drink, or other tangible personal property for a consideration, at any restaurant, hotel, drug store, club, resort, or other place at which meals, food, drink, or other tangible personal property are sold."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Section 206 of act Mar. 31, 1956, provided that: "The provisions of this title [amending this section and sections 47–2605 and 47–2701] shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins on or after the sixtieth day after the date of enactment of this Act [Mar. 31, 1956]."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, provided that: "The provisions of this title [amending this section and sections 47–2602, 47–2604, 47–2605, 47–2701, 47–2702 and 47–2705] shall become effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after the approval of this Act [May 18, 1954]."

SHORT TITLE

Section 1 of act May 27, 1949, provided in part that: "Title I of this Act [which enacted this chapter] may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Sales Tax Act.' "

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Television motion pictures

Television motion pictures produced for price of $700,000 under contract between producer and union became union property without qualification, and transactions were, for purposes of District of Columbia sales tax, taxable sales transactions, not nontaxable personal service transactions. District of Columbia v. Norwood Studios, Inc. (1964, 336 F. 2d 746, 118 U.S. App. D.C. 358).

§ 47–2602. Imposition of tax.

Beginning on and after August 1, 1949, for the privilege of selling certain tangible personal property at retail sale and for the privilege of selling certain selected services defined as sales at retail in this chapter, a tax is hereby imposed upon all vendors at the rate of 3 per centum of the gross receipts of any vendor from the sale of such tangible personal property and services: Provided, That the rate of tax with respect to sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold shall be 1 per centum of the gross receipts from such sales, and that the rate of tax with respect to sales or charges for any room or rooms, lodgings, or accommodations, furnished to transients by any hotel, inn, tourist camp, tourist cabin, or any other place in which rooms, lodgings, or accommodations are regularly furnished to transients shall be 5 per centum of the gross receipts from such sales. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 125; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 117, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1303; Mar. 2, 1962, 76 Stat. 10, Pub. L. 87–408, § 101(a); Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title III, § 301(a).)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, amended the section by striking out "4 per centum" in the proviso and inserting in lieu "5 per centum".

1962—Act Mar. 2, 1962, 76 Stat. 10, Pub. L. 87–408, § 101(a), amended the section by striking out "2 per centum" and inserting in lieu "3 per centum" and by striking out "3 per centum" in the proviso and inserting in lieu "4 per centum".

1954—Act May 18, 1954, added the proviso clause.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Section 303 of act Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title III, provided: "The amendments made by this title [by §§ 301 and 302 of the act, amending this section and § 47–2604(c), and repealing § 47–2605(q)] shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins on or after the thirtieth day after the date of enactment of this Act [Sept. 30, 1966]."

EFFECTIVE DATE AND REFERENCES TO SECTIONS 47–2602 AND 47–2604

Section 103, act Mar. 2, 1962, provides as follows: "The amendments made by the first two sections of this title [amending sections 47–2602, 47–2604 and 47–2702] shall take effect on the first day of the first month which begins on or after the thirtieth day after the date of enactment of this Act [Mar. 2, 1962]. From and after the effective date of such amendments, all references in the District of Columbia Use Tax Act [ch. 27, title 47, D.C. Code] to sections 125 [47–2602] and 127 [47–2604] of the District of Columbia Sales Tax Act shall be deemed to be references to such sections 125 and 127 as amended by the first section of this title."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003–1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Constitutionality

The imposition of a new tax or increase in the rate of an old one is one of the usual hazards of business, and it does not ordinarily impair the obligation of a pre-existing contract. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U. S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

Prior contract

Where personal property was purchased by contractor subsequent to passage of this chapter, fact that construction contracts with reference to which purchases were made had been entered into before passage of this chapter did not absolve contractor from payment of the use tax, since it is the purchase or use itself, and not the signing of the contracts ultimately necessitating the purchase, which is the taxable event. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 App. D. C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U. S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

§ 47–2603. Reimbursement of vendor for tax.

Reimbursement for the tax imposed upon the vendor shall be collected by the vendor from the purchaser on all sales the gross receipts from which are subject to the tax imposed by this chapter so far as it can be done. It shall be the duty of each purchaser in the District to reimburse the vendor, as provided in section 47–2604, for the tax imposed by this chapter. Such reimbursement of tax shall be a debt from the purchaser to the vendor and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 126.)

§ 47–2604. Rate of tax.

For the purpose of collecting his reimbursement as provided in section 47–2603 insofar as it can be done and yet eliminate the fractions of a cent, the vendor shall add to the sales price and collect from the purchaser the following amounts:

(a) On each sale, other than sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold, and other than sales or charges for rooms, lodgings, or accommodations furnished to transients, such amounts as may be prescribed by the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia to carry out the purposes of this section.

(b) On each sale of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold where the sales price is from 28 cents to $1.27, both inclusive, 1 cent; on each such sale where the sales price is from $1.28 to $2.27, both inclusive, 2 cents; and on each $1 of sales price or fraction thereof of such sale in excess of $2.27, 1 cent.

(c) On each sale or charge for rooms, lodgings, or accommodations, furnished to transients, 5 per centum of the sales price.

(May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 127; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1304; Mar. 2, 1962, 76 Stat. 10, Pub. L. 87–408, § 101(b)(c); Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title III, § 301(b).)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, amended subsec. (c) by striking out "4 per centum" and inserting in lieu "5 per centum".

1962—Act Mar. 2, 1962, amended subsection (a) by striking out the words, "where the sales price is from 14 cents to 63 cents, both inclusive, 1 cent; on each such sale where the sales price is from 64 cents to $1.13, both inclusive, 2 cents; and on each 50 cents of sales price or fraction thereof of such sale in excess of $1.13, 1 cent", and substituting the words, "such amounts as may be prescribed by the Board of Commissions of the District of Columbia to carry out the purposes of this section". Act also amended subsection (c) by striking out "3 per centum" and inserting in lieu "4 per centum".

1954—Act May 18, 1954, consolidated former subsecs. (a), (b), and (c) and redesignated them as subsec. (a), and added subsecs. (b) and (c).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Amendment of this section by act Sept. 30, 1966, as effective on first day of first month which begins on or after thirtieth day after Sept. 30, 1966, see § 303 of such act, set out as a note under § 47–2602.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1962 AMENDMENT

See note to section 47–2602.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For construction of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, amending this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1003–1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

§ 47–2605. Exemptions.

Gross receipts from the following sales shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter:

(a) Sales to the United States or the District or any instrumentality thereof except sales to national banks and Federal savings and loan associations.

(b) Sales to a State or any of its political subdivisions if such State grants a similar exemption to the District. As used in this subsection, the term "State" means the several States, Territories, and possessions of the United States.

(c) Sales to a semipublic institution: Provided, however, That such sales shall not be exempt unless (1) such institution shall have first obtained a certificate from the Assessor stating that it is entitled to such exemption, and (2) the vendor keeps a record of the sales price of each such separate sale, the name of the purchaser, the date of each such separate sale, and the number of such certificate.

(d) (1) Repealed. May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1305.

(2) Repealed. Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 81, ch. 154, title III, § 304(a).

(e) Sales of motor-vehicle fuels upon the sale of which a tax is imposed by chapter 19 of this title.

(f) Sales of property purchased by a utility or public-service company for use or consumption in furnishing a commodity or service: Provided, That the receipts from furnishing such commodity or service are subject to a gross-receipts or mileage tax in force in the District during or for the period of time covered by any return required to be filed by the provisions of this chapter.

(g) Sales of newspapers and publications of semipublic institutions as defined in paragraph 18 of section 47–2601.

(h) Casual and isolated sales by a vendor who is not regularly engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

(i) Sales of livestock, poultry, seeds, feeds for livestock and poultry, fertilizers, lime, and land plaster used for agricultural purposes.

(j) Sales of food or beverages of any nature if made in any car composing a part of any train or in any aircraft or boat operating within the District in the course of commerce between the District and a State.

(k) Sales of goods made pursuant to bona fide contracts entered into before May 27, 1949: Provided, That there is a contract in writing signed by the purchaser and vendor which imposes an unconditional liability on the part of the purchaser to buy the goods covered thereby at a fixed price and without escalator clause, and an unconditional liability on the part of the vendor to deliver a definite quantity of such goods at the contract price.

(l) Sales of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel, or steam, directly used in manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining.

(m) Sales which a State would be without power to tax under the limitations of the Constitution of the United States.

(n) Sale of motor vehicles and trailers which are subject to the provisions of title III of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1949.

(o) Sales of medicines, pharmaceuticals, and drugs whether or not made on prescriptions of duly licensed physicians and surgeons and general and special practitioners of the healing art.

(p) Sales of crutches, wheel chairs for the use of cripples and invalids, and, when designed to be worn on the person of the purchaser or user, artificial limbs, artificial eyes, and artificial hearing devices; sales of false teeth by a dentist and the materials used by a dentist in dental treatment; sales of eyeglasses, when especially designed or prescribed by an ophthalmologist, oculist, or optometrist for the personal use of the owner or purchaser; and sales of artificial braces and supports designed solely for the use of crippled persons.

(q) Repealed, Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title III, § 302.

(r) Sales of material to be incorporated permanently in any war memorial authorized by Congress to be erected on public grounds of the United States. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 128; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1305; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 81, ch. 154, title II, § 204; July 3, 1957, 71 Stat. 276, Pub. L. 85–82, § 1; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title III, § 302.)

1966—Act Sept. 30, 1966, amended section by repealing subsec. (q), which exempted sales of cigarettes from sales tax.

1957—Subsec. (r) added by act July 3, 1957.

1956—Subsec. (d)(2), which exempted sales of food sold for human consumption in hotels, restaurants, cafes, bars, and other establishments where the sales price of the food furnished each individual patron is 50 cents or less, was repealed by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 204(a).

Subsec. (n) amended by act Mar. 31, 1956, § 204(b), which inserted words "which are subject to the provisions of title III of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1949."

1954—Subsec. (a) amended by act May 18, 1954, which inserted words "except sales to national banks and Federal savings and loan associations."

Subsec. (d) amended by act May 18, 1954, which repealed cl. (1) that exempted sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold, and substituted "50 cents" for "$1.25" in three instances in cl. (2).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Repeal of subsec. (q) of this section by act Sept. 30, 1966, as effective on first day of first month which begins on or after thirtieth day after Sept. 30, 1966, see § 303 of such act, set out as a note under § 47–2602.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1957 AMENDMENT

Section 2 of act July 3, 1957, provided that subsection (r) shall be effective only with respect to sales taking place on and after January 1, 1957.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, effective on the first day of the first month which begins on or after the 60th day after Mar. 31, 1956, see section 206 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For severability of provisions with respect to act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, repealing subsec. (q) of this section, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions of such act, see §§ 1004 and 1005 thereof, set out as a note under § 25–124.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Prior contracts

Provision of this section exempting sales of goods made pursuant to contracts entered into before date of approval of act, if there is contract in writing which imposes unconditional liability on part of purchaser to buy goods covered at fixed price and on vendor to deliver a definite quantity of such goods at contract price, did not exempt purchases made by contractor pursuant to construction contracts with United States and District of Columbia, when there was no proof of any contracts in writing, other than the three construction contracts, since relationships between parties to those contracts were not those of purchasers and vendors. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U.S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

Sales to United States or District

Provision of this section exempting sales to the United States or District or any instrumentality thereof, did not exempt from taxation purchases made by private contractor of materials and supplies for use in construction contracts with United States and District of Columbia, since when contractor purchased such materials, neither it nor its vendor was making sales of tangible personal property to the United States or the District. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U.S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

Government regulations pertaining to Sales and Use Taxes under this chapter, declaring that where contractor enters into construction contract with United States or District, contractor may purchase such materials and supplies as are to be physically incorporated in and become real property without payment of tax, means that the material must be physically present or incorporated in the structure, and it does not exempt from taxation products consumed in the course of construction. Id.

§ 47–2606. Tax to be separately stated.

Upon each sale of tangible personal property or services, the gross receipts from which are taxable under this chapter, the reimbursement of tax to be collected by the vendor from the purchaser under the provisions of this chapter shall be stated and charged separately from the sales price and shown separately on any record thereof at the time the sale is made or evidence of sale issued or employed by the vendor. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 129.)

§ 47–2607. Presumption of taxability.

It shall be presumed that all receipts from the sale of tangible personal property and services mentioned in this chapter are subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the burden of proving that a receipt is not taxable hereunder shall be upon the vendor or the purchaser as the case may be. Except as provided in section 47–2605 (c), unless the vendor shall have taken from the purchaser a certificate signed by and bearing the name and address of the purchaser and the number of his registration certificate to the effect that the property or service was purchased for resale, the receipts from all sales shall be deemed taxable. The certificate herein required shall be in such form as the Assessor shall prescribe and, in case no certificate is furnished or obtained prior to the time the sale is consummated, the tax shall apply to the gross receipts therefrom as if the sale were made at retail. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 130.)

§ 47–2608. Tax a personal debt—Period of limitation.

The tax imposed by this chapter and interest and penalties thereon shall become, from the time due and payable, a personal debt of the person liable to pay the same to the District. An action may be brought at any time within three years from the time the tax shall be due and payable in the name of the District to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties, and interest due under the provisions of this chapter, but such actions shall be utterly barred after the expiration of the aforesaid three years. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 131.)

§ 47–2609. Tax a preferred claim—Priority over property taxes.

Whenever the business or property of any person subject to tax under the terms of this chapter, shall be placed in receivership or bankruptcy, or assignment is made for the benefit of creditors, or if said property is seized under distraint for property taxes, all taxes, penalties, and interest imposed by this chapter for which said person is in any way liable shall be a prior and preferred claim. Neither the United States marshal, nor a receiver, assignee, or any other officer shall sell the property of any person subject to tax under the terms of this chapter under process or order of any court without first determining from the Collector the amount of any such taxes due and payable by said person, and if there be any such taxes due, owing, or unpaid under this chapter, it shall be the duty of such officer to first pay to the Collector the amount of said taxes out of the proceeds of said sale before making any payment of any moneys to any judgment creditor or other claimants of whatsoever kind or nature. Any person charged with the administration or distribution of any such property as aforesaid who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be personally liable for any taxes accrued and unpaid which are chargeable against the person otherwise liable for tax under the terms of this section. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 132.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction with other laws

This section giving District a preferred claim for sales and use taxes when assignment is made for benefit of creditors, being a more specific and more limited enactment, creates an exception to general federal statute giving priority to the United States in payment of claims against insolvent debtor, and, hence, District's claim for unpaid sales and compensating use taxes was entitled to priority over tax claim of United States in respect to payment out of assets in hands of assignees for benefit of creditors. United States v. Harry Saidman, Trustee, etc. (1956, 231 F. 2d 503, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 344).

"Bankruptcy", within this section providing that claims should be a prior and preferred claim in cases where taxpayer is placed in receivership or bankruptcy, embraces only proceedings under local insolvency acts, and does not override Bankruptcy Act provision giving priority to taxes only after expenses of administration, wage claims and certain creditor expenses and barring allowance of penalties, and District's claims for sales taxes and penalties were not entitled to priority. District of Columbia v. Greenbaum, Trustee etc. (1955, 223 F. 2d 633, 96 U.S. App. D.C. 168).

This section giving District a preferred claim for taxes when assignment is made for benefit of creditors has created an exception to 1797 general federal statute providing that insolvent person's debts due to United States shall be first satisfied, and hence District's tax claim had priority over tax claim of United States in respect to payment out of assets in hands of assignees for benefit of creditors. In re Assignment of Lobel Enterprises, Inc. (D.C.D.C. 1954, 126 F. Supp. 792, cause remanded on other grounds 231 F. 2d 503, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 344).

Insolvency proceedings

District of Columbia has preferred claim for taxes owed by a business when it is placed in receivership, becomes bankrupt, or makes an assignment for benefit of creditors or when its property is seized under distraint for property taxes. District of Columbia v. Hechinger Properties Co. (D.C. App. 1964, 197 A. 2d 157).

District of Columbia had existing choate leins against taxpayer's property for District of Columbia withholding and sales taxes assessed, due, or withheld prior to entry of judgment against taxpayer, and District was entitled to satisfaction out of funds otherwise payable to attaching judgment creditor, even though judgment had been entered and sale ordered before District served notice of levy and warrant for distraint for unpaid taxes. Id.

This section giving priority to District for unpaid gross sales taxes against a taxpayer in bankruptcy before all claimants of whatsoever kind or nature and making penalties and interest a prior and preferred claim gives District a priority in whatever local insolvency proceedings are instituted where bankrupt person or corporation involved is not eligible to become a bankrupt under the Bankruptcy Act. District of Columbia v. Greenbaum, Trustee etc. (1955, 223 F. 2d 633, 96 U.S. App. D.C. 168).

§ 47–2610. Collection of tax—Liens—Jeopardy assessments—Distraint.

The taxes imposed by this chapter and penalties and interest thereon may be collected by the Collector in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection; and liens for the taxes imposed by this chapter and penalties thereon may be acquired in the same manner that liens for personal property taxes are acquired. If the Assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this chapter will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 133.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Notice of priority of lien

Better practice is for District of Columbia to give creditors or potential creditors notice of its prior personal property tax claims, but the notice is not required by statute providing for collection by distraint and levy and for acquisition of lien by filing of certificate of delinquent taxes. District of Columbia v. Hechinger Properties Co. (D.C. App. 1964, 197 A. 2d 157).

§ 47–2611. Assumption or refund of tax by vendor unlawful—Penalties.

It shall be unlawful for any vendor to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer directly or indirectly that the reimbursement of tax or any part thereof to be collected by the vendor under this chapter will be assumed or absorbed by the vendor or that it will not be added to the selling price of the property sold or the taxable services rendered, or if added to said price that it, or any part thereof, will be refunded. Any person violating any provision of this section shall upon conviction be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, for each offense. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 134.)

§ 47–2612. Monthly returns to be filed.

(a) On or before the twentieth day of each calendar month, every vendor who has made any sale at retail, taxable under the provisions of this chapter, during the preceding calendar month, shall file a return with the Assessor. Such returns shall show the total gross proceeds of the vendor's business for the month for which the return is filed; the gross receipts of the business of the vendor upon which the tax is computed; the amount of tax for which the vendor is liable and such other information as the Assessor deems necessary for the computation and collection of the tax.

(b) The Assessor may permit or require the returns to be made for other periods and upon such other dates as he may specify: Provided, That the gross receipts during any tax year shall be included in returns covering such year and no other.

(c) The form of returns shall be prescribed by the Assessor and shall contain such information as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The Assessor may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 135.)

§ 47–2613. Payment of tax.

(a) At the time of filing his return as provided by this chapter, the taxpayer shall pay to the Collector the taxes imposed by this chapter.

(b) The taxes for the period for which a return is required to be filed by a vendor under this chapter shall be due by the vendor and payable to the Collector on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of gross receipts and taxes due thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 136.)

§ 47–2614. Annual returns to be filed.

On or before thirty days after the end of the tax year of each vendor required to pay to the Collector the tax imposed by the provisions of this chapter, such vendor shall make an annual return for such tax year in such form as may be required by the Assessor. The Assessor for good cause shown may on the written application of a vendor extend the time for making any return required by this section. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, title I, § 137.)

§ 47–2615. Secrecy of returns—Reciprocity.

(a) Except to any official of the District, having a right thereto in his official capacity, it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the District to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of gross proceeds or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof set forth or disclosed in any return required to be filed under this chapter, and neither the original nor a copy of any such return desired for use in litigation in court shall be furnished where neither the District nor the United States is interested in the result of such litigation, whether or not the request is contained in an order of the court: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the furnishing to a taxpayer a copy of his return upon the payment of a fee of $2.

(b) Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the publication of notices authorized in this chapter or the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns or reports and the items thereof, or the publication of delinquent lists showing the names of persons, vendors, or purchasers who have failed to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter within the time prescribed herein, together with any relevant information which in the opinion of the Assessor may assist in the collection of such delinquent taxes.

(c) Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the Assessor, in his discretion, from divulging or making known any information contained in any report, application, or return required under the provisions of this chapter other than such information as may be contained therein relating to the amount of gross proceeds or tax thereon or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof.

(d) Any violation of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for six months or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Assessor may permit the proper officer of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States or his authorized representative to inspect the returns filed under this chapter, or may furnish to such officer or representative a copy of any such return, provided the United States, State, or Territory grants substantially similar privileges to the Assessor or his representative or to the proper officer of the District charged with the administration of this chapter.

(f) All reports, applications, and returns received by the Assessor under the provisions of this chapter shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until the Assessor orders them to be destroyed. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, title I, § 138.)

§ 47–2616. Determination of deficiencies.

If a return required by this chapter is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, the amount of tax due shall be determined by the Assessor from such information as may be obtainable. Notice of such determination shall be given to the taxpayer. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is assessed, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, shall apply in writing to the Assessor for a hearing, or unless the Assessor of his own motion shall redetermine the same. After such hearing or redetermination the Assessor shall give notice of his final determination to the person against whom the tax is assessed. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, title I, § 139.)

§ 47–2617. Refunds.

(a) Except as to any tax finally determined as provided in section 47–2616, where any tax has been erroneously or illegally collected, the tax shall be refunded if application under oath is filed with the Assessor for such refund within one year from the payment thereof. For like cause and within the same period a refund may be made upon the certificates of the Assessor and the Collector. Whenever a refund is made upon the certificates of the Assessor and the Collector, the Assessor and Collector shall state their reasons therefor in writing. Such application may be made by the person upon whom such tax was imposed and who has actually paid the tax. When an application is made by a vendor who has collected reimbursement of such tax, no actual refund of moneys shall be made to such vendor, until he shall first establish to the satisfaction of the Assessor, under such regulations as the Commissioners may prescribe, that the vendor has repaid to the purchaser the amount for which the application for refund is made. In lieu of any refund required to be made, a credit may be allowed therefor on payment due from the applicant.

(b) Application for a refund or credit made as herein provided shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penalty, or interest complained of and the Assessor may receive evidence with respect thereto. After making his determination of whether any refund shall be made, the Assessor shall give notice thereof to the applicant. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 120, ch. 146, title I, § 140.)

§ 47–2618. Appeals.

(a) Any vendor or purchaser aggrieved by a final determination of tax or denial of an application for refund of any tax may, within ninety days from the date of the final determination of the tax or from the date of the denial of an application for refund, as the case may be, appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404 and 47–2407 to 47–2411. The remedy provided in this section shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such tax with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia.

(b) If it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter, that any part of any tax which was assessed as a deficiency, and any interest thereon paid by the taxpayer, was an overpayment, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment of tax at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from the date such overpayment was paid until the date of refund. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 120, ch. 146, title I, § 141.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47–2402.

§ 47–2619. Sales in bulk.

Whenever there is made a sale, transfer, or assignment in bulk of any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or of merchandise and of fixtures, pertaining to the conducting of the business of the seller, transferor, or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall at least five days before taking possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures, or paying therefor, notify the Assessor by registered mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms, and conditions thereof, irrespective of whether or not the seller, transferor, or assignor has represented to or informed the purchaser, transferee, or assignee that he owes any tax pursuant to this chapter or whether he has complied with section 28–1701, or whether or not he has knowledge that such taxes are owing, or whether any such taxes are in fact owing.

(b) Whenever the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall fail to give the notice to the Assessor as required by section 47–2618, or whenever the Assessor shall inform the purchaser, transferee, or assignee that a possible claim for such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property, or choses in action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee, or assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor, or assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the seller, transferor, or assignor to the District, and the purchaser, transferee, or assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor, or assignor any such sums of money, property, or choses in action to the extent of the amount of the District's claim. For failure to comply with the provisions of this section, the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall be personally liable for the payment to the District of any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the District from the seller, transferor, or assignor, and such liability may be assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, title I, § 142.)

§ 47–2620. Rules and regulations.

In addition to the powers granted to the Commissioners in this chapter, they are hereby authorized and empowered to make, adopt, and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, title I, § 143.)

§ 47–2621. Additional powers of Assessor.

In addition to the powers granted to the Assessor in this chapter, he is hereby authorized and empowered—

(a) to extend for cause shown the time of filing any return for a period not exceeding thirty days; and for cause shown, to remit penalties and interest in whole or in part except as otherwise provided in this chapter; and to compromise disputed claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

(b) to request information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States relative to any person for the purpose of assessing taxes imposed by this chapter; and said Bureau of Internal Revenue is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Assessor relative to any person for the purpose herein provided;

(c) to prescribe methods for determining the gross proceeds from sales made or services rendered and for the allocation of such sales into taxable and nontaxable sales;

(d) to require any vendor selling to persons within the District to keep detailed records of the nature and value of personal property sold for use within the District, and to furnish such information upon request to the Assessor;

(e) to assess, determine, revise, and readjust the taxes imposed under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, title I, § 144.)

CHANGE OF NAME

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150–29, eff. July 9, 1953.

§ 47–2622. Examination of records and witnesses.

The Assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed as required by this chapter, or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda, or any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear before him and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the Assessor, or his duly authorized representative, shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person, having been personally summoned, shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then in that event the Assessor, or the Deputy Assessor, may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the Assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the Assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, for each offense. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 122, ch. 146, title I, § 145.)

§ 47–2623. Certificate of registration.

(a) No person shall engage or continue to engage in the business of making any retail sales subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter without having obtained a certificate of registration therefor. If two or more persons constitute a single vendor as defined in this chapter, such persons may operate a single retail establishment under one certificate of registration and in such case neither the death or retirement of one or more of such persons from business in such establishment nor the entrance of one or more persons thereinto shall affect the certificate of registration for a period of sixty days or require the issuance of a new certificate until the expiration of such period.

(b) Each applicant for a certificate required by this section shall make out and deliver to the Assessor, upon a blank to be furnished by him for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, each retail establishment where the applicant's business is to be conducted, the kind or nature of such business and such other information as the Assessor may prescribe. Upon receipt of such application the Assessor shall issue the applicant, without charge, a certificate of registration for each retail establishment designated in the application, authorizing the applicant to engage in business at such retail establishment. The certificate of registration shall be nontransferable except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and shall be displayed in the applicant's place of business. The form of such certificate of registration shall be prescribed by the Assessor.

(c) In the case of a vendor who has no fixed place of business and sells from one or more vehicles, each such vehicle shall constitute a retail establishment for the purpose of this chapter. In the case of a vendor who has no fixed place of business and does not sell from a vehicle, the application for a certificate of registration shall set forth the address to which any notice or other communication authorized by this chapter may be sent to the applicant, and the place so designated shall constitute a retail establishment for the purposes of this chapter.

(d) Whoever engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail, or makes any sale which is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter without having a certificate of registration therefor, as required by this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $100. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 122, ch. 146, title I, § 146.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Evidence

Evidence was sufficient to sustain conviction for violation of this chapter. Scott, Jr. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 122 A. 2d 579).

In prosecution for violations of this chapter, error, if any, in refusing to exclude testimony of government witness on ground that best evidence rule precluded his testimony as to certain Federal alcohol tax stamp records was cured by subsequent admission in evidence of the records, the contents of which were not at variance with witness' testimony. Id.

§ 47–2624. Penalties and interest.

(a) Any person failing to file a return or who files a false or incorrect return or who fails to pay any tax to the Collector within the time required by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of 5 per centum of the amount of tax due, plus interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, if satisfied that the delay was excusable may waive the penalty of 5 per centum. Unpaid penalties and interest may be collected in the same manner as the tax imposed by this chapter. The interest provided for in this section shall be applicable to any tax determined by the Assessor as a deficiency.

(b) The certificate of the Collector or Assessor, as the case may be, to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or a registration certificate has not been obtained, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence thereof: Provided, That the presumptions created by this subsection shall not be applicable in criminal prosecutions. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, title I, § 147; July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 2(c).)

AMENDMENT

1952—Subsec. (a) amended by act July 10, 1952, which substituted "at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, if satisfied that the delay was excusable may waive the penalty of 5 per centum" for "at the rate of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay excepting the first month after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, is satisfied that the delay was excusable, may waive all or any part of such penalty in excess of interest at the rate of 6 per centum per year."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 10, 1952, effective July 1, 1952, see section 8 of act July 10, 1952, set out as a note under § 47–1619.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

In general

District of Columbia's claim against bankrupt for one percent per month payment on delinquent personal property taxes was, since in excess of legal interest rate and designated by statute a penalty, a "penalty" rather than "interest" and was barred by Bankruptcy Act. District of Columbia v. Greenbaum, Trustee etc. (1955, 223 F. 2d 633, 96 U. S. App. D. C. 168).

§ 47–2625. Failure to file return.

(a) Any person required to file a return or report or perform any act under the provisions of this chapter who shall fail or neglect to file such return or report or perform such act within the time required shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure or neglect. The penalty provided herein shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter.

(b) Any person required to file a return or report or perform any act under the provisions of this chapter who willfully fails or refuses to file such return or report or perform such act within the time required shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year or both. The penalty provided herein shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, title I, § 148.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Conduct of counsel

Defendant's former attorney, who, in criminal proceeding, was representing, at same time, both defendant and government's principal witness against defendant, could not have given defendant the undivided and undiluted fidelity to which defendant was entitled, and, therefore, new trial would be ordered following defendant's conviction for violation of this chapter. Scott v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1953, 99 A. 2d 641).

Defenses

In prosecution of operator of automobile body works for failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, fact that others who allegedly violated this chapter were not proceeded against by Assessor of Taxes was no defense. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

Evidence

In prosecution for violations of this chapter, error, if any, in refusing to exclude testimony of government witness on ground that best evidence rule precluded his testimony as to certain Federal alcohol tax stamp records was cured by subsequent admission in evidence of the records, the contents of which were not at variance with witness' testimony. Scott, Jr. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 122 A. 2d 579).

Evidence was sufficient to sustain conviction for violation of this chapter. Id.

Jury trial

In prosecution of operator of an automobile body works for failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, defendant was not entitled to jury trial as matter of right in view of fact that such statutory offense is essentially petty in nature, does not involve moral turpitude, and would not be indictable at common law. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

Privilege

Treasury Department Regulation prohibiting disclosure of official information was promulgated for benefit of the United States Government, and the privilege against disclosure of official information could be claimed by the government alone, not by defendant in prosecution for violation of this chapter, and, therefore, testimony of Internal Revenue Agents concerning defendant's admissions to them in course of Federal tax violation investigation was proper. Scott, Jr. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 122 A. 2d 579).

Questions for jury

In prosecution of operator of automobile body works for failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, whether Government had waived offense, as alleged by defendant who claimed that though defendant was late in filing defendant was told by a tax official that matter would be dropped if defendant filed return, was for jury. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

Review

An operator of automobile body works who was convicted of failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter could not for first time on appeal claim that prosecution was illegal because of absence of signature on information of assistant to corporation counsel attesting oath of complaining wtness. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

Sentence

Where trial court imposed a money fine against defendant operator of automobile body works for failure to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, trial court under this chapter could enforce payment of fine by ordering defendant in the alternative to serve a jail sentence. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

§ 47–2626. Assessment of deficiencies — Limitations thereupon.

The Assessor shall determine, redetermine, assess, or reassess, any tax imposed by this chapter, except in cases where the tax is correct as computed in any return filed with the Assessor, within three years after the filing of any return, except as follows:

(a) In the case of a false return, or a failure to file a return, whether in good faith or otherwise, the tax may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of an incorrect return which has not been prepared as required by this chapter and by the return and instructions, rules, or regulations applicable thereto, the tax shall be assessed or reassessed within five years after the filing of such return. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, title I, § 149.)

§ 47–2627. Prosecutions.

All prosecutions under this chapter shall be brought in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District in the name of the District of Columbia. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, title I, § 150; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "municipal court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

§ 47–2628. Notices—How given.

Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended in an envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed by him pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or, if no return has been filed, then to the last address of such person. If the address of any person is unknown, such notice may be published in one or more of the daily newspapers in the District of Columbia for three successive days. The cost of any such advertisement in newspapers shall be added to the tax. The proof of mailing of any notice required or authorized in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of such notice by the person to whom addressed. The proof of publishing any notice required in this chapter in one or more of the daily newspapers in the District shall be conclusive notice to the person for whom such notice is intended. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, title I, § 151.)

§ 47–2629. Extensions of time.

Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for the assessment or redetermination of an additional tax, a taxpayer has consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such tax due may be determined at any time within such extended period. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, title I, § 152.)

§ 47–2701. Definitions.

1. (a) "Retail sale", "sale at retail", and "sold at retail" means all sales in any quantity or quantities of tangible personal property, whether made within or without the District, and services, to any person for the purpose of use, storage, or consumption, within the District, taxable under the terms of this chapter. These terms shall mean all sales of tangible personal property to any person for any purpose other than those in which the purpose of the purchaser is to resell the property so transferred in the form in which the same is, or is to be, received by him, or to use or incorporate the property so transferred as a material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale by manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining. For the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter, these terms shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) Any production, fabrication, or printing of tangible personal property on special order for a consideration.

(2) The sale of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel or steam, when made to any purchaser for purposes other than resale or for use in manufacturing, assembling, processing or refining.

(3) The sale of material used in the construction, and of materials used in the repair or alteration, of real property, which materials, upon completion of such construction, alterations, or repairs, become real property, regardless of whether or not such real property is to be sold or resold.

(4) The sale or charges for possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract, regardless of the length of time of such lease or contract or whether such lease or contract is oral or written; in such event for the purposes of this chapter, such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rental paid: Provided, however, That the gross proceeds from the rental of films, records, or any type of sound transcribing to theaters and radio and television broadcasting stations shall not be considered a retail sale: Provided further, That the gross proceeds from the rental of textiles, the essential part of which rental includes recurring service of laundering or cleaning thereof, shall not be considered a retail sale.

(5) The sale of any meals, food or drink, or other like tangible personal property for a consideration.

(b) The terms "retail sale", "sale at retail", and "sold at retail" shall not include the following:

(1) Sales of tickets for admission to places of amusement and sports.

(2) Sales of transportation and communication services.

(3) Professional, insurance, or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

(4) Sales of tangible personal property which property was purchased or acquired by a nonresident prior to coming into the District and establishing or maintaining a temporary or permanent residence in the District. As used in this subsection, the word "residence" means a place in which to reside and does not mean "domicile".

(5) Sales of tangible personal property which property was purchased or acquired by a nonresident person prior to coming into the District and establishing or maintaining a business in the District.

(6) The use or storage within the District of tangible personal property owned and held by a common carrier or sleeping-car company for use principally without the District in the course of interstate commerce, or commerce between the District and a State, in or upon, or as part of, any train, aircraft, or boat.

2. "Purchase" and "purchased" shall mean and include—

(a) any transfer, either conditionally or absolutely, of title or possession or both of the tangible personal property sold at retail;

(b) any acquisition of a license or other authority to use, store, or consume, the tangible personal property sold at retail;

(c) any sale of services sold at retail.

3. "Purchaser" means any person who shall have purchased tangible personal property or services sold at retail.

4. "In the District" and "within the District" mean within the exterior limits of the District of Columbia and include all territory within such limits owned by the United States of America.

5. "Store" and "storage" mean any keeping or the retention of possession in the District for any purpose of tangible personal property purchased at retail sale.

6. "Use" means the exercise by any person within the District of any right or power over tangible personal property and services sold at retail, whether purchased within or without the District by a purchaser from a vendor.

7. "Vendor" includes every person or retailer engaging in business in the District and making sales at retail as defined herein, whether for immediate or future delivery of the tangible personal property or performance of the services. When in the opinion of the Assessor it is necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter to regard any salesman, representative, peddler, or canvasser, as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer, under whom he operates or from whom he obtains the tangible personal property sold or furnishes services, the Assessor may, in his discretion, treat and regard such agent as the vendor jointly responsible with his principal, employer, or supervisor, for the assessment and payment or collection of the tax imposed by this chapter.

8. "Engaging in business in the District" includes the selling, delivering, or furnishing in the District, or any activity in the District in connection with the selling, delivering, or furnishing in the District, of tangible personal property or services sold at retail as defined herein. This term shall include but shall not be limited to the following acts or methods of transacting business:

(a) The maintaining, occupying or using, permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary or agent, by whatever name called, of any office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business.

(b) The having of any representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor operating in the District for the purpose of making sales at retail as defined herein, or the taking of orders for such sales.

9. "Retailer" includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

10. The definitions of "business", "food", "gross receipts", "person", "purchaser's certificate", "retail establishment", "return", "sale" and "selling", "sales price", "semipublic institution", "tangible personal property", "tax", "tax year", "taxpayer", "Assessor", "Collector", "Commissioners", and "District", as defined in chapter 26 of this title, are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter.

11. The foregoing definitions shall be applicable whenever the words defined are used in this chapter unless otherwise required by the context. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, title II, § 201–211; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1306; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 81, ch. 154, § 205.)

AMENDMENTS

1956—Par. 1(a)(4) amended generally by act Mar. 31, 1956. Prior to such amendment, such paragraph read as follows: "The grant of the right to continuous possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract if such grant of possession would be taxable if outright sale were made; in such event such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rentals paid."

1954—Par. 1(a)(5) added by act May 18, 1954.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, effective on the first day of the first month which begins on or after the 60th day after Mar. 31, 1956, see section 206 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

SHORT TITLE

Section 1 of act May 27, 1949, provided in part that: "Title II of this Act [this chapter] may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Use Tax Act.' "

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Material to be produced for sale

Cartons which bottling companies delivered to customers with bottled drinks were not used or incorporated as material or part of other property to be produced for sale, within meaning of this chapter excluding from use tax property purchased for use as material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale. District of Columbia v. Seven-Up Washington, Inc. (1954, 214 F. 2d 197, 93 U.S. App. D.C. 272, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 851, 347 U.S. 989, 98 L. Ed. 1123).

Professional or personal service transactions

Sales to newspaper of mats bearing impressions of current sequence of comic strips, with right to reproduce one time the work of artists who made the drawings, were sales of professional and personal services of the artists which involved transfer of title to the mats, of inconsequential value, from which drawings could be reproduced, and hence were within exemption from sales and use taxes granted by par. 1(b)(3) of this section to professional, insurance or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made. Washington Times-Herald, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 213 F. 2d 23, 94 U. S. App. D. C. 154).

Property acquired for purpose of resale

Cartons, which bottling companies delivered to customers with bottled drinks, upon which no credit or refund for return was allowed, and which were not drawn back into more or less constant use by companies, were property "acquired for purpose of resale" within meaning, as construed in Regulations, of this chapter which exempts from use tax property acquired for purpose of resale. District of Columbia v. Seven-Up Washington, Inc. (1954, 214 F. 2d 197, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 272, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 851, 347 U. S. 989, 98 L. Ed. 1123).

Where bottling companies bought bottles and cases and sold them, filled with beverages, at prices smaller than the cost of the bottles and cases, in expectation that bottles and cases would be returned for refund, the bottles and cases were not "acquired for purpose of resale" within meaning of this chapter excluding from use tax property purchased for resale. Id.

Under this chapter excluding from use tax property which is acquired for purpose of resale, property is not excluded simply because it is resold, but it is excluded only when it is purchased specifically for the purpose of resale. Id.

§ 47–2702. Imposition of tax.

Beginning on and after August 1, 1949, there is hereby imposed and there shall be paid by every vendor engaging in business in the District and by every purchaser a tax on the use, storage, or consumption of any tangible personal property and services sold or purchased at retail sale. The tax hereby imposed shall be at the rate of 3 per centum of the sale price of the tangible personal property or services rendered or sold, except that the rate of tax with respect to sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold shall be 1 per centum of the sales price of such sales. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, title II, § 212; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1307; Mar. 2, 1962, 76 Stat. 10, Pub. L. 87–408, § 102.)

AMENDMENTS

1962—Act Mar. 2, 1962, 76 Stat. 10, Pub. L. 87–408, § 102, amended section by striking out "2 per centum" and inserting in lieu "3 per centum".

1954—Act May 18, 1954, provided for a tax at the rate of 1 per centum of the sales price with respect to sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1962 AMENDMENT

See note to section 47–2602.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

In general

Where personal property was purchased by contractor subsequent to passage of chapter 26 of this title, fact that construction contracts with reference to which purchases were made had been entered into before passage of chapter 26 of this title, did not absolve contractor from payment of the use tax, since it is the purchase or use itself, and not the signing of the contracts ultimately necessitating the purchase, which is the taxable event. John McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U.S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

§ 47–2703. Collection of tax by vendor.

Every vendor engaging in business in the District and making sales at retail shall, for the privilege of making such sales, pay to the Collector the tax imposed by this chapter. At the time of making such sales the vendor shall collect the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in such form as prescribed by the Assessor. For the purpose of uniformity of tax collection by the vendor engaging in business in the District and for other purposes the provisions of sections 47–2603, 47–2604, 47–2606 and 47–2607 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, title II, § 213.)

§ 47–2704. Non-resident vendors.

Every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who makes sales at retail as defined in this chapter, and who upon application to the Collector has been expressly authorized to pay the tax imposed by this chapter, shall, at the time of making such sales, collect the reimbursement of the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in such form as prescribed by the Assessor. For the purpose of uniformity of tax collection by the vendor or retailer who has been expressly authorized to pay the tax under the provisions of this section and for other purposes, the provisions of sections 47–2603, 47–2604, 47–2606 and 47–2607 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. A permit shall be issued to such vendor or retailer, without charge, to pay the tax and collect reimbursement thereof as provided herein. Such permit may be revoked at any time by the Collector who shall thereupon give notice thereof to the vendor or retailer. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, title II, § 214.)

§ 47–2705. Payment of tax by purchaser.

If a purchaser has not reimbursed for the tax such vendors or retailers as are required or authorized to pay the tax, as the case may be, such purchaser shall file a return as hereinafter provided and pay to the Collector a tax at the rates provided in section 47–2602 on the sales prices of property and services purchased at retail sale. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 215; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1308.)

AMENDMENT

1954—Act May 18, 1954, substituted "a tax at the rates provided in section 47–2602 on the sales prices" for "2 per centum of the total sales prices."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47–2601.

§ 47–2706. Exemptions.

The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to the following:

(a) Sales upon which taxes are imposed under chapter 26 of this title.

(b) Sales exempt from the taxes imposed under chapter 26 of this title.

(c) Sales upon which the purchaser has paid a retail sales tax or made reimbursement therefor to a vendor or retailer under the laws of any State or territory of the United States. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 216.)

§ 47–2707. Collection of tax.

The provisions of sections 47–2608, 47–2609, and 47–2610 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 217.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Priority

Chapter 26 of this title giving District a preferred claim for sales and use taxes when assignment is made for benefit of creditors, being a more specific and more limited enactment, creates an exception to general federal statute giving priority to the United States in payment of claims against insolvent debtor, and, hence, District's claim for unpaid sales and compensating use taxes was entitled to priority over tax claim of United States in respect to payment out of assets in hands of assignees for benefit of creditors. United States v. Harry Saidman, Trustee, etc. (1956, 231 F. 2d 503, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 344).

§ 47–2708. Surety bonds may be required.

Every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who has been expressly authorized to pay the tax imposed by this chapter and collect reimbursement therefor, and every vendor engaging in business in the District, may, in the discretion of the Collector, be required to file with the Collector a bond not exceeding the amount of $10,000 with such sureties as the Collector deems necessary, and for such duration not exceeding five years as the Collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the tax due from any vendor or retailer for any period covered by any return required to be filed under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 218.)

§ 47–2709. Assumption or refund of tax unlawful—Penalty.

The provisions of section 47–2611 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 219.)

§ 47–2710. Returns and payment of tax.

The provisions of sections 47–2612, 47–2613, 47–2614, and 47–2615 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. Every vendor, and every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who is expressly authorized to pay the tax, shall file returns and pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of such sections applicable to the filing of returns and the payment of the tax and as shall be prescribed by regulation. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 220.)

§ 47–2711. Monthly returns to be filed—Content and form—Payment of tax.

(a) Every purchaser who is required to pay a tax under this chapter shall file a return with the Assessor within twenty days after the end of each calendar month. Such returns shall show the total sales prices of all tangible personal property and services purchased at retail sale upon which the tax imposed has not been paid by the purchaser to vendors or retailers, the amount of tax for which the purchaser is liable, and such other information as the Assessor deems necessary for the computation and collection of the tax.

(b) The Assessor may permit or require the returns of purchasers to be made for other periods and upon such other dates as he may specify.

(c) The return filed by a purchaser shall include the sales prices of all tangible personal property and services purchased at taxable retail sale during the calendar month or other period for which the return is filed and upon which the tax imposed has not been reimbursed by the purchaser to vendors or retailers.

(d) The form of returns shall be prescribed by the Assessor and shall contain such information as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The Assessor may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice.

(e) At the time of filing his return as provided in this section the purchaser shall pay to the Collector the amount of tax for which he is liable as shown by such return.

(f) The taxes for the period for which a return is required to be filed under this section shall be due by the taxpaper and payable to the Collector on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of the total sales prices and taxes due thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 221.)

§ 47–2712. Certificate of registration.

The provisions of section 47–2623 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter: Provided, That vendors and persons who have been issued certificates of registration under chapter 26 of this title shall not be required to have such certificates under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, title II, § 222.)

§ 47–2713. Application of sections 47–2616 to 47–2622 and 47–2624 to 47–2629.

The provisions of sections 47–2616 to 47–2622 and 47–2624 to 47–2629 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, title II, § 223.)

§ 47–2801. Definitions.

As used in and for the purposes of this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(a) The word "cigarette" shall mean any roll of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, wrapped in paper or in any substance other than tobacco.

(b) The word "person" shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, association, receiver, executor, administrator, trustee, conservator, or other representative appointed by order of any court.

(c) The word "District" shall mean the District of Columbia.

(d) The word "Commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

(e) The words "designated District agency" shall mean any officer, employee, department, office, or agency in or under the municipal government of the District of Columbia who or which is designated by the Commissioners to perform a function or duty under the terms and provisions of this title.

(f) The word "sell" or "sale" shall include offering for sale, keeping for sale, bartering, trafficking in, peddling, and any transfer or exchange in any manner or by any means for a consideration.

(g) The term "original package" shall mean the individual package, parcel, or other container in which cigarettes are put up by the manufacturer to which is affixed the required United States Government Internal Revenue stamp, and the Commissioners may, by regulation, include within this definition any wrapper immediately enclosing such package, parcel, or other container.

(h) The word "stamp" shall include impressions made by metering machines authorized to be used under the provisions of this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 136, ch. 146, title VI, § 602.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 613 of act May 27, 1949, provided that: "The provisions of this title [this chapter] shall take effect on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after the approval of this Act [May 27, 1949]."

SHORT TITLE

Sec. 601 of act May 27, 1949, provided that: "Title VI of act May 27, 1949, which is classified to this chapter, may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act'."

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA APPROPRIATION ACT, 1903

Section 612 of act May 27, 1949, provided that: "Nothing in this title [this chapter] shall be construed as repealing any portion of section 7 of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, approved July 1, 1902, as amended."

§ 47–2802. Imposition of tax.

(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all cigarettes sold in the District by licensed wholesalers, licensed retailers, or by licensed vending-machine operators, to consumers, a tax at the rate of 3 cents on each twenty cigarettes or fractional part thereof, such tax to be levied, collected, and paid once only on cigarettes sold as aforesaid.

(b) Said tax shall be collected by and paid to the Collector of Taxes of the District and shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District.

(c) Said tax shall be collected and paid by the affixture of a stamp or stamps secured from the Collector of Taxes, denoting the payment of the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter upon such cigarettes, each such affixture to be on the original package, unless the Commissioners shall by regulation permit otherwise. Cancellation of such stamps shall be in the manner prescribed by regulation approved by the Commissioners.

(d) The Collector of Taxes shall furnish suitable stamps, to be prescribed by the Commissioners, denoting the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter and shall by the sale of such stamps at the amounts indicated on the faces thereof cause the said taxes to be collected.

(e) If at the time of acquisition of original packages by licensed retailers or by licensed vending-machine operators such original packages do not have affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting payment of the tax imposed by this chapter it shall be the duty of each such retailer and vending-machine operator to affix to each such original package such stamp or stamps before selling or delivering cigarettes to consumers and before removing or permitting the removal of cigarettes from the licensed premises or licensed vending machines of such retailers or operators for delivery to consumers.

(f) No person shall use or cause to be used for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter a stamp already theretofore used for the payment of any such tax.

(g) Any person who shall counterfeit or forge any stamp required or authorized by this chapter shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment of not more than two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(h) The Commissioners are authorized by regulation to permit licensees to pay the tax imposed by this chapter by the method of imprinting impressions upon original packages by the use of metering devices in lieu of the method of paying such tax by the affixture of stamps: Provided, That the Collector of Taxes shall control the use of such metering devices. In addition to their usual meanings the terms "affix stamp", "affixture of stamp or stamps", and like terms shall mean and include the imprinting of impressions denoting payment of the tax imposed by this chapter as authorized by this section.

(i) Stamps may be purchased only by licensed wholesalers, by licensed retailers, and by licensed vending-machine operators. Discount from face value of such stamps at a rate not to exceed 10 per centum may be allowed under such terms and conditions as the Commissioners may by regulation prescribe. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 137, ch. 146, title VI, § 603; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 115, ch. 218, title IX, § 901; Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title IV, § 401.)

AMENDMENTS

1966—Subsection (a) amended by act Sept. 30, 1966, which substituted "three cents" for "two cents".

1954—Subsec. (a) amended by act May 18, 1954, which substituted "2 cents" for "1 cent."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT; APPLICABILITY TO STOCK HELD PRIOR TO EFFECTIVE DATE; STATEMENTS; RECORDS OF INVENTORIES; PUNISHMENT FOR VIOLATIONS

Section 402 of act Sept. 30, 1966, 80 Stat. 856, Pub. L. 89–610, title IV, provided:

"(a) Except as otherwise provided, the amendment made by section 401 [to subsec. (a) of this section] shall apply with respect to cigarette tax stamps purchased on and after the effective date of this title [said § 401 and this section § 402 of the act] which shall be the first day of the first month which begins on or after the thirtieth day after the date of the enactment of this Act [Sept. 30, 1966].

"(b) In the case of cigarette tax stamps which have been purchased prior to the effective date of this title and which on such date are held (affixed to a cigarette package or otherwise) by a wholesaler, retailer, or vending machine operator, licensed under the District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act, such licensee shall pay to the Commissioner (in accordance with subsection (c)) an amount equal to the difference between the amount of tax represented by such tax stamps on the date of their purchase and the amount of tax which an equal number of cigarette tax stamps would represent if purchased on the effective date of this title.

"(c) Within twenty days after the effective date of this title, each such licensee shall (1) file with the Commissioners a sworn statement (on a form to be prescribed by the Commissioners) showing the number of such cigarette tax stamps held by him as of the beginning of the day on which this title becomes effective or, if such day is a Sunday, as of the beginning of the following day, and (2) within twenty days after the effective date of this title, pay to the Commissioners the amount specified in subsection (b).

"(d) Each such licensee shall keep and preserve for the period of twelve months immediately following the effective date of this title the inventories and other records made which form the basis for the information furnished to the Commissioners on the sworn statement required to be filed under this section.

"(e) For purposes of this section, a tax stamp shall be considered as held by a wholesaler, retailer, or vending machine operator if title thereto has passed to such wholesaler, retailer, or operator (whether or not delivery to him has been made) and if title to such stamp has not at any time been transferred to any person other than such wholesaler, retailer, or operator.

"(f) A violation of the provisions of subsection (b), (c), or (d) of this section shall be punishable as provided in section 611 of the District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act (D.C. Code, sec. 47–2810)."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Section 905 of act May 18, 1954, provided that: "The provisions of this title [amending this section and enacting provisions set out as notes under this section] shall become effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the thirtieth day after the approval of this Act [May 18, 1954]."

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS; RULES AND REGULATIONS

For definition "Commissioners", as used in the above-quoted provisions of act Sept. 30, 1966, Pub. L. 89–610, and for construction of such act, which also amended subsec. (a) of this section, severability of provisions with respect thereto, and authority to make rules and regulations to carry out provisions thereof, see §§ 1002—1005 of such act, set out as a note under § 25–124.

TRANSITORY PROVISIONS OF ACT MAY 18, 1954

Section 902–904 of act May 18, 1954, provided that:

"SEC. 902. Within ten days after the effective date of this title, every holder of a wholesaler's, retailer's, or vending machine operator's license under said Act shall file with the Collector of Taxes a sworn statement on a form to be prescribed by the Commissioners showing the number of each kind of stamps denoting payment of cigarette taxes affixed to packages of cigarettes held or possessed by such licensee or anyone for him at the beginning of the day on which this title becomes effective, and shall, within fifteen days after the effective date of this title, pay to the Collector of Taxes the difference between the amount of tax represented by such stamps and the amount of tax imposed by the District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act as amended by this title.

"SEC. 903. Within ten days after the effective date of this title, every holder of a wholesaler's, retailer's, or vending machine operator's license under said Act shall file with the Collector of Taxes a sworn statement on a form to be prescribed by the Commissioners showing the number of each kind of stamps held or possessed by such licensee or anyone for him which were not affixed to packages of cigarettes at the beginning of the day on which this title becomes effective, and shall, within fifteen days after the effective date of this title, surrender such stamps to the Collector of Taxes. The Collector of Taxes shall credit the amount of tax represented by the stamps surrendered against new stamps purchased by such licensees. In lieu of the credit allowed for surrendering stamps as provided in this section, the licensee shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of tax represented by the stamps surrendered as an overpayment of tax in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in section 4 of the Act of July 10, 1952 (66 Stat. 543, 546, ch. 649): Provided, That the requirement that the amount of refund shall not exceed the portion of tax paid during the two years immediately preceding the filing of the claim for refund shall not be applicable."

"SEC. 904. Any violation of the provisions of this title shall constitute a violation under the District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto."

§ 47–2803. Vendor to be licensed.

No person shall within the District of Columbia, manufacture for sale, keep for sale, sell, or offer to sell cigarettes, or display cigarettes for sale in vending machines, without having first obtained a license or licenses under this chapter for such purpose or purposes. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 138, ch. 146, title VI, § 604.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2804. Issuance of vendor's license.

The designated District agency is authorized to issue licenses to individuals, partnerships, or corporations, but not to unincorporated associations, on application duly made therefor for the manufacture or sale of cigarettes within the District of Columbia. The designated District agency shall keep a full and complete record of all applications for licenses and of action taken thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 138, ch. 146, title VI, § 605.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2805. Types of licenses.

Licenses shall be of three kinds, namely:

A. RETAILER'S LICENSE.—Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale and to sell cigarettes to consumers, from the place therein designated and to deliver such cigarettes to consumers in original packages: Provided, That cigarettes may be sold in number less than the number contained in the original package if such sales be permitted by regulations approved by the Commissioners. A separate license shall be required for each such place or establishment. Such a license shall not authorize the licensee to sell to other licensees for resale.

The annual fee for such license shall be fixed by the Commissioners at a rate not to exceed $5 for each retail establishment.

B. VENDING MACHINE OPERATOR'S LICENSE.—Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to sell or offer to sell cigarettes from or by means of vending machines located in the place or places described therein. The Commissioners may by regulation require that a separate license be obtained for each machine or may permit a blanket license for one or more machines and may also prescribe that evidence of licensing of such machines be attached to each such machine by means of markers, stickers, or otherwise. The annual fee for such a license shall be fixed by the Commissioners at a rate not to exceed $5 for each and every such machine.

C. WHOLESALER'S LICENSE.—(1) Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to manufacture or to purchase or otherwise to acquire and to sell cigarettes in original packages to any person holding a license under this chapter as wholesaler, retailer, or vending-machine operator, or to consumers.

(2) Such a licensee may at his election purchase from the Collector of Taxes and affix to original packages stamps denoting payment of the tax imposed by this chapter and, upon delivery to a vendee licensed under this chapter, of such original packages with such stamps properly affixed may add to the selling price of such cigarettes an amount equal to the face value of such stamps and collect such amount from such vendee. If a wholesaler licensed hereunder shall sell cigarettes to consumers, it shall be the duty of such wholesaler prior to the sale and delivery of such cigarettes to affix to the original packages the stamp or stamps denoting the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(3) A license as wholesaler shall authorize the holder thereof to manufacture at and to sell cigarettes from the place or places in the District therein designated. The Commissioners are empowered in their discretion to authorize, by regulation and upon such terms and conditions as they may require, the issuance of such a license for a place outside the District. A separate license shall be required for each such place within or without the District.

The annual fee for each such license shall be fixed by the Commissioners at a rate not to exceed $50. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 138, ch. 146, title VI, § 606.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2806. Period of licenses—Suspensions and revocations.

Licenses issued under authority of this chapter shall remain in effect for periods as may be fixed by regulation approved by the Commissioners, not exceeding one year from the effective date of such licenses or unless revoked prior to their expiration.

Licenses issued under this chapter may be suspended or revoked for any violation of this chapter or the regulations issued thereunder, by the Commissioners or by a designated District agency, after hearing held by a designated District agency. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, title VI, § 607.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2807. Tax to be in addition to other taxes.

The taxes imposed and the licenses required by this chapter shall be in addition to the taxes imposed and the licenses required by any other Act. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, title VI, § 608.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2808. Administration—Rules and regulations.

This chapter shall be administered by designated District agencies except where specific duties are imposed upon specific officers by the terms hereof. The Commissioners are authorized to make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, title VI, § 609.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2809. Personnel and expenses authorized.

The Commissioners are authorized to employ personal services in accordance with section 305, chapter 51, subchapter III of chapter 53, and sections 5341, 5342, 5504, 5509 and 7154, of title 5, U.S. Code [relating to the classification of government employees and related matters], and to incur such other expenses as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter and to include such amounts in their annual estimates. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, title VI, § 610; Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 972, ch. 782, title XI, § 1106 (a).)

CODIFICATION

The reference in this section to "section 305, chapter 51, subchapter III of chapter 53, and sections 5341, 5342, 5504, 5509 and 7154, of title 5, U.S. Code [relating to the classification of government employees and related matters]" was substituted for "the Classification Act of 1949, as amended", on authority of § 7(b) of act Sept. 6, 1966, Pub. L. 89–554, set out in note under § 1–251. The Classification Act of 1949, as amended (Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 954, ch. 782, as amended), was repealed by act Sept. 6, 1966, 80 Stat. 632, Pub. L. 89–554, § 8(a) (of which § 1 revised and enacted title 5, U.S.C., into law), and is now covered by the provisions of title 5, U.S.C., cited.

AMENDMENT

1949—Act Oct. 28, 1949, § 1106(a), which was a part of the Classification Act of 1949, and which has since been repealed, substituted "Classification Act of 1949" for "Classification Act of 1923". See codification note above.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2810. Violations—Penalties—Prosecutions.

Whoever violates any provision of this chapter for which no specific penalty is provided, or any of the rules and regulations promulgated under the authority of this chapter, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not longer than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be on information filed in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions by the Corporation Counsel or any of his Assistants, except for such violations as are felonies, and prosecutions for such violations as are felonies shall be by the United States Attorney in and for the District of Columbia, or any of his Assistants. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, title VI, § 611; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "municipal court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective on the first day of the first month succeeding the sixtieth day after May 27, 1949, see note under § 47–2801.

§ 47–2811. Redemption of cigarette or alcoholic-beverage tax stamps.

(a) Where any cigarette or alcoholic-beverage tax stamps issued under District of Columbia tax laws have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use, the amount paid for such stamps may be refunded within the limit of appropriations therefor, or allowed as a credit on the purchase of new stamps. No such refund or allowance shall be made unless the owner of such stamps shall file a written claim therefor with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent within the time prescribed in this section and unless the Commissioners or their designated agent upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, and subject to regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, certify that such refund or allowance is just and equitable.

(b) No refund or allowance shall be made in any case (1) until the stamps so spoiled or rendered useless shall have been returned to the Commissioners or their designated agent, or (2) until satisfactory proof has been made to the Commissioners or their designated agent showing the reason why the same cannot be returned, or (3), if so required by the Commissioners or their designated agent, unless the person presenting the same can satisfactorily trace the history of said stamps from their issuance to the filing of his claim as aforesaid: Provided, That no refund shall be made in those cases where the owner may be made whole by allowing him a credit on the purchase of new stamps: And provided further, That no claim for a refund, or allowance for such stamps, shall be allowed unless presented within six months after the stamps have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or, in the case of stamps for which the owner may have no use, within six months from the date of purchase thereof, except that as to stamps which have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use, prior to June 3, 1954, a claim for a refund or allowance for credit may be filed within six months after June 3, 1954. (June 3, 1954, 68 Stat. 169, ch. 252, §§ 1, 2.)

CODIFICATION

Subsecs. (a) and (b) of this section comprise, respectively, sections 1 and 2 of act June 3, 1954.

Section was not enacted as part of the District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act which is classified to this chapter.

47–2903. Increase of penalty provisions in section 47–2901.
47–2904. Recovery of fine—Payment of moiety.
47–2905. Posting of price scale.
47–2906. Failure to post price scale—Penalty.
47–2907. Keepers or proprietors of restaurants, hotels, barber shops, bathing houses, ice-cream saloons, and soda fountains required to serve well-behaved persons.
47–2908. Proprietors or keepers of licensed restaurants, eating-houses, bar-rooms, sample-rooms, ice-cream saloons, or soda fountains required to post price list.
47–2909. Transmittal of price list to Assessor.
47–2910. Proprietors or keepers of licensed restaurants, eating-houses, bar-rooms, sample-rooms, ice-cream saloons, or soda fountains required to serve well-behaved persons at common prices.
47–2911. Failure to post or file price list—Charging other or greater price—Failure to serve any well-behaved person—Penalty—Enforcement.

§ 47–2901. Distinction because of race or color unlawful in licensed places of amusement—Payment of admissions—Penalty.

It shall not be lawful for any person or persons who shall have obtained a license from this Corporation for the purpose of giving a lecture, concert, exhibition, circus performance, theatrical entertainment, or for conducting a place of public amusement of any kind, to make any distinction on account of race or color, as regards the admission of persons to any part of the hall or audience-room where such lecture, concert, exhibition, or other entertainment may be given: Provided, That any person applying shall pay the regular price charged for admission to such part of the house as he or she may wish to occupy, and shall conduct himself or herself in an orderly and peaceable manner, while on the premises; and any person or persons offending herein shall forfeit and pay to this Corporation for each offense a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars to be collected and applied as are other fines. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this section be, and the same are hereby repealed. (June 10, 1869, ch. 36, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 66th Council, §§ 1, 2.)

INCREASE OF PENALTY

Section 3 of act Mar. 7, 1870, classified to section 47–2903, increased the penalty provided in this section to a minimum of $50.

EXTENSION OF AREA OF APPLICABILITY

Order No. 56–874, dated May 3, 1956, issued by Commissioners of the District of Columbia, extended the area of applicability of this section to make it apply in the District of Columbia outside the limits of the city of Washington.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D. C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

A white woman who, with her husband who was a member of Negro race, entered a restaurant and dance hall, when entering the area of restaurant reserved for dancing, was ordered to stop because "mixed dancing" was not permitted, could not maintain an action for humiliation, embarrassment, anguish and anxiety under so-called "anti-discrimination laws" effective in District of Columbia regulating restaurants, etc. Id.

Constitutionality

Fact that this section adopted by corporation of city of Washington prohibiting persons who have obtained license for conducting place of public amusement of any kind from making any distinction on account of race or color was applicable only to that part of the District of Columbia formerly included in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, did not render the section invalid as violation of due process. Central Amusement Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 121 A. 2d 865).

Definition of person

The word "persons", as used in this section prohibiting persons who have obtained license for purpose of giving a lecture, concert, exhibition, circus performance, theatrical performance, or for conducting place of public amusement of any kind, from making any distinction on account of race or color, applies to corporations as well as natural persons. Central Amusement Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 121 A. 2d 865).

Place of public amusement

A bowling alley was a place of "public amusement" within this section prohibiting persons who have obtained license for purpose of giving a lecture, concert, exhibition, circus performance, theatrical performance, or for conducting place of public amusement of any kind from making any distinction on account of race or color. Central Amusement Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 121 A. 2d 865).

§ 47–2902. Licensed hotels, restaurants and like establishments may not refuse admittance and service to orderly persons or exclude them because of race or color—Penalty.

(a) It shall not be lawful for the keeper, proprietor, or proprietors of any licensed hotel, tavern, restaurant, ordinary, sample-room, tippling-house, saloon, or eating-house, to refuse to receive, admit, entertain, and supply any quiet and orderly person or persons, or to exclude any person or persons on account of race or color.

(b) If the keeper, proprietor, or proprietors of any licensed hotel, tavern, restaurant, ordinary, sample-room, tippling-house, saloon, or eating-house, or any agent acting for him or them, shall violate or offend against the provisions of sections 47–2902 to 47–2904, he or they shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars for each violation thereof, to be recovered in an action of debt, in the name of the Mayor, Board of Alderman, and Board of Common Council of the city, on information filed before any police magistrate. (Mar. 7, 1870, ch. 42, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 67th Council, §§ 1, 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

A white woman who, with her husband who was a member of Negro race, entered a restaurant and dance hall, when entering the area of restaurant reserved for dancing, was ordered to stop because "mixed dancing" was not permitted, could not maintain an action for humiliation, embarrassment, anguish and anxiety under so-called "anti-discrimination laws" effective in District of Columbia regulating restaurants, etc. Id.

§ 47–2903. Increase of penalty provisions in section 47–2901.

In lieu of the penalties provided in section 47–2901 for the offense therein mentioned, the penalty mentioned in section 47–2902 (b) is hereby substituted, and hereafter shall be applicable to and enforced, as herein provided, for any violation of section 47–2901. (Mar. 7, 1870, ch. 42, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 67th Council, § 3.)

§ 47–2904. Recovery of fine—Payment of moiety.

After the final conviction of any party for the violation of any of the provisions of sections 47–2901 to 47–2903, and the recovery of the fine, a sum equal in amount to one-half of such fine shall be paid, and warrant drawn in the usual form out of the general fund, to the party who may have been the informer in any such case. That all acts or parts of acts that are inconsistent with the provisions of sections 47–2902 to 47–2904 are hereby repealed. (Mar. 7, 1870, ch. 42, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 67th Council, §§ 4, 5.)

§ 47–2905. Posting of price scale.

Keepers or owners of restaurants, eating-houses, bar-rooms, or ice-cream saloons, or soda-fountains, at which food, refreshments or drinks are sold, or keepers of barber shops and bathing houses, must put in a conspicuous place in their restaurant, eating-houses, ice-cream saloons, or places for the sale of soda water, a scale of the prices for which the different articles they have for sale will be furnished. (Leg. Assem., June 20, 1872, § 1.)

PARTIAL REPEAL

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, in John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373, 214 F. 2d 210) held that the 1873 act of the Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia, classified to sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 repealed the act of 1872, classified to this section and sections 47–2906 and 47–2907, with respect to restaurants.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Authority to legislate

"Rightful subjects of legislation" within District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871 extending with certain exceptions the legislative power of District to all rightful subjects of legislation within District consistent with Federal Constitution and provisions of Organic Act is as broad as police power of state so as to include a law prohibiting discriminations against Negroes by owners and managers of restaurants in District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U. S. 100, 97 L. Ed. 1480).

Repeal

The 1872 and 1873 antidiscrimination laws, sections 47–2905 to 47–2911, governing restaurants in District of Columbia are police regulations" and "acts relating to municipal affairs" within District of Columbia Code of 1901 saving such regulations and acts from repeal. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U. S. 100, 97 L. Ed. 1480).

The 1874 Act abolishing Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia and the 1878 Organic Act precluded repeal of 1872 and 1873 antidiscrimination laws of Legislative Assembly sections 47–2905 to 47–2911, except by Act of Congress. Id.

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 making it unlawful for restaurateurs to discriminate against or refuse to serve any well-behaved and respectable person repeals this section and sections 47–2906, 47–2907, insofar as they apply to restaurants in District of Columbia. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 214 F. 2d 210, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373).

§ 47–2906. Failure to post price scale—Penalty.

Persons violating the provisions of section 47–2905 are to be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and, upon conviction in a court having jurisdiction, are to be fined by the court not less than twenty dollars, and not more than fifty dollars. (Leg. Assem. June 20, 1872, § 2.)

PARTIAL REPEAL

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, in John R. Thompson Co., Inc., v. District of Columbia (1954, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373, 214 F. 2d 210) held that the 1873 act of the Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia, classified to sections 47–2908 to 47–2911, repealed the act of 1872, classified to this section and sections 47–2905, 47–2907 respect to restaurants.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Repeal

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 making it unlawful for restaurateurs to discriminate against or refuse to serve any well-behaved and respectable person repeals this section and sections 47–2905, 47–2907, insofar as they applied to restaurants in District of Columbia. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 214 F. 2d 210, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373).

§ 47–2907. Keepers or proprietors of restaurants, hotels, barber shops, bathing houses, ice-cream saloons, and soda fountains required to serve well-behaved persons.

Any restaurant keeper or proprietor, any hotel keeper or proprietor, proprietors or keepers of ice-cream saloons or places where soda-water is kept for sale, or keepers of barber shops and bathing houses, refusing to sell or wait upon any respectable well-behaved person, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, or any restaurant, hotel, ice-cream saloon or soda fountain, barber shop or bathing-house keepers, or proprietors, who refuse under any pretext to serve any well-behaved, respectable person, in the same room, and at the same prices as other well-behaved and respectable persons are served, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in a court having jurisdiction, shall be fined one hundred dollars, and shall forfeit his or her license as keeper or owner of a restaurant, hotel, ice-cream saloon, or soda fountain, as the case may be, and it shall not be lawful for the Assessor [Register] or any officer of the District of Columbia to issue a license to any person or persons, or to their agent or agents, who shall have forfeited their license under the provisions of sections 47–2905 to 47–2907, until a period of one year shall have elapsed after such forfeiture. (Leg. Assem., June 20, 1872, § 3.)

PARTIAL REPEAL

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, in John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373, 214 F. 2d 210) held that the 1873 act of the Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia, classified to sections 47–2908 to 47–2911, repealed the act of 1872 classified to sections 47–2905 to 47–2907, with respect to restaurants.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

Repeal

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911, making it unlawful for restaurateurs to discriminate against or refuse to serve any well-behaved and respectable person repeals sections 47–2905 to 47–2907, insofar as they applied to restaurants in District of Columbia. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 214 F. 2d 210, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373).

§ 47–2908. Proprietors or keepers of licensed restaurants, eating-houses, bar-rooms, sample-rooms, ice-cream saloons, or soda fountains required to post price list.

The proprietor or proprietors, or keeper or keepers, of every licensed restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, or soda-fountain room, or establishment in the District of Columbia, shall put up, or cause to be kept up, and to be regularly kept up, or cause to be kept up, in two conspicuous places in the chief room or rooms of his, her, or their restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, ice-cream saloon, or soda-fountain room, and in one conspicuous place in each small or private room, if any, used in connection with said restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, and soda-fountain room, for the accommodation of guests, visitors, or customers thereat, printed cards, or papers, on which shall be distinctly printed the common or usual price for which each article or thing kept in any of said places or establishments to be eaten or drank therein is or may be commonly sold, or the price or prices for which the articles or things are or may be commonly or usually furnished to persons calling for, desiring, or receiving the same or any part or parts thereof, and no greater price or prices than those mentioned or contained on said cards or printed papers shall be asked for, demanded, or received from any person or persons for any of the articles or things kept in any manner for sale in any of the places or establishments aforesaid, either by said proprietor or proprietors, keeper or keepers, or by their agents, employes, or any one acting in any manner for them. (3 Leg. Assem., June 26, 1873, ch. 46, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 making it a misdemeanor for restaurant proprietors and proprietors of similar establishments to refuse to serve any well-behaved, respectable person without regard to race or color, was not repealed by any act of Congress. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. (D.C. Mun. App. 1951, 81 A. 2d 249).

Repeal

The District of Columbia Code of 1901 repealing general and permanent acts of Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia used words "general and private acts" as contrasted to statutes which are private, special or temporary. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U. S. 100, 97 L. Ed. 1480).

§ 47–2909. Transmittal of price list to Assessor.

On or before the first day of November in each year the proprietor or proprietors, keeper or keepers, of each licensed restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, and soda-fountain room or establishment in said District, as aforesaid, shall transmit to the Assessor [Register] of said District a printed copy of the usual or common price or prices of articles or things kept for sale by him, her, or them, as aforesaid, which shall be filed by the Assessor [Register] in his office, and unless he is notified of changes therein, the copy transmitted and filed in said office may be used in any case or proceeding under sections 47–2909 to 47–2911 as prima facie evidence of the common or usual prices charged for the articles or things mentioned therein by the proprietor or proprietors, keeper or keepers, of any of the places or establishments aforesaid, and in a failure of any proprietor or proprietors, keeper or keepers, to transmit the copy aforesaid, the Assessor [Register] shall notify such person of such failure, and require such copy to be forthwith transmitted to him. (3 Leg. Assem., June 26, 1873, ch. 46, § 2.)

§ 47–2910. Proprietors or keepers of licensed restaurants, eating-houses, bar-rooms, sample-rooms, ice-cream saloons, or soda fountains required to serve well-behaved persons at common prices.

The proprietor or proprietors, keeper or keepers, of any licensed restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, or soda-fountain room shall sell at and for the usual or common prices charged by him, her, or them, as contained in said printed cards or papers, any article or thing kept for sale by him, her, or them to any well-behaved and respectable person or persons who may desire the same, or any part or parts thereof, and serve the same to such person or persons in the same room or rooms in which any other well-behaved person or persons may be served or allowed to eat or drink in said place or establishment: Provided, That persons of different sexes shall not be accommodated in the same room or rooms unless they accompany each other, or call for any articles or things together, or unless said room or rooms are ordinarily used indiscriminately by persons of both sexes. (3 Leg. Assem., June 26, 1873, ch. 46, § 3.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

A white woman who, with her husband who was a member of Negro race, entered a restaurant and dance hall, when entering the area of restaurant reserved for dancing, was ordered to stop because "mixed dancing" was not permitted, could not maintain an action for humiliation, embarrassment, anguish and anxiety under so-called "anti-discrimination laws" effective in District of Columbia regulating restaurants, etc. Id.

Construction

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 making it a crime for restaurateurs and others to discriminate against person or to refuse to serve him on account of race or color have survived all subsequent changes in Government of District and remain a part of governing body of laws applicable to District. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U.S. 100, 97 L. Ed. 1480).

§ 47–2911. Failure to post or file price list—Charging other or greater price—Failure to serve any well-behaved person—Penalty—Enforcement.

If the proprietor or proprietors, keeper or keepers, of any place or establishment, as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to put up printed cards or papers of prices as provided for in section 47–2908, or shall refuse to send a copy or duplicate to the Assessor [Register,] as provided in section 47–2909 or shall place or cause to be placed on said card or paper, or permit to be placed thereon any price or prices other or greater than that for which any article or thing is, or may be, usually and commonly sold or furnished by him, her, or them, or different from or more than is usually or commonly demanded or received therefor by him, her or them, or by his, her, or their authority or direction, or shall demand or receive in any manner, or under any circumstances, or for any reason or pretence, in person or by any employee or agent, from any person or persons aforesaid, any sum or prices different or greater than is contained on said cards or papers, or than is usually and commonly asked or received for any article or thing kept for sale as aforesaid, or shall refuse or neglect, in person or by his, her, or their employee or agent, directly or indirectly, to accommodate any well-behaved and respectable person as aforesaid in his, her, or their restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, or soda-fountain room, or shall refuse or neglect to sell at the common and usual prices aforesaid in and at his, her, or their restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, or soda-fountain room, to any such person or persons therein at said prices, any article or thing kept therein and in the room or rooms in which such articles or things are ordinarily sold and served or allowed to be eaten or drank, or shall at any time or in any way or manner, or under any circumstances, or for any reason, cause, or pretext, fail, decline, object, or refuse to treat any person or persons aforesaid as any other well-behaved and respectable person or persons are treated at said restaurant, eating-house, bar-room, sample-room, ice-cream saloon, or soda-fountain room, he, she, or they, on conviction of a disregard or violation of any provision, regulation, or requirement of sections 47–2908, 47–2909, 47–2910, and 47–2911 or any part of sections 47–2908, 47–2909, 47–2910, and 47–2911 contained, be fined one hundred dollars, and forfeit his, her, or their license; and it shall not be lawful for any officer of the District to issue a license to any person or persons, or their agent or agents, whose license may be forfeited under the provisions of sections 47–2908, 47–2909, 47–2910, and 47–2911 for one year after such forfeiture: Provided, That the provisions of sections 47–2908, 47–2909, 47–2910, and 47–2911 shall be enforced by information in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, filed on behalf thereof by its proper attorney or attorneys, subject to appeal to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals in the same manner as is now or may be hereafter provided for the enforcement of the District fines and penalties under ordinances and law. (3 Leg. Assem., June 26, 1873, ch. 46, § 4; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CODIFICATION

The "District of Columbia Court of Appeals" was substituted for "Criminal Court of the District of Columbia", the latter being an obsolete term. See revision note under § 11–502, relating to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. The "Criminal Court of the District of Columbia", the term used in this section at the time of its enactment, was then a "special term" of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, now the District Court. The District of Columbia Court of Appeals, established as the "Municipal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia" by act Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 194, ch. 207, § 6, now has jurisdiction of appeals from orders and judgments of the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions (see change of name note below), referred to in this section. See § 11–741.

CHANGE OF NAME

The police court of the District of Columbia and the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia were consolidated by act Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1, into one court to be known as the "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia."

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

A white woman who, with her husband who was a member of Negro race, entered a restaurant and dance hall, when entering the area of a restaurant reserved for dancing, was ordered to stop because "mixed dancing" was not permitted, could not maintain an action for humiliation, embarrassment, anguish and anxiety under so-called "anti-discrimination laws" effective in District of Columbia regulating restaurants, etc. Id.

Construction

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 prescribing in terms of civil rights the duties of restaurateurs to members of public has not been modified, altered or repealed by non-use and administrative practice and by exercise for 75 years of licensing authority over restaurants without regard to equal service requirements. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U.S. 100, 97 L. Ed 1480).

Repeal

Sections 47–2908 to 47–2911 making it a misdemeanor for restaurant proprietors and proprietors of similar establishments to refuse to serve any well-behaved respectable person without regard to race or color, were not repealed by any act of Congress. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. (D.C. Mun. App. 1951, 81 A. 2d 249).

47–3010. Commissioners authority not affected by provisions of this chapter—Delegation of authority.

§ 47–3001. "Closing-out sales" defined.

For the purposes of this chapter, (1) "closing-out sale" shall mean and include any sale in connection with which there is any representation by the person conducting such sale that the sale is being conducted, or is required or compelled to be conducted, for reasons of economic or business distress, inability to continue business at the same location, or the age or health of the owner or owners of the business, and the term "closing-out sale" shall include but not be limited to, all sales advertised, represented, or held forth under the designation of "going out of business," "discontinuance of business," "selling out," "liquidation" "lost our lease," "must vacate," "forced out," "removal," or any other designation of like meaning; and (2) "person" shall mean and include individuals, partnerships, voluntary associations, and corporations. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 449, Pub. L. 86–219, § 1.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 10 of act Sept. 1, 1959, provided that: "This Act [this chapter] shall become effective sixty days after the date of its enactment [Sept. 1, 1959]."

§ 47–3002. Closing-out sales prohibited without a license—Application for license to be in writing—License fee—Bond—Records—Penalty.

(a) No person shall advertise or offer for sale in the District of Columbia a stock of goods, wares, or merchandise under the description of closing-out sale, or a sale of goods, wares, or merchandise damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise, unless he shall have obtained a license to conduct such sale from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. The applicant for such a license shall make an application therefor, in writing and under oath at least 14 days prior to the opening date of sale, showing all the facts relating to the reasons and character of such sale, including the opening and terminating dates of the proposed sale, a complete inventory of the goods, wares, or merchandise actually on hand in the place whereat such sale is to be conducted, and all details necessary to locate exactly and identify fully the goods, wares, or merchandise to be sold.

(b) If the Commissioners shall be satisfied from said application that the proposed sale is of the character which the applicant desires to advertise and conduct, the Commissioners shall issue a license, upon the payment of a fee of $100 therefor, together with a bond, payable to the District of Columbia in the penal sum of $1,000, conditioned upon compliance with this chapter, to the applicant authorizing him to advertise and conduct a sale of the particular kind mentioned in the application. Any merchant who shall have been conducting a business in the same location where the sale is to be held for a period of not less than one year, prior to the date of holding such sale shall be exempted from the payment of the fee and the filing of the bond herein provided.

(c) The Commissioners shall endorse upon such application the date of its filing, and shall preserve the same as a record of office, and shall make an abstract of the facts set forth in such application, and shall indicate whether the license was granted or refused.

(d) Any person making a false statement in the application provided for in this section shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of perjury. (Sept. 1, 1959. 73 Stat. 449. Pub. L. 86–219. § 2.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3003. Purchase of new stocks for use on "closing-out sales" prohibited—Presumptions.

No person in contemplation of a closing-out sale under a license as provided for in section 47–3002 shall order any goods, wares, or merchandise for the purpose of selling and disposing of the same at such sale, and any unusual purchase and additions to the stock of such goods, wares, or merchandise within 60 days prior to the filing of application for a license to conduct such sale shall be presumptive evidence that such purchases and additions to stock were made in contemplation of such sale. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 450, Pub. L. 86–219, § 3.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3004. Addition of new stocks during "closing-out sales" prohibited.

No person carrying on or conducting a closing-out sale or a sale of goods, wares, or merchandise damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise, under a license as provided in section 47–3002 shall, during the continuance of such sale, add any goods, wares, or merchandise to the stock inventoried in his original application for such license, and no goods, wares, or merchandise shall be sold at or during such sale, excepting the goods, wares, or merchandise described and inventoried in such original application. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 450, Pub. L. 86–219, § 4.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3005. Continuation of sale beyond termination date prohibited—Extension of termination date—Continuation of business at new location prohibited.

No person shall conduct a closing-out sale or a sale of goods, wares, or merchandise damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise beyond the termination date specified for such sale, except that an extension may be authorized upon proper showing of need; nor shall any person, upon conclusion of such sale, continue that business which had been represented as closing out or going out of business under the same name, or under a different name, at the same location, or elsewhere in the District of Columbia where the inventory for such sale was filed; nor shall any person, upon conclusion of such sale, continue business contrary to the designation of such sale. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 450, Pub. L. 86–219, § 5.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3006. Penalty for conducting false "closing-out sales" and for violation of this chapter—Corporation counsel to conduct prosecutions.

(a) Any person who shall advertise, hold, conduct, or carry on any sale of goods, wares, or merchandise under the description of closing-out sale or a sale of goods, wares, or merchandise damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise, contrary to the provision of this chapter, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 or imprisonment for ninety days or both.

(b) Prosecutions for violations of this chapter and regulations promulgated under the authority of this chapter shall be conducted in the name of the District of Columbia by the Corporation Counsel or any of his assistants. (Sept. 1. 1959, 73 Stat. 450, Pub. L. 86–219, § 6.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3007. Provisions of chapter not applicable to public officials.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to public or court officers, or to any other person or persons acting under the license, direction, or authority of any court, local or Federal, selling goods, wares, or merchandise in the course of their official duties. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 451, Pub. L. 86–219, § 7.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3008. Jurisdiction of District Court to enjoin violations of the provisions of this chapter.

Upon complaint of any person, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction in equity to restrain and enjoin any act forbidden or declared illegal by any provisions of this chapter. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 451, Pub. L. 86–219, § 8.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3009. Regulations.

The Commissioners are authorized to promulgate regulations to carry out the purposes of this chapter including, without limitation, regulations limiting the period of time a closing-out sale or a sale of goods, wares, or merchandise damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise may be conducted, subject to extension as authorized by section 47–3005: Provided, That no such regulation shall be put in effect until after a public hearing has been held thereon. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 451, Pub. L. 86–219, § 9.)

EFFECTIVE DATE

Section effective 60 days after Sept. 1, 1959, see note under § 47–3001.

§ 47–3010. Commissioners authority not affected by provisions of this chapter—Delegation of authority.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to affect the authority vested in the Commissioners by Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952 (66 Stat. 824.) The performance of any function vested by this chapter in the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or in any office or agency under the jurisdiction and control of said Commissioner may be delegated by said Commissioners in accordance with section 3 of such plan. (Sept. 1, 1959, 73 Stat. 451, Pub. L. 86–219, § 11.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Milk containers, see §§ 10–114, 33–314.

§ 48–202. Using registered container of another.

Whoever shall by himself or his agent fill, use, sell, offer for sale, give, buy, traffic in, or shall have in his possession with intent to fill, use, sell, offer for sale, give, buy, or traffic in any registered milk bottle or bottles, can or cans, crate or crates, or other containers on which appears the name, mark, or device, registered by another person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties in section 48–210. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 2.)

§ 48–203. Wilfully defacing name registered by another.

Whoever shall by himself or his agent willfully deface, erase, alter, obliterate, cover up, or otherwise remove or conceal any registered name, mark, or device registered by another and being on any milk bottle, can, crate, or other container, or shall willfully break, destroy, or otherwise injure any registered milk bottle, can, crate, or other container which has been registered by another shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 48–210. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 3.)

§ 48–204. Refusal to surrender to registrant a registered container prima facie evidence of unlawful use.

In any prosecution under sections 48–201 to 48–211, inclusive, the refusal of any person having possession of any registered milk bottle, can, crate, or other container to surrender possession of the same to the registrant of the name, mark, or device appearing thereon, after notice and demand by said registrant or his agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the unlawful use or traffic in the same contrary to the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211, inclusive. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 4.)

§ 48–205. Proceeding in District of Columbia Court of General Sessions to ascertain violations—Search warrant.

Whenever any person who has registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers in accordance with the provisions of section 48–201 shall by himself or his agent make oath before the clerk of the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that any of his registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers are being filled, used, bought, trafficked in, held, sold, offered for sale, broken, injured, or destroyed within the District of Columbia contrary to the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211, inclusive, by any person without the written consent of the registrant the judge of the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions to whom said complaint under oath is made may forthwith issue a search warrant directed to any police officer or other proper officer to search the premises whereon or wherein said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers are unlawfully held and may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person complained against; and if any one or more of such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, or any parts of the same, shall be found upon the premises by the officer executing the said search warrant, he shall seize and take possession of all such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, or parts thereof, and shall cause the same to be brought before the judge of the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, who shall award the said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, and other containers to the person entitled to the same. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 5; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 48–206. Title to registered mark to be acquired only by written consent of registrant.

No title may be acquired to any mark, name, or device, or any milk bottle, can, crate, or other container registered in accordance with sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive except by the consent in writing of the person who registered the same. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 6.)

§ 48–207. Rights of former registrants preserved.

All persons who prior to July 3, 1926, registered any milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers in accordance with the laws existing at the time of said registration shall be exempted from filing a new description in accordance with the terms of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, and shall be entitled to the rights and benefits accruing under sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive in the same manner as if said registration was made in accordance with sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive: Provided, That a copy of said registration duly certified by the clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia was within thirty days from and after July 3, 1926, filed in the health office of the District of Columbia. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 7; June 25, 1936, 49 Stat. 1921, ch. 804; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32(b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1936, substituted "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia" for "Supreme Court of the District of Columbia."

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

§ 48–208. "Person" defined.

Whenever the word "person" is used in sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, it shall apply equally as well to one or more persons, copartnerships, and corporations. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 8.)

§ 48–209. Type of containers to which law is applicable.

The provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, shall apply to all bottles, cans, crates, and other containers in which milk or cream of any grade, quality, or character is sold or offered for sale and shall include bottles, cans, crates, and other containers in which skimmed milk, buttermilk, double cream, and sour milk are sold. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 9.)

§ 48–210. Prosecutions—Penalties.

The violation of any of the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, shall be a misdemeanor, and prosecutions for violations of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, shall be in the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions. Upon conviction of a violation of the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, the penalty shall be a fine of not more than $50 for the first offense and a fine of not more than $100 for the second and each subsequent offense. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 10; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

CROSS REFERENCE

Criminal penalty for altering or imitating trade marks, see § 22–1402.

§ 48–211. Injunctive relief.

Whenever any person who has registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers as herein provided shall have, upon complaint under oath, prosecuted any other person for violation of the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive in the use, handling, holding, filling, selling, offering for sale, buying, trafficking in, breaking, or destroying of such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers and said other persons shall have been convicted on three occasions at least for the said unlawful use, handling, holding, filling, selling, offering for sale, buying, trafficking in, breaking, or destroying of said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, then the said registrant of said milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers shall be entitled, upon making complaint to a judge of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, to have issued an injunction directed to said violator enjoining him from further illegal use, handling, holding, filling, selling, offering for sale, buying, trafficking in, breaking, or destroying of said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 11; June 25, 1936, 49 Stat. 1921, ch. 804; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (a), (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

CODIFICATION

The phrase "holding an equity court", which followed "United States District Court for the District of Columbia", has been omitted as obsolete, as the District Court no longer has special terms known as "equity court", "circuit court", etc. See revision note under § 11–502.

CHANGE OF NAME

§ 48–304. Prima facie evidence of unlawful use.

The use or possession by any person not engaged in the production or sale of beverage as aforesaid, except the person who shall so have filed and published a description of the same as aforesaid, of any vessel marked or distinguished as aforesaid, the description of which shall have been filed and published as aforesaid, without purchase of the contents thereof from, or the written consent of, the person who shall so have filed and published the said description, shall be prima facie evidence of the unlawful use, possession of, or traffic in, such vessel, and the person so using or in possession of the same, except the person who shall so have filed and published the said description as aforesaid, shall be punished as provided in section 48–303. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 878d, as added Feb. 27, 1907, 34 Stat. 1007, ch. 2086.)

§ 48–305. District of Columbia Court of General Sessions to issue warrant on complaint of violation.

Upon complaint of any person who has complied with section 48–302, or of his agent, to the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, or one of the judges thereof, that any person within the District of Columbia is guilty of the violation of any provision of this chapter, the said court or judge may issue a search warrant to discover and obtain such vessels as aforesaid and their contents, and may also cause to be brought before the said court or judge the person so believed to be guilty, or his agent or employee, in whose possession or upon whose wagon or premises any such vessel or vessels may be found; and any such person, agent, or employee found guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be punished as aforesaid, and the said court or judge shall also order the property taken upon any such search warrant to be delivered to its owner. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 878e, as added Feb. 27, 1907, 34 Stat. 1007, ch. 2086, and amended Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, ch. 207, § 1; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88–60, § 1.)

CHANGE OF NAME

"Municipal Court for the District of Columbia" was substituted for "police court of the District of Columbia" to conform to act Apr. 1, 1942, which consolidated the Police Court and the Municipal Court.

Act July 8, 1963, § 1, substituted "District of Columbia Court of General Sessions" for "Municipal Court for the District of Columbia". Said section 1 superseded act Oct. 23, 1962, 76 Stat. 1171, Pub. L. 87–873, § 1, which contained identical provisions.

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 48–306. Regulations to be made by Recorder of Deeds.

The Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia is authorized to make regulations and prescribe forms for the filing of labels, trade-marks, or other distinctive marks under the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 878f, as added Feb. 27, 1907, 34 Stat. 1007, ch. 2086, and amended June 25, 1936, 49 Stat. 1921, ch. 804; July 5, 1966, 80 Stat. 263, Pub. L. 89–493, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

1966—Section 6 of act July 5, 1966, substituted "Recorder of Deeds of" for "clerk of the United States District Court for".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Amendment of this section by act July 5, 1966, as effective on first day of first month which is at least ninety days after July 5, 1966, see § 21 of such act, set out in note under § 1–504.

APPROPRIATIONS

Appropriations authorized to carry out purposes of act July 5, 1966, which amended this section, see § 20 of such act, set out in note under § 1–504.

§ 48–307. Actions in tort permissible.

Nothing in this chapter shall prevent or restrain any person who is the legal owner of a trade-mark or label from proceeding in an action of tort against any person found guilty of violating this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 878g, as added Feb. 27, 1907, 34 Stat. 1007, ch. 2086.)

CROSS REFERENCE

Chapter 4.—REGISTRATION OF LABOR UNION LABELS

Sec.

48–401. Adoption of label authorized—Registration—Assignment prohibited.
48–402. Use of registered label restricted.
48–403. Penalties.

§ 48–401. Adoption of label authorized—Registration—Assignment prohibited.

A union or association of employees in the District of Columbia may adopt a device in the form of a label, brand, mark, name, or other character for the purpose of designating the products of the labor of the members thereof. A drawing of such device may be filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia and the Recorder shall register same in a book to be provided for such purpose and be entitled to collect $1 for each registration. A certified copy of the drawing may be obtained upon the payment of $1 for each certification. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 50, ch. 47, § 1; July 5, 1966, 80 Stat. 263, Pub. L. 89–493, § 7(b).)

AMENDMENT

1966—Act July 5, 1966 in second sentence, substituted "Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia and the Recorder" for "clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and the clerk"; and, in third sentence, after "drawing", substituted "may be obtained" for "so registered may be obtained from the clerk".

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1966 AMENDMENT

Amendment of this section by act July 5, 1966, as effective on first day of first month which is at least ninety days after July 5, 1966, see § 21 of such act, set out in note under § 1–504.

APPROPRIATIONS

Appropriations authorized to carry out purposes of act July 5, 1966, which amended this section, see § 20 of such act, set out in note under § 1–504.

§ 48–402. Use of registered label restricted.

No person shall in any way use or display the label, brand, mark, name, or other character adopted by any such union or association as provided in section 48–401 without the consent or authority of such union or association; or counterfeit or imitate any such label, brand, mark, name, or other character, or knowingly sell, dispose of, keep, or have in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labor, upon which any such counterfeit or imitation is attached, affixed, printed, stamped, or impressed, or knowingly sell, dispose of, keep, or have in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labor contained in any box, case, can, or package, to which or on which any such counterfeit or imitation is attached, affixed, printed, painted, stamped, or impressed. If copies of such device have been filed, the union or association may maintain an action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to enjoin the manufacture, use, display, or sale of counterfeit or colorable imitations of such device, or of goods bearing the same, or the unauthorized use or display of such device or of goods bearing the same, and the court may restrain such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale, and every unauthorized use or display by others of the genuine devices so registered and filed, if such use or display is not authorized by the owner thereof, and may award to the plaintiff such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale as may be proved, together with the profits derived therefrom. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 50, ch. 47, § 2; June 25, 1936, 49 Stat. 1921, ch. 804; June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1936, substituted "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia" for "Supreme Court of the District of Columbia."

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

§ 48–403. Penalties.

A person violating any of the provisions of section 48–402 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, or by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 51, ch. 47, § 3.)

TITLE 49.—COMPILATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF CODE

Chap.		Sec.
1.	General Provisions	49–101
2.	Rules of Construction	49–201
3.	Laws Remaining in Force	49–301

Chapter 1.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.
49–101 to 49–110. Repealed.
49–111. Disposition of compilation of laws affecting District of Columbia.

§§ 49–101 to 49–109. Repealed. July 30, 1947, 61 Stat. 640, ch. 388, § 2.

Section 49–101, acts May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1007, ch. 910, § 2; Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1541, ch. 586, § 2, authorized the preparation and publication of this Code with supplements thereto, and is now covered by U.S. Code, title 1, § 203.

Section 49–102, acts May 29, 1928, 48 Stat. 1007, ch. 910, § 4; Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1541, ch. 586, § 3 established the laws as set forth by this Code as prima facie the law of the District, and stated forms of citation thereof, and is now covered by U.S. Code, title 1, § 204.

Sections 49–103 to 49–106, Act May 29, 1928, 45 Stat. 1008, ch. 910, §§ 5 to 8, related to establishing copies of the Code and supplements as conclusive evidence of original; providing for distribution of the Code, and for slip and pamphlet copies; additional quotas of the Code for distribution to Congress; and to further quotas to Congress for personal use, and are now covered by U.S. Code, title 1, §§ 209 to 212, respectively.

Section 49–107, acts Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1542, ch. 586, § 4; June 13, 1934, 48 Stat. 948, ch. 483, §§ 1, 2, authorized a House committee to prescribe form and style of code and ancillaries, and is substantially covered by U.S. Code, title 1, § 206.

Sections 49–108, 49–109, act Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1540, ch. 586, §§ 1, 7, provided that the number of copies of Code to be printed may be curtailed, and for dispensing, if desired, of the printing and distribution of supplements; that the functions of the Committee on Revision of Laws may be vested in another agency, and that the printing, binding, and distribution of said publications shall be done under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing. See U.S. Code, title 1, §§ 201, 208.

§ 49–110. Repealed. July 2, 1958, 72 Stat. 293, Pub. L. 85–491, § 3.

Section, acts Feb. 25, 1910, 36 Stat. 208, ch. 62. Mar. 4, 1911, 36 Stat. 1299, ch. 240; Feb. 22, 1921, 41 Stat. 1144, ch. 70, § 7; June 29, 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249, § 1, dealt with the authority of the Commissioners to exchange and sell copies of building, police, plumbing, and municipal regulations. See § 1–244 (i)(1)(2).

§ 49–111. Disposition of compilation of laws affecting District of Columbia.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia, after supplying each of the heads of the several departments and offices of the government and the judiciary of said District with the necessary copies of the bound editions of the laws affecting said District, which are prepared in the office of the secretary of the board at the close of each session of Congress, may sell the surplus volumes at a rate per volume to be fixed by them, approximating but not less than the pro rata cost of compilation, and deposit all money so received to the credit of the appropriation out of which such cost is paid. (Mar. 1, 1901, 31 Stat. 826, ch. 670.)

Chapter 2.—RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

Sec.
49–201. Rules stated.
49–202. Words importing singular number to include plural.
49–203. Masculine gender to include all genders.
49–204. Person to include partnerships and corporations.
49–205. Executor to include administrator.
49–206. Oath to include affirmation.
49–207. Insane person and lunatic.

§ 49–201. Rules stated.

In the interpretation and construction of this Code the following rules shall be observed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Effect of amendment

The amendment of an act without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not amend away or modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (1923, 286 F. 772, 52 App. D. C. 310).

Particular and general provisions

Upon appeal to decide conflict between two sections, "where there is in the same statute, a particular enactment, and also a general one, which in its most comprehensive sense, would include what is embraced in the former, the particular enactment must be operative, and the general enactment must be taken to affect only such cases within its general language as are not within the provisions of the particular enactment." Tri-State Motor Corp. v. Standard Steel Car Co. (1922, 276 F. 631, 51 App. D. C. 109).

§ 49–202. Words importing singular number to include plural.

Words importing the singular number shall be held to include the plural, and vice versa, except where such construction would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49–203. Masculine gender to include all genders.

Words importing the masculine gender shall be held to include all genders, except where such construction would be absurd or unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49–204. Person to include partnerships and corporations.

The word "person" shall be held to apply to partnerships and corporations, unless such construction would be unreasonable, and the reference to any officer shall include any person authorized by law to perform the duties of his office, unless the context shows that such words were intended to be used in a more limited sense. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49–205. Executor to include administrator.

Wherever the word "executor" is used it shall include "administrator," and vice versa, unless such application of the term would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49–206. Oath to include affirmation.

Wherever an oath is required an affirmation in judicial form, if made by a person conscientiously scrupulous about taking an oath, shall be deemed a sufficient compliance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49–207. Insane person and lunatic.

The words "insane person" and "lunatic" shall include every idiot, non compos, lunatic, and insane person. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

Chapter 3.—LAWS REMAINING IN FORCE

Sec.
49–301. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.
49–302. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.
49–303. Vestries.
49–304. Repeal and savings provisions of 1901 Code.

§ 49–301. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.

The common law, all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the principles of equity and admiralty, all general Acts of Congress not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia, and all Acts of Congress by their terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, in force in the District of Columbia on March 3, 1901, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with, or are replaced by, subsequent legislation of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Decisions under prior law

Act of January 15, 1897 (29 Stat. 487) and § 330 of ch. 14 of the Federal Penal Code permitting jury to qualify verdict of guilty in cases of murder and rape are superseded by code. Johnson v. United States (1912, 38 App. D.C. 347, affirmed 32 S. Ct. 748, 225 U. S. 405, 56 L. Ed. 1142).

In general

This section is a general legislative declaration in affirmance of preexisting decisions upon the subject. Moss v. United States (1904, 23 App. D.C. 475).

Act of Maryland Legislative Assembly of 1723, ch. 16, § 10 (Abert's Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 176), relative to Sunday work does not apply in District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Robinson (1908, 30 App. D.C. 283).

Section 1 of D. C. 1901 provided as judicial bases for determination of District of Columbia laws, British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the common law, and principles of equity. Burdick v. Burdick (D.C.D.C. 1940, 33 F. Supp. 921).

Arrest without warrant

In the District, and at common law, an officer may not arrest for misdemeanor without warrant unless it is committed in his presence or within his view. Maghan v Jerome (1937, 88 F. 2d 1001, 67 App. D. C. 9).

British statutes

Section of the District of Columbia Code providing for an award of costs to the prevailing party was not a "statute of the United States" within Rule of Civil Procedure conferring discretion on a trial judge in allowing costs except when an express provision therefor is made in a statute of the United States, and therefore judges of the federal District Court of the District of Columbia have discretion as to whether to allow costs to the prevailing party. Association of Western Railways et al. v. Riss & Company, Inc. (1963, 320 F. 2d 785, 116 U.S. App. D.C. 63).

This section, providing that all consistent common law and British statutes in force in Maryland at time of cession of District shall remain in force, gives to the British laws only that force which they previously had in this tract of territory under the laws of Maryland. Manoukian v. Tomasian (1956, 237 F. 2d 211, 99 U. S. App. D. C. 57, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 588, 352 U.S. 1026, 1 L. Ed. 2d 596).

Under this section giving force to all common law and British statutes which are not inconsistent with or replaced by subsequent legislation of Congress, statute must be given the same force and effect, and no more, than any other British statute on July 4, 1776. Id.

The provision of D. C. 1901, relating to British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, was intended by Congress to mean those British statutes to the benefit of which Maryland inhabitants were entitled under the Maryland Declaration of Rights of 1776, and did not incorporate in the District of Columbia law, as amending the common law or otherwise, British statutes enacted between 1776 and 1801. Burdick v. Burdick (D.C.D.C. 1940, 33 F. Supp. 921).

The common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, remain in force, in District of Columbia, except insofar as they are inconsistent with or are repealed by subsequent legislation of Congress. United States v. Davis (D.C.D.C. 1947, 71 F. Supp. 749 reversed on other grounds 167 F. 2d 228, 83 U.S. App. D.C. 99, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U.S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

Common law

This section stating that the common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, shall remain in force, intends that the system of the common law unwritten and dynamic not in its then-current pronouncements on specific problems, should remain in force. Linkins et al. v. Protestant Episcopal Cathedral Foundation of the District of Columbia et al. (1951, 187 F. 2d 357, 87 U.S. App. D.C. 351, 28 A.L.R. 2d 521).

This section established the common law as the law in District of Columbia but did not purport to freeze that law into its 1901 or 1908 mold so that it could not expand to meet the changes of a dynamic society. Id.

The common law, particularly as derived from the common law of Maryland, is the fundamental part of the law in the District of Columbia to which court will look in absence of statutory enactment Id.

Common-law crimes and jurisdiction to try the same. Palmer v. Lenovitz (1910, 35 App. D.C. 303).

Common law as to surface waters prevails. Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. Thomas (1911, 37 App. D.C. 255).

Common-law method of procuring talesman in capital cases when regular panel is exhausted. Milano v. United States (1913, 40 App. D.C. 379).

"Except as 'repealed by express statutory provision, or modified by inconsistent legislation, or where it has become obsolete or unsuited to our republican form of government, the common law of England in all its branches, both civil and criminal, remains to-day the law of the District of Columbia * * *.'" Lisner v. Hughes (1919, 258 F. 512, 49 App. D. C. 40). See, also, De Forest v. United States (1897, 11 App. D.C. 458).

Common law held to prevail in the District of Columbia as to descent of property. Cunningham v. Rodgers (1921, 267 F. 609, 50 App. D. C. 51).

The common law, insofar as it permits accumulation of income from a testamentary trust which is to terminate with the death of the testator's two nieces, involving the accumulation of a huge sum of money for a period probably in excess of sixty years, is obsolete and repugnant to our conditions, and therefore not applicable to the District of Columbia. Burdick v. Burdick (D.C.D.C. 1940, 33 F. Supp. 921).

The provision in § 1 of the D. C. 1901, that the common law shall remain in force in the District of Columbia, intended the common law of England as it existed in Maryland on Feb. 27, 1801, and so far as it had not become obsolete or unsuited to our conditions, and it was not identical with the common law of England. Burdick v. Burdick (D.C.D.C. 1940, 33 F. Supp. 921). See, also, United States v. Griffith (1925, 2 F. 2d 925, 55 App. D.C. 123).

Under the provision of the District of Columbia Code of 1901, now incorporated in this section, stating that the common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, shall remain in force, and under Maryland's Original Declaration of Rights of 1776 providing that the inhabitants of Maryland were entitled to the common law of England and to the benefit of applicable English statutes existing at the time of their first emigration, the "common law" of the District does not embrace an English case of 1799 or 1805 and an English statute passed in 1800. Gertman v. Burdict (1942, 123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

The common law, both civil and criminal, except as repealed by express statutory provision or modified by inconsistent legislation, remains the law of the District of Columbia. Elmhurst v. Shoreham Hotel (D.C.D.C. 1945, 58 F. Supp. 484, affirmed 153 F. 2d 467, 80 U.S. App. D.C. 372).

All common-law offenses not covered by statute in force in District Court of Columbia are still recognized as crimes in the District and are punishable as such. United States v. Davis (D.C.D.C. 1947, 71 F. Supp. 749 reversed on other grounds 167 F. 2d 228, 83 U.S. App. D.C. 99, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U. S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

The common law offense of negligent escape remains a crime in the District of Columbia by virtue of this section. Id.

Compact between Maryland and Virginia

The compact between Maryland and Virginia as to shores of the Potomac River is not in force in District. United States ex rel. Greathouse v. Hurley (1933, 63 F. 2d 137, 61 App. D. C. 360).

Conspiracy against United States

The Supreme [District] Court of the [United States for the] District of Columbia sitting as a criminal court had jurisdiction to try an indictment for conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States. Pitts v. Peak (1931, 50 F. 2d 485, 60 App. D.C. 195).

Costs, laws relating to Section 815 of Title 28, U. S. C., disallowing costs to plaintiff recovering less than $500 in action brought in District Court of United States where jurisdictional amount exceeds such sum is applicable to District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Silverman v. Central Amusement Co. (D.C.D.C. 1943, 49 F. Supp. 364).

Decisions of Maryland courts

Decisions of Maryland courts, being founded upon general principles, and made since the organization of the District of Columbia, are not binding upon the courts of the District as authorities, though entitled to all the respect due to the opinions of the highest court of the State. Phillips v. Negley (1886, 6 S. Ct. 901, 117 U. S. 665, 29 L. Ed. 1013).

Decisions of Maryland, giving to the statutes of that state a construction at variance with that which prevailed at the time of the cession of the District of Columbia, does not control the decision of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia as to the effect of those statutes on the territory within the District. Morris v. United States (1899, 19 S. Ct. 649, 174 U. S. 196, 43 L. Ed. 946).

Maryland statutes and Maryland decisions of date later than 1801 do not constitute the "law" of the District of Columbia but later decisions of the Court of last resort of Maryland may be looked to for assistance, not merely in interpreting the law which was inherited from that state by the District of Columbia, but also in interpreting later statutes of the district which are the same or closely similar to those of Maryland. Watkins v. Rives (1942, 125 F. 2d 33, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 109).

Espionage Act

Provisions of the Espionage Act apply in the District of Columbia in a case of a violation of a United States statute applicable only to the District. Nuckols v. United States (1938, 99 F. 2d 353, 69 App. D. C. 120).

Full faith and credit

When rights have ripened into a judgment of a court in another state, the full faith and credit clause applies and courts of the District are bound, equally with courts of the states, to observe the command of the full faith and credit clause, wherever applicable. Loughran v. Loughran (1934, 54 S. Ct. 684, 292 U. S. 216, 78 L. Ed. 1219).

Laws of Maryland

Laws of Maryland derive their force, in this district, under 2 Stat. 103, ch. 15, §§ 1, 3, 5. But this section which gives effect to those laws, does not amount to a reenactment of them, so as to sustain them, under the powers of exclusive legislation, given to Congress over this district. This section could only give to those laws that force which they previously had in this tract under the laws of Maryland. Bank of Columbia v. Okely (1819, 17 U. S. 235, 4 Wheat, 235, 4 L. Ed. 559).

By this section it is provided that the laws of the State of Maryland, as they then existed, should be and continue in force in that part of the district which was ceded by that State to the United States. Lee v. Lee (1834, 33 U. S. 44, 8 Pet. 44, 8 L. Ed. 860).

Congress by this section provided that the laws of Maryland shall be and continue in force in that part of the District which was ceded by that State to the United States. Clawans v. Sheetz (1937, 92 F. 2d 517, 67 App. D. C. 366).

The law of wills and probate as existing in Maryland on February 27, 1801, is the law of the District of Columbia except as altered by Congress. In re Lee's Estate (D.C.D.C. 1948, 80 F. Supp. 293).

Laws of Virginia

Under this act the laws of Virginia, as they then existed, were declared to be and continue in force in that part of the District of Columbia which was ceded by that State to the United States, and by them accepted for the permanent seat of government; and all suits, process, etc., depending in the court of hustings for the town of Alexandria, were transferred to the circuit court of the District. Turner v. Fendall (1803, 5 U. S. 117, 1 Cranch. 117, 2 L. Ed. 53).

Right of Virginia to legislate for the District did not cease or determine until 27th of February 1801. Young v. Bank of Alexandria (1807, 8 U.S. 384, 4 Cranch. 384, 2 L. Ed. 655).

Pending suits

In the matter of procedure or practice, pending suits must be governed by the provisions of the code where the procedure does not affect the substantial rights of parties, but where the procedure does affect the substantial rights of parties, the code shall not apply as to the pending suits, but only the old law. Thus, U. S. C., title 28, §§ 512 and 513, relating to District of Columbia, were kept in force by § 1638 of the code of 1901. Costello v. Palmer (1902, App. D.C. 210).

Selection of jurors

The code supersedes prior law relative to selection of grand and petit jurors. Clark v. United States (1902, 19 App. D.C. 295).

Statute of limitations

Statute of limitations, R. S. § 1044, was applicable to contempts in the District of Columbia. Gompers v. United States (1914, 34 S. Ct. 693, 233 U. S. 604, 58 L. Ed 1119).

Trial by jury

Common-law offense of reckless driving is a crime within the constitutional provision for a trial by jury. Colts v. District of Columbia (1918, 38 F. 2d 535, 59 App. D. C. 224).

Writ of certiorari

No statute has been passed enlarging the scope of the common-law writ of certiorari in the District, and when sought between private persons, the writ will be granted or denied, in the sound discretion of the court. United States ex. rel. Eure v. Borden (1936, 80 F. 2d 527, 65 App. D. C. 84).

§ 49–302. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.

All laws and ordinances of the City of Washington, and of the levy court of the District of Columbia, except as modified or repealed by Congress or the legislative assembly of the District since June 1, 1871, or until so modified or repealed, remain in full force. (R. S., D. C., § 91; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 338, § 4; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Legislative assembly

Act of legislative assembly, D. C., August 23, 1871, for prevention of cruelty to animals, was not repealed by section 1636 (§ 49–304) as "that section expressly saves from repeal all acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia relating to 'police regulations.'" Johnson v. District Court (1908, 30 App. D.C. 520).

§ 49–303. Vestries.

All acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 1636, par. 9, as added June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 546, ch. 1329.)

§ 49–304. Repeal and savings provisions of 1901 Code.

Sections 1636 to 1643 of act Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1434, ch. 854, provided that:

"Sec. 1636. All acts and parts of acts of the general assembly of the State of Maryland general and permanent in their nature, all like acts and parts of acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, and all like acts and parts of acts of Congress applying solely to the District of Columbia in force in said District on the day of the passage of this act are hereby repealed, except:

"First. Acts and parts of acts relating to the rights, powers, duties, or obligations of the United States.

"Second. Acts and parts of acts relating to the Court of Claims.

"Third. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization of the District government, or to its obligations, or the powers or duties of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their subordinates or employees, or to police regulations, and generally all acts and parts of acts relating to municipal affairs only, including those regulating the charges of public-service corporations.

"Fourth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the militia.

"Fifth. All penal statutes authorizing punishment by fine only or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

"Sixth. Acts and parts of acts of Congress relating solely to the Departments of the General Government in the District of Columbia, or any of them.

"Seventh. Acts or parts of acts authorizing, defining, and prescribing the organization, powers, duties, fees, and emoluments of the register of wills of the District of Columbia and his office.

"Eighth. An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the District of Columbia, approved June fifteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight; an act for the regulation of the practice of dentistry in the District of Columbia, and for the protection of the people from empiricism in relation thereto, approved June sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; an act regulating the construction of buildings along alleyways in the District of Columbia, approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; an act for the promotion of anatomical science, and to prevent the desecration of graves in the District of Columbia, approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five; an act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of medical and dental colleges in the District of Columbia, approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; an act relating to the testimony of physicians in the courts of the District of Columbia, received by the President May thirteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; an act to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery, to license physicians and surgeons, and to punish persons violating the provisions thereof in the District of Columbia, approved June third, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; and, generally, all acts or parts of acts relating to medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, the commitment of the insane to the Government Hospital for the Insane in the District of Columbia, the abatement of nuisances, and public health.

"Ninth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination.

"All acts and parts of acts included in the foregoing exceptions, or any of them, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this code."

"Sec. 1637. The incorporation into this code of any general and permanent provision taken from an act making appropriations, or from an act containing other provisions of a private or temporary character, shall not repeal nor in any way affect any appropriation or any provision of a private or temporary character contained in any of said acts, but the same shall remain in force."

"Sec. 1638. The repeal by the preceding section of any statute, in whole or in part, shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil cause before such repeal, but all rights and liabilities under the statutes or parts thereof so repealed shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if such repeal had not been made: Provided, That the provisions of this code relating to procedure or practice and not affecting the substantial rights of parties shall apply to pending suits or proceedings civil or criminal."

"Sec. 1639. The enactment of this code is not to affect or repeal any act of Congress which may be passed between the date of this act and the date when this act is to go into effect; and all acts of Congress that may be passed hereafter are to have full effect as if passed after the enactment of this code, and, so far as such acts may vary from or conflict with any provision contained in this code, they are to have effect as subsequent statutes and as repealing any portion of this act inconsistent therewith."

"Sec. 1640. Nothing in the repealing clause of this code contained shall be held to affect the operation or enforcement in the District of Columbia of the common law or of any British statute in force in Maryland on the twenty-seventh day of February, eighteen hundred and one, or of the principles of equity or admiralty, or of any general statute of the United States not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia or by its terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or of any municipal ordinance or regulation, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with, or is replaced by, some provision of this code."

"Sec. 1641. All offenses committed and all penalties or forfeitures incurred in the District prior to the date on which this code is to take effect may be prosecuted and punished in the same manner and with the same effect as if this code had not been enacted."

"Sec. 1642. Where any action or proceeding by the provisions of chapter forty-one of this code would be barred at the time it goes into effect, or within one year thereafter, which would not be so barred by prior laws, such action or proceeding may be brought or instituted within such period of one year, anything in said chapter to the contrary notwithstanding."

"Sec. 1643. That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the term of office of any judicial or other officer holding office when this code goes into effect and operation, except when, as in the case of the present justices of the peace and constables, a contrary intention is manifested."
